Laura Solomon has worked for the United States Postal Service for 21 years. The past 10 years she has been a carrier on the west side of Buffalo. Laura and her fellow carriers have worked seven days a week during December to make sure customers got their holiday packages. Families and loved-ones stay connected through mail. Every colored envelope means someone is sending their regards. 15.5 billion regards, nationwide. Locally the Buffalo Processing & Distribution Center handled about 80 million letters and cards and about 8 million packages. Thank you for doing a great job Laura Solomon, and all of the mail carriers in our area. Merry Christmas!

The Adventures of...
Rocket Man
by Doug Smith

Nicked by a Saint

On the night before Christmas in North Buffalo, Many creatures were stirring, there was so little snow

"Why there's hardly enough to size up or measure,"

Said the snug little helpers who ply Thrifty Treasures

The ground little frozen, no need for a spigot,
At Ginnane Funeral Home, they know they can dig it

The North Park Theater, its lights all a-glow
And Tim Lynch was busily logging Gei-co

When over the park there arose such tomfoolery,
A vehicle glistening like Korona Jewelry

A driver, keen-eyed, through cool specs he did peek

You knew that he'd visited Elegance Optique

His droll little mouth had its wrinkles long gone
After one afternoon at Imagine Salon

His hair, while a-flowing, did not reach his hips
All it takes is one visit a year to Great Clips

His reindeer had all pranced in from the North Pole
'cause Santa had promised them Johnny's brasciole

From Dasher to Rudolph, they all are quite brave
But still prefer Landscaping by Little Dave

And when from the sky they must put down a hoof,
They all twinkle when landing on 444-ROOF

Santa secretly said he saves his biggest smiles
For presents he places on Personal Touch Tiles

Off to Shadow Lounge with footsteps slow, very;

No need to hurry, they're already Merry!

He'll stop by the Kenmore Club 'cause he's a smarty,
And deliver a lot, it's a great place to party

Independent, United, they protect his health load,
Good, since he spends so much time on the road

And speaking of road, 'twas a hitch in his mission;
Low gear installed by Con-nental Transmission

Had to cut back on his speedy and fresh way
To heed the new limits on old Scad Expressway

Buffalo Police chose to let him go free;
When he wants a ticket, he'll see EHP

And laying a finger aside of his nose,
He'll nod to the pizza served at Daddio's

And to all his elves who've worked fingers to nubs,
He'll then stop at TC Jr's to load up on subs

Sprang to his sleigh, splashing sauce on his vest;
"I think that next year I will call UPS..."

"This thought you can put in your best place and lock it;
"Busy Christmas to all folks with ads in the Rocket!"

(Respond any way to the place this came from;
Send e-mail to pollyn-doug@hotmail.com)

'Tis the Season to be Careful

The holiday season is a time for relaxing and celebrating with friends and family. Unfortunately, the most wonderful time of the year can also prove hazardous to your health and safety. To ensure you make it to January 1st unscathed, follow these tips on how to avoid common holiday health hazards.

Fires: Water fresh Christmas trees daily.

Keep trees 3 feet away from heat sources (fireplaces, air vents, candles, space heaters).

Ensure candles and fires in fireplaces are completely extinguished before going to bed or leaving the house.

Place candles at least 12 inches from anything flammable.

Follow manufacturers' instructions for the number of light strands that can be safely connected.

Dispose of fresh trees after Christmas or when dry.

Travel: Ensure everyone is safely buckled into a seat belt and car seats are properly installed.

Never drink and drive; use a designated driver or an alternate means to get home.

Never ride in a vehicle driven by an impaired driver.

Food: Avoid cross contamination; use separate utensils for raw and cooked foods.

Wash hands and surfaces frequently during preparation.

Store food at recommended temperatures; thaw frozen foods as instructed in the refrigerator.

Cook foods to designated temperatures; use thermometer to confirm doneness.

Keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold!

Refrigerate leftovers within two hours of eating.

Illness Prevention: Wash hands frequently to prevent the spread of germs.

Limit contact with friends or relatives who are ill.

If you haven't received a flu vaccination, it is not too late to get one!

Stress: Holiday stress can take its toll. Try to take time for a break to relax in the middle of the holiday bustle.

Heart trouble can be exacerbated during the holidays by heavy meals, stress, ignoring chest pain so as to not ruin the holiday party, and not taking medications at routine times. Remember moderation is key. Listen to your body and take all of your meds as directed.

Kids and Pets: Holly and mistletoe can be toxic; falling berries and pine cones pose choking hazards.

Use flameless candles to avoid potential burns or house fires.

Monitor children and pets closely as they can accidentally access potentially dangerous items (alcohol, food, chocolate, liquid nicotine vials, decorations, toys with long strings that can pose a strangulation risk, or small toys or decorations that are a choking hazard)

Inspect toys that children receive to ensure there are no sharp edges or points, they do not contain toxic metals (lead, cadmium), have no small pieces that can cause a child to choke, and are of sturdy construction (pieces of plastic will not break off).

Alcohol: Alcohol can lead to poor decision making and escalate minor disagreements into quarrels; drink responsibly and know your limit.

Keep alcoholic drinks away from children and pets.

Please keep in mind these reminders so that your celebrations can be enjoyable for all.

Welcome the New Year at First Night

Join the Independent Health Foundation as they present First Night Buffalo®, the ultimate drug- and alcohol-free New Year's Eve celebration. The event will be held from 5 to 10 pm, Thursday, December 31st, at the Buffalo Niagara Convention Center.

The annual holiday family tradition, now in its 27th year in downtown Buffalo, offers safe, family-friendly activities for all ages to ring in the New Year with rides and amusements.

"I thank the Independent Health Foundation for its continued commitment to the health and wellness of Buffalo residents and visitors by putting together an evening of safe and wholesome entertainment for all ages. Let's ring in the New Year together and celebrate our wonderful Buffalo community," said Mayor Byron Brown.

To cap off the night, First Night Buffalo will feature a Grand Finale Balloon Drop. At 9:45 pm, there will be a special performance by American Ninja Warrior, Patrick Hall, followed by a confetti countdown and balloon drop.

Tickets are now on sale at all area Wegmans locations for $10, which include all rides, attractions and activities. Children ages 2-years-old and under are free. Tickets are $12 at the door. Free parking is available for attendees at the Fernbach and Main Place Mall parking ramps.

For more information and a complete schedule of events, visit the First Night Buffalo website at www.firstnightbuffalo.org, or call 635-4959.

Quit Smoking in the New Year

New Year's Eve is around the corner, and quitting smoking tops many people's resolutions. It can take several quit smoking attempts before someone becomes completely smoke-free, but it's important to remember that every smoker can quit.

The American Lung Association says there is a "three-link chain" of physical, social and mental aspects to smoking addiction. Smokers have a better chance of quitting and staying smoke-free if they address all three parts of the chain:

Physical: When inhaled, nicotine releases dopamine in the brain and makes a smoker feel good. After the dopamine release depletes, the smoker craves another cigarette, and over time builds up a tolerance to nicotine, meaning they have to smoke more to feel the same effect. Talking to a healthcare provider about quit smoking medications can help alleviate this physical addiction

Mental: The act of smoking is often a part of one's daily routines. Lighting up at specific times of the day—when drinking coffee or driving—or when stressed or tired is common. Proven methods to quit smoking include identifying these triggers, and relearning and adjusting behaviors and routines through a quit plan.

Social: Social groups are sometimes formed around smoking—through smoke breaks and habits of a friend group. Turning that concept on its head, relying on social groups that support a quit smoking attempt can be helpful. Encouragement from family and friends, as well as others that are also quitting smoking, can be beneficial to successfully quitting.

For more information about quit smoking resources, visit Lung.org/stop-smoking or call the Lung HelpLine at 1-800-LUNG-USA to talk to a certified tobacco treatment specialist and find a local Freedom From Smoking program.

HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN FORECLOSURE New York State requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the Summons and Complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the Summons and Complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York state Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us

FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS Be careful of people who approach you with offers to “save” your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner’s distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.

Section 1303 NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this Summons and Complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the Summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF (MORTGAGE COMPANY) AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.

Help For Homeowners In Foreclosure:
New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. Mortgage foreclosure is a complex process. Some people may approach you about “saving” your home. You should be extremely careful about any such promises. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid entities and other non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about foreclosure while you are working with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Banking Department at 1-877-BANKNYS (1-877-226-5697) or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us. The State does not guarantee the advice of these agencies.
