Great Girl Scout Sign-Up Day Scheduled

Western New York (Sept. 9, 2013) – Katie Couric. Hillary Clinton. Mae Jemison. Vera Wang. Girl Scouting helped these influential women – and countless others – build important leadership skills in their youth.

On Sept. 21, Girl Scouts of Western New York (GSWNY) is hosting The Great Girl Scout Sign-Up Day where girls and young women throughout Western New York will have an opportunity to experience a "taste" of Girl Scouts with fun hands-on activities.

In Girl Scouting, girls gain a greater understanding of themselves and the world around them so that they may feel empowered to make a difference in their communities and their world.

For example, one troop of Girl Scouts from Western New York created a solar-powered milk pasteurization system that was picked up by the Peace Corps for Nicaragua, where women were drinking unpasteurized milk and experiencing a high rate of miscarriages and disease.

During the Great Girl Scout Sign-Up Day, girls have the opportunity to sample a variety of Girl Scout activities and register for the 2013-2014 program year. Staff and experienced volunteers will be on hand to answer any questions from girls or prospective volunteers.

Events will take place at more than 30 locations throughout Western New York, and the fun begins at 11 a.m. for most locations! For event details, including event locations and times, visit the GSWNY website, follow them on Twitter or friend them on Facebook.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

The Diamond Deception

Baseball has a whole new drug problem in rookie novelist Mike Gallagher's "Diamond Deception." It appears as if a couple of unscrupulous club owners (is that redundant?) employ their deviously-acquired Arizona Sidewinders (one of several nifty turns of nomenclature) as a means of distributing their addictive poisons to the likes of Philadelphia, St. Louis and New York, blackmailing troubled players as couriers.

It sounds a little preposterous, but no more so than, for example, the 1934 movie "Murder on the Diamond," in which Robert Young served an early internship for his later fame as "Marcus Welby."

Besides his capricious sense of names (the unfairly incarcerated Damion Wilksbere, hotty agent Kristina Leerson and the hero himself, workhorse Pete Dobbins), the fledgling author has a keen sense of plot and it's hard to find a hole in it. In fact, to "Deception's" detriment, it seems sometimes as if he's working it out as he goes, writing notes, rather than prose. Occasionally, the reader of "Diamond Deception" will feel like the man (or woman) who knew too much.

Dobbins was a great mound prospect, his career cut short by a line drive to the head. Plenty of real-life precedent for that: old-time Bison Billy Long, for one, or the Indians' Herb Score for another. He's an amazingly quick-witted man who shifts to a career shuffling papers at the FBI until a case comes up in which the solution might involve his reviving his old skills.

Gallagher (no known relation to anyone affiliated with Gallagher Printing) writes some vivid scenes. The author's worst villains fall from grace quite literally. Gravity hasn't been used to such symbolic effect since the last scene of "Maltese Falcon."

There's a niftily-wrought gambit about two young women in a playful bedroom-prey competition in which the loser takes nothing, and another in which the Goody Two spikes Dobbins talks Agent Leerson out of her raiment in the name of justice. Dobbins' verbal jousts with his acutely pregnant wife are the stuff of successful marriage counseling. She's a beaut. Gallagher claims to have patterned her after his own spouse. Lucky man.

But "Deception's" devil is in the details. Grammatically, it's hardly smarter than a fifth grader — elementary stuff the likes of uses of "your" and "you're," missing and/or excessive quotation marks and one particularly comical bobble about "an idol threat," downright un-American. Rocket Man would also vote for a zippier title, "High & Inside," say.

Gallagher concludes by hinting at further adventures for Agent Dobbins, who now has a child to raise and an innocent man to free. Let's hope next time he makes sure his socks are straight.

Rocket Man can't say he couldn't put it down, but he never had trouble picking it back up.

End of Summer

How fast did this summer go? Seems we were just looking forward to spring and warmer weather and now we are into fall and soon to be cooler temperatures. Kind of a strange summer as it was both hot and wet. There were lots of really hot days but I know I did almost no watering of the garden as there was plenty of rain. It rained mostly at night which is kind of nice as it left the daylight for outdoor activities. Last year I needed to water almost every day. In fact I added another outdoor faucet to be able to make it easy to water the garden. I may have used it once or twice this year. Even with that the garden flourished with all the natural water falling from the sky.

We realized the lack of daytime rain as we had some construction work done this summer. There were very few rain days that forbid construction work outdoors. Ask any concrete construction person how many down days this summer provided. We all know that construction in Buffalo has to be squeezed into the right time of the year. Like the joke goes, there are two seasons in Buffalo, winter and the construction season. Even without the rain dates, it seems state construction jobs are taking longer then they should. So instead of water causing delays it is milk. Perhaps like they say "milking it".

This was a good year to have a backyard pool or know someone who does. There were enough good hot days to really enjoy relaxing and being able to cool off with a quick dip. Up to two years ago, we had an in ground pool in our backyard. Once it was opened in the spring and cleaned, which was a lot of work, it was enjoyable. Again it depended on the summer. We have had plenty of cool summers where the pool was almost never used. Then there were some summer when it was a blessing. Especially on hot nights in a house without air conditioning. Not unusual to slip into a dark cool pool in the middle of the night to stop the sweating. That alone made all the work worth it.

Before the pool we had a cottage where we spent our summers. Not on the beach but within walking distance. It was not much but enough to really take advantage of the nice Buffalo weather during July and August when the kids are out of school. Pack up and leave the last day of school and return on Labor Day. Those were the days my friend I thought they'd never end. Early morning walks on the beach with my Golden Retriever dog. Throw sticks out into the lake and watch him swim to retrieve them, bring them back and wait for the next throw. My arm got tired before he did. Started to throw rocks and they would sink. He would dive underwater to retrieve them and most time the rock was not the same as the one I threw. But he enjoyed it. Good thing was it was so quiet with just the sound of small ripples hitting she shore. If I worked up a sweat throwing the sticks and rocks, I would just slide into Lake Erie and take a quick cool off swim. By the time I returned to the cottage I was worn out and had to take a nap. Happened that was when everyone else was getting up. These are the times it is good to be the father and the provider as no one complained. Well, the kids didn't anyway.

As the children got older and off to college, the cottage was used less and less. So we sold it and the pool put in instead. Not quite the same but it did the trick, somewhat. Here is the kicker. We sold the cottage as interest in it waned over the years. No one was interested. Now, the siblings, remembering the really good times we had there, would like to do something similar. Cottage days in the summer were great days. Back when we sold it, cottages were a dime a dozen and not worth much. Try to buy one now, or even rent one near the water. Forgetaboutit!

One last thing about our summer cottage and the end of summer. It was a common ritual on Labor Day to "bury" summer as it was over and no longer existed. So all the seasonal residents, as I think of that we are called "snow birds" in Florida what would we be called here, "sun birds"? So all the "sun birds" would have a celebration on Labor Day as most were headed home the next day. They would have a mock coffin marked "summer (that year)" and proceed to burn it with the largest bon fire of the season. They would actually import wood for the fire as it had to be the biggest and visible all along our coast an even as far as Canada. Like Fucillo would say, it was huge! It was a fun day, but Labor Day was sad in a way. Summer was over and who does not like summer in Buffalo. No more swimming, fishing, golfing, basking in the sun. It was back to school, back to the city, back to work, and get ready for winter. Ugh! So now I go to Florida and the beaches there. Swimming, fishing, golfing, basking in the sun. Life is good but I do miss my dog.

Stream & Lake Map of New York

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

The "Stream Map of Pennsylvania" was completed in 1965 after a thirty-year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee succeeded in creating a map of the highest detail possible—a map that shows every stream and lake. He painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto a 3 by 5 foot map.

The map sold extremely well—until it was lost several years after it first appeared in print. Incredibly, the printer entrusted with the original drawing and printing plates, declared bankruptcy, then carelessly hauled Higbee's 30 years of work to a landfill.

The few remaining dog-eared copies became a prized fisherman's possession. Professor Higbee was offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Experts told Professor Higbee that reprints were impossible, because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue.

Then, in 1991, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map. Holding an updated map, Howard said, "I never thought I'd live to see this day."

Then, by combining Professor Higbee's knowledge with computer technology—the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

Spreading Free Smiles Across Western New York: Dr. Bob's Dental Care will host Dentistry From The Heart

Dr. Bob and his team of volunteer dentists are out to change lives again by offering free dental care to those in need, as they host the latest event for Dentistry From The Heart. The media is invited to join Dr. Bob and his team of dentists, volunteers and sponsors as they provide patients with a free extraction, filling or cleaning on Saturday, September 28th. Event registration will begin at 7:45 a.m. and patients will be seen from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. that day on a first come first served basis. (No reservations.) Early arrival is urged and to bring blankets, snacks, water, etc., as waiting will start outside to be seen.

The event is taking place at the following Dr Bob's locations:

Amherst, 4927 Main Street, Amherst, 14226

Niagara Falls, 8875 Porter Road, Niagara Falls, 14304

Elmwood, 892 Elmwood Ave, Buffalo, 14216

North Buffalo, 2727 Main Street, Bufalo 14222

and Hamburg, 4741 Camp Road, Hamburg, 14075

This is the 4th annual event for Dr. Bob's Dental Care. In the past Dr. Bob and his team of volunteers opened their doors at several locations and were able to treat over 300 patients, providing thousands of dollars in free dental services. This year they are doing it again with the above five offices.

Dentistry From The Heart (DFTH) is a registered national non-profit organization with a simple mission – making people smile. Founded in 2001 by a dentist, DFTH was created to aid people in need, including the growing population of under-insured Americans. Over 100 million Americans lack dental insurance and over 29 percent of adults have untreated cavities. Now a national organization, hundreds of volunteer dentists have brought Dentistry From The Heart events to communities across America. Without events like DFTH, dental care simply isn't an option for many of the uninsured.

To date, DFTH has helped over 60,000 patients and provided over $6 million in dental care. Dentistry From The Heart does more than repair a smile – it inspires confidence.

For more information, visit: www.drbobsdentalcare.com or the organization's national website at: www.dentistryfromtheheart.org.

CROSSROADS BLUESFEST

to Benefit Homeless Teens

The 1st Annual Crossroads Bluesfest will be held on Saturday, September 14, from 3pm-9pm at the Chicken Coop Grove (VFW Post 8113, 299 Leydecker Road, West Seneca, NY 14224). The event will be emceed by WBFO Blues legend and 97 Rock icon Anita West.

Plenty of food, drink and raffles will be available. Tickets are $20 pre-sale, $25 at the door and include $5 worth of drink and raffle tickets. Donations of personal care items and teen boys' sneakers are appreciated upon admission.

For more information and ticket sales, contact Plymouth Crossroads at 716-393-3903, crossroadsbluesfest@gmail.com or www.plymouthcrossroads.org. All funds raised will go directly toward the daily living needs of the homeless teenage boys from across WNY who live at Plymouth Crossroads.

This is the story of just one homeless teen in WNY, but there are hundreds more. On any given night in Erie County alone, 1,000 people experience homelessness and children are the fastest growing segment of this population. Plymouth Crossroads was opened in January 2011 as a place to call home when no other place is available because of neglect, abuse, addiction, family conflict, or the death of parents.

Plymouth Crossroads is a 501(c)3 non-profit transitional housing residence certified by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development and the New York State Office of Children and Family Services to serve homeless teenage boys aged 16-20 years old.

At no cost to residents, Plymouth Crossroads provides the permanency, stability, direction and nurturing needed for these boys to either return to their families or begin new lives as independent, self-sufficient adults.

For more information about the 1st Annual Crossroads Bluesfest and this press release, please contact Marian Hetherly at 716-308-9649 (cell) or hetherlym@gmail.com.

NOVENAS

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

O Holy St. Jude, apostle and martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. St. Jude pray for us and all who invoke your aid. Amen. J.S.L.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail)

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3X). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3X). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the request will be granted. This prayer must then be published after the favor is granted. J.S.L.
