

Potholes!

This gigantic pothole on North Park Avenue near Linden Avenue is a prime example of how extensively this winter has damaged area roads.

Now that the weather is starting to break from eight weeks of constant sub freezing temperatures, the dreaded potholes have begun to appear. The city and county crews have been making every effort to address the numerous amount of complaints about the problem. Just about every street has some issues with potholes, some bad and some not as bad. Plowing and keeping the roads open during the many weeks of snow took a large toll on the roads. Also, with the ground frost level being so deep, ice has pushed up large areas of roads causing plows to remove chunks of pavement. Snow removal efforts

Dinosaurs Return to The Buffalo Museum of Science

The Buffalo Museum of Science (BMS) is excited to open its sixth new permanent exhibit gallery since 2012. Rethink Extinct, an interactive studio space dedicated to exploring the history and causes of extinction, will open to the public on Saturday, March 28th at 10 am at the Museum, located at 1020 Humboldt Pkwy in Buffalo.

Dinosaur skeletons from the Museum's former "Dinosaurs & Co." gallery (seen here) will return in the new Rethink Extinct exhibit opening March 28th.

"Extinction is commonly perceived to be just a thing of the past," says Mark Mortenson, president and CEO of the BMS. "This new permanent exhibit will not only educate our guests on the scientific processes and tools paleontologists use to investigate our planet's history, but that significant species extinction is hap-

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

John Buscaglia, Actor

How popular was actor John Buscaglia?

Someone looking for love in all the right places once posted a personal "seeking" ad in Artvoice, hoping to hook up with a date, specifying several preferences, concluding with "...must like plays with John Buscaglia."

"He was the consummate professional and creative genius," said dinner-theater proprietor Jay Desiderio. "The timing, the phrasing the ad-libbing – those are the things you just can't teach."

Rocket Man calculates he'd seen John Buscaglia 50 times before his lights dimmed last Friday, a mere 71. He didn't command the stage in the style of, say, Vincent O'Neill or Saul Elkin, oh, no. Rather, he owned it.

Said Playhouse of American Classics founder and retired Buffalo State professor Terry MacDonald, now living in New England: "Few people made me laugh out loud when they were onstage as John did. He was an incredibly funny man. He never disappointed."

Well, perhaps his family, a little, when by his own account he "lasted about 15 minutes" in a downstate seminary. Decades later, the Diocese would honor him with an Outstanding Teacher Award.

John Buscaglia

Said Darlene Pickering-Hummert, founder of Buffalo's ground-breaking Theatre for Change and a fellow student in the time of Fallon and O'Hern High Schools: "It was my distinct pleasure to know John and work with this comic genius. There will never be another one like him."

She cited the breath-taking comedy "Noises Off" as among her favorite Buscaglia memories, but Rocket Man's First Mate remembers him more seriously in the drama "Tribute" in Williamsville, as a terminally-ill actor racked with regrets. It was a striking stretch for a man who had made his mark mostly for observing wryly, or being wryly overlooked, evoking hysteria either way.

Richard Lambert of the

New Phoenix Theater on Johnson Park calls him "The funniest man I've ever met... loved by all who knew him because of his great quick wit, his delivery similar to Maggie Smith, staying just long enough to get two laughs instead of one..."

"I was finally able to work with him on stage and try to copy, literally, his movements and his deliveries. When I got a chance to introduce him I would always end with, 'Ladies and gentlemen my hero, John Buscaglia.'"

Raiders of Niagara founder-director Randy Rumley recalls sharing banter and bread with him on two-show days of "Witness for the Prosecution" at the Kavinoky. "He was kind to everybody and as funny over dinner as he was on stage."

And Ellen Horst, whose credits include "Law & Order," remembered this: "John was most fun when he would crack himself up onstage. We wouldn't be able to look at each other."

He was Jack Lemmon without the angst, Noel Coward without the privilege, Michael Caine with two more years' schooling. Once you saw John Buscaglia in a role, you never saw that role quite the same way again. Only in death does he seem miscast. Services Saturday at St. Joseph University Catholic Church, 3269 Main St. Curtain rises at 10 a.m.

Resource Training Center Urges Sober Driving

St. Patrick's Day brings to mind shamrocks, leprechauns, pots of gold and good luck. But no amount of luck can save you from a drunk-driving crash.

Unfortunately, March 17th has become a deadly day in the United States with a dramatic spike in drunk-driving fatalities, according to Monica Farrar, program director of The Resource Training Center in Amherst.

"...All in all, during the St. Paddy's Day period from 2009 to 2013, there have been 276 drunk-driving fatalities," said Farrar. "Every one of those lives was lost because of bad decisions. Therefore, I urge everyone to get ahead of the decision this year. If you know you're going to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with alcohol, figure out a plan ahead of time for how you'll get home. Don't wait until you're too buzzed to decide, and don't let your friends drive drunk. Count on a sober friend, taxi or public transportation to drive you home safely."

Before you take your first sip of green beer this year, leave your keys at home or give them to a friend. If you're the designated driver, don't drink! Enjoy non-alcoholic beverages and brag about your VIP (very important partygoer) status online using the hashtag #designated-driver.

"Drunk driving has fatal consequences," added

Farrar. "If you see a drunk driver on the road, contact local police immediately. You could save a life!"

Located in the Harlem Road Community Center at 4255 Harlem Road, Amherst, The Resource Training Center offers a wide variety of services, including the New York State Drinking Driver Program for individuals convicted of an alcohol- or drug-related driving violation, and Alive at 25, a unique program that teaches young drivers to change how they approach driving through role playing, workbook exercises, interactive media segments and more.

The National Parkinson Foundation of Western New York (NPFWN) sponsors monthly support group meetings for people with PD, their family members, and caregivers, on the third Wednesday of each month at St. John's Lutheran Church, 3512 Clinton Street, West Seneca. On Wednesday, March 18th, from 5:30 to 6:30 pm, the support group for people with Young Onset PD will meet and from 6:30 to 8:00 pm all are welcome. For more information call 449-3795.

VA Western New York Healthcare System will host the fourth annual "Hire a Hero" employment and education fair for Veterans and this year, spouses, on Saturday, March 28th from 10 am to 2 pm in Freedom Hall at the Buffalo site, 3495 Bailey Avenue. Hundreds of Veterans attended the fair in the past and this year, we are again seeking employers, including Veteran owned, federal agencies, and privately owned businesses to participate for the opportunity to hire our nation's heroes. Veterans have the proven ability to learn new skills and concepts. In addition, they can enter the workforce with identifiable and transferable skills, proven in real world situations. Colleges are encouraged to participate by offering education opportunities for Veterans.

Veterans will have the opportunity to meet with prospective employers, learn about education opportunities available through local colleges and participate in workshops to improve skills. To reserve a space at the employment and education fair, contact Public Affairs at 862-8753 or 862-8754.

The Erie County Fair is hosting Fair Camp, a two and a half day event giving kids the opportunity to sleep in the barns, show an animal, ride in the parade and work with a concessionaire at the Erie County Fair. Under the supervision of Camp Counselors, kids gain first-hand experience in raising, caring for, and showing livestock.

Fair Camp is open to children ages 8-10 and their same-sex parent/guardian. The Camp hosts two sessions, one each week of the Fair (Friday-Sunday, August 14th-16th and 21st-23rd). Due to a limited amount of space in each session, children are required to apply for an opportunity to attend Fair Camp. Fair Camp is free to attend. Applications are available now and are due no later than May 18th.

Applications may be downloaded at www.ecfair.org. For questions or to have an application mailed to you, contact Laura at 649-3900 ext. 6260.

CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

- Don't hide house keys in obvious places.
- Keep the area around your house well lit.
- Install doors with the hinges on the inside so they can't be tampered with.
- Know your neighbors and call the police if you observe anything suspicious.
- Lock up tools and anything else that could be used to help a burglar break in.

Tired of Buffalo Winters??

Why suffer through another Buffalo winter?

Need a place to go and live in Paradise during the cold and snowy months of the north? Become a snow bird, like me. I just happen to have a house available to buy for my friends who are sick of shoveling snow. It is a three bedroom, two bath home located in the friendly community of the Villages of Country Creek in Estero, Florida. Estero is in southwest Florida, the gulf side and much quieter and less congested than the east coast.

The house is on the market for $209,000 which is on the low side for single family homes in the area. That is based on the fact that the house next door, same model, but with a pool, sold for $265,000 last month. The price is firm until the first of March, at which time some upgrading is scheduled and will be added to the selling price. The home has been recently painted in and out and is clean. The kitchen is original, but needs to be upgraded, although it is still fully functional. It is rented and the lease expires on the first of March.

Over 1,400 square feet of space, with air conditioning and electric heat if needed. Tile floor in the living room, kitchen and dining area. Walk-in shower and closet in master bedroom.

The Villages of Country Creek is a well maintained, semi-gated community with an executive golf course, five tennis courts and five heated pools. We have a bocce league with five bocce courts and an active Wii bowling league. Wii bowling is well accepted and has 54 four member teams. Country Creek also has its own restaurant and bar with a club house for live entertainment and dinner theatre. Plenty to do and one has the option to be active or sit back in the sun and quietly read books.

The airport and beaches are fifteen minutes away. Three large shopping centers all containing the large retailers within five miles. All the major restaurant chains, family restaurants and grocery store chains within five miles. A large recreational park and indoor facility with three basketball courts within walking distance. Wonderful county library within walking distance offering books, movies, and assistance in all areas with free computers and internet access.

Sound like a bit of Paradise? It is and it is affordable with this house. If you are not ready to make the move, It could be rented for the season or annually for enough to cover the mortgage until you are ready.

HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN FORECLOSURE

New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. Mortgage foreclosure is a complex process. Some people may approach you about “saving” your home. You should be extremely careful about any such promises. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid entities and other non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about foreclosure while you are working with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Banking Department at 1-877-BANKNYS (1-877-226-5697) or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us. The State does not guarantee the advice of these agencies.

FRANKLIN

Hi, I'm Franklin! I'm a 2 year old lab/pit mix and have a zest for life! I'm currently living in a foster home until I can find my forever family. I'm living with dog and cat foster siblings, and I do ok with both. I wouldn't mind having a dog sibling in my forever home, but would do best around a dog that's a confident older dog so I can follow their lead. I'm very playful, and I love chasing tennis balls! My foster mom says I'm a total goofball, and I make her laugh all day long. I'm crate trained and house broken. I'm very affectionate and give non-stop kisses. To help me feel more comfortable, my foster mom and I are building my confidence through basic obedience, and I just earned my first obedience certificate. I pick up on commands quickly and love to learn. E-mail my foster mom Jill, at jillre923@gmail.com so we can meet. FRANKLIN IS AVAILABLE THRU HEART RESCUE, HE IS NOT AT THE CITY SHELTER
