The Chicken Wing Turns 50!

Celebrate the birth of Buffalo Wings where it all began - in Buffalo, NY at the National Buffalo Wing Festival.

America's desire for the distinct taste of all things "Buffalo" has risen to a fever pitch, resulting in the anticipation of record-setting crowds at this year's 13th Annual National Buffalo Wing Festival. The National Buffalo Wing Festival will take place at Coca Cola Field in Buffalo, Saturday, August 30th- and Sunday, August 31st.

The event historically draws more than 407,000 wing enthusiasts from every state as well as from 36 different countries around the world. A major highlight of the festival is the U.S. Chicken Wing Eating Championship that draws world famous competitive eaters like Joey Chestnut, Sonia Thomas and Badlands Booker.

Frank's® RedHot® will once again be a headline sponsor of the event, as the original Buffalo wing sauce recipe, first created at the Anchor Bar in Buffalo in 1964, featured Frank's Red-Hot.

Visitors to the National Buffalo Wing Festival have the opportunity to sample wings from more than 25 vendors that feature hundreds of flavors. Last year, attendees consumed 2.4 million wings.

Next Phase for Kenmore Avenue

The ongoing collaboration to resurface and improve Kenmore Avenue continues. Crews are ready to begin the mill and overlay work on both sides of Kenmore Avenue between Colvin and Elmwood Avenue, a distance of 1.01 miles. This phase will cost the city about $500,000.

Erie County Legislator Peter Savage stated, "I am proud to stand here today with my partners in City and County government as we continue to work together to create a new Kenmore Avenue that bridges our great Ken-Ton and North Buffalo communities."

"Kenmore Avenue serves as an important intermunicipal connection route and is home to a robust business and neighborhood community," said Congressman Brian Higgins. "This stretch has been in need of repair for some time. Through a joint effort with various levels of government, this infrastructure will be reconstructed to better support the community around it."

Last year, the City of Buffalo and Erie County signed an agreement to resurface and improve Kenmore Avenue. The county owns and maintains the westbound lane of Kenmore Avenue, while the city owns and maintains the eastbound lane. In fall

Canisius Coach Retires

It'll be a different sort of fall without Mike Rappl. The retirement of perhaps the area's winningest coach in any sport sends a chill over the softball community. The omnipresent bench boss at Canisius College seems to have practically invented the game.

In 35 seasons Mike's teams won 831 times (losses 526, ties 2) and went 320-124 against their peers in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, approximately a win and a split of every set of weekend double-headers, home and away.

Beyond that, while waiting for the ground to thaw here, he arranged to visit and challenge opponents with three times Canisius' sunshine and 10 times its budget.

Yet when Mike achieved the 600-win milestone a few years back, he referenced not one single game accomplishment, but instead the fact that to that point, every young woman who had come through his program had graduated. Scholar-athletes, indeed.

One, North Tonawan-da's Katie Miranto, went on to the pressure-packed position of events co-ordinator for the conference. When the MAAC held its softball championships at Canisius, she was spotted clearing wet towels from the pressbox herself. That she got from Mike, never too important to groom his own infield.

"You just knew she was going to be a success," he would recall.

His outfielder Jody Tasone went on to play in the short-lived Ladies Professional Baseball League. Several took up coaching. North Buffalonian and Holy Angels alum Anna Nagro passed up Canisius for St. Bonaventure, but when she became head coach at Mt. St. Mary's in Maryland at an extraordinarily young age, Mike found a place for her on his schedule.

It's remarkable that someone could hang up so many W's with so few hard feelings. Arch rival Al Dirschberger left Niagara University to become Mike's assistant. Eric Minton, premiere umpire, would often say how much he respected Mike's knowledge of the rules, and his civility, even under stress.

There's an amateur team from near Hamilton, ON, which doesn't consider it a complete season until it's faced off with Canisius around Labor Day. And that's still on the card – while Kim Griffin has taken over as "interim" coach, Mike will be around helping create a smooth handoff for one more year.

It wasn't always smooth for Mike. Some years ago, a tyrannical new athletic director actually considered replacing him, Canisius' most consistently effective coach ever. It reminded Rocket Man of some of the shenanigans that would go on in TV newsrooms when a new director arrived, anxious to leave what some called "his stain." Thankfully, the a.d. lasted about two shakes of a Griffin's tail.

Mike never failed to get back to Base Paths on any matter, even weather conditions which put away Canisius-involved games near Baltimore last March. When Mike Rappl started coaching women's softball, it was barely legal. Now it's the law of the land. Everyone who ever slapped a single through the right side owes him, big-time.

Dear Joe Bortz...

Dear Joe,

I read your article about Veterans benefits and Congrats and Thank You....I am also a Vet and a retired Veteran having over 34 plus years combined in the Air Force and Air National Guard. If I read your article right you did not put in 20 years. I do not mean this bad but there are plenty of other stores that do not give 20 year retired Vets a discount as you jam Home Depot again in your article. Valu is just one but you never have mentioned them in your articles. I have never had a problem with Home Depot so I thank them as I thank Lowe's when I use their store. Yes it's sad that a few scumbags would say they were a Veteran when they were not. Maybe a few wrecked it for all. Just asking you to give Home Depot a break. Feel free to reply to me and Thank You and your son again for serving.

Thank you for taking the time to write me a note. I always appreciate knowing someone is reading my column.

Let me start by saying I have nothing against Home Depot. When I was in North Buffalo the HD on Elmwood was my second home. Being a do-it-yourselfer, I was delighted to see them come into the neighborhood. Back then I never even heard of a Lowe's. When I started going to Florida for the winter, a Lowe's store was much closer than HD so I became familiar with the then new kid on the block. When the veterans discount first kicked in, the manager at Lowe's down there got to know me enough to automatically give me the 10%. Same was true with HD in Florida.

It so happens that where I live here now is equal distance between the two home improvement big box retailers. Since the prices are comparable and I have stock in both, I choose to go to the one with the slight edge. Lowe's is more lax with the Vet discount than Home Depot. Not to knock HD and I still shop there but the 10% looms big on larger purchases. Like I mentioned in the article HD just gives the Vet discount on certain holidays, Lowe's is everyday with the proper paperwork.

Valu, is a local chain and not National as far as I know. ACE is also a national chain and do not know their policy. I am just happy that we now honor vets in any way shape or form. Even a simple thank you. Where would we be without them? So thanks for your 34 years of service and our freedom.

Speaking of freedom, I sometimes have issues with the law of the land. In Florida I own a house in a deeded community. Not sure what that means but you have to live by the rules of the Master board, like it or not. I certainly can understand how these rules come about and even though I sometimes do not agree, I abide by them. For instance I just read in our bulletin from there, that you can no longer plant fruit trees as the dropping draw rats. Been there 14 years and have never seen even a sign of a rat. Needless to say I have five fruit trees. Orange, grapefruit, lemon, fig, and avocado. Some have been there as long as I have. Love being able to go out and pick a fresh orange or a grapefruit for breakfast. My understanding is you can no longer plant a fruit tree but the existing can stay as long as they are maintained. In other words pick up the fruit on the ground. Not being there all summer I thought it would be a problem but no, my grass cutter takes care of it.

Another issue I have is the seat belt law. I would prefer to not wear a seat belt even though by law you must. Why is it not a choice? You can receive a ticket for not wearing a seat belt as it is mandatory. Even though not wearing one does not put anyone else in danger. It is not a threat to society or anyone around you, so why is it not a choice. Yes, it is stupid to not wear one I know and I strongly suggest that everyone does.

My question is if it is dangerous to your well being and the concern is so strong for your health, why you would not get a ticket for smoking is the question. That is far more detrimental to you than not wearing a seat belt. In addition, smoking does endanger and affect other people other than ones self.

So let's buckle up, and light up, but do not plant any fruit trees. JB.

Stocker, Polancarz Interviewed by Liz Benjamin at the Erie County Fair!

By John Duke

Unendorsed state senate incumbents was a subject of discussion on Time Warner's Capital Tonight Monday evening with host Liz Benjamin. With state primaries less than a month away and the state senate up for grabs, the Erie County Republican and Democratic parties are refusing to endorse their incumbents. It isn't happening anywhere else. The program, Capital Tonight, is state wide and is watched everywhere from Buffalo to New York City. Capital Tonight with Liz Benjamin can be found locally on channel 9 (TWC 9), live at 8:00 p.m. and replayed at 11:30 p.m. It is by far and away the best political and current events program on television and is must-see T.V.

The interviews began with Liz Benjamin questioning

Polancarz about the Buffalo Bills and the possibility of them leaving for Toronto. The County Executive answered that the Bills have 8 years left on their 10 year contract and that the first immediate fee for a broken contract is $400 million dollars and that's just for starters. Then he was asked if he would be supporting the incumbent senator in Erie County for reelection in the democratic primary. To that Polancarz answered an unequivocal NO. Capital N, Capital O.

Mark Polancarz is endorsing Betty Jean Grant. NYS Senate Candidate and former prosecutor, attorney Kevin Stocker, discussed corruption in state government. Stocker is campaigning to bring honesty back to Albany. According to reports, the now infamous Moreland Commission was about to subpoena anywhere from 15 to 28 state senators when the Governor shut them down. Two were said to be from the Western New York area, a republican from outside of Erie County and a democrat.

Stocker told Benjamin that he's been to 18,000 republican households since May and Benjamin asked if that was a lot of work considering the republicans are expected to be in the minority next year. Only the majority party gets to pass bills (Laws). If the republicans don't keep their majority they can expect to have the staffs slashed in half along with their salaries.

Stocker believes that if real Republicans get their message out they'll retain the majority. And former prosecutor Stocker believes the criminal investigations should continue.

Color Run at Canalside This Weekend

The Color Run, one of the largest event series in the nation, will be in Buffalo on August 16th. The event will be held at Canal Side and will begin at 8:00 am. Registration is open for individual runners and teams.

In 2014, The Color Run is introducing their new Kaleidoscope Tour. Kaleidoscopes demonstrate the beauty of motion and change. Whether it's new runners getting ready for their first 5k, or seasoned athletes remembering what it feels like to just run for fun, the Kaleidoscope Tour will be an unforgettable event that will be filled with 5k magic.

For the third year in a row, The Color Run is growing and propelling itself into becoming one of the largest event series in history. It is the originator and innovator of the paint race genre and is continually innovating to create a unique experience for its runners. In 2014, The Color Run and Major League Baseball joined together to host The Color Run MLB All-Star 5k, presented by Nike. The run had approximately 28,000 participants, the largest ever conducted by Major League Baseball and one of the Color Run's largest events in the world.

Participation in, and buzz for, The Color Run has exploded since its debut in 2012 with more than 3 million "likes" on Facebook and more than 11 million views on YouTube. The Color Run has recently been featured on ESPN, Runner's World, Sports Illustrated and Wall Street Journal, to name a few.

The Color Run visited over 50 cities in 2012 with more than 600,000 participants, a feat following their first event in January of that year. In 2014, The Color Run is propelling itself into becoming one of the largest event series in history by hosting events in more than 50+ countries and over 120 cities in North America and 110 cities internationally.

With no winners or official times, The Color Run celebrates healthiness, happiness, and individuality, bringing the community together to create a five-kilometer canvas of colorful fun in which thousands of participants are doused from head to toe in different colors at each kilometer.

"We call The Color Run the 'happiest 5K on the planet' because our events bring together friends and family in a unique, healthy, and fun environment," said Travis Snyder, founder of The Color Run. "Our only rules are that people wear white and prepare to be covered in color at the finish!"

"Color Runners," vary in demographics and reasons for running. With no winners or official times, The Color Run caters to anyone – first time runners to professional athletes. Close to 50 percent of Color Runners are first-time 5k runners and participate as a celebration and capstone of their healthy living accomplishments.

The Color Run, a for-profit company, loves the opportunity it has to partner with charities to help shine a light on their amazing work within society and highlight the causes they stand for. The Color Run will be partnering with Shoes on Students for this event.

ADOPT A PET

This week's featured friend:

STERLING

Sterling is about 6 years old. This former street cat is pretty chill, with a wonderful sardonic face. A friendly tabby and white male, he likes to be petted and brushed. Sterling also enjoys high places. Although he appears independent, he is fond of other cats and thoroughly enjoyed taking care of the kittens who have shared his condo. Stop by and see this great boy in the window at Elmwood Pet Supplies on Elmwood Avenue just north of West Ferry. Pet ID: 22705439

FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS

Be careful of people who approach you with offers to “save” your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner’s distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail)

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3X). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3X). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.

The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the request will be granted. This prayer must then be published after the favor is granted.
