Merchants along Hertel Avenue decked the halls and created a festive atmosphere for all who live, work and shop in North Buffalo.

by the Hertel Business Association in conjunction with the 20th annual Hertel Holidays. Judging the displays this year were Council member Joel Feroletto, Hertel Business Associa-

Volunteers Needed

Meals on Wheels for Western New York is dedicated to providing food and companionship to home bound senior citizens, disabled, handicapped, or severely ill individuals. Meals On Wheels ensures that the home bound enjoy the highest level of independence possible by offering nutritious food and a friendly visit.

Meals On Wheels delivers nearly 5,000 meals each weekday to clients. This critical community service wouldn’t be possible without the help of 1,650 dedicated volunteers who deliver the meals to recipients.

Volunteering takes just one hour a day during lunch time. People can volunteer as often as they’d like - daily, weekly or even just once a month.

In addition to individual volunteer opportunities, companies and organizations can “Adopt-A-Route” and share volunteering among a group of coworkers. This allows even more flexibility and is a great way for teams to bond as they give back to the community.

To learn more about volunteering call 822-2002 or visit www.mealsonwheelswny.org.

The Adventures of...
Rocket Man
by Doug Smith

Enlisting with the "Sallies"

For four years, Rocket Man and First Mate, dressed in their cheeriest (if weariest) holiday garb, have shared the joy, the laughter, the fatigue and the frustrations of working a door at Tops for the Salvation Army. Twice they set records for collections. Not this time, even in last Tuesday's Senior Day. Here's a jingle-by-jingle mission log:

10:03 - Arrive, tardily, having endured an ignition crisis at home. Army Major Celstin Nkounkou, with military precision, deploys his new troops. Across his network, he says, there are 20 kettles to be staffed and only five ringers.

10:10 - The first donor is a woman whose faint Isles accent Rocket Man detects as British. He guesses she's been on this side of the pond 40 years. "Forty-eight," she replies, brightly, hailing the Army's good works globally.

10:32 - "My husband's coming right after me."

10:33 - Yes, he is, but his eyes are glued to the floor.

10:35 - First Mate's expectations start downward. People pause to dig into their pockets, but only to retrieve car keys.

10:46 - "What is this, a tag team?"

11:18 - "Sorry, I've got nothing but pennies"... "That's OK, we get paid by the pound!"

11:21 - "What a nice thing you do, thank you."

11:25 - Staff window washer finds a coin on the floor and drops it into the kettle.

11:30 - Seasonal music at last replaces the dreck polluting the sound system. God bless 'em, everyone.

11:32 - "You need a debit machine."

12:05 - Lad about six wants to contribute before shopping. Dad (we presume) tries to hustle him off but he insists, firmly, politely. He drops in a coin, beaming so that even his parent lights up and puts in a dollar. A starry moment.

12:20 - From a Tri-Towns Ambulance jacket: "You two make me smile!"

12:40 - Lottery winner exits grumpily, fingering as if it might flee on its own.

12:55 - Old softball teammate stops, old times revisited, nobody loses except the truth.

1:15 - "He serenading you?" (Kettle-minder at the opposite door has a thing for singing).

1:48 - Chap in motorized chair counts out every blessed coin, causing our first "line" of the day.

1:55 - "The cart guy is slacking!" Carts are precious commodities these days, but no fault of Tim, master of Tops motor pool, exhaustedly working without even a lunch break.

2:33 - "Dollar for him (the ersatz Crosby), dollar for you. You guys are SUCH a good organization."

2:45 - Staffer ORDERS Tim to take a lunch break.

3:29 - Our 100th contributor, way behind last year.

3:35 - Lad about four drops in a coin, then provokes a "Ho Ho Ho" shout-out. Rocket Man surrenders after three rounds.

4:00 - Business picks up, 48 contributors in the last hour, pushing us past 150.

5:00 - End of shift. Rocket Man is really dragging with First Mate not far behind. Observation: Wearers of first responder gear more likely to contribute, military gear a close second, union labels dead last. Just sayin'.

5:10 - Home base at last, too tired even to offload supplies. Still, the Sallies need your help. You won't regret it. Over and out...

Help For Homeowners In Foreclosure:
New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. Mortgage foreclosure is a complex process. Some people may approach you about “saving” your home. You should be extremely careful about any such promises. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid entities and other non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about foreclosure while you are working with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Banking Department at 1-877-BANKNYS (1-877-226-5697) or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us. The State does not guarantee the advice of these agencies.
