The Disney Worldwide Conservation Fund is a key pillar in Disney’s efforts to protect the planet and help kids develop lifelong conservation values. This grant will enhance the Buffalo Zoo’s Nature Play area for children to play and learn through exploration and discovery.

The Buffalo Zoo has been awarded a grant to enhance its Nature play offerings. The Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA) awarded the “Nature Play Begins at Your Zoo & Aquarium” grants to 30 institutions around the country. The grants are supported through a special gift from the Disney Worldwide Conservation Fund. The Nature

Play grants provide financial, logistical, and creative support for accredited zoos and aquariums to create innovative ways to establish or enhance fam- Continued on page 5

Good for the Neighborhood

The Independent Health Foundation is continuing its successful program, Good for the Neighborhood® (GFTN) with free community events in October. GFTN brings health screenings, educational information and a free farmers market to under served neighborhoods in our community. The first event of the month is scheduled for October 6th from 5:30 to 7 pm at the Belle Center, 104 Maryland St., Buffalo. You do not need to be an Independent Health member to attend. October’s events will have a Fall theme, and offer free carriage rides (October 13th at the West Side Community Services, 161 Vermont st. from 6 - 7:30pm) and free Continued on page 5

Italian Heritage Parade

The Galbani Italian Heritage Festival and The Federation of Italian-American Societies proudly present the 12th annual Italian Heritage Parade. The parade will be held on Saturday, October 8th. It will travel east on Hertel Avenue beginning at Virgil Avenue, at 1:00 pm, and continue to Starin Avenue. As in past years the parade will feature Marching Bands, local dignitaries, and the Shriners will be there with clowns, candy for the kids, and their remarkable cars. The Parade is an annual tradition in Buffalo’s Little Italy on Hertel Avenue.

Bishop Malone to Bless Animals

Bishop Richard J. Malone, bishop of Buffalo, is calling all creatures great and small to his front lawn on Saturday morning for a blessing of animals. The blessing will take place at 77 Oakland Place at 9 am on Saturday, October 1st, to mark the upcoming Feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

The Church reminds us that animals are God’s creatures, as we are. It goes on to say that animals give Glory to God just by their very being. The blessing of animals has become an annual custom in the Church, as a way to remember the love that St. Francis of Assisi had for Creation.

The blessing of pets and animals is often celebrated around the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, which is in early October. This is also to coincide as the culminating conclusion for the Season of Creation.

See page 5 for this week’s winner (and the answer) in our new contest to win passes to the Buffalo Zoo!

This week's featured friend:
ZACH MORRIS

Check out this happy cute boy named Zach Morris. Yup. The same name as the character in the sitcom series "Saved by the Bell". Zach is a fun loving dog that was scared and shy at one time. He definitely has come out of his shell and can make you smile just by looking at those ears. Zach is on the smaller side and won't grow much more. He loves his walks and has been seen going for a jog every now and again. Zach really enjoys his camping chair and spent quite a bit of time in it at recent events. He would really do great at training so he can learn all about being an obedient dog and what to expect in his new home. How can you resist that face?? Zach appears overzealous in his kennel at the shelter; please don't let you stop from meeting him. He is patiently waiting for his human to come on in and adopt him... Could that be you?

Garden Vegetable Beef Soup

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1.5 pounds sirloin steak, or beef stew meat (or whatever lean steaks are on sale), cut into about 1" cubes
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 cup diced carrots
- 1 cup frozen or canned peas
- 1 cup frozen or canned corn
- 1 cup green beans
- 1 lb. potatoes, diced
- 8 cups beef stock
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 (28 oz.) can diced tomatoes, with juice
- 1 Tablespoon worcestershire sauce
- 1 Tablespoon Italian seasoning
- 1 teaspoon salt, or more/less to taste

- 1/2 teaspoon freshly-ground black pepper (optional garnish: chopped fresh parsley or dill)

Directions:

In a large stockpot, heat 1 tablespoon of the oil over medium-high heat. Add half the steak and cook, stirring frequently, until well browned, about 2 minutes. Remove the steak with a slotted spoon and transfer to a separate plate. Add the remaining steak and cook until browned, then remove and transfer to a separate plate.

Reduce the heat to medium-low and add the remaining tablespoon of oil to the pot. Add the onion and cook, stirring occasionally for about 5 minutes. Add the garlic, carrots and potatoes, and continue sauteing for another 3 minutes.

Add the remaining ingredients along with the cooked steak to the pot, and stir to combine. Bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce the heat to medium-low, cover pot, and simmer for at least 20-30 minutes, or until the steak and vegetables are all tender. Season with additional salt and pepper if needed.

Remove the bay leaves when ready to serve. Serve the soup warm, garnished with chopped fresh parsley or dill if desired.

Fall has finally arrived, and this hearty, delicious garden vegetable beef soup is a great way to warm up on a chilly day.
