Tension in Sabres Locker Room Leads To Victory

Following a 4-2 loss to the Vancouver Canucks on Sunday, goaltender Robin Lehner unloaded on his teammates in his post game comments. The teams were tied 2-2 after one period but the game was lost when the Sabres surrendered a pair of goals in the second, continuing a season long trend of poor second period play.

Second periods involve the longer distance to the bench from the defensive zone making it harder to change your defensemen and left winger on the far boards. A lack of hustle on these line changes from several Sabres players has been obvious along with extended shifts which keeps tired players on the ice too long.

Deep shoot ins are important in the middle period because it allows your players enough time to get to the bench and for their replacements to get into the play while their opponent retrieves the puck and moves back up the ice.

Against the Canucks some poor entry decisions by Jack Eichel caused turnovers putting undue stress on the team late in the second period. The Ca-nucks ended up taking the last 14 shots of the period in only five minutes, scoring twice to secure the victory.

Lehner called for his teammates to follow the structure set forth by the coach which involves chipping the puck in deep during the second period and making responsible line changes. His point is well taken. The Sabres second period goal differential this season is an abysmal -20 as compared to a decent +3 in first periods and +2 in third periods.

Perhaps some players were living in the recent past with visions of Saturday night's victory in Toronto fresh in their memories. The Sabres had an impressive 2-0 lead before the Leafs even had a shot on goal. But they still surrendered 44 shots on goal while taking only 23 with Lehner putting in a near flawless performance surrendering only one fluke goal in their 3-1 win at the air Canada Center.

The pattern of continued Monday night in Ottawa with the Sabres surrendering 14 shots in the final eight minutes of the second period and surrendering a single goal to trail 2-1 at the horn. The team rallied with two third period goals for a 3-2 win with Robin Lehner stopping 39 of 41 shots.

Lehner has asserted his role as the teams starting goalie with his strong play. His save percentage ranks seventh in the NHL and he is the only Sabre among the league leaders in any meaningful category. So he has earned the right to speak out and accordingly is taking on a leadership role. Hopefully his teammates will rally to the cause with their effort and not just their mouths.

Sabres Lehner Robin vs Ottawa.

How can you not love that cute, goofy, lovable, happy face? Say hello to Dawson! This young lad is a true character that is patiently waiting for a home of his own. Dawson is still young, so of course he has some enthusiastic energy. But, with good walks, play time outside, and some training, Dawson will settle right down. He really enjoys meeting people and has done well in the yard with some play buddies. He can be choosy about his playmates so it is important that he meets any resident dogs prior to adoption to make sure that everyone wants to be friends. Dawson loves his toys and is a curious guy that likes to explore. We have found that Dawson does appear to do well with small dogs or kitties. He really loves to be outdoors; and, when the weather is fairer, you can often see him in his typical frog legged position lounging in the sunshine. Our dedicated volunteers have put a lot of love and time into helping to polish Dawson's rough edges through training. We really would love for Dawson to find a home that will continue to teach him how to be a well mannered canine citizen. He is sure to become a cherished companion for a special someone. Dawson comes with a reduced adoption fee and is also sponsored by Pound Hounds & Friends for help with training classes!! No better way to develop a bond than with good ole fashioned training.

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF DRAFT DESIGN APPROVAL DOCUMENT

The New York State Department of Transportation (NYSDOT) is developing a design plan to rehabilitate portions of the existing retaining wall along NY Route 33 – Kensington Expressway between Dodge Street and East Delevan Avenue in the City of Buffalo, Erie County. A portion of this project runs along the historic Martin Luther King Jr. Park which is listed as a Section 4(f) historic resource under 23 CFR Part 774 Parks, Recreation Areas, Wildlife and Waterfowl Refuges, and Historic Sites.

Design plans for the project have been developed by the NYSDOT after coordination with Federal, State and Local agencies. A Draft Initial Project Proposal/Final Design Report (IPP/FDR) has been prepared which assesses the project's effect on the quality of the human environment in accordance with the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA).

In addition, this notice conveys to the public that the proposed project is in compliance with Section 4(f) of the United States Department of Transportation Act of 1966, and a de minimis finding for the action of acquiring a permanent easement along Martin Luther King Jr. Park for the construction and future maintenance of the retaining wall. This action will not adversely impact the activities, features or attributes that qualify the property (Martin Luther King Jr. Park) for protection under Section 4(f). PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors
and invokes you universally as the patron
of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven
in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with our lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York State Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department's website at www.banking.state.ny.us FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS

Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.

Section 1303 NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this summons and complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF MORTGAGE COMPANY AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.
