Sabres Hockey

SPORTS

by George Kuhn

Buffalo Sabres: What Went Wrong

By George Kuhn

The Sabres allowed 2,813 shots against or 34.5 per game, the most shots against in the league for a very good reason, they don't play very well when their opponents have the puck. Many forwards refuse to block shots. Smaller players are overwhelmed physically by bigger stronger opponents and some lack the foot speed necessary to pressure opponents or to maintain body position in the defensive zone. Too many players don't play a 200 foot game, i.e., not enough focus on the not so glamorous aspects of playing defense.

While statistics can sometimes be misleading there are few stats more revealing than shot differential, the difference between your shots taken and shots allowed. The Sabres ranked 28th in this category, surrendering 3.9 more shots than they take. Only Vancouver at 4.0 and Arizona at 6.3 rank lower.

The penalty killing ranked 24th at 77.6% after finishing 9th last season with an 82.6% success rate. Do they miss David Legwand that much?

While injuries took some PK regulars out of the lineup that doesn't explain the terrible results here. Why isn't Justin Bailey being groomed for this role? With his speed and long reach, he would seem to be an ideal fit here.

This team is woefully short on talent. There is one elite player in Jack Eichel and a potentially elite player in Rasmus Ristolainen. Ryan O'Reilly is a good second line center. Evander Kane has been a dynamic every night 200 foot player and worthy of first line status if he continues to play at that level. Kyle Okposo is a solid second line player with some recent health issues that unfortunately make his future unknown. Without Okposo the team has only three top six forwards. Sam Reinhart is a second liner only because the team lacks better players. His slow foot speed in a league where speed dominates is just shocking for a second overall pick. On a Stanley Cup team he is no better than a third line forward.

The defense is woefully inadequate. They lack quickness in retrieving loose pucks to transition to offense. This leads to extended possession time by opponents in the defensive zone and contributes to the teams league worst shots against totals. But don't blame it all on them. Defense is a five man game and the poor defensive play also reflects a lack of commitment by the forwards to their defensive responsibilities.

Any great player can be stopped by great defense, including Bobby Orr and Wayne Gretzky. The NHL is a grinding defensive oriented league and the leagues best players play a grinding style led by Sidney Crosby who is the leagues best player and best grinder.

The young Sabres stars want to play an attacking style free from the defensive responsibilities imposed by former coach Dan Bylsma. Scotty Bowman faced a similar insurrection with Detroit in the early 90's and purged the Red Wings of some big name players who didn't want to commit to his style of play.

Paul Coffey, Dino Ciccarelli and Ray Sheppard went on with their careers with Coffey and Ciccarelli in the Hall Of Fame, while Bowman's Red Wings piled up the Stanley Cup championships without them. Until the Sabres players learn to put defense first, they will continue to flounder.

the past several years now. As the Rocket goes to press, 880 boys and girls, many of them first year players, have signed up to play as many as 12 to 15 games over the next two months twice a week in the "field of dreams" for baseball and softball in the City of Buffalo.

"We're still growing," said League vice-president John Hornung earlier this week prior to a meeting held this past Monday at the North Buffalo Community Center. "Last year we had kids in some divisions that had to be put on waiting lists if they happened to register too late. Now, we've made some teams smaller and added a new team in some divisions so more kids could play."

Currently, there's over 50 teams playing in Shoshone Park on eight beautiful diamonds that are maintained on a daily basis by league officers who volunteer their time to ensure a child's safety for each game. No member of the board gets paid and team coaches do it for love of the game.

A team can play twice a week, a game a 6:00 pm on a week night and always on a Saturday.

Promptly at 11:45 am this Saturday Morning, rain or shine, visiting dignitaries from downtown offices will join the league to help them throw out the first pitch, sing the National Anthem and yell "Play Ball!" Games will be played beginning at 1:30 pm and then again at 3:30 pm and 5:30 pm on a day that League president Donald Morris calls "the best day of the year!" Come on out and have a ball.

SARGE

Sarge is a handsome freckle nosed three year old male who spent his first three years being bullied by the other neighborhood cats. Emaciated and injured, he was brought into foster care after a particularly bad incident. Sarge has received tender loving care in his foster home and is now healthy with a beautiful deep orange coat. This darling boy has been taught to play by his foster family and absolutely loves his toys. Surprisingly, considering his mistreatment on the streets, he is sweet and loving boy. Sarge is FIV+ but proper and careful care has made him an adoptable favorite. For more info contact Patty via text/phone 715-351-9452

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.
