

Wanna Fish Fry?

Going out for a Fish Fry on a Friday night is a Buffalo tradition during the Lenten Season. Many restaurants throughout Western New York claim to have the best, who is your favorite?

Catholics practice various acts of penitence and spiritual self-discipline during Lent, the (approximately) forty days leading up to Easter. One of those disciplines is a fast that requires Catholics to abstain from meat on Fridays during Lent.

The rule that Catholics cannot eat meat on Fridays during Lent is actually more lenient than what most Catholics in history have had to observe. Centuries ago, the Catholic Church had a law that forbade consuming meat on all Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays.

Later, this rule was re-

Free Health Screenings and Farmers Market

The Independent Health Foundation is continuing its successful program, Good for the Neighborhood® (GFTN) with free community events in March. GFTN brings health screenings, educational information and a free farmers market to under served neighborhoods in our community. You do not need to be an Independent Health member to attend.

Two upcoming events on the West Side will take place March 9th from 5:30 - 7 pm at The Belle Center, 104 Maryland St., and March 16th from 6 - 7:30 pm at the West Side Community Services, 161 Vermont St, Buffalo.

The programs in March will focus on nutrition; demonstrating how to chop and prepare vegetables that might seem difficult to make. The March programs will also offer a healthy recipe showcasing the free vegetable everyone gets for attending, and each location will be raffling off items such as cutting boards and a crock pot.

Additionally, participants will be able to receive a free health screening for blood pressure, cholesterol and blood glucose level. Everyone who obtains a health screening at the event will receive a prize. There will also be an opportunity to earn an additional prize for having screening results in a healthy range.

Tour of Homes

Every year the Parkside Tour of Homes invites people from Buffalo, surrounding suburbs, and even Toronto and Rochester, to visit our neighborhood. Parkside is recognized internationally for the architecture of our homes and the influential design of Frederick Law Olmsted. The Tour is a chance for us to show off a little, share our unique slice of the city, and raise money for the Parkside Community Association efforts throughout the year.

The Tour of Homes is the Association's largest fundraiser event. Funds support the long standing Summer Arts camp, serving area youth 5-14 with programming and a mentoring internships. They also support ongoing traffic and crime advocacy, along with Aging in Place efforts, community events, the little libraries, and so much more.

A few more homes are needed by the end of February, so if you're thinking about it, please email PCAdirector@gmail.com or call 838-1240.

The Parkside Community Association Tour of Homes Committee is hard at work planning the event for Sunday, May 21st, 2017, and there is still room for a few more homes - including yours, hopefully!

Chief's Monthly Meeting

Strong Play of Lehner, Kane Validate GM Murray's Vision

Heading into the final third of the season coach Dan Bylsma announced his decision to ride goalie Robin Lehner in a final push for playoff contention. While Lehner has had a strong season, Sabres fans expressed their discontent over his penchant for giving up soft goals, inability to make a save in shootouts and his overall losing record. They also cite the high price paid as Sabres GM Tim Murray had sent a first round pick to Ottawa for Lehner.

But Lehner's losing record stemmed from poor goal support in the first 20 games before Jack Eichel returned from injury. And his play since taking over the heavy role as starter has been stronger. With his 2-0 shutout of Colorado on Saturday, Lehner rose to third in league save percentage before dropping to 7th following Chicago's 5-1 beat down on Sunday. He also led the team on it's first sustained winning streak, albeit a modest three game, which pulled them withing one point of the Toronto Maple Leafs and the eighth and final playoff position.

Murray had faced some criticism for his acquisition of Lehner from Ottawa where he had previously been employed as a scout by his uncle, senators GM Bryan Murray. Lehner did not present a body of work that showed he could handle the workload of a number one goaltender but Murray believed in his potential. Lehner's play and leadership so far this season are proving that he has the right stuff to be a franchise goaltender.

Evander Kane has inspired some discontent outside and within the organization. His well known off ice escapades are fodder for the media. His play on the ice was also the subject of much criticism. Long known as a skilled player who went up his wing and fired long distance wrist shots on goal with a very little chance of scoring, it was felt he would never develop beyond this one dimensional game.

While Kane's off ice life-

Robin Lehner's save of the season with Evander Kane's blocking attempt shows his commitment to team concept style has been quieter his play on the ice lately has drawn the right kind of attention. Since Eichel's return Kane has been the hottest Sabre scorer. He has 21 goals on the season, all coming in 37 games since December 3rd. He had 20 goals last season in 61 games. He leads the NHL with 20 goals at even strength. His success stems from diversifying his attack, working in closer for shots, finding open ice where teammates can set him up, establishing a presence in front of the net where he can pounce on rebounds. In short, he has evolved as a player to become part of an attacking unit rather than a one man show.

Kane was the centerpiece in the Sabres big trade with Winnipeg sending Tyler Myers, Drew Stafford and Joel Armia west. There has been lots of chatter lately about moving Kane for a top four defenseman. His is a free agent after next season and his trade value will never be higher. For now, his rising prominence is a testament to the vision and patience of the organization who took a chance on him and is paying dividends.

laxed to remove meat from the diet on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays. In 1966, Catholic bishops in America, with the blessing of Pope Paul VI, further relaxed the rule. Nowadays meat is only prohibited on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Fridays of the Lenten season. Catholics are obligated to observe this fast as a minimum; they can make up stricter requirements for themselves, if they so desire.

The stated reason for Catholics not being allowed to eat meat on Fridays during Lent is to remind the faithful that Jesus died on a Friday. Jesus gave up His body (His flesh), and Catholics, in an effort to attain greater communion with Christ, refrain from consuming flesh.

If there is no eating meat on Fridays, then why is eating fish allowed for Catholics? The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops states that fish are a different category of animal. So it's only the meat of warm-blooded animals that is prohibited. Eggs, butter, and milk are also allowed.

Many restaurants in Buffalo offer a fish fry and Western New York has a strong Catholic community that abstain from most meat products on Fridays during Lent. This is why the Fish Fry became a popular tradition this time of the year. The Fish Fry is a fillet of haddock or cod, deep fried or broiled, served with French fries, coleslaw, a side of potato or macaroni salad, tartar sauce, a slice of lemon and bread.

Who has the best? That is for you to decide. Here are a few of the local restaurants that are offering a Fish Fry during Lent that may help you make that decision: Wellington Pub, 1541 Hertel Avenue, St. Mark Parish, 399 Woodward Avenue, TC Jr's, 2941 Delaware Avenue, and Johnny's Meats (take out only,) 1191 Hertel Avenue.

The New York State Department of Transportation (NYSDOT) is developing a design plan to rehabilitate portions of the existing retaining wall along NY Route 33 – Kensington Expressway between Dodge Street and East Delevan Avenue in the City of Buffalo, Erie County. A portion of this project runs along the historic Martin Luther King Jr. Park which is listed as a Section 4(f) historic resource under 23 CFR Part 774 Parks, Recreation Areas, Wildlife and Waterfowl Refuges, and Historic Sites.

Design plans for the project have been developed by the NYSDOT after coordination with Federal, State and Local agencies. ### PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven
in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with our lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York State Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department's website at www.banking.state.ny.us FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS
Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.
Section 1303 NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this summons and complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF MORTGAGE COMPANY AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.
