The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

Year-End Review: It's Just For You

'Happy New Year, ain't it nifty;
Gas is heading for two-fifty.

Who would have thought this time last year
We'd ever pump our fists and cheer?

At city's scene, most folks applaud
Ice skating where once stood the Aud

Bills, Sabres won't win bowl or cup
But for both, things are looking up

UB lost to East Michigan
Coach now has time to fish again

One family has sports fans merry;
Lift a glass to Kim and Terry

Influx of folks working at health
Would seem to increase subway's wealth

'though tinkering with stations, track
Have this boondoggle sliding back

And on this subject, fracking banned;
Whacking the value of farm land

Storm tests Southtowns to the marrow
Its effects were very narrow

Nationally, Repubs upped ante;
Left behind was Mark Grisanti.

With Cuba, diplomatic kiss'l
Make cigar incoming missile

Few screens will show "The Interview"
'cause studio's scared of Kim Jong Who

Lost flight had all sources buzzin'
None could tell which sea it was in

Putin showed muscle in Ukraine,
Could Cold War now heat up again?

Now another Mideast crisis:
Latest loonies known as Isis

But none top Taliban for cruel:
Slew near 200 in a school.

Ralph Wilson's death left many sad;
He shared so much of what he had

Rooney, Mickey; Williams, Robin –
In life, left our laugh track bobbin'

Joan Rivers took her final walk
Says to St. Peter: "Can we talk?"

Garner, James and Caesar, Sid;
Bacall, who's lookin' at you, kid

Shirley Temple, all lives enhanced;
Casey Kasem, with whom we danced

Attenborough, English loft man;
Too soon, Philip Seymour Hoffman

Should now we test our powers keen
To see what's in store for '15

What's ahead for immigration?
Will it change the face of nation?

We do hope no more papers choose
To close like Tonawanda News

If afflictions aren't too weighty
Rocket Man in June turns 80

The turning digit does not fear
Works now on poem for the next year.

WILLOW

Meet Willow! This distinguished and mature lady is looking for a second chance at a good home. At 9 years old, Willow isn't afraid to share her opinion of the other cats at the shelter - hooligans, the lot of them! This beautiful grey and white cat likes to lounge on a cat tree, have her head scratched, and she's quite a talker! Willow could really use a nice, quiet home. Come meet her at the City of Buffalo Animal Shelter.
