There’s something magical about certain Hertel North Park teams every summer in North Buffalo. While a magician uses a magic wand to surprise and capture an audience, ten year old girls playing for a Yankees team use a bat on the softball diamonds of Shoshone Park.

These Yankees captured a Championship Trophy however, using their bats last Friday night to upset the number one ceded Giants team, 5-1 in the Minor Girls Division Final. Fourteen girls dressed in the navy blue and silver shirts, just like the Bronx Bombers, jumped for joy after the final out that ended a terrific season. The girls finished the regular season in fourth place in the division with a 6-6 w-l record behind the Giants, Continued on page three.

Buffalo Native Keeps Navy Wing Flying

By Kayla Good

A Buffalo native is serving in the U.S. Navy aboard Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, the premier naval air installation in the Pacific Northwest region.

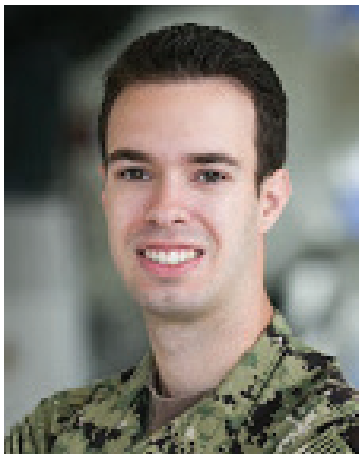

Petty Officer 3rd Class Nicolo Francoforte is an aviation machinist’s mate serving with Commander, Patrol and Reconnaissance Wing 10.

A Navy aviation machinist’s mate is responsible for the maintenance of aircraft engines and support components.

“With my job, I like turning the wrenches,” said Francoforte. “The mechanical aspect of my job is really interesting to me.”

According to Navy officials, Wing 10 has continued to fly combat missions in direct support of the troops on the ground and delivered traditional maritime capabilities, real-time intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance.

Reds and Indians but in the six team double elimination playoffs, victories over the Orioles and Reds led them to having to face the Giants.

Team manager Trey Gardner, no stranger to Hertel North Park Girls Playoffs, again played the magician from the dugouts of the softball diamonds of Shoshone Park. With a roster that included several girls who have played together since t-ball or Rookie Divisions, Danielle "Dani" Hatch, Samantha "Sammy" Horne and Isabel "Izzy" Gardner are just three of the girls to lead the way.

The Giants led the six team division since opening day, coming out of the gate with four straight wins to set the tone. Two of those victories were over the Yankees and with girls like Maggie Schmarder, Karrington Mann, and Gia Piazza, the orange "San Francisco" across their shirts lost just two games in the regular season for an 11-2 w-l mark.

This was the third Championship in a row for the Yanks in this division and fourth in the last five years under manager Trey Gardner. "It was a young bunch of girls, we got off to a slow start but after some team practices, they just started hitting the ball." In the final, a two run RBI single from Jordyn Williams broke the game open against the Giants. Shania Johnson had a big hit and Natalie West played well behind the plate. Nia Sawyers, Lucy Krytus and Janiyah Harris-Officer all helped with key hits at the plate. Other Yankees players included Isabella Bernecki, Marcina Edwards, Kaylin Lyle, Jayda Perry and Justyce Respress.

If Gardner is a magician from the dug out, then NY is on the cap.

system designed for long-range anti-submarine warfare; anti-surface warfare; and intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance missions, Navy officials explained.

"Patrol and Reconnaissance Wing 10 mans, trains, and equips P-3 and P-8 squadrons to deploy anywhere, anytime," said Capt. Robert W. Patrick, Commodore of CPRW-10. "These forces are the nation's first choice for broad area maritime surveillance and rapid response around the world.

This is critically important, as we are the eyes and the ears of our national defense, putting pressure on strategic locations around the world. Our sailors are the single biggest asymmetric advantage that allow us to succeed at our missions. Without our sailors' agility and expertise, we would not be able to do what we do."

Francoforte is part of a crew striving to be the best Naval Aviation Wing in the United States, according to Navy Officials. Their mission is to safely build and maintain a team of sailors capable of conducting prompt and sustained combat operations.

"I have been with this command for about six months," Francoforte said. "I enjoy serving in Whidbey Island. I have made friends quickly here. The community is tighter than my previous command."

According to Navy officials, the Navy continues to meet milestone after milestone on this world-class mission and is providing an aircraft with superior capabilities to the men and women in uniform that will have a lasting legacy promoting a global maritime strategy.

"Serving in the Navy means serving my country and doing something bigger than yourself," Francoforte added.

North Buffalo resident Mary Pierre Quinn-Stanbro recently had a Novella published entitled "The Berry-Picker House". It is a fictional story that ties together the chance meeting of two people in New Orleans during the early part of the twentieth century and a murder trial that takes place in the Finger Lakes region of Central New York decades later. Connected through the reoccurring song "Lace Around the Moon", this novella is a tale of misguided tumultuous and binding love and how the choices that people make affect the lives of everyone under the moonlit skies.

Mary has lived in North Buffalo for the past 25 years and has volunteered on many projects throughout our community. You can visit www.lacearoundthemoon.com for more information. A portion of the proceeds from the book go to support the Iron Island Museum.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.
