Drums Along the Waterfront Tour of Champions

The Blue Devils of Concord, CA (left) and the Santa Clara Vanguard of Santa Clara, CA (right) will be hosted by Buffalo Schools.

The top seven drum corps in the world will begin arriving in the very early hours of Sunday, August 3rd, for the annual Drums Along the Waterfront Tour of Champions event taking place at 7 pm that evening at Robert E. Rich, Sr. All-High Stadium, located at 2885 Main Street in Buffalo.

Two of the corps will be staying at city high schools as they prepare for the big event. The Blue Devils of Concord, CA will make camp at Bennett High School on Main Street, while the Santa Clara Vanguard of Santa Clara, CA will reside at Riverside High School on Ontario Street, both located in the city of Buffalo.

“Upon their arrival in Western New York they live a life of luxury,” joked event coordinator Jack Gaylor Jr.

“Actually, they will be sleeping on gym floors trying to catch a few hours of sleep before getting up to rehearse all day. Corps are known to practice for up to 10 hours a day in preparation for a big show like the one coming to Buffalo.”

Drums Along the Waterfront is a competitive musical sport comprised of percussion, brass and a color guard of elite dancers. Taking part in this year’s event will be the 15-time World Champion Blue Devils of Concord, CA; Santa Clara Vanguard of Santa Clara, CA.; reigning DCI World Champion Carolina Crown of Ft. Mill, SC.; The Cadets of Allentown, PA; The Cavaliers of Rosemont, Ill.; The Bluecoats of Canton, OH; and The Troopers of Casper, WY. Between the competing corps there are an amazing 40 DCI Championship titles.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

Rocket Man's Near-Miss

Rocket Man returns to home base from Niagara Falls at twilight many nights, usually solo. It's about 10 miles, 15 minutes, from pressbox to landing pad. He exits I-190 at the Beaver Island ramp, hugging its right edge in deference to any mainstream traffic, which would be coming downhill from the left at a 140-degree angle.

It is a proactive defense strategy that once earned him a pullover by an eastern Erie County police officer who scolded him for "driving all over the road." Eventually the lawman sent him on his way with the admission, "Obviously, you haven't been drinking."

Tuesday Rocket Man had just made a final visual check of southbound mergers, looked forward again and there loomed a pedestrian, dressed in jet black except for one splotch of red, less than 10 yards in front of him. He'd have been less than a body width from the orbiter had Rocket Man not swerved away, relying on his memory of the unoccupied driving lanes.

Whew. A headline flashed into his imagination: "Elderly driver strikes pedestrian on Parkway."

Grand Island's a friendly little outpost, but not for pedestrians. Recreational walkers have it easier than those who ride shank's mare out of necessity. Paths meander through meadows but few lead to a bus stop, the likeliest destination of that black-clad fright in the night.

Rocket Man thought he'd slept it off until the following morning he read of a similar incident south of Buffalo, a dark-clad walker on a narrow shoulder evidently struck and fatally injured just a couple hours after his heart-stopper.

Only thing is, that driver had not stopped and, as this is being written, still hasn't been identified. The victim was in her 20's, mother of a child in single digits. Horrible. One account had her walking off the disappointment of failing to qualify for a job she had sought.

The same day, Rocket Man read another column about chance, inspired by an incident in which a total stranger had reacted swiftly to protect a shopping-mart toddler from the approach of a delivery truck. That one was still in his head in the afternoon as he watched a mother – he presumes – affixed to her cell phone while two youngsters scampered across the driving lanes at Tops, well wide of the protective crosswalk. To whom could she have been talking who was more important than those kids?

All of us make our own "luck" in a way. Surely had the parkway stroller been wearing something bright, Rocket Man would have spied him much sooner and changed course. And any kids' odds in a lot improve greatly when their supposed protector pays attention. Still, the moment terrifies. And had Rocket Man come even close, he'd have stopped, you can take that to the bank. But not on foot.

HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN FORECLOSURE

New York State requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE

The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with our lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York State Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department's website at www.banking.state.ny.us FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services. Section 1303 NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this summons and complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF MORTGAGE COMPANY AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.
