On Veterans Day, November 11th, we honor the brave men and women who have answered the call to serve and defend our country in the Armed Forces.

On Veterans Day, we honor the men and women who have served our Nation and answered the call to defend it. The United States rose to greatness on the strength of their service and their stories are woven into the fabric of our Nation’s history. More than 26 million veterans are alive today, one million of whom have been wounded, and many who receive treatment for battlefield injuries and mental trauma. Since 1776, nearly 2 million men and women have made the ultimate sac- Continued on page 8

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

'My Name is Asher Lev'

The name was "all sold out" Sunday afternoon at Jewish Repertory Theatre. "My Name is Asher Lev" packed 'em to the Seller Theater ceiling, the throng including an appreciatively curious quorum from the North Park Presbyterian Church.

They sure didn't come for the comedy in director Saul Elkin's most serious work since Josie DiVincenzo blew herself to bits 13 times in "Dai" two springs ago. There is a little levity, but very little, as an artistic prodigy tries to connect the dots between his Hasidic home and the integrity of the canvas. As a mentor asks, "Are you a scream trying to get out?"

Aaron Posner's 95-minute one-act play from

Chaim Potok's novel melds real-life characters, including Potok, into young Lev, drawn to artistic expression almost from diaperhood. Many of his inspirations spring from what devout Jews see as sitra achra, the dark side. His father Aryeh, attacks him on moral grounds, then dismisses the work as "playing with crayons."

Spoiler alert: Asher's art is a smash, surviving even an encounter with a figure model. When Dad demands an explanation of the difference between naked and nude, Asher nails it. Still, he can not shake the notion of dishonoring both family and faith. Citing public opinion, the lawyer declares "Better you should be a laborer...or a lawyer."

Three actors portray eight characters, as the playwright insists. Tom Zindle plays father Aryeh, as well as a jolly uncle straight out of Dickens, a rebbe (dispenser of Hebrew wisdom), and the mentor who urges loyalty to his own truth. His work as Aryeh oft reminded Rocket Man of JRT rebbe-in-chief Elkin.

Adam Yellen convincingly conveys the details of Lev's life at various ages and states of awareness. Yeoman work. Having pulled herself together after "Dai," DiVincenzo excels in three widely varied assignments, from the breathtakingly authentic mother (complete with authentic pronunciation of her "g's") to the stylish and commanding patron of the arts. Pardon our New Testament, but she is a revelation, even before to pose.

"Asher Lev" bears comparison to Tom Dudzick's "Over the Tavern," which fought the fight of faith on far funnier terms. Pardon the profile, but Jewish people seem to take this far more seriously. Twenty centuries of seniority will do that. "Asher" closes the curtain Nov. 15. NINE ROCKETS (out of 10).

Fire back to Rocket Man via pollyndoug@hotmail.com. Full disclosure: Actor Zindle shared a stage with Rocket Man's Costly Daughter Holly in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at Niagara University more years ago than either would care to admit.

NFL Trivia Week Two

Just when you thought things were bad, they get worse. Seems a few people, like one or two, enjoyed my NFL trivia last week. I even got an email. So since I own the paper, as bad as it was, I am going to do another.

If you did last week's then you can eliminate those 15 teams which leaves you with just 17. Some may seems like a stretch, like last week's "players in the shower," (Bears) but the fun is, you can not look up the answers on the internet. It is the way I present them. That should produce a few groans. Here we go.

- 1) 2/3 Sunken ship
- 2) Autumn Prisoners
- 3) Charlie's family
- 4) Half of Egyptian Pharaoh
- 5) Under 50 Club

- 6) Guns that won the West
- 7) What vacationers do after packing
- 8) Sharp Eye
- 9) March 17th unrest
- 10) Visitors to Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard
- 11) Marathoners after the race
- 12) Not telling the truth
- 13) Good reviews
- 14) Boring Finland
- 15) Upper respiratory

Last Week's Answers:

- 1) $1 corn on the cob: Bucaneers
- 2) Too long on the beach: Redskins

- 3) Today's car cigarette lighter: Chargers
- 4) Male bovine: Cowboys
- 5) Monthly nemesis: Bills
- 6) Today's offensive line-men: Giants
- 7) Vatican residents: Cardinals
- 8) Superman's Perry White: Chiefs
- 9) Marching people: Saints
- 10) Players in the shower (this will be the top moaner): Bears
- 11) Six royal leaders: Vikings
- 12) Thieves: Steelers

Buffalo Police Launch Program

Recently, Mayor Byron Brown and Police Commissioner Dan Derenda, joined by many local officials, gathered at Mt. Olive Baptist Church unveiled 'Buffalo Police Department: 21st Century' (BPD21C).

BPD21C is an innovative, 'first of its kind' in the nation, police pre-employment scholarship program designed to provide scholarship opportunities for city residents who want to pursue a career in law enforcement. Up to 50 successful City of Buffalo residents may receive full scholarships to the Erie County-Erie Community College Central Police Services Law Enforcement Training Academy for the spring semester, beginning on January 18th, 2016.

Buffalo Police Commissioner Dan Derenda stated, "We believe the BPD21C initiative will allow us to make the Buffalo Police Department more reflective of the community and look forward to the opportunity it will provide to our city residents."

This announcement came less than a year after Mayor Brown and the City of Buffalo hosted an important forum on community-police relations at Mt. Olive Baptist Church.

Buffalo Police Department: 21st Century

BPD21C incorporates recommendations from that discussion as well as recommendations for best practices.

To apply for a BPD21C scholarship, City of Buffalo residents must complete and submit applications to the City's Department of Human Resources by November 13th, 2015. Upon the successful completion of all three of these components, and the verification that all of the qualifications have been met, up to 50 city of Buffalo residents will be selected for a full scholarship to the Erie County-Erie Community College Central Police Services Law Enforcement Training Academy, which will commence on January 18th, 2016. This is a full-time, 20 week commitment that requires candidates to attend the training academy at ECC North Campus. Scholarships will include: full cost of tuition, uniforms and books.

Candidates who successfully complete the program will receive 30 College Credits and a Certificate that deems them eligible for appointment as an officer in any peace or police department in New York State within two years from the date of graduation. Additionally, graduates will have acquired invaluable leadership training, life skills and readiness for careers in public safety and public service.

For more information, call the Civil Service Office at 851-9614.

YMCA Collects Cans for a Cause

As part of the YMCA's commitment to the community, the Y has teamed up once again with the Food Bank of Western New York to help give back to those in need in Western New York.

Throughout the month of November all YMCA Buffalo Niagara Branches and YMCA Buffalo Niagara's Association Office will begin taking donations of non-perishable items for the Food Bank of WNY.

Last year we were able to collect over 3,000 pounds of food for area families. This year we would like to challenge Western New Yorkers to help us reach 5,000 pounds! Donations will be accepted until November 29th and participants in the YMCA Turkey Trot are encouraged to bring cans with them to packet pick-up at the Independent Health Family Branch YMCA (150 Tech Drive, Amherst), November 23rd - 25th and on race day, November 26th, where bins will be located at the Convention Center, start line, and at the Delaware Y.

For more information, please contact YMCA communications director, Kathy Romanowski at kromanowski@ymcabn.org.

rifice in combat. Whether they served in times of war or peace, all veterans share a common bond, their belief in the cause of freedom. A belief so strong they are willing to give their lives, if need be, in its defense. Here in Erie County there are over 64,500 veterans who have risked their lives to protect us. As Americans, we all must take the time to honor and thank them for their service.

Events are planned throughout Erie County to honor these men and women for their patriotism, love of country and willingness to serve and sacrifice. I encourage all Erie County residents to take time from your busy day to attend the Veterans Day Parade on Saturday, November 7th.

The annual parade starts at 11am beginning at Delaware Avenue and Edward, ending at Buffalo City Hall, and celebrates the heroism and courage of our local veteran community.

At the Erie County Clerk's Office, we pay tribute to our veterans 365 days a year through our "Thank-A-Vet" Discount Program. I would like to remind veterans if they haven't already filed their honorable discharge papers and received the "Thank-A-Vet" discount card, to come in and do so. Over 1,180 Erie County businesses have registered in the program to give valuable discounts on goods and services.

When a veteran puts their discharge papers on file with the Erie County Clerk's Office, it ensures their safety and makes attaining complimentary certified copies hassle free for the veteran and their loved ones. The "Thank-A-Vet" photo ID card is issued on the spot.

Veterans are encouraged to come to the Erie County Clerk's Office located at 92 Franklin Street in Buffalo, Monday – Friday 9 am to 5 pm. For more information on the Clerk's "Thank-A-Vet" Discount Card Program or if you have a business and would like to participate, visit www.erie.gov/clerk/thankavet or call 858-4737.

To each and every American who has worn the uniform of the United States, I simply say, "Thank you for your service." - Erie County Clerk Chris Jacobs

The party will feature DJ Slim, playing popular R&B and dance music. There will also be line dancing supported by Jazzy T. Williams' Hustle for Health aerobics for seniors.

Parking for the event is available free behind the Gloria J. Parks Community Center.

The Gloria J. Parks Senior Program is bringing back Dancin' at the Parks for the fourth time. It's a casual party where you just might meet some long-time friends, or get to know some new ones. More Senior Program information will be distributed at the party. Gloria J. Parks has a Computers for Seniors class, several fitness classes, bingo, hot lunch, Wii bowling, field trips, and parties available for adults over 62 years of age.

Admission, which is $12.00 in advance, and $15.00 at the door, includes a delicious dinner and dancing. Tickets are available at Gloria J. Parks Community Center and at Ken-Bailey Neighborhood Housing at 995 Kensington Avenue. For tickets and more information, call Dell at 832-1010 ext. 206.

You Can Thank a Veteran

On Veterans Day, November 11th, all customers who get a haircut at Great Clips salon get a free haircut card they can give as a thank you to an active, inactive or retired military member of any branch, including the National Guard. There is a limit of one card per customer, while supplies last.

Veterans and active service members who come in to Great Clips salon on November 11th get either a free haircut or a free haircut card to redeem with proof of military service through December 31st at Great Clips salon.

Now in its third consecutive year, Great Clips' "You Can Thank a Veteran" promotion has provided nearly half a million free haircuts for military members and veterans.

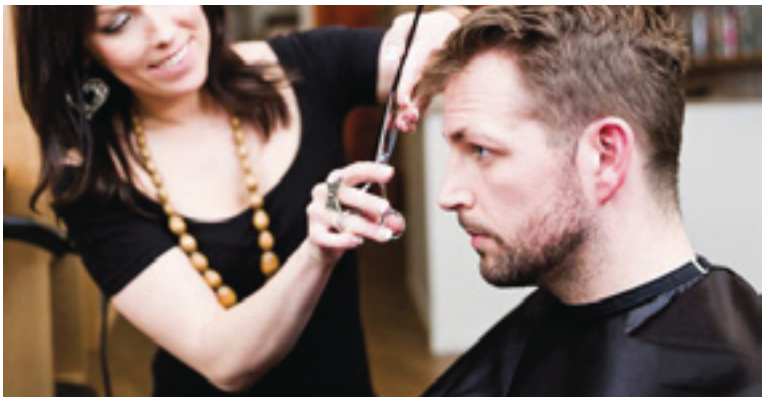

"Great Clips realizes

there is no amount of gratitude we can show to the men and women who have served our country. Giving them a great haircut is a simple, yet meaningful, way to show appreciation for everything our veterans and service members have done for us," says Great Clips CEO Rhoda Olsen, whose husband is a Vietnam veteran.

"We invite people to get a haircut at Great Clips on Veterans Day and pick up a free haircut card to pass on to a veteran — whether the veteran is a family member, neighbor, colleague or just someone they know."

"Great Clips salon is excited to extend this year's Veterans Day offer to as many veterans and service members as possible and exceed the 225,000 free haircuts they provided nationwide in 2014."

Show your appreciation for a veteran or active service member with a free haircut.

Dino Daze Comes to Buffalo

Dino Daze, a new celebration of all things "Dino and friends," stomps into the Buffalo Museum of Science on Saturday, November 14th from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm. ed with general museum admission and free for Buffalo Museum of Science members. Tickets are available in advance at www.sciencebuff.org and at the door on the day of the event.

Hands-on dinosaur activities will take place all day throughout the Museum. Create "fossils" utilizing dough impressions, walk like a dinosaur, experience how tall dinosaurs were and be amazed by ancient insects.

The Buffalo Museum of Science is located at 1020 Humboldt Parkway. For more information on Dino Daze and all things Buffalo Museum of Science, call 896-5200 or visit www.sciencebuff.org.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, you who solves all problems, who light all roads so that I can attain my goals. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and to forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine. AMEN.

The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. The favor will be granted even if it seems difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted, without mentioning the favor.
