The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

Left Behind

Rocket Man wasn't there for the hard landing, but he sure felt the shock wave.

"He won't stop crying," the mother said. "I'm done with baseball."

What had happened was, after a very successful spring season the distraught youngster had missed the cut for the 12-and-under summer travel team. However, the roster had three players who lived outside the district, one more than 300 miles away, blatantly contradicting the rules to displace three who deserved to play, including the first baseman with Rocket Man's DNA.

Recent events in Williamsport and Chicago reawakened those memories. After winning the Little League World Series' American championship, unprecedented for an inner-city team, its Chicago-based organization was found to have tinkered with the boundary lines in order to acquire more talented players to which it was not entitled.

"Black Team Stripped of Little League Title," the Buffalo News irresponsibly headlined. Few others were this insensitive. The Niagara Gazette, with much slimmer resources, headlined "Chicago Team," which is all that matters.

Rocket Man cringes at the thought of this becoming the latest racial flashpoint, although Williamsport's history in these matters is hardly pristine. In 1957, an impoverished Mexican team encountered financial, logistical and procedural obstacles at every turn, many of them racial, notably in Alabama. It was a movie in 2009, "The Perfect Game."

Last summer, though, Chicago's champions were universally heralded as evidence that the game has re-found its place in the inner city. For the grim realities, read "Hard Ball: A Season in the Projects" by Daniel Coyle. Skip the movie, though, it totally warps the motivations.

Now the other spike has fallen. One player's mother insisted it had to be racial. Rocket Man doesn't agree, but if he were in her shoes, feels fairly sure he'd be saying the same thing, only louder. What did her son do wrong, she demands. Nothing, absolutely nothing. Like too many kids playing "organized" ball today, he's just the victim of some adult's fantasy. He played the game and his team won and nothing should diminish the pride of that moment.

But for every "ringer" added to the Chicago roster, one deserving kid, who'd worked years for the opportunity, missed out on the trip, the pageantry and the festivities of the greatest little baseball show on earth. Might his lesser skills still been enough for the team to win the title? He'll never know, will he? Chicagoans may cry prejudice or pickiness but it's the lads who were cheated out of the trip by their own officers who were "stripped" of their opportunity from the start. Who speaks for them?

We hope they're still playing. Revitalized by a Niagara Power Youth Camp, the kid with Rocket Man's DNA still is. Wait 'til next year.

Tired of Buffalo Winters??

Why suffer through another Buffalo winter?

Need a place to go and live in Paradise during the cold and snowy months of the north? Become a snow bird, like me. I just happen to have a house available to buy for my friends who are sick of shoveling snow. It is a three bedroom, two bath home located in the friendly community of the Villages of Country Creek in Estero, Florida. Estero is in southwest Florida, the gulf side and much quieter and less congested than the east coast.

The house is on the market for $209,000 which is on the low side for single family homes in the area. That is based on the fact that the house next door, same model, but with a pool, sold for $265,000 last month. The price is firm until the first of March, at which time some upgrading is scheduled and will be added to the selling price. The home has been recently painted in and out and is clean. The kitchen is original, but needs to be upgraded, although it is still fully functional. It is rented and the lease expires on the first of March.

Over 1,400 square feet of space, with air conditioning and electric heat if needed. Tile floor in the living room, kitchen and dining area. Walk-in shower and closet in master bedroom.

The Villages of Country Creek is a well maintained, semi-gated community with an executive golf course, five tennis courts and five heated pools. We have a bocce league with five bocce courts and an active Wii bowling league. Wii bowling is well accepted and has 54 four member teams. Country Creek also has its own restaurant and bar with a club house for live entertainment and dinner theatre. Plenty to do and one has the option to be active or sit back in the sun and quietly read books.

The airport and beaches are fifteen minutes away. Three large shopping centers all containing the large retailers within five miles. All the major restaurant chains, family restaurants and grocery store chains within five miles. A large recreational park and indoor facility with three basketball courts within walking distance. Wonderful county library within walking distance offering books, movies, and assistance in all areas with free computers and internet access.

Sound like a bit of Paradise? It is and it is affordable with this house. If you are not ready to make the move, It could be rented for the season or annually for enough to cover the mortgage until you are ready.

ADOPT A PET
 This week's featured friend:
ANYA

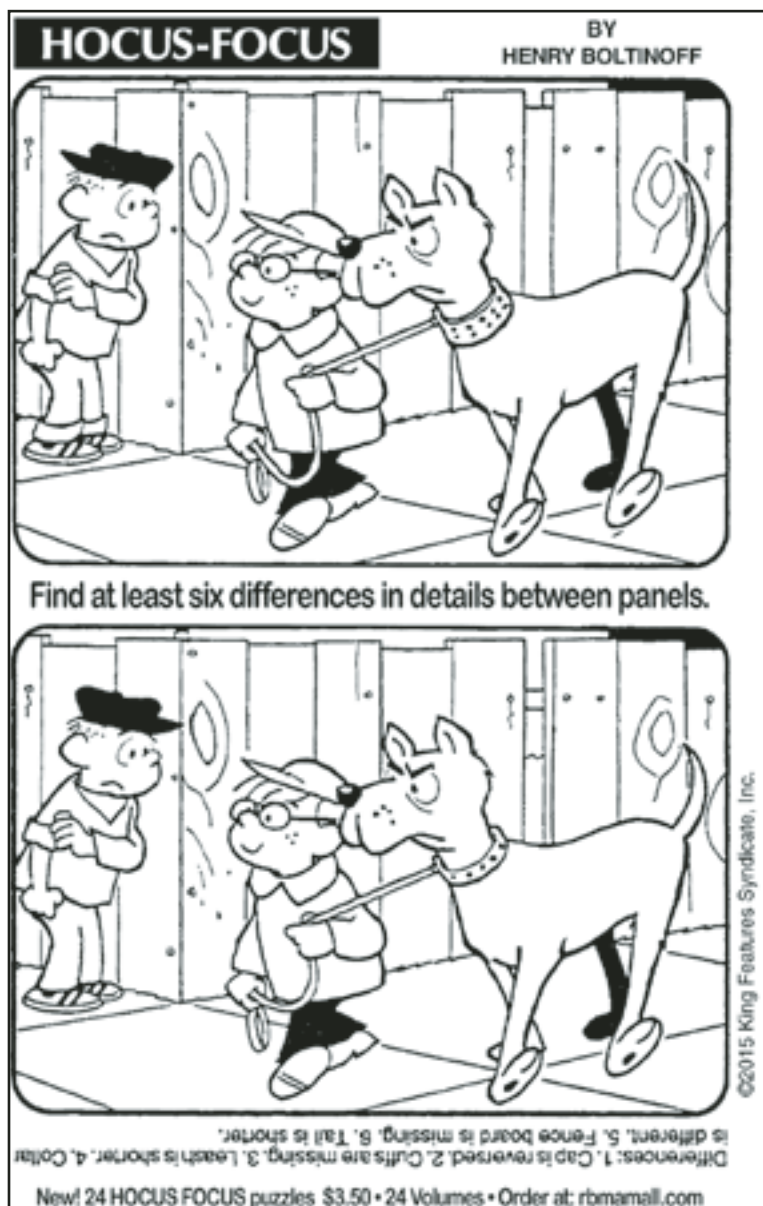

My name is Anya and I am happy, sweet adult lady hoping to find a home of my own. I've been doing great on my walks with my shelter human pals and enjoy hanging out in the yard checking out all my surroundings. I get compliments on my looks so I take that all in and enjoy the attention that comes with it! It's hard being in a shelter environment and I'm working on getting a little more settled and not as guarded. The volunteers have been doing great with me, but I will thrive so much better in a home filled with love. When you adopt me, you will receive a $50 gift card from Elmwood Pet Supply so you can start spoiling me! Please take a look at me when you are at the shelter looking for a new friend. ~ANYA~

Each year the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League kicks off their season with a parade of players marching down Hertel Avenue towards their awaiting diamonds.

This year is no exception and plans for the event are in the works.

The West Side Play Area has leagues that play at LaSalle Park, on the city's West side. The West Side Ponytail Softball League for girls has three divisions: 8-10, 11-13 and 14-18 years of age. The West Side Boys Baseball League also has three divisions: 8-10, 11-13 and 14-16 years of age. Registration for the coming season will be held on March 21st and 28th from 2:00 until 4:00 pm at Our Lady Hope Hall, Lafayette and Grant Street.

The West Side League is also in need of coaches this year. If you would like to share your knowledge of the sport with eager young boys and girls, please contact Tovie Asarese at 885-7692 for more details.
