

Meet Your Merchant Riverside Farmers Market

The Riverside Farmers Market is open every Sunday (except Labor Day weekend) 9 am - 12 pm until September 29th. Pictured above (l-r) Rena Lombardo, Debbie Lombardo and Roni Hyde.

The Riverside Park Farmers Market was started through the office of North District Councilmember Joseph Golombek Jr. His office started this venture several years ago with some success. Councilmember Golombek decided that a way to improve on the market was to enlist the help of the Black Rock Riverside Neighborhood Housing Services and this year, they have taken it a step further.

This year, the Farmers Market had a kid's day, along with several craft days in order to spice up the market's atmosphere.

No one owns the market. It is a joint venture between the Black Rock Riverside Neighborhood Housing Services and the Councilmember Golombek's office. This is an event that Joe has continued because of the demand of the neighborhood.

The Farmers Market has fresh produce and fruits which are all locally grown. Castle Farms, from Brandt, NY specializes in goat cheese and fudge, all of which are made organically at his farm. JJ Jams is one of the new vendors who provide homemade jams and jellies along with Fetch IT who provides organic dog treats.

The Farmers Market also has a few craft vendors as well. The market is trying to bring different items each week to the public. The market is trying to help bring a alternative type market to an area that we feel is underserved. This Market is run by volunteers each Sunday. They feel the market is a catalyst to start to revitalize the potential of Tonawanda Street. Along with stopping to support their vendors, they want people to provide insight as to what they would like to see happen on Tonawanda Street.

With so much happening in the area of Hertel, Delaware, Grant and Amherst Streets, the Farmers Market organizers feel that Riverside will be the next neighborhood with the distinction of up and coming. They believe that this market will be one of the catalysts that make that happen by drawing in people from the surrounding neighborhoods. The agencies feel that together, with everyone working towards the same goal, they can make this happen.

The market will be closed this weekend (labor day) and will re-open next Sunday. Contact Debbie Lombardo of the Black Rock Riverside Neighborhood Housing Services, Tuesday-Friday 8-6pm at 716-877-3910 for more information.

Twice Upon A Time...

Twins Elly and Emy Perez participated in the Twin Festival in Twinsburg, OH.

Whether it maternal or fraternal, identical or Siamese, twins from near and far traveled to Twinsburg, Ohio to participate in the annual Twin Festival that took place over the summer.

North Buffalo was represented by eight year old sisters Elyssandra "Elly" and Emylia "Emy" Perez, who took the Bronze metal in their category of seven and eight year olds. "I actually felt like I fit in" said Emy, who is younger by twelve minutes. "The festival was filled with people just like me." Elly is excited about returning to the festival next summer to perhaps win the Gold metal.

The girls were born and raised in North Buffalo and will be starting the fourth grade at Buffalo United Charter School next week.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

'Enchanted April'

Two desperate housewives of the Boring 20s realize fantasies in "Enchanted April," one of the finest shows Rocket Man has beheld in 51 years at the Shaw Festival. He can think of only two equals.

Dotty Lotty and Frozen Rose "meet cute" over a classified ad offering respite in an Italian villa. With a "mind like a hummingbird," Lotty persuades Rose to jointly fly the coop. They could hardly be less compatible, with husbands to match. Or not. Lotty would "make Pollyanna sick"; Only Rose could justify this note darkly jotted: "I'm happy," she snarled.

Logistics require recruiting lodgers, failed flapper Lady Bramble and the stuffy Mrs. Graves, next to whom Queen Victoria seems like Amy Winehouse. Dotty's husband is of the sort who declares that if she's late, "It reflects poorly on me." Rose's flitty and litty spouse has an identity crisis. Landlord Antony, who puts the dash in dashing, counterpoints inexhaustible housekeeper Costanza.

It's 1922. The World War has just ended, badly for many. Women do not holiday without their husbands, even during the late-winter gloom. While disdained by some as dreary, the first act crackles with wit, fright and conflict, concluding with a silhouetted train ride worthy of Hitchcock.

First prominent as a movie based on Elizabeth von Arnim's period novel (it played forever at the North Park), "Enchanted April" has never seemed so lively and lovely. Director Jackie Maxwell dictates perfect pacing and spacing for a breathtaking ensemble: Moya O'Connell and Tara Rosing as Lotty and Rose, Jeff Meadows and Patrick Galligan as their astonished husbands, vivid Marla McLean as "Commando Caroline" Bramble, Donna Belleville as the delightfully insufferable Mrs.

Graves, Kevin McGarry as the landlord and non-stop Sharry Flett as the pasta-pushing maid.

Whirling into William Schmuck's set, glorious with just a hint of the shopworn, nearly stops the show, but the ovation really belongs to this awesome octet of thespians, pulsating prose in eight-part harmony. It runs through October's bargain matinees shorter lines at the bridge.

Rocket Man would go again in a heartbeat. TEN ROCKETS (out of 10).

FREE "LIFE" – To promote its upcoming "A Life in the Theatre" production, Jewish Community Center, 2640 North Forest Rd., Getzville, will stage a free panel discussion, breakfast included, on Sept. 8, that's a Sunday, from 10 to noon. We'll hear from Jewish and Irish theater producers Saul Elkin and Vincent O'Neill, Brazen-Faced Varlet (not making this up) Kelly Beuth, Paulette Harris of Paul Robeson Theatre and UB's Lois Weis. Rocket Man participated in such a gathering on the topic of Jack Benny last spring. Free, as we noted, but they hate running out of bagels, so call 204-2084 beforehand.

AAA Safety Tips With School Opening Soon

To help protect children and eliminate distractions, AAA urges motorists to follow these safety tips:

Put aside your electronic distractions. Don't use cell phones while driving – handheld or hands-free. Never use text messaging, email functions, video games or the internet with a wireless device, including those built into the vehicle, while driving.

Make adjustments before you start driving. Address vehicle systems like your GPS, seats, mirrors, climate controls and sound systems before hitting the road.

Slow down. Speed limits in school zones are reduced for a reason. A pedestrian struck by a vehicle traveling at 25 mph is nearly two-thirds less likely to be killed compared to a pedestrian struck by a vehicle traveling 35 mph. Come to a complete stop. Research shows that more than one third of drivers roll through stop signs in school zones or neighborhoods.

Watch for bicycles. Children on bikes are often inexperienced, unsteady and unpredictable. Slow down and allow at least three feet of passing distance between your vehicle and the bicycle. If your child rides a bicycle to school, require that they wear a properly-fitted bicycle helmet on every ride.

Pay full attention. As a general rule, if you cannot devote your full attention to driving because of some other activity, it's a distraction. Take care of it before or after your trip, not while behind the wheel.

Win It For “Murph!”

Win It For “Murph!” Before all boys and girls go back to school, let’s head out to the diamonds of Shoshone Park and recapture the “history” of what went on here in North Buffalo this summer. I promise you, you won’t be tested on this information so just sit back and think of the Buffalo Rocket as your personal history book.

The Athletics won the Championship in the Major Pony division, defeating the Cardinals two games to one in the best of three game series played August 15th to 20th. They won game one, 7-4 led by the pitching of Phoebe Elardo, who was dominate on the mound, pitching the complete game. The only runs scored for the Cardinals was a grand slam homerun by Annie Najdzionek, who has been the teams best hitter all season and she surely kept the Cardinals in this series. Two days later, she scored what turned out to be, the winning run in the bottom of the fifth in Game two in a 15-14, come from behind victory to tie up the series at a game apiece.

But that set the stage for game three. The Cards grabbed an early 4-0 lead on a triple by Najdzionek that scored three runs. Then in the fourth, with the Athletics down 5-4, Alicia Draeger, Mya Shottwell and Rachel Valente loaded the bases before Mia Trietley hit a grand slam homerun to but the A’s on top, 8-5 and the eventual 9-6 final. Bella Mottern caught the third and final out to end the game. Emma Higgins made four great defensive plays at second base and Phoebe Elardo had ten strikeouts on the mound.

For the Cardinals, their team motto this year was “Cardinals Care” as was displayed on some t-shirts. They came from nowhere to upset the #1 cede Rockies in the Semi-finals with the belief that teamwork and friendship leads to camaraderie. Besides Najdzionek, Anna Gardner pitched well throughout the series and Ellie Robertson was strong behind the plate.

September isn’t even here yet, but in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League, these last few weeks of August have felt like October for some teams. In Major boys, the Yankees won the Championship over the Athletics in two straight games, 5-3 and 10-3 to win their second title in two years. In the bottom of the sixth with the bases loaded and his team down, 3-2, Joe LoTempio doubled in three Yankee runners, Mark Falzone, Rob Mautucci and Frank Annunziata for the come from behind victory in game one. “It felt good,” said LoTempio afterward. “I knew there was only one out, but I was hopping to get a pitch to swing at and there it was.”

Then it was Yankees phenom pitcher Mario Ruggerio on the mound for game two, tossing six innings and allowing just four hits in the 10-3 final. The team won 18 games this season, losing just once, to the Reds way back on May 25th, their fifth game, 8-5 before a 14 game win streak led to the championship.

The Athletics surprised many teams this season. They finished with a 10-4 regular season record good for third place. In game one of the Semi-finals against #2 cede Reds, pitcher Ted Lee allowed just one hit over six innings in a complete game, 7-5 victory. The team went on to win the series in game three after the Reds battled back to tie it in game two “under the lights” with a 9-6 victory.

The Yankees swept the Dodgers in two straight Semi-final games.

The San Jose Cardinals won the Championship in First Minors Saturday with a 9-4 victory over the Omaha Athletics in game three on a grand slam homerun by David Celano. Celano, called up to play from the younger Sacramento team in Second Minors, came up in the first inning and knocked in teammates Dontae Chimera, Jack O’Rourke and Noah Rockensuess for an early Cardinal lead and hung on to for the victory. “I’m really glad that we won,” said Celano afterward. “It feels good. I can’t wait to play next year.” Cardinal pitchers Joe Tennity, Ron Cauley and D’Andre Huynh each threw two innings and controlled the game from the mound.

The Cardinals won the division with a 12-2 record before their playoff game with Newark. They needed three games to defeat a tough Cooperstown team before they met the #2 cede Athletics.

San Jose won game one, 10-8 last Tuesday on the hitting of O’Rourke. He nearly hit for the cycle, with a homer, triple and single for four RBI’s. Two days later, Omaha came back to tie the series at a game apiece with a 5-3 victory. “It’s been a total team effort,” said team managers all season long. There were no stars on this team. The green and gold A’s finished their regular season at 10-4 and defeated Denver and Montreal before meeting with the Cards.

In the Senior boys division, the memorial tribute to Michael Murphy, the longtime coach and board member for the league who passed away earlier this year, has been hung on the first base dugout of diamond 5. Saturday, his team, the Diamondbacks were preparing to play the Pirates for the right to go to the finals against the Yankees. Pictured (l-r) are some of the team members. Row one: Navi Rodriguez, Noah King and Gabe Glahe. Row two: (l-r) Chase Johnson, Matt McDonald and Austin Barker. Manager Matt Wolf informs this paper it has been a team goal to win it for “Murph.”

Labor Day: How it Came About; What it Means

Labor Day, the first Monday in September, is a creation of the labor movement and is dedicated to the social and economic achievements of American workers. It constitutes a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country. It is appropriate, therefore, that the nation pay tribute on Labor Day to the creator of so much of the nation's strength, freedom, and leadership — the American worker.
