Sabres Shootout Woes Hold Team Down

With their 4-3 shootout loss to the Florida Panthers on Tuesday December 21 st at Sunrise FL, the Sabres record in shootouts dropped to 1-5 on the season. Goaltender Robin Lehner has been perfect on shootouts, he hasn't stopped a single shooter in six attempts and has lost all three of his games that have gone to shootout.

Sabres forwards have been mostly ineffective with only three goals on 13 attempts in six shootouts. Sam Reinhart has been their most dangerous shootouts with two goals on four attempts. Cal O'Reilly has one goal on two attempts including the only shootout game winner. And that's it. No other player has scored a shootout goal this season.

The players without shootout success include Kyle Okposo with zero goals on four attempts and the trio of Brian Gionta, Ryan O'Reilly and Jack Eichel who are each scoreless in one attempt. Jack Eichel is emblematic of the Sabres shootout problems going one for seven so far in his career.

Old friends Jason Pominville and Thomas Vanek are both two for two on shootout attempts for a 100% success rate so far this season. There are 87 NHL players who have scored a total of 116 shootout goals so far this season. Reinhart is the only NHL rostered player the Sabres have with a shootout goal this season. (Cal O'Reilly is an AHL player with Rochester).

The Sabres shootout failures make it imperative that a full out effort must be made to win games in overtime. Perhaps they should play the three on three format with three forwards and press hard for a score. It matters little if they fail and surrender a goal, they seem assured of a loss if the game is tied after the OT period and goes to a shootout. Especially when Robin Lehner is playing. Why he can't even stop a single shootout attempt is a mystery to everyone.

ADOPT A PET Sponsored By The Buffalo Rocket

This Week's Featured Friend:

BRUNO

Bruno is a very sweet dog who has managed to steal some hearts at the shelter. Bruno was a surrender to our shelter so it took him awhile to understand "shelter" life and learn that he can trust people again. Bruno has done very well meeting new people and has been a joy to take to events. He's very easy to walk and also very housebroken. Just remember though, he'll have to learn a new routine in the home he is adopted into, so you have to give him time to adjust. Bruno loves his toys a lot and once he has them, it takes some convincing for him to give them back. He enjoys a good game of tug a war and usually wins. He is sponsored for training classes so that would be a great way for him to learn the rules of giving the toy back or releasing. For this reason, we recommend a home without very small children. Bruno seems to be interested in other dogs but a meet & greet is the best way to determine if he would get along with other canine family member. Bruno is a very handsome boy that is so deserving of another chance at a home life. Can you be the one to open your home and heart to give Bruno a new leash on life?

Mary, Did You Know?

by Anonymous

My thoughts: It came to me the other day as I was thinking about a very blessed, important, special woman this Christmas season...The Blessed Mother, Mary, Jesus' mother. Why we do not give Her more attention, recognition and more credit to her existence? What an important woman She is...THE Mother of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Can we even begin to imagine 2,000 years ago a young woman, pregnant, no husband? The embarrassment, harassment, stares, questions...Yeah, right you conceived. HOW? I remember as a young girl, my family talking about a girl that was sent to a farm to live. When I asked why, I was told she was going to have a baby and was not married. And her family was embarrassed. Wow, I even then, I thought, WHY? Today some high schools have daycare for their female students that are mothers. Times have sure changed!! I pray daily to the Blessed Virgin Mother, the Mother of Jesus. Who else can understand another mother better than Mary, the Mother of Jesus? She is my Counselor, my go-between between Jesus and I. What Son would refuse the request of His Mother? ALL mothers have a special connection to Mary, Jesus's Mother. I am remembering Mary, Christ's Mother, this Christmas and saying, "Thank YOU" to Her for Her Son. And Merry Christmas to all the moms in this world.

PS: And Mary knew Jesus nine months longer than any of us!!

PRAYER IN HONOR OF ST. DYMPHNA
Lord, our God, you graciously chose St. Dymphna as patroness of those afflicted with mental and nervous disorders. She is thus an inspiration and a symbol of charity to the thousands who ask her intercession.
Please grant, Lord, through the prayers of this pure youthful martyr, relief and consolation to all suffering such trials, and especially those for whom we pray. (Here mention those for whom you wish to pray).
We beg you, Lord, to hear the prayers of St. Dymphna on our behalf. Grant all those for whom we pray patience in their sufferings and resignation to your divine will. Please fill them with hope and grant them the relief and cure they so much desire.
We ask this through Christ our Lord who suffered agony in the garden. Amen. G.P.I.
