This week we are starting something new with social media. In our archives are thousands of pictures that may or may not have been published in the Buffalo Rocket over the years. We have posted some older pictures on the Buffalo Rocket's Facebook page. We began with some snapshots of former North District councilman, Vince LoVallo, with overwhelming success. The fact that Vince is very popular and well liked added to the comments. Some of his friends shared the posting and as of this writing, one day later, it had over 1500 views.

We also posted a collage of pictures taken more recently, hoping some of the dozens or so people in the photo would respond. That did not happen, but 300 people did view it. Tells those you know to check it out. They are mostly North Buffalo residents and may get a kick out of seeing how they looked a few years back.

Just go to Facebook Buffalo Rocket page and scroll down.

We will also again publish birthday wishes. So send in your birthday greeting and we will publish them in the Rocket and on our Facebook page.

Evander Kane Trade Rumors: Much Ado About Nothing

Let's be clear about a few things. Number one: Evander Kane has lived in a hotel for two years since arriving in Buffalo in a trade with the Winnipeg Jets. Obviously this shows a lack of interest in establishing a permanent residence here. With one year remaining on his contract Kane would become an unrestricted free agent if he does not sign an extension. Interpretation: He doesn't plan to be here for a long time.

Number two: Trade rumors have swirled around Kane since becoming involved in some off ice shenanigans. Unlike former GM Tim Murray, new GM Jason Botterill did not acquire Kane with a vision of him as a cornerstone of his new team. Murray seemed more interested in Kane's upside as a player while downplaying the non hockey issues while Botterill may be looking more at the office issues as a negative.

Speculation is that there are several current Sabres that do not fit his vision for the team with Kane at the head of the list. Interpretation: Botterill will be quicker to trade Kane than Murray would.

Number three: Reported the Los Angeles Kings want to acquire Kane. Having been burned when they acquired Milan Lucic as a rental, and with Kane fast approaching UFA status, the Kings probably would have no interest in Kane unless he agreed to sign a contract extension at which point his value would increase netting the Sabres more value in return. There are no rumors floating around over a potential return to the Sabres although defense is an area of need. Stay tuned.

Your request will be granted. G.P.

The Winds of Change

Hold on to your baseball caps boys and girls. The winds of change have come to Shoshone Park this past weekend and now, eleven more teams have taken the field in North Buffalo.

What started out as 44 teams in the in-house Hertel North Park League, has increased to 55 because girls and boys from area high schools can now play in "Senior" Divisions. Boys between the ages of 13-15 and girls between 13-16 will all be able to continue hitting a baseball or softball, even though the school year has ended.

There are four girls teams and seven teams for the boys. The girls will play on Angels, Athletics, Pirates or Yankees teams in fast pitch softball. Boys will play baseball on teams named Diamondbacks, Dodgers, Mariners, Mets, Orioles, Pirates and Tigers. Both divisions began their season this past Saturday and will play into August, depending on good weather.

The 55 teams assembled doesn't include the boys and girls travel teams named Blaze, Wildcats and Knights. There's a travel team for each of the various age divisions in Shoshone Park, from Rookie to Seniors.

Now add 12 more t-ball teams for boys and four girls t-ball teams and then you'll discover just how BIG the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball and Softball League is. Let's take you out to Shoshone Park.

In Senior girls, the Athletics defeated the Angels and the Pirates defeated the Yankees, 10-9 in an extra eighth inning to get their season underway. Most of these girls have been playing together over the years, beginning in Rookie or Minors divisions and have reached tremendous play on the diamond. This division is competitive and well worth a visit to the Park.

The same can be written for the boys. Last years' division champion Dodgers know they'll have their work cut out for them when they face the Mets, Orioles or Tigers. Saturday, Jordan Farinas hit a two run single and teammate Elijah Mecklenberg allowed just one hit over five innings to lead the DBacks over the Mets, 4-1. Jackson Alagna and Nate Bailey each had three hits to help the Orioles rally past the Pirates, 6-3 and the Mariners defeated the Tigers, 18-11.

In Rookie girls, the Angels are still undefeated at 5-0 with a 2-0 win over the Diamonds. Chloe Claeys had two hits and made three putouts in the infield. Izzy Kilonsky hit a homerun and Peyton Gallivan had the winning hit for the Shamrocks for a 7-6 win over the Devils in games played Saturday.

In Rookie boys, the Red Sox shut out the Mariners 1-0 on an RBI single by Jonathan Greene that scored Tino Perez. Charlie Marabella drove in teammate Frank Amati with the winning run in an extra seventh inning for a 1-0 Blue Jays victory over the Astros. The Yankees continued their winning ways over the A's and the Royals shutout the Orioles.

In first Minors, the Angels and Athletics picked up their first wins of the season. Gabe DiLeo hit two homeruns, Ben Foglia had two big hits and brothers Alex and Casey Glynn helped lead the Angels to their first victory last Wednesday. Then Saturday, Eamon Langdon blasted his first homerun of the year and got help from teammates Nick Conroe and Nick Marcello on the mound for the A's in their first win of the year over the Blue Jays, 9-3.

The Pirates are still undefeated in Second Minor at 7-0 with two more wins over the Braves and Brewers. R.J. Hadden had three hits Saturday over the Brewers. Joe Bueme sparked the team to victory last Wednesday and three pitchers, Milo Armstrong, Riley Wales and Kaius Mattoon pitched shutout ball for the Brewers in a 5-0 win on the first day back from the Memorial Day weekend. Come to Shoshone Park where the wind can help you hit a homerun!

This Week's Featured Friend:

STELLA

STELLA is ready to be adopted! She's about one year old and our best guess is she's a Shepherd/Terrier mix. She's living with dogs of all sizes, cats and other small animals and does well with everyone. She doesn't seem interested in playing with the other dogs but co-exists just fine. She knows sit, paw and how to catch flying treats. She was incredibly terrified of everyone at the shelter, but has had no issues with any of the countless new people she has met in her foster home. She loves walks and snuggling with her favorite people and is just an all around nice dog who is respectful of others. She's also crate trained and housebroken. If you are interested in meeting her, please email me at jennawardlovesbullies@gmail.com.

On the right, another boy runs with his arms outstretched and a large open-mouthed smile. In the background, a sign on a building reads "DIST. 3 SCHOOL." The scene is set outdoors with some bushes and a sidewalk.

Help For Homeowners In Foreclosure

New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. Mortgage foreclosure is a complex process. Some people may approach you about “saving” your home. You should be extremely careful about any such promises. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. There are government agencies, legal aid entities and other non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about foreclosure while you are working with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Banking Department at 1-877-BANKNYS (1-877-226-5697) or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us. The State does not guarantee the advice of these agencies.
