

Hertel Ave. Comes Alive In A Sea of Green, White and Red For Italian Festival's Anniversary

By Peter LoJacono

Come and celebrate Italian culture as the Sorrento Cheese Italian Heritage Festival of Buffalo marks its 25th year on Hertel Avenue in the heart of North Buffalo's Little Italy, with more than ever before. In honor of this milestone, the festival is offering a trip for two to Italy. Entry is free and participants must sign up at the Ilio DiPaolo Italian Heritage Tent (Hertel and Homer).

We Congratulate this year's "Gran Ceremoniere" Senator Mark J. Grisanti as he will be presiding over various events here at the nation's second largest Italian street festival!

This year's festival will offer double the entertainment than in previous years with Headliners on the Frankie Scinta Stage (Hertel & Tennyson) and also on the Jazz Stage (Hertel and Crestwood) featuring the finest in Italian and American entertainment (See schedules on page 5).

Featured cultural events at the Ilio DiPaolo Italian

Heritage Tent are grape stomping contests, Sicilian Puppet Shows (Sat & Sun), Family Pictorial Displays, Computers available with genealogy experts on hand to help research your roots, be photographed in an authentic Venetian gondola, Tarantella dancers, Crafts for kids, face painting, St. Anthony statue and bilingual Italian Mass (Jazz Stage) at 9:30 on Sunday. Purchase the St. Joseph's Day cookbook and meet authors Mary Ann Giordano and Dr. Paul Giordano. Meet Arianne Marinelli this year's Miss Italian Festival and the Russell Salvatore Scholarship winners. The great Italian accordionist Dan Petti will be performing at the Heritage Tent as will be pianist Joe Carnivale.

Under the Sorrento Cheese cooking tent you can learn from the area's top chefs as they will show you step by step how to prepare amazing Italian delights daily. Sorrento Cheese will also sponsor the annual and very popular Cheese Build-

Taste Of Buffalo Set For July 7th & 8th

Come one, come all and come hungry to the country's largest annual two-day food festival, Taste of Buffalo presented by Tops Markets, marking its 29th year of featuring local food and restaurant favorites.

The event returns Saturday, July 7 from 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. and Sunday, July 8 from 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. along Delaware Avenue and Niagara Square in downtown

Buffalo. This year's Taste features 51 restaurants, four food trucks and seven wineries as well as a culinary stage, musical entertainment and plenty of special offerings from a host of national and local sponsors.

"The Taste has become one of the most anticipated summer events and final preparations are being made by approximately 1,000 volunteers who are ready to bring the best the region has to offer for the 29th year," said Chris Hitchcock, 2012 Taste chairman. "It's only natural for us to frequent the same restaurants and order the same dishes, whereas the Taste gives festivalgoers an opportunity to easily explore new restaurants and sample different dishes they would not ordi-

Italian Festival Parking

Parking restrictions during the Italian Festival will be enforced with restricted parking on the side streets along Hertel Avenue's festival grounds as it will be reserved for resident parking only. Parking restrictions will be strictly enforced. Parking will be available at the K-Mart parking lot on Hertel and Delaware Avenues as well as the Holy Spirit Church parking lot at Delaware Avenue and Dakota Street as well as various other locations.

'The Misalliance'

The gab is the gift of "Misalliance" at the Shaw Festival, even before the plane brings down the house.

Festival inspiration George Bernard dismissed his own play as lightweight in 1909, but that wasn't flying with Thursday's matinee throng, which bestowed bravos on its ironic closing line, "there's nothing more to say."

It addresses improbable couplings – young and old, commoners and nobles, weak and strong. At the center is the vivacious Hypatia, whose father has pulled down a fortune in underwear, and the sniveling "Bunny" Summerhays, who'd be scared of his own shadow, if he had one, having been blessed with "no more body than absolutely necessary."

Some critics diss "Mis" as talky, but modern society would be a lot better off if disagreements hewed to the rhetorical style of the first act, points made vigorously, rebutted with animation but no interruption, an epigram a minute: "Never marry a man you love, he'll make you a slave for life"... "The priest was afraid of believing in anything, lest it get him in trouble"... "Democracy reads well but it doesn't play well, like some plays."

Then comes the plane crash, shaking the set to its foundations (after a sculpture is bludgeoned, a mercy killing, for sure), and in steps the Polish aviatrix Lina, Doris Day on steroids in an ivory jumpsuit. No blushing humility cloaks this daredevil, broad and audacious, actress Tara Rosling bearing her to new heights without benefit of ailerons.

Director Eda Holmes sets "Misalliance" in 1962, halfway between debut and today, which casts a cloud over many of its moments, particularly the plane crash. However, all nine actors have this thing down cold, both in tone and understanding, even though Thom Marriott does put a bit of a Donald Trump spin on the sultan of skivvies.

Hat-tips, too, to Ben Sanders, wearing cowardice like a badge of honor as Bunny, Krista Colosimo as the rapacious, classically-clad Hypatia and Peter Krantz as the affectionately aging aristocrat.

Not every word breaks the sound barrier. Rosling's Lina? Well, that's OK, her body English speaks volumes. As plain-spoken Mother Tarleton, Catherine McGregor was a bit more problematical, too soft, too swift, too accented. Rocket Man missed a lot of it.

Judith Bowden's set design is marvelous, an architectural symphony of rounded edges. They didn't have that in 1909 and that alone provides some justification for Director Holmes time-period choice. Shaw-goers should not miss "Misalliance," in the Royal George Theatre through Oct. 28.

ing contest and children's Cannoli Building contests.

The ancient Roman sport of Bocce is celebrated by the annual Lorigo Bocce Tournament and is definitely not to be missed as many of our local dignitaries will be among the participants all vying for the coveted Championship Title.

Two of the Festival's most popular events are back bigger and better than ever. The Juliana Palma Italian Idol singing competition will take place on Sunday at the Scinta stage at 3 p.m. Dancing Under the Stars, a competition in which local celebrities compete for the dancing trophy, will take place on the Frankie Scinta Stage on Friday at 5:30 p.m.

There will be many new food vendors along with the traditional vendors that you have loved for years, so bring your appetite!

As we want your Italian Festival experience to be a most enjoyable one, please be advised that Festival parking is available at the K-Mart parking lot on Hertel and Delaware, Holy Spirit Church parking lot at Dakota and Delaware and various other locations. Please be aware that Festival parking is prohibited on the side streets along Hertel Avenue's festival grounds as it is reserved for residents only. Parking restrictions will be strictly enforced!

Come hungry for Italian culture and food and you surely will not be disappointed. There is something for everyone at the festival. Be a part of this Buffalo summer tradition and it will keep you coming back for more!

The American Repertory Theater of WNY is proud to present the Young Playwrights Festival at the Buffalo Canalside's Historical Ruins on July 16th-17th & July 23rd-24th, 2-5 pm. The festival features works from playwrights under the age of 25 as their works are fully produced. Both Buffalo-born Stefan M Brundage and Connor Grahams will represent WNY talent as Alabama writer Emily Cutler and Pennsylvania-born Matthew Henderson round-out the finalists for the festival.

The four days dedicated to developing young playwrights is a great way to spend time on Buffalo's Canalside with a comfortable chair and one's favorite beverage. PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail)
Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3X). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3X). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.
The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the request will be granted. This prayer must then be published after the favor is granted.
