The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

You CAN Go Home Again

The First Mate granted Rocket Man leave to see his old space academy play baseball in Kenmore. When several misdirected Jamestown fans touched down late, he offered a recap, concluding by introducing himself: "I graduated Jamestown High in 1952."

A woman asked, "Did you know Doug MacFarlane?," to which Rocket Man responded, "He pitched for my team. I could tell you stories about Doug MacFarlane," to which SHE responded, "So could I. We were married for 54 years." Pause. "He died five years ago. That's his grandson pitching."

Rocket Man had told Mrs. MacFarlane the truth, but not the whole truth. Doug MacFarlane had pitched for him just once.

When too many recruits ages 13-15 tried out for the Junior Police, Detective Earl McEwen formed a second team, for a different league. MacFarlane was on the first team, grey uniforms. Rocket Man was not only ON the weaker, maroon, team, he was made the manager, at age 13. Detective McEwen had a clue that while he wasn't very good, he knew the game inside out.

Charlie Brown's All-Stars were the '27 Yankees compared to the Junior Police Maroons. They had a left-handed shortstop and a one-legged catcher. A "mercy" rule halted 15-run games after three innings. They lost 29-1, 21-0, 21-3 and 21-6. The first time they played four innings, it was as if they'd won the World Series.

But while several other teams forfeited, the Maroons played on, even if they did have to sign up the occasional spectator to make a full crew. Closing day, Doug MacFarlane, who had pitched for his own team the day before, stood on the sidelines. The Maroons, as usual, were short. Doug volunteered.

Hollywood would have "Mac" hurling the Maroons to victory. This was real life. They lost 5-1 but played a full seven innings. It looked and felt like a real ballgame. Every Maroon played better than he'd ever played in his life. Even the umpire extended compliments. And that's how the two "Doug" were team mates, one pitching for fun in a hopeless cause on 20 hours' rest.

And now his grandson, Chad Nelson, went extra innings for an inferior team that rose above itself to advance in the playoffs. "Just a good old country boy throwin' heat," the plate umpire said. It was in the genes. Chad will attend Niagara County Community College, Rocket Man learned.

"If only he could have been here," said Mrs. MacFarlane, tearlessly. American novelist Thomas Wolfe contended that "You Can't Go Home Again." Somebody should have taken him out to a ballgame.

Corporate Challenge Will Benefit Two Local Organizations

efit two iconic Buffalo organizations -- Kevin Guest House and Roswell Park Cancer Institute.

J.P. Morgan will make donations to both on behalf of the more than 11,000 entrants expected at the Thursday, June 25th event, part of the more than $700,000 that will be donated at 13 J.P. Morgan Corporate Challenge Series events worldwide in 2015.

Kevin Guest House is the nation's first hospital hospitality house, offers a safe, warm, secure respite providing comfort, support and affordable accommodations for patients and their loved ones. It is named in honor of Kevin Garvey, a 13-year old boy with leukemia who was treated at Roswell Park Cancer Institute. His parents, Claudia and Cyril, and their seven other children, traveled from Western Pennsylvania for his treatment and noticed families sleeping in cars and waiting rooms because they couldn't afford hotels.

In 1972, the Garvey family decided to purchase a Grand Victorian home (built in 1865) to assist those families for generations to come. Unfortunately Kevin lost his battle shortly afterwards, but his legacy continues.

The mission of Roswell

Park Cancer Institute is to understand, prevent and cure cancer. Founded in 1898, Roswell is one of the first cancer centers in the country to be named a National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center and remains the only facility with this designation in Upstate New York.

Roswell Park is a member of the prestigious National Comprehensive Cancer Network, an alliance of the nation's leading cancer centers; maintains affiliate sites; and is a partner in national and international collaborative programs.

ADOPT A PET

This week's featured friend:*CHUCK

Chuck is an absolutely awesome 7 year old kitty. This big, handsome dude was declawed by his previous owners. Although a bit older, Chuck is curious, playful and cuddly. He just loves attention -- Mr Personality will sit in his cage and stare at you until you return his look, then he'll start to meow until you come over to play with him. Chuck also enjoys playing with feather toys and being brushed. This handsome white boy has a dark grey tail and markings around his head and back and one of the handsomest faces we have seen. Chuck is extremely laid back, enjoying the company of other cats and not the least bit fazed by dogs. He is a favorite with all the shelter volunteers and is also a TV star, having been featured on Channel 2 a few weeks ago, where he behaved beautifully. His adoption fee, which has been reduced because he is a bit older includes vaccinations, spay/neuter surgery, a free bag of food, and a certificate for a first free vet visit to the vet of your choice. ing patriotic red, white and blue t-shirts designed for this event, will parade from their respective schools down Main Street to Forest Lawn beginning at 9:30 am. The Buffalo Police Department will escort the children on their route, briefly closing sections of the road to automobile traffic as the students walk toward Forest Lawn.

During the Flag Day ceremony, the students will sing patriotic songs and place a wreath on the gravesite of Buffalo school teacher and Flag Day co-founder Sara Hinson. In addition, winning submissions from a student essay contest will also be read.

The students will then assist in the flag retirement ceremony, in which hundreds of unusable U.S. flags, which have been accepted from the general public by Forest Lawn over the last year, will be properly retired. The U.S. Flag

Code states the proper way to retire unusable flags is through burning in a dignified manner. Crews from the Buffalo Fire Department will assist with the flag burning. The event is free and open to the public.

Stream & Lake Map of New York

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map-known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

An Oasis for the Baseball Fan

After every game in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League, win, loss or tie, players from both teams leave the dugout area or their position on the diamond and rush to either the first and third base line and, on a command, move toward homeplate with their hand raised to congratulate the opposing player. It has been that way in the beginning (since 1958) and it continues to this day.

It starts when the boy or girl first plays in t-ball at age four or five and continues right on up to being in a Senior Division. So there was nothing unusual the other night when the t-ball Dodgers faced the t-ball Yankees and both teams learned how to hit the ball off the tee and run around the bases, all under the watchful eyes of patient coaches and proud parents.

"This is where it all starts," said a proud parent for a Yankee player, who didn't wish to be identified. "He's shy and doesn't like much attention, but you put him on a diamond and he's ready."

North Buffalo Baseball and Softball has continued nightly and on the week-ends for all the teams under surprisingly good weather. At this visit, only one night has been cancelled and most divisions are beyond the halfway point of the regular season, gearing up towards the playoffs. Let's get you caught up on some action for both the boys and girls.

In Senior Boys the Mets and Tigers have yet to lose after three games. Giovanni Chimera pitched a complete game on the mound and got support from teammate Jacob Beale as the Mets won their first game, 3-2 over the Red Sox. The Tigers' Miguel Pinto threw five innings, striking out eight and had two hits and three RBI's to lead the team to its second win over the DBacks, 12-7. The defending champ Orioles opened their season with two straight losses but in a game against the Sox, new player to the league Sebastian McElhaney helped rally the Orange and Black to a 9-7 victory with key hits and outstanding play in the outfield. Teammate Angelo Costanzo had two hits to lead the attack.

In Senior Pony, the Athletics won their first four games to start the season but were stopped Saturday in an 8-5 loss to the Yankees. The team has been getting excellent pitching and defense from Emily Fitzpatrick. She led the Yanks to wins over the Pirates and Angels. The win over the Athletics, ties the two teams for first place in the young season. It should be a battle.

In Major Pony, the Cardinals and Rockies stand at one and two in their division but on any given day, both could lose their next game if they take opponents lightly. The Dodgers and Athletics have just won two games but their play has been improving as of late.

In Major Boys, the Cardinals have put together a four game winning streak led by the pitching of Deandre Huynh and Nathan Sommer. Last Tuesday, both combined to lead the team to a 6-3 win over the Mets. Huynh helped his own cause with an RBI double at the plate. Washington won again with a 10-7 victory over the Reds and Saturday, the Mets defeated the Giants.

The Pirates stayed undefeated in Second Minors. Igby Rivera-Long and Sam Blum both got their first hits and scored their first runs for the Pirates in a 3-2 victory over the Padres last Tuesday. The Braves are right behind with 6-2 mark after beating the Marlins Saturday.

In Minor Pony, Julianna Verni of the Blue Jays helped lead the team to a hard fought 1-0 win over the Reds. The Orioles defeated the Yankees 3-2 and the Giants topped the Athletics 5-3.

In First Minors, Dominic Gambino homered and went three for three and teammate Bryce Thomas hit a big triple to lead the Athletics to a win over the Yankees. Cole Lindner of the Twins knocked in teammate Ty Graczyk with two outs in the top of the sixth and the team hung on to defeat the Blue Jays 8-7. Adam Slater and Jack Gullivan also keyed the late rally with timely hits and great defense. The Tigers are still on top of the division, undefeated at 6 and 0.

Oh what a great game the sport is when parents can come to Shoshone Park and watch teams from Angels to Yankees compete in various divisions. Most Major League Baseball team nicknames are used by Hertel North Park.

Whoever your favorite team is, the league has been responsive to the wishes of the North Buffalo Community. Several area businesses still sponsor teams in the Park, including Bob and John's LaHacienda. While hockey and football dominate the local sports scene, the little Park near the corner of Hertel and Main Street continues to be an oasis of such for the Baseball fan.

Players line up at home plate to congratulate each other on a game well played at Shoshone Park.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail)

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3X). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3X). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.

The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the request will be granted. This prayer must then be published after the favor is granted. G.A.D.

PRAYER IN HONOR OF ST. DYMPHNA

Lord, our God, you graciously chose St. Dymphna as patroness of those afflicted with mental and nervous disorders. She is thus an inspiration and a symbol of charity to the thousands who ask her intercession. Please grant, Lord, through the prayers of this pure youthful martyr, relief and consolation to all suffering such trials, and especially those for whom we pray. (Here mention those for whom you wish to pray). We beg you, Lord, to hear the prayers of St. Dymphna on our behalf. Grant all those for whom we pray patience in their sufferings and resignation to your divine will. Please fill them with hope and grant them the relief and cure they so much desire. We ask this through Christ our Lord who suffered agony in the garden. Amen. B.P.C

TO OUR LADY OF HOPE

O Mary my Mother, I kneel before thee with heavy heart. The burden of my sins oppresses me, the knowledge of my weakness discourages me. I am beset by fears and temptations of every sort. Yet, I am so attached to the things of this world that instead of longing for heaven, I am filled with dread with the thought of death. O Mother of Mercy, have pity on me in my distress! Thou art all-powerful with thy Divine Son he can refuse no request of your Immaculate Heart. Show thy self a true Mother to me by being my advocate before this throne. O refuge of sinners and hope of the hopeless, to whom shall I run to if not to thee? Obtain for me then Mother of Hope the grace of true sorrow for my sins, the resignation to God's holy will, and the courage to take up my cross and follow Jesus. Beg of his Sacred Heart the special favor I ask. But above all O dearest Mother, that through thy most powerful intercession my heart be filled with holy hope so that in life's darkest hours I may never fail to trust in God my savior; but by walking in the way of his commandments I may merit to be with Him, and with Thee in the eternal joys of heaven. Amen B.R.
