Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

Need a Lyft?

Like grandfather, like grandson. Rocket Man's Pittsburgh namesake is in trouble for augmenting his earnings by chauffeuring strangers through an outfit called Uber. Around here it's known as Lyft, pink-mustached private cars for quick hire.

Since it involves apps, tweets and PayPal, it's out of Rocket Man's orbit, but he does know that folks agree to employ their own vehicles to transport those suddenly in need. Rocket Man III has inherited two generations of passion for getting around. Long before Uber and Lyft, he was hustling a network of friends to airports and such for a reasonable return.

Last month RM III got a little surprise in the mail, a "citation" for providing a public convenience without certification. The Keystone Gestapo conducted a "sting," hiring undercover operatives to take rides and then singling out the undocumented providers.

Rocket Man sympathizes with cabbies who undergo rigorous scrutiny, but still it made him wonder whether he himself might be next.

He's addicted to hitchhikers, especially if they're not hitching. For example, one blustery December Sunday about three years ago he beheld a woman shivering in the Plexiglas lean-to at Hertel and Military, waiting for a bus that might not arrive 'til the next eclipse. He leaned out the window and shouted, "Like a ride?"

"You won't hurt me, will you?" asked the woman, rosy, jolly and frost-bitten, Mrs. Claus in a babushka.

"Hey," said Rocket Man, "you're younger than I am, bigger than I am, and stronger. The question is, are YOU going to hurt ME?"

She got in. It would have taken an hour and another transfer to reach her destination. There, she hesitated, contemplating a bundle-up hug, then chastely bounded from the car and up porch steps, crying "Sophie, Sophie, I'm here..."

One zero-degree night on the parkway from the bus stop on Grand Island he came up behind a gentleman trudging along the shoulder carrying a briefcase. "Like a ride?" he asked. The reluctant pedestrian was startled, as the two didn't look at all alike. Turned out the passenger worked in criminal justice. His car was in the shop. Rocket Man learned a lot before saying farewell at his door, at least two miles down the road. Brrrr.

That night's TV news reported that two other people of different pigmentations got into a dispute in a suburban parking lot and one now lay dead.

Then there was the woman with all the groceries who left her cell phone behind, the social worker whose niece played basketball and, way back, a young Pennsylvanian arrested for car theft three days after a very young Rocket Man had given him a 10-mile ride.

Any lawman will say that Rocket Man's penchant for picking up pedestrians is, at best, unwise. Now the state has told his grandson that it's also illegal. But we wouldn't do it over.

Gates Circle Project Planned

A community forum, “A Conversation on the Future of Gates Circle”, will be held on Monday, June 9th from 6-8 pm inside the Burchfield Penney Art Center, 1300 Elmwood Avenue on the Buffalo State College campus. The event is open to the public.

Attendees at the forum will hear from the development team and have a chance to view and comment on the proposed site plan and project renderings. The program will be led by representatives from TM Montante Development and by Robert Shibley and Bradshaw Hovey of the UB Regional Institute, which was recently hired by TM Montante Development to assist in shaping the development vision and in engaging the community in important discussions regarding the project.

TM Montante Development was selected as the designated developer for the 10-acre site late last year. Initial plans call for a $63 million mixed-use development, including a $28 million campus for Canterbury Woods, the region’s premier retirement living community, and a series of mixed-use facilities, including market-rate and for-sale residential options, retail and a community health and wellness center. The project will also feature a number of green and sustainable design elements, including a meaningful solar component as a source of alternative energy, as well as significant green space. The company plans to start construction next year.

As part of the project, TM Montante will be opening a construction office near Gates Circle in the coming weeks, and will eventually move the company’s headquarters to the Gates Circle site.

For more information call 716-876-8899 or visit www.tmmontante.com.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map—known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

The "Stream Map of Pennsylvania" was completed in 1965 after a thirty-year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee succeeded in creating a map of the highest detail possible—a map that shows every stream and lake. He painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto a 3 by 5 foot map.

The map sold extremely well—until it was lost several years after it first appeared in print. Incredibly, the printer entrusted with the original drawing and printing plates, declared bankruptcy, then carelessly hauled Higbee's 30 years of work to a landfill.

The few remaining dog-eared copies became a prized fisherman's possession. Professor Higbee was offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Experts told Professor Higbee that reprints were impossible, because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue.

Then, in 1991, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map. Holding an updated map, Howard said, "I never thought I'd live to see this day."

Then, by combining Professor Higbee's knowledge with computer technology—the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Leave Shoshone With a Smile

Two more divisions have begun play now, adding to the number of 39 teams by 11 and making an even 50. Don't forget the youngsters playing T-Ball and Rookie that began Opening Day (14 teams) and you're up to 64. If sports writers can do it for the NCAA College Basketball playoffs, there's no reason why this newspaper can't handle the amount of players in HNP.

It was Picture Day for many teams this past Saturday as a camera would capture this 2014 season for just a moment so it can live on for the boys and girls beyond a neighborhood Park. A winning trophy (hopefully) and a team photo always looks nice on a shelf at home in the fall. Not all moments are picture perfect, but a great attempt is made for everyone to leave Shoshone with a smile.

Colin Sullivan hit a strong single to center-field, scoring teammate Marcel Wallace from second base in the bottom of the seventh as the Diamondbacks defeated the Dodgers 7-6 to open the Senior Boys Division. Catcher Alex Harvey threw out three baserunners for the Diamondback defense. Javiar Rodriguez pitched well off the mound.

Kellan Daley pitched four strong innings for the Mets enroute to a 6-5 victory over the Pirates in extra innings. This year, the Mets replace a Braves team and are playing in memory of Daley's grandfather, Jim "Hoops" Daley, who passed away in 2002.

Senior Pony opened their season as well with the Yankees defeating the Pirates 11-4. Katie Abel had three hits, a double and two singles in support of pitcher Mikayla Souter, who struck out seven over three innings. Later, defending division champions, the Athletics defeated the Angels, 18-8. Both Senior Boys and Pony are made up of high school athletes who will be the last ones to leave the Park this summer, playing into early August.

In Major Boys, the Reds are still undefeated with a 9-0 record. The "Big Red Machine" of Shoshone won four more over the Tigers, Twins, Yankees and Dodgers. The Twins gave the Reds a scare in their game May 24th, leading 5-3 after five innings. But with the bases loaded, Joe Persico scored the winning run on a passed ball in a come from behind 6-5 victory. The Yankees keep pace with a 2-0 shut out victory over the Cardinals. Connor McKendry and Santino Turello gave up just one hit over six innings. Paul Humphrey knocked in teammate Sean Tracy for the Cubs in their 5-4 win over the Athletics.

Three new Cardinal players are keeping the Redbirds competitive this year. Noah Rochensuess, D'Andre Huynh and Ron Cauley are up from San Jose this year and the result is a 5-4 record. The three help in victories over the Tigers and Athletics.

In First Minors, Denver and Newark are the front runners, both with five wins. Denver wins their first four in a row, including a 12-7 win over San Jose. Spencer DiLeo had two big hits and teammate Liam Myers came one hit short of a cycle with a single, double and triple. Besides the Cards, the team shut out a strong Louisville team and beat Cooperstown. Newark defeated Louisville in their opening game 4-2 led by Jeremy Kozak, Owen McKendry, PJ Snyder, Quin Langdon and Ethan McClain. After a loss to Cooperstown, the team battles back to win their next four, including a win over Denver. Montreal picked up their first win of the season after three losses, when Dylan Denning knocks in teammate David Timmerman from third base in the bottom of the sixth inning to rally past the Dodgers, 18-17.

Santino Hernandez, Joe LoTempio and Connor McKendry throw two innings each of no-hit ball against Clarence Reds team May 18th in a 12 and under travel game despite a loss. Other players on the squad are Billy Locke, Jason Abel, Tommy Glick, Ezra LaForme, Eddie Pagan, Manny McClain, Sean Tracy, Max Schmarder, and Zack Bradshaw. The Reds reached base on a hit batsman and got a 2-0 victory from errors and a fielder's choice.

In Rookie Ball, Orlando picked up their first win of the season Saturday 4-1 over the Braves. Derrick Neal hit a double, scored two runs and had two RBI's. Ishmeal Burris hit two singles and had to RBI's. Brothers James and Sam Gallivan played well at 2B and shortstop. Will O'Rourke homered for Springfield in a 4-1 win over New Haven. Tom Sheehan and Theo Wide-nor each had three hits to lead Chattanooga over Carthage and Las Vegas beats Dayton, 5-2.

In Second Minors, Carson City has won two in a row after losing two games prior to the holiday. Dominic Gambino and Nate Komenda both homer for the Cubs in a win over Charleston, 8-1. Two weeks ago, they shut out Nashville 1-0. The team is 4-2 and could compete with a strong Lincoln and Dallas team. All the divisions still look to be very exciting as we head into June. Leaving Shoshone with a smile might get tougher for some unless you're able hit the pitch you want from the mound of a Park Diamond.
