

Independence Day!

The annual Independence Eve Celebration at Coca-Cola Field celebrates our great heroes with a concert and fireworks after the Bisons game.

There are heroes all around us...on the playing field, and most importantly, on the battlefields both near and far. On Sunday, July 3rd at the Buffalo Bisons' 22nd Annual Independence Eve Celebration, the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra & Chorus will pay tribute to them all.

As this Western New York fan-favorite summer tradition event nears the half-million mark in attendance, Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra conductor Stefan Sanders makes his Independence Eve debut with a program designed to celebrate all our great heroes.

For those that paid the ultimate sacrifice to protect our freedom and liberty, the Philharmonic and Chorus will perform Battle Hymn of the Republic, Overture 1812, and Stars & Stripes Forever. The great Independence Eve tradition of recognizing our great heroes.

Put Food Safety First on the Menu

No matter where you find yourself on the Fourth of July, you will probably see lots of food, beverages and grass-stained sneakers. Whether you're enjoying a barbecue in the great outdoors, traveling to see family or friends, or spending time at home, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety Service is urging everyone to take extra food safety precautions when planning their menu.

Keep food out of the Danger Zone. The Danger Zone is the temperature range between 40°F and 140°F in which foodborne bacteria can grow rapidly to dangerous levels that can cause illness. Leaving perishables out too long in the Danger Zone is one of the most common mistakes people make, especially during warmer months. Without refrigeration or a heat source, perishables should not be left out more than two hours if the temperature is at or above 90°F.

If you are not sure how long food has been sitting out, throw it out immediately.

Always keep cold food COLD, at or below 40°F, in coolers or in containers with a cold source such as ice or frozen gel packs.

Keep hot food HOT, at or above 140°F, on the grill or in insulated containers. If food needs to be reheated, reheat it to 165°F.

Divide large amounts of food into shallow containers for fast chilling and easier use.

Packing drinks in a separate cooler is strongly recommended, so the food cooler isn't opened frequently.

To ensure safety, leftovers must be put in shallow containers for quick cooling and refrigerated to 40°F or below within two hours.

Please remember the four easy food safety steps of Clean, Separate, Cook and Chill and have a food safe Fourth of July!

If you have questions about the Danger Zone, or any other food safety topics, call the USDA Meat & Poultry Hotline at 1-888MPHotline or chat live with a food safety specialist at AskKaren.gov.

The Power of Hertel North Park

It's tournament time in North Buffalo Baseball and Softball as the calendar heads towards July. The regular seasons of the inter house divisions are coming to a close, and play-offs should start soon. But first, several players are winning championships already in travel divisions of Babe Ruth for the Hertel North Park Youth League.

In Niagara Falls, where water flows over the U.S. Canadian border everyday with tremendous power, the 12 and under North Buffalo Blaze won a District Championship at Hyde Park this past weekend against several leagues, including Lou Gehrig Red and Matthewson/ McCarthy to advance to the States in just two weeks.

Matt Cambria, Owen McKendry and Joe Persico unleashed a power with their bats with homeruns

The 12 and under boys team won the district tournament in Niagara Falls and will advance to States level July 7th in Jamestown, NY.

LOULOU

Meet LouLou! This darling tuxedo female came to the shelter days away from giving birth to a litter of adorable kittens last March. Fortunately one of our volunteers took her in and she was able to raise her babies in the security of a loving home. Although a bit shy, LouLou is a sweet and loving girl who wants to make friends. She will blossom even more with love and a gentle approach. She's not much of a talker but is a very good listener. She enjoys feather wands and they help her keep her sleek figure. And just look at those markings! At about 1 1/2 years old she still has many years ahead of her and would like to spend them with someone special. Could it be you? Come meet her at our offsite adoption site at Elmwood Avenue between West Ferry and Breckenridge. Pet ID:31029106 days in baseball.” Meyers should know, he’s been doing it now for several years. With players like these plus Quinn Langdon, Phillip Marcello and Matt Becker, North Buffalo’s chances of success in Jamestown is the best it’s ever been in several years.

While the 12u team was winning on the road, Shoshone Park and Hertel North Park hosted two other divisions in District play. An 8u team coached by Nick Marcello and Kevin Mahoney will be moving on to Camillus, NY after an 8-7 victory over Lou Gehrig Blue. Billy LaPorta got the walk off hit in the bottom of the sixth to send the team to the States. James Gallivan went six for seven at the plate throughout the tournament, Nick Marcello struck out 12 batters over six innings while catchers Nathan Mulligan and Max Langer were tremendous behind the plate on defense.

The North Buffalo 11u team also stayed home in Shoshone Park this past weekend, The players selected were pitchers Gavin Cline, Hunter Potts and Jadin Mecklenberg, infielders Chase Pcionek, Nick McMillan, Conner Barnum, Justin Ball and Chadin Insera. outfielders Michael Cannavo, Adam Slatter, Elias Humphrey, Luke Sheehan and Caleb Chapman. The team was coached by William Wolf, a long-time player for North Buffalo teams for over a decade, who returns to the Park while a coach at Canisius High School.

reunite pet with owner. Please keep the following tips in mind this holiday:

Even if the animal has microchip identification, place a collar with an ID tag on your pet. If a neighbor finds your animal, an ID collar that includes your phone number can lead to a faster reunion.

Don't take animals to fireworks displays...a startled animal may not only break free and run away, but may also bite. An animal confined to a closed vehicle during these displays can experience an overwhelming stress level that can cause physical harm to the pet. Have someone at home with nervous pets during fireworks...if the animal is with someone he or she knows, the pet's stress level will be greatly reduced. Keep the volume on a television or radio turned up to block some of the noise.

If a pet manages to escape, visit the SPCA's Stray Animal Information page, which includes effective ways to find a lost pet, at YourSPCA.org.

Home is the safest place for pets, especially on extremely hot days, during festivals, and other crowded outdoor events. Your pet's body is closer to the asphalt and can heat up quickly. The hot pavement can also burn unprotected, sensitive paw pads.

If you bring your dog to these events and realize it's becoming too overwhelming for him or her, DON'T KEEP YOUR DOG IN A TURNED-OFF CAR WITH NO AIR CONDITIONING FOR ANY AMOUNT OF TIME! The effects of heat-stroke on even slightly warm days begin within mere minutes.

For more information, call the SPCA at 875-7360.

Let that Old Flag Wave!

by Glenn Mollette

Flying high across the sky is such a sight to me.

It represents love and a whole lot of blood given for folks like you and me.

It stands so grand across this dear land, never once has it embarrassed me. And I lift my head up high and my heart is filled with pride and I'm here cause that old flag waves!

Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave! It has a lot to say. It's our story flying high. It reminds us of our past, of our heroes who made it last, about our people who died to set us free. Let that old flag wave!

The stars and stripes remind us of a life we don't appreciate. Freedom to pray and freedom to say, what's on our minds. Freedom to pursue the dreams of our youth, let's let that old flag wave!

Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave! It has a lot to say. It's our story flying high. It reminds us of our past, of our heroes who made it last, about our people who died to set us free. Let that old flag wave!

Today the flag still stands, but we live in a land of demand. We take her for all she's got and expect her to give her best. It's up to you and me to continue this liberty cause our children are coming this way. Let that old flag wave!

Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave! It has a lot to say. It's our story flying high. It reminds us of our past, of our heroes who made it last, about our people who died to set us free. Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave! Let that old flag wave!

In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid office, there are government agencies and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Department of Financial Services at 1-800-342-3736 or visit the Department's website at www.dfs.ny.gov.

FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS

Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services. 26-29
