The Buffalo City Mission, founded in 1917, is a not-for-profit organization that provides preventative, emergency and long-term recovery services to thousands of people who are homeless or impoverished.

The Mission includes: Women and Children's Shelter (Cornerstone Manor); the Men's Community Center; the Mission's Vehicle Donation Program; and their Dick Road Thrift Store Location to better serve our community. For more information, please visit www.buffalocitymission.org or call 854-8181.

With Thanksgiving fast approaching, the Buffalo City Mission is asking the community to look ahead to the needs of homeless families in our region, and consider donating a turkey to the Mission.

With just six weeks to go, the Buffalo City Mission is in great need of turkeys to benefit the area's poor and homeless individuals and families this Holiday Season. Specifically, the turkeys are needed for the Thanksgiving Community Meal at the Buffalo City Mission on November 26th and the Thanksgiving Turkey Express, which delivers meals all day long on Thanksgiving.

In total, the Buffalo City Mission is looking for 3,000 turkeys before November 18th. To make a donation, bring your turkey to: Buffalo City Mission 100 East

Canisius Announces Opening of 'Amazoo: The Rainforest Connection'

The Canisius College Zoo Biology Program announces the opening of its ninth mini-zoo, "Amazoo: The Rainforest Connection." Located in Room 102 of the college's Health Science Building, at the corner of Jefferson and Delavan Avenues, Amazoo is free and open to the public. It runs Monday through Friday, November 11th - November 21st, from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Naturalistic exhibits constructed by Canisius College students display 13 species on loan from The Buffalo Zoo and other sources, including the red-legged tarantula, giant Brazilian cockroach, freshwater stingray, red-tailed boa constrictor, green-cheeked conures, green and black poison dart frog, blue poison dart frog, amazon milk frog, red-footed tortoise, South American river turtle, fulvous duck, prehensile-tailed porcupine and the agouti.

The mini-zoo group project began in September. Students studied the principles of exhibitry and husbandry in class, at The Buffalo Zoo, and at ten out-of-town zoos, which they traveled to throughout the semester. Based on their studies, students then converted a first-floor storage room and adjoining plant-growth room into a simulated rainforest habitat.

Gala To Benefit Friends Of Night People

Friends of Night People's fourth annual Party for the People, a gala for the rest of us, takes on a new theme. This year's event attendees are encouraged to support the 1950s-1990s Decades Themed party by dressing up as their favorite character, band, singer, or just from one of the eras.

This fundraiser "for the people" provides much needed funding to assist in feeding and clothing our neighbors in need. The need is great this year. In 2012, Friends of Night

People served more than 83,000 meals at its three locations throughout the city. Since January of this year, Friends of Night People has served more than 70,000 meals. The need to feed the homeless and working poor increases annually.

The event takes place on Saturday, October 19th from 6-10 p.m. at the Karpelese Manuscript Library Museum, 453 Porter Avenue. The gala will include music from the highlight-

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

‘The Dudzick Retrospective’

The leaves are falling, the days are shortening and it's Dudzick season in the theaters of Western New York.

No less than four productions of plays by the Buffalo-born playwright will hit widely varying showplaces between this weekend and mid-February.

They represent virtually every “period” of the wise-cracking, theological skeptic, who in the 70s wrote the likes of “Make Your Moves with Confidence” for the Showboat at the foot of Hertel Avenue.

“It’s amazing,” said Dudzick from his home in Nyack, about 30 miles north of New York. “I don’t think there’s been this much of me all at once since Cimasi-Dudzick productions had five dinner-theaters going on at once.”

It all begins Friday at the Alden Christian Theater, a fixture in a cozy schoolhouse alongside Route 20 for 24 years, with “King o’ the Moon” for a two-weekend run. “Our founder, Kathleen Sutter, did ‘Over the Tavern’ two years ago and just loves the play,” says “Moon” director Dylan Brozyna.

“Over the Tavern” took Buffalo by storm some 20 years ago, more performances at the late, lamented Studio Arena than any other play. Somewhat biographical, it depicted young Rudy Pazinski’s struggle with the dictates of his faith, against his personal view that we were put on earth “to have fun.”

“Moon” took the same characters further down the road, seemingly a challenge for a self-described “Christian Theater.” Brozyna says that his troupe deals with the occasional “damn” (“the word is in the Bible,” he notes) and that the characters all represent lives well intended, honoring the concept of family.

Then comes Dudzick’s most recent work, “Miracle on South Division Street,” which he will direct with a cast including Ellen Horst for the Kavinoky Theater Nov. 15-Dec. 8. Again, the plot revolves around an old-world East Buffalo family, the Nowaks this time, and what happens when the family patron’s shrine evolves into the supernatural.

This marks “Miracle’s” Buffalo debut, although it’s a nationwide hit, with bookings as widespread as Florida and Wisconsin.

Shortly after Thanksgiving, Desiderio’s Dinner-Theater in Lancaster stages Dudzick’s first widely-produced play, “Greetings!” Rocket Man had the honor of appearing in its local premiere at the Amherst Players some 20 years ago, even before it found its way to the Studio Arena. Again somewhat autobiographical, it has an ad-writer returning to his hometown - Pittsburgh - to introduce his non-Catholic fiancée to an again, skeptical, family.

Two acts, five characters, high drama, comedy and redemption - it’s a natural, and a favorite now of regional theaters all over the country.

Then, in case anybody missed it the first time, “Moon” rises again, Feb. 28-March 9 at the Lancaster Opera House.

Dudzickology - it all started on Hertel Avenue and now it’s the biggest show in town.

Forest Lawn announces plans to plant approximately 300 bare root deciduous trees throughout its historic 269 acres on Friday, November 1 and Saturday, November 2 as part of its Landscape Renewal Plan.

Two hundred fifty of the trees to be planted were funded through a grant from the Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo; the balance have been donated by Re-Tree

WNY, a volunteer program of Keep Western New York Beautiful. Re-Tree WNY is partnering with Forest Lawn in the tree-planting event, which begins at 8:30 a.m. both days in the meadow next to Forest Lawn's chapel.

During the 2006 storm, Forest Lawn sustained more than $1.2 million in damage to its historic landscape: approximately 700 of the cemetery's trees were downed or removed; 90 percent were damaged and in need of professional care. Forest Lawn announced in March 2011 it had commissioned Heritage Landscapes, Preservation Landscape Architects & Planners, to create a comprehensive Landscape Renewal Plan aimed at "returning the forest to Forest Lawn."

As part of the Plan, approximately 4,000 trees will be planted throughout Forest Lawn over a 12-year period, eventually bringing the total number of trees to 6,200. Last October, Forest Lawn and Re-Tree planted 200 trees along the inside perimeter of Forest Lawn, with the assistance of approximately 160 Re-Tree WNY and public volunteers.

The public is invited again this year to assist with the tree-planting project taking place on November 1 & 2. No prior planting experience is necessary; a brief training session will take place on each day. Tools and refreshments will be provided; however, volunteers are welcome to bring their own tools if they prefer. Participants are asked to wear appropriate work clothing and closed-toe shoes or boots. This event will be held rain or shine. Volunteers are invited to participate on one or both days, depending on availability. While registration is not required, it is appreciated. Those wishing to volunteer should call Catherine Meyer at Forest Lawn at 716.885.1606, ext. 242 or email her at cmeyer@forest-lawn.com.

My name is Allegra, and the world is a scary place for me right now. I'm a timid girl, but I'm sure to bond closely to my family and I am so sweet and loving once I know that I'm safe. I would do best in a quiet home with a family that can help me to learn that the world is not so scary. I get along with other dogs well, and walk nicely on a leash.

Buffalo Bisons Announced 2013 Recipient of Community Award

Parent Network of WNY is proud to announce that this year's recipient of the Community Partnership award is the Buffalo Bisons. The Community Partnership Award is presented every year to an agency, school, or person who has assisted individuals with special needs through their activities. The Bisons are an avid supporter of individuals with special needs. Their support of persons with disabilities is not a product of a special effort, rather, they include people with disabilities as members of the community and treat this as "business as usual".

The Community Partnership Award is presented in conjunction with Parent Network's annual Harvest Honors Fundraiser. Funds raised are utilized to educate families of children with disabilities about services and supports in the community.

Free and open to the public, the “Little Harlem Hotel History” presentation is Monday, October 21 at 12 noon in the Ring of Knowledge on the main floor of the Library. Ms. Fraser received a research fellowship this summer from Riverrun to study the Library’s Little Harlem archival files which include both family and business photographs and program books. Located at 496 Michigan Avenue, the nightclub was started in 1934 by businesswoman Ann Montgomery Woodson to showcase aspiring stars. In its later years, the Little Harlem was a meeting ground for politicians and community leaders. It was later destroyed by a fire in the 1990s.

Congressman Brian Higgins (NY-26) is set to host Academy Night 2013 – an opportunity for high school students and their families, as well as school administrators and counselors to find out more about Military Academy institutions, programs and the application process that surrounds them. Local students will have the opportunity to meet representatives from the US Naval Academy at Annapolis, US Military Academy at West Point, US Air Force Academy, US Merchant Marine Academy, and the Army ROTC. Each representative will be able to answer questions and provide students with information relative to their respective school. Academy Night 2013 will take place Monday, October 21 at Cheektowaga Central High School (3600 Union Road, Cheektowaga, NY 14225) from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. Service Academy appointments are made by the President of the United States based on congressional and/or military nominations. Each year Congressman Higgins appoints an Academy Advisory Board, made up of WNY veterans and community leaders, to interview all applicants and make recommendations. The deadline for prospective student applications is November 15. Canisius College Chorale to Perform in St. Louis Church

The Canisius College Chorale, under the direction of Frank Scinta, will inaugurate its 2013 Sacred Spaces concert series with a program on Sunday, October 27th at 7:30 PM in St. Louis Church, Main and Edward Streets in downtown Buffalo. Admission is free. Sacred Spaces stems from an idea the choir proposed nine years ago to feature its music in some of Western New York’s most beautiful and acoustically resonant environments – namely, the sanctuaries of our area’s churches. As a result, the choir has visited nearly forty houses of worship with its repertoire of sacred and secular music spanning five centuries. Now in its sixteenth season, The Canisius College Chorale remains one of Western New York’s most active collegiate music ensembles. For more information, call Canisius College Music Office at 716- 888-2536 or Frank Scinta, Adjunct Professor of Fine Arts at 716-907-0466, or you may email Frank Scinta at scintaf@canisius.edu.
