

15th Annual Tour Of Homes Set For Sunday, May 19th

Attendees of the Parkside Tour of Homes consult their tour books while visiting 156 Jewett Parkway.

The Parkside Community Association presents the 15th Annual Tour of Homes on Sunday, May 19th from 11:00 am – 4:30 pm. This popular tour will have eight outstanding homes for you to explore. Visitors are promised an intriguing look inside residences in Buffalo's Historic District of Parkside. Some of the homes reflect their 19th century origin in architectural style with their interiors and furnishings. Others offer an exciting contemporary approach to city living. Onsite docents will provide history of the homes and will be available for questions.

Come see for yourself why Parksiders and out-of-towners alike say this event "is the best tour". The tour begins at the corner of Jewett Parkway and Summit Avenue in Buffalo, outside of the Darwin Martin House Visitors Center. Information, tickets, and maps will be available at the start of the tour.

Tickets are $15 in advance, $20 the day of the tour, and $13 for PCA members. This year, VIP tickets for $50 can be purchased in advance. This package includes a bus ride through the Parkside neighborhood to each home, historical guided tour, refreshments, and front of the line pass. No waiting in line! VIP bus tours are running at 11 am and 1:30 pm. There are a limited number of VIP tickets and they must be purchased in advance, so get yours now! Advance tickets can be obtained by visiting the PCA office, 2318 Main Street in Buffalo, by calling the office at 838-1240 during regular business hours, or online at www.parksidebuffalo.org. Proceeds benefit the continuing work of the Parkside Community Association. No children under the age of twelve please. Event is held rain or shine.

The Parkside Community Association is Buffalo's oldest, largest and most active neighborhood associations in the City of Buffalo. The Parkside area contains superb examples of such diverse architectural styles such as the American Four Square, Victorian, Colonial Revival, Craftsman, and the Arts & Crafts bungalow. The 1880 thru 1930 building period includes designs by prominent local architects E.B. Green and William Sydney Wicks.

Parkside is adjacent to Frederick Law Olmsted's Delaware Park, the Buffalo Zoo, and the Main-Amherst business district.

Hanna's Frosty Treats Opens For 2013 Season

A sure sign of spring! North Buffalo residents (l. to r. Skylar Leckey, Leighton Hacher, Fawn Hacher, Abigail Leckey and Kathy Leckey) are celebrating spring with a stop at Hanna's Frosty Treats, which opened for the season last week.

Traffic Advisory from the City of Buffalo Department of Public Works

Elmwood Avenue, between Forest Avenue and Iroquois Drive, has been reduced to one lane in each direction for road construction. This lane reduction is expected to be in place for a few months.

You may recall that, at the end of the last construction season, crews began the $2.3 million Elmwood Streetscape Project which includes: pavement resurfacing, a new off road asphalt multi-use pathway along the west side of Elmwood Avenue and continuing on the north side of Forest Avenue. There will be traffic signal upgrades, new curbs and sidewalks, landscape improvements, new pavement markings and street lighting.

The lane closure is to complete the work on the Elmwood Streetscape Project.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

‘Mining the Golden Horseshoe’

Blue Jay bosses weren’t the only Canadian sports executives in Coca-Cola Field for the Bisons opener Thursday. Rocket Man may have met just the fan the Bisons want in the person of Jake Parkhill, and Jake had to pay to get in.

Jake works in marketing for the American Hockey League Hamilton Bulldogs and joined the upper-deckers in a Blue Jays hat and Brock University jacket. The Bisons had hoped the new affiliation would woo fans from the Niagara Peninsula’s “Golden Horseshoe,” and here he was.

“You’ve got to come to Opening Day,” Jake said, but he had NOT attended the Jays’ sold-out opener. “How can you beat this?” he said, as the Bisons uproariously pounded Rochester 12-7.

A professional absorbing every Bison business maneuver (such as sponsorships for the coaches’ boxes), Jake he usually comes here two or three times a year but now with the Blue Jay affiliation, it’s more likely to be 10.

He cited the cost (“$11, I’d pay 30 in Toronto, and besides, this is outdoors”), the relative convenience (“never any big hassle at customs”) and the excitement of nearly 16,000 fans screaming for three-run triples and a field full of rhubarb. “And you have to love this pace, too,” the duration of the game, under three hours despite 19 runs, 30 hits, two mid-inning pitching changes and an 11-minute pause when an umpire was beamed.

“I’ll be back often,” Jake said, “and I know a lot of others who will. Besides, I’d always wanted to eat at Mighty Taco.”

GOSE, BUSTER: Anthony Gose lived up to his advance, turning a routine single into a double in his first at bat, beating out a bunt and dislodging a piece of the center field barrier leaping for a Red Wing home run. Rocket Man loves his admission to an adoring media that his dash for second might not have been wise, and had he been thrown out, “you guys would be asking me something else.”

STARTIN’ MARTIN: Manager Marty Brown seems to have no stop sign. Three times he waved Bisons home on short singles. Players love that, especially in cold weather. And they’ll march right into hell after a manager who defends his players as Brown did in his full-service ejection sticking up for infielder Andy LaRoche. Rocket Man wished Marty had a toupee so he could throw that into the dirt, too.

HERD SCENE: Buffalo drew a “straight flush,” a hit in every inning and a hit for every batter... The throng, biggest of the day in any minor league, seemed almost solidly blue, a vivid contrast to most Bison staffers in fire-extinguisher red... It’s $6 now for beer delivery, up a quarter, but it’s $10 CDN in TO... One wise fan confided to Rocket Man Friday morning, “I saw more heart in that team yesterday than I did in four whole years with the Mets.”
