Gift-Giving Tips for Holidays on a Budget

The countdown to the holidays is on, and with it the promise of food, family and celebration. Yet it's also the time of year when spending hits a peak, creating stress for those who haven't budgeted for the season.

"In recent decades, the holidays have lost some of their sparkle, replaced with anxiety about setting the perfect table, selecting the perfect gift, and coming up with the money to do it," said Amy Maliga, a personal finance consultant for Take Charge America, a national non-profit credit counseling and debt management agency. "It's hard to enjoy the season when financial worries are constantly nagging at you, but there are plenty of ways to celebrate on a budget and make the season even more meaningful." Maliga offers some tips for creative gift-giving this season:

Make a pact: Your loved ones may share similar concerns about overspending. Minimize the worry by setting a spending limit, drawing names, or even forgoing gifts in favor of handwritten letters or cards. Your loved ones will be grateful – and relieved.

Eichel - McDavid Showdown Takes A Backseat To The Game

They will be forever linked together as the top two picks in the 2015 NHL Entry Draft. Especially in Buffalo. After two years of tanking, Eichel was the prize the fans had waited for. He would make the suffering worthwhile. And they waited this season for 21 games while he recovered from a preseason injury. While waiting for Eichel's return, the goal-a-game Sabres had compiled a November record of 4-9 with only 18 goals in 13 games, a paltry average of 1.4 goals per game.

Eichel finally returned November 29th with a goal and assist against Ottawa in a 5-4 win, then added a pair of goals in a 4-3 win against the Rangers. Following a pair of losses, Eichel had four points and the Sabres were trending upward.

The time was right for the latest installment of the Eichel McDavid bowl with the Edmonton Oilers coming into town Tuesday December 6th. While some in Buffalo hype this event, the reality is that as the NHL's leading scorer, McDavid has ascended to the top where he is quickly supplanting Sydney Crosby as the best player in the game. When he goes to Toronto the hype is McDavid vs. Auston Matthews. In Winnipeg it's the McDavid - Patrick Lainie (rookie sensation with NHL second best 16 goals) hype.

Get the idea? McDavid has become the standard of excellence in the game.

While Eichel played well in the game earning a secondary assist on the tying goal in the Sabres 4-3 overtime victory, the full measure of McDavid's skating and puck handling skills were on display as he was the most dazzling player on the ice, earning two primary assists. Rasmus Ristolainen was the first star with the game winning goal in overtime and two secondary assists, Evander Kane's pair of goals earned him the second star. The win gives the Sabres a 3-2 record with Eichel scoring a point a game, 3-2- 5. The Sabres are now 5-2- 2 in their last nine and looking like a competitive playoff worthy team.

Choir to Present Lessons and Carols

The Choir of St. Louis Church, under the direction of Frank Scinta, will present a Festival Service of Lessons and Carols on Sunday, December 18th at 4:00 pm in St. Louis Church, 35 Edward Street at Main, Buffalo. Featured will be carols and anthems of Praetorius, Ord, Posten, Willcocks, Iseler and others.

The service of Lessons and Carols traces, in scripture and song, the Nativity story as foretold by the Old Testament prophets and narrated by the Gospel writers. Begun in King's College Chapel, Cambridge University, nearly a century ago, the service of Lessons and Carols is repeated in churches of nearly every denomination worldwide.

The Choir of St. Louis Church is an all-volunteer ensemble composed of members of the parish and other area music lovers. The choir rehearses each Thursday evening and leads the musical worship at 11:00 am each Sunday. Its repertoire covers nine centuries of sacred music and nearly every style of western composition. In recent years, members of the choir have performed with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, Ars Nova Chamber Musicians, Camerata di Sant' Antonio and Greater Buffalo Opera Company.

The Choir of St. Louis Church will present the service of Lessons and Carols on Sunday, December 18th. All are invited and welcome to attend.

to have milk and cookies with Santa and Mrs. Claus after the concert. Kids can come at 1:30 pm to make cards for military personnel stationed far from home and take part in seasonal crafts and stories with Buffalo and Erie County Public Library.

It all leads up to Western New York's number one holiday tradition, John Morris Russell's Holiday Pops on December 16th, 17th and 18th. Russell has more than earned the nickname Mr. Christmas, with a collection of Christmas albums numbering in the thousands. The Westminster Presbyterian Bell Choir performs two pieces with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, and the African-American Cultural Center joins the orchestra for "Little Drummer Boy." Music from "The Polar Express" and "Home Alone" is also on the program, as is the traditional sing-along.

In the spirit of the season, Kleinhan's Music Hall is a drop-off point for the Marine Corps' Toys-For-Tots program. Anyone wishing to donate can bring a new, unwrapped toy to the hall between now and December 18th before concerts, on weekdays between 9 am and 6 pm, on Saturdays starting at 9 am and Sundays starting at noon.

For tickets and performance schedules please visit bpo.org or call 885-5000.

Winter Driving Safety Tips

Driving in a winter storm presents its own unique challenges. The Red Cross has steps people can follow to get their vehicle ready for winter as well as what they should do if they are caught in a winter storm.

“Check your vehicle and stock it with some emergency supplies,” said Rosie Taravella, American Red Cross, Western and Central New York Region Chief Executive Officer. “The best thing you can do is stay off the roads during a winter storm.”

Get your vehicle ready for winter: Plan ahead. Have a mechanic check your tires, battery, brakes and antifreeze levels. Make sure your vehicle is ready for winter with a window scraper, shovel, kitty litter or sand in case you get stuck, extra clothes and a Disaster Supplies Kit in your trunk. Pack high-protein snacks, water, first aid kit, flashlight, small battery-operated radio, an emergency contact card with names and phone numbers, extra prescription medications, blankets and important documents or information you may need.

Driving in winter: While the Red Cross encourages you to stay off the road if possible, if you have to drive in snow or freezing rain, follow these tips about how to drive safely during a winter storm and what to do if you become stuck in your vehicle.

Fill the vehicle’s gas tank and clean lights and windows to help you see.

Pay attention to the weather forecast. Before you leave, let someone know where you are going, the route you plan to take, and when you expect to get there. If your car gets stuck, help can be sent along your predetermined route.

If you have to drive, make sure everyone has their seat belts on and give your full attention to the road. Avoid distractions such as cell phones.

If you must drive in inclement weather, taking some basic precautions can help keep you safe.

Don’t follow other vehicles too closely. Sudden stops are difficult on snowy roadways.

Don’t use cruise control when driving in winter weather.

Don’t pass snow plows. Know that ramps, bridges and overpasses will freeze before roadways.

Weather alerts and first aid tips: Download the Red Cross Emergency App for instant access to winter storm tips and weather alerts for their area and where loved ones live. Expert medical guidance and a hospital locator are included in the First Aid App in case travelers encounter any mishaps. Both apps are available to download for free in app stores or at redcross.org/apps.
