Santa and Mrs. Claus are ready to greet the many shoppers during the "Hertel Holidays" on December 7th and 8th.

On Friday December 7th from 5:00pm-9:00pm and December 8th from 11:00am-4:00pm, Hertel Avenue presents North Buffalo's premier holiday event

– Hertel Holidays! The gem of North Buffalo, Hertel Avenue has been revitalized in recent years into an exclusive shopping and dining district. From gourmet restaurants to coffee bistros, there are infinite dining possibilities.

Unique shops and boutiques all along the Avenue also offer selections found nowhere else in all of Western New York. Antiques, home furnishings, books, jewelry, and giftware, are but a few of the offerings found here. And on Saturday, a horse-drawn wagon will visit these fine restaurants and specialty shops from 12:00pm-3:00pm.

Hertel Holidays is the perfect time to find unique gifts, items to deck your halls, refreshments, Santa, and carolers that will put you in the holiday spirit!

Winter Preparedness

With the air cooling and the season of snow storms approaching, New York State Department of Transportation (NYSDOT) Commissioner Joan McDonald today reminded motorists to check 511NY before traveling in winter weather conditions and provided tips for driving safely.

"Winter storms can produce freezing rain, snow or ice, each of which comes with its own hazards for motorists," Commissioner McDonald said. "Motorists should refresh themselves with important safety tips and should remember that 511NY provides an extremely useful tool to help drivers know what to expect when traveling and to determine if conditions are safe for travel."

New Yorkers can access the free 511NY traffic and travel information system, which provides real-time travel information, by calling 511 or visiting www.511NY.org. The website features a winter travel advisory system to help drivers determine if travel is advisable. The system provides real-time snow and ice conditions for interstates and other heavily traveled roads, as reported by snowplow operators.

When using 511NY, drivers must be aware that talking on a cell phone and texting while driving are illegal and that distracted driving is particularly hazardous during snow and ice conditions. Users should consult 511NY before traveling, or have a passenger access the system for information.

Some of the most important tips for safe winter driving include:

Never follow a snowplow too closely or attempt to pass one. Remember that

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

‘The Holiday Guys’ Return’

Sometimes not even Rocket Man can beat the deadline. Here’s a paragraph from a review written last December: “Take every Yuletide show you’ve ever seen, subtract the pretense and the profit motive, and what you’re left with is Jeff Denman and Mark Kudisch’s ‘The Holiday Guys,’ festive and frugal, gay in the old-fashioned way and, vitally, both entertaining and enlightening....”

But you’re reading it for the first time. It never saw the light of print. By the time it was finished the show was gone, closed after a painfully short run at MusicalFare. Here’s more: “There’s a gleeful irony to ‘Rich, Famous and Powerful,’ sung by Denman with rueful belligerence. Neither Denman nor Kudisch would lay claim to any of these adjectives, and yet the show sold out two nights in a twinkling, hours before Christmas Eve, largely on word of mouth...”

See? The Holiday Guys had split in less time than it takes the chimney to upload St. Nick or, to keep the full Judeo-Christian spirit, less than the lifespan of a lopsided dreidel.

Another out-take:

“In an especially inventive segue, Kudisch, having defined the laugh-in-the-dark sadness of ‘The Lonely Jew at Christmas,’ drops a nutcracker into the slumbering Denman’s lap, triggering his tap reflex. Sweet, any way you spell it...”

Well, you can’t keep two good guys down, or a good review, either. “The Holiday Guys” are coming back, Dec. 5-9 at MusicalFare, 4380 Main St., Snyder. Five performances, including two Dec. 8. Tickets on sale now.

It’s changed a little, Denman says, although to Rocket Man, that seems like putting a little mascara on the Mona Lisa or dusting the soot off Santa’s suit.

It’s another homecoming for Denman, Kenmore native and St. Joe’s grad who’s become one of the most thoroughly employed people on Broadway. He and pal Kudisch – who, like Denman, has a warehouse of New York theater honors – dreamed up the show together, sort of a conversational counteroffer to the commercialization of the festive season. He wanted desperately to show it off for the home folks, wedging in the two days last December with the hope of bringing it back.

Now titled fully “The Holiday Guys in Merry Happy Hanu-Mas,” sure to bring seasonal cheer to sign-makers, the show is being modestly billed by MusicalFare as a regional premiere. Sounds like a world premiere to Rocket Man, but then he’s easily pleased, especially around the holidays. And even before it opens, the reviews are in: TEN ROCKETS (out of 10.) ## Northwest Buffalo Beat

by Joe Bortz

"Handicap Parking"

Dear Mr. Bortz,

I was going to dinner last Friday night. I went into parking lot next to Greco on Hertel Ave. All 3 Handicapped spots were taken. None of the cars had Handicapped plates or tags. All the spots on Hertel Ave. were also taken up. This is sad for the Handicapped people trying to find a spot to park. Shame on these people who park in those spots that are not handicapped. Seems no one really cares. I enjoy reading your articles in the Buffalo Rocket. Could you write an article on who should park in Handicapped spots? Thanks, Cathy Lucas

It is with constant irritation I see someone who is not handicapped pull into a parking spot designated for handicapped people. It is usually young punks who think the world is made for just them. They are in fact breaking the law. Punishment is a $250 fine. Problem is with any law, it must be enforced in order for it to be effective. As we all know, the Buffalo Police Department is overwhelmed chasing the bad guys and has very little time to chase after petty violators. Traffic enforcement is almost non-existent and forgets about parking tickets at night.

There is a meter person on Hertel who dispenses tickets to overdue meters and if you are on Hertel you know they are doing their job. I imagine but am not sure, they would also tag non-handicapped people parking in handicapped spots. At least we would hope so. The problem with that is they work day hours and you do not see them at night. Here lies the non-enforcement dilemma. I am sure the people who are low enough to take these handicapped spots are aware of this and have no fear of a ticket.

Not to compare Florida

again but I just returned from three days down there on business. As you can guess there are lots and lots of handicapped spots. Seems some lots are half and half. Needless to say the restrictions are enforced. They have sheriffs that are the law and they do make sure you do what you are supposed to. If you do not have a legitimate tag or license you will probably get a ticket if you stay for any length of time. I love it.

At $250 a crack, you could almost hire a person just for that duty. One a day would almost pay the expenses. Either that or have a non emergency 911 call for handicap violators, good source of revenue and a nice pay back for bad people.

Just one more mention of Florida. I could not help to notice that gas there, which is usually around par with New York, was substantially lower. Like fifty cents a gallon. Fifty cents a gallon!!! That my friend is a lot of money. Means a fill up is $5 to $7.50 a tank cheaper than us. Wanted to pass that on.

It astounds me that we keep voting in the same high tax political incumbents that are in office in this state, knowing this fact. Will we ever learn?

the highway ahead of the plow is usually snow-covered.

Adjust speed for road conditions and maintain a safe distance from other vehicles.

Schedule extra time for winter travel and be patient during ice and snow removal operations. Assume that bridge surfaces are slippery, as they freeze more quickly than road surfaces.

Watch for black ice, which can be difficult to see but makes conditions slippery when pavement temperatures are below freezing.

Have a cell phone handy, if possible, but do not text while driving. Distracted driving is illegal and becomes even more dangerous during storm events.

Never venture from your vehicle if snowbound.

Equip your car with emergency supplies including sand, shovel, flares, booster cables, rope, ice scraper, portable radio, flashlight, blankets and extra warm clothes.

Inform a responsible person of your destination, intended route, and estimated time of arrival.

Keep calm and do not panic in case of a vehicle breakdown, accident, or if you become snowbound.

In addition to following these safety tips, motorists can visit the Department's website, www.dot.ny.gov/programs/driver-safetyforinformative-safety-applications.

Hertel North Buffalo Business Association Member Spotlight Bertha's Diner

Bertha's Diner is located at 1430 Hertel Avenue next door to the North Park Theatre

Although Justin and Joan Brandon bought Bertha's Diner at 1430 Hertel Avenue back in July, they will be celebrating a “Grand Opening” the first week of December.

“We have just been so busy,” said Justin, “it took a while to decide on some changes!”

Justin and Joan bought the Diner from Ken and Liz who were always closed on Tuesday. “There were so many things right about Bertha's when we bought it, we were reluctant to change anything.”

The Grand Opening will let everyone know that Bertha's Diner is open seven days a week with an expanded menu of flavored coffee, wraps, salads, soups and chili.

It has been said that food has been served at this location for over 70 years under different names. Bertha's Diner was believed to be named for a previous owner's Mother-in-Law.

Located right next door to the North Park Theatre, Bertha's Diner is not hard to find.

They are open Monday through Saturday 7:00 am to 3:00 pm and Sunday 8:00 to 1:00 pm.
