Matt Moulson Reborn

With a resume dotted with multiple 30 goal seasons with the New York Islanders (30 in 2009-10, 31 in 2010-11 and 36 in 2011-12), Matt Moulson brought an expectation of production when he was acquired for Thomas Vanek in the 2014-15 season. With solid 6-3-9 totals in 11 games for Buffalo and 21 goals in 68 games that season, his reputation was intact. While 17 goals in 64 games split between Buffalo and Minnesota in 2015-16 was trending downward, it did project to 20+ goals over a full season which is a solid season in the modern low scoring grind it out NHL.

Now on his second stint with the Sabres, Moulson's 13 goals during the tank season in 2014-15 was a career low but expectations were high for the next year as the team emerged from tanking mode with their young crop of talented forwards. But Moulson was a major disappointment last year. While his measly eight goal output was shockingly low, it was the nature of his playing style that drew attention. He wasn't getting to the areas where goal scorers need to be. Or maybe he couldn't get there anymore. Never the fastest skater, Moulson relied on creating a presence in front of the net and using quick hands to generate scoring chances. And his defensive play suffered as well as he seemed to be unable to keep up with the pace of the game.

The speed of the NHL game gets faster every year and Moulson was clearly falling behind. In the off season GM Tim Murray declared that he still had faith in Moulson but that he needed to make a commitment to training properly. While many were skeptical that Moulson could turn his game around he has silenced his skeptics with a solid beginning to the season with two goals along with a game winning shootout goal in his first four games. His improved goal scoring is the result of his renewed commitment to getting into the scoring area as evidenced by his 2.75 shots per game (11 shots in 4 games) which is double last season 1.37 average (111 shots in 81 games). His shooting percentage has also increased from 7.1% to 18.2%. While he's unlikely to maintain his current scoring pace which would net him 40 goals, a 20 goals season would be rather respectable.

This week's recipe come to us from long time Buffalo Rocket reader Kelly Burns of North Buffalo. Kelly says these kabobs work great as appetizers or as part of a festive meal.

Ingredients

- 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon ancho chile powder
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne

pepper

- 1 pound Chicken Breast Fillets, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 1 large red onion, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 1 red, orange or yellow bell pepper (or more as needed), cut into 1-inch pieces
- 12 (12-inch) skewers*

Directions

Prep 35 minutes
 Cook 10 minutes
 Ready In 5 hours

Mix juices, oil and spices in large plastic food storage bag. Add chicken cubes; seal bag. Massage bag to coat chicken. Refrigerate 4 hours or overnight to marinate.

Heat grill. Thread chicken, onion and bell peppers onto skewers. Grill about 10 minutes until chicken is cooked through, turning as needed for even browning.

Serve with squeeze of fresh lime and garnish with cilantro if desired.

* Tip - Make sure to soak wooden skewers in water for 30 minutes prior to putting food on them to avoid charring on the grill.

Quick and easy to make, these colorful grilled Chicken Fajita Kabobs work wonderfully as a tasty appetizer or as a part of a festive meal.

ADOPT A PET

This Week's Featured Friend:

SURVIVOR

Survivor is a 1-2 year old pitbull mix that moved into a loving foster home when he became sick with a respiratory infection at the shelter. He is now healed and waiting to find his forever home. Survivor has earned his name as he bears scars from his time before arriving at the shelter. Whatever difficult times he faced in his past, he does not let that change his love of EVERYTHING. He is a sweet and affectionate boy. He is a fast learner and already has mastered basic commands and is eager to learn more. Survivor is playful with both his human and canine family members. He also is friendly and respectful of his feline family members. He is already crate trained and house broken. He loves to cuddle with his people, too. Survivor loves his toys and isn't keen on sharing them with others. For this reason, we recommend a home without small children. If you are interested in learning more about Survivor, email his foster mom at Wenron3@yahoo.com.

Stream & Lake Map of New York

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map-known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon,
TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT,
Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

Donation bins will also be available on race day, November 24th at the Delaware YMCA, the start line, and at the Buffalo Niagara Convention Center.

"Last year, thanks to the community's generous support, local Ys collected 4,605 lbs. of non-perishable items which helped provide over 3,800 meals to area families," said Geoffrey Falkner, YMCA Communications Director. "We are thrilled to have the opportunity to support our community in partnership with the Food Bank of Western New York once again this year. It is our hope that the community will come out in force to help us exceed last year's donation totals and support more families.

Halloween Safety Tips

bulbs.

Remove or highlight potential tripping hazards.

Wet leaves should be swept from sidewalks and steps.

Restrain pets so they do not inadvertently jump on or bite a trick-or-treater.

Avoid open flames. Opt for battery-operated candles or LED lights instead.

Do not overload extension cords.

All Dressed Up: Plan costumes that are bright and reflective. Make sure shoes fit well and that costumes are short enough to prevent tripping, entanglement or contact with flame.

Because masks can limit or block eyesight, consider non-toxic make-up and decorative hats as safer alternatives.

When shopping for costumes, wigs and accessories look for and purchase flame resistant products.

Review with children how to call 9-1-1 if they ever have an emergency or become lost.

Exuberant or nervous pets may bolt out doors opened for trick-or-treat candy handouts. Ensure they are wearing up-to-date proper identification in case they become lost.

About Those Treats: A good meal prior to parties and trick-or-treating will discourage youngsters from filling up on Halloween treats.

Consider purchasing non-food treats for those who visit your home, such as coloring books or pens and pencils.

Wait until children are home to sort and check treats.

"By following this common sense recommendations, we hope all of our trick-or-treaters can have a safe and fun Halloween," said Dr. Gale Burstein, Commissioner, Erie County Department of Health. "Don't forget to have all ghosts and goblins brush their teeth well after eating their hard-earned treats!"
