Joey's Place on Hertel

Joseph Dallos, Jr., owner of Joey's Place at 1122 Hertel Avenue, Buffalo, NY.

Joseph Dallos, Jr. opened Joey's Place in June of 2017, at 1122 Hertel Avenue, with ambitions of making it a cozy gathering place for people looking for a friendly, neighborhood corner bar and restaurant. Joey is exciting to be a part of making Buffalo great again by offering homemade food in an atmosphere when you can come alone or with your friends and be comfortable. Every day, Joe roasts fresh meats, and cooks soups, sauces & delicious specials from family recipes. At Joey's Place on Hertel, you'll find giant beef on weck sandwiches, daily specials and great drink specials every day. Joey's Place is open dai-

BIGS in Blue

Mayor Byron W. Brown, joined by Buffalo Police Officers and representatives from Big Brothers Big Sisters of Erie County, today announced the start of "Bigs in Blue" in the city of Buffalo. "Bigs in Blue" is a one-to-one mentoring program aimed at recruiting local law enforcement officers to serve as Big Brothers or Big Sisters to youth, specifically ages 10-12. "Our officers enjoy spending time in the community and getting to know the people they so proudly serve," said Mayor Brown, noting that he announced the coming of the "Bigs in Blue" program during his annual State of the City Address in February. "Building bridges between police officers and youth is vitally important. We know that mentoring helps children overcome obstacles and reach their potential, and we believe it can play a role in building understanding and bridging divides throughout our community."

Salvation Army Gift of Warmth Drive

The Salvation Army would like to remind people that hats, mittens and scarves are needed not only during the cold December month, but all winter long. During Christmas, families that attend The Salvation Army Toy Shoppe may select a gift of warmth for their children. These items are also distributed in The Homeless Family Shelter at The Army - when families arrive with little to protect them against the cold Buffalo winters.

Additionally, from October to mid March, gifts of warmth are distributed during the Salvation Army's Homeless Street Feeding Program on Sunday and Monday evenings. This is when The Army stocks their canteen, their modern day food truck, with a hot balanced meal and takes it to the streets by the Library downtown, Sunday and Monday nights from 5:00 - 6:00 and serves approximately 200 meals to the homeless. Community donations and caring volunteers combine to provide a hot meal on a cold night to a homeless person.

The Gift of Warmth Drives has bins in all M&T branches throughout WNY. Their drive runs through Dec 31, but there is need all winter. Items can also be dropped off at 960 Main Street. Collection bins are available by calling 888-6213 they will drop them off at your place of business, then pickup when full. For more information on volunteering or donating goods, please visit www.buffalo-salvationarmy.org

Rabies Vaccination Clinic

Erie County Executive Mark C. Poloncarz and Commissioner of Health Dr. Gale Burstein are pleased to announce the date of the first of six free rabies vaccination clinics provided by the Erie County Department of Health in 2018. The Clinic will be on Wednesday, January 24, 2018. The clinic will be held from 3 pm - 7 pm at the North Buffalo Community Center at 203 Sanders Road in North Buffalo.

"These vaccinations are a good way to minimize the spread of rabies from wildlife to pets and humans," said Burstein. "I want to remind Erie County residents that if they or their pets have been exposed to a wild animal, or bitten by a dog or cat, they should contact the Erie County Department of Health at 961-6800."

Additional rabies vaccination clinics will be held in May and September of 2018 with dates and details to be announced at a later date.

Sabres Hockey SPORTS
by George Kuhn

Five Thoughts About The Sabres

1. The Sabres have quietly put together a four game point streak (2-0-2) starting with last weeks 4-2 win in Denver against the Rockies. Then the Sabres went to overtime, earning loser points on the road in a pair of 3-2 OT losses against the Chicago Blackhawks and St Louis Blues. But let's not kid ourselves, the Sabres had their helmets handed to them in both of those overtime losses where the combined shots on goal were 95-52 against. Only Robin Lehner, Evan Rodrigues' two goals against St. Louis and Lady Luck kept the Sabres in those games. Lehner faced 52 shots in Chicago and lost the game in overtime on a last second shot. On social media some fans mocked him some saying that he lost on purpose to avoid going to a shootout where he has been dreadful allowing every shooter to score. In reality the team didn't deserve a point in either game and can thank their goaltender for those two points.

2. Rodrigues two goals in the 2-2 tie against the Blues gave him three points (2-1-3) in his first three games of his injury delayed season and a plus two on a roster loaded with minus players. When the Sabres signed Rodrigues as an undrafted free agent in 2015, it looked like they wanted him around to help his college linemate, Jack Eichel, feel more comfortable signing with Buffalo when there was some speculation that he would return to Boston University for a second season.

While Eichel was a rookie with Buffalo in 2015-16, Rodrigues was down in Rochester learning the pro game with nine goals in 78 games. Last season, Rodrigues scored nine goals and 30 points in Rochester but in only 48 games while spending 30 games with Buffalo scoring four times. His addition to the lineup has helped provide a spark for the bottom dwelling Sabres. It looks like he has found a home in Buffalo while more highly touted prospects like Justin Bailey and Nick Baptiste continue their development in Rochester where they are both in their third season. Bailey has four goals in 47 NHL games and 45 goals in 126 AHL games. Baptiste has three goals in 18 NHL games and 42 goals in 139 AHL games.

3. The Sabres gave the home fans a holiday treat on Tuesday December 12th with a 3-2 victory over the struggling Ottawa Senators in a battle to avoid last place in the East. The offensive output was an explosion of goals for the offensively challenged Sabres. Goalie Robin Lehner faced only 26 shots enjoyed a relatively easy night compared to the barrage of rubber he saw on the road trip last week. Lehner improved his record against the Senators, his old team, to 5-0-2 with a .935 save percentage and a 1.39 GAA. The win gave Buffalo 22 points, three behind Ottawa in their battle to avoid the basement of the Eastern Conference.

4. Tuesday's victory over Ottawa saw offensive contribution from the teams best players with Kyle Okposo scoring after a brilliant backhand pass from Ryan O'Reilly through a small forest of legs and sticks right on the tape. Rasmus Ristolainen had two assists including the primary assist setting up Evander Kane's power-play goal giving Buffalo a 3-0 lead. Jack Eichel had a secondary assist on the Kane goal.

5. Eichel now has 24 points on the season with eight goals, projecting out to 21 goals and 63 points over the full 82 game schedule. This was Eichel's third power play point, all assists. He has not scored a power play goal this season. This is a far cry from 2016-17 when he scored 10 goals and 14 assists with the man advantage in only 61 games.

He ranks 53rd in league scoring while Connor McDavid, his supposed rival as a generational player, has climbed to 3rd place with 39 points, three behind Steven Stamkos and Nikita Kucherov of the Tampa Bay Lightning who are tied for the scoring lead with 42 points. The cream always rises to the top.

Blue Christmas Service at Nativity United Church of Christ. The holiday season can be difficult for those who have experienced a loss, illness or hardship. The Church of the Nativity has chosen Monday, December 18th to hold a special Blue Christmas service to acknowledge the “darkness” many people may feel during the holiday season.

The service, on December 18th at 7:00 pm, will emphasize the presence of God who comes as light into the midst of darkness, bringing comfort and hope. All are welcome. The Church of the Nativity is at 1530 Colvin Boulevard, one block north of Sheridan Drive in the Town of Tonawanda.

The Pet Food Pantry is operated by The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, 96 Jewett Pkwy., Buffalo. They distribute pet food with no questions asked to those 18 years of age and older. The day of distribution is the first Sunday of every month, from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm. If it falls on a holiday, they will operate the following Sunday. No paperwork, identification, or proof of income is required. The pantry is operated solely on donations. While donations of food and treats are always accepted and appreciated, donations of cash allow for the purchase of food in larger quantities. Donations can be made by dropping it off during distribution time. Or, please contact the parish office to set up a time. Please do not leave bags of food outside of the church. Monetary donations by check should be made out to the Church of the Good Shepherd. Please specify Pet Food Pantry. If you are interested in volunteering, they would love to have you. Youth and scouting groups looking for a volunteer project are welcome. Please contact the parish office of Good Shepherd at 833.1151 with any questions. For more information please visit their Facebook Page.

Designated Drivers of Buffalo has launched its DDNY App just in time for the holiday season. The app will allow customers to order professional drivers to drive both them and their vehicle wherever they need to go.

The app is currently available for download. The functionality, much like ride-sharing, will allow customers to order, pay, track and rate drivers right through their mobile device.

New services include Driver-by-the-hour, Shuttle Service, Medical Transportation, Wine Tours, Errand and Concierge Service, Elderly and Child Transportation, and Corporate Use programs.

DDOB is seeking to add at least 50 additional drivers. Interested driving candidates should have a clean driving record, and can apply for by calling Designated Drivers of Buffalo at 202-2222 or apply online at www.DDOBNY.com.

RAVE REVIEWS
"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

How To Have a Merry Christmas

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

Christmas is the most depressing time of the year for many people. New Year's Eve is another difficult time. There are lots of reasons why depression and suicide rates soar during these holidays. Feeling alone, financial distress, health issues, family problems and the list can actually be long.

Here are some quick tips for you. Keep this column handy for reference over the next two weeks.

Plan to be connected to people during these holidays. Even if it's sitting on the sofa making telephone calls all day at least you are talking and hearing people. Actually this is a good idea anyway. Make a long list and call people and wish them a Merry Christmas or a Happy New Year. Or, divide your list and call some one holiday and the rest on

New Year's Eve. Too many people sit back with the attitude, "Well, they haven't called me." Don't worry about that because we are talking about your self-preservation here. Have people in your home whether it's family or people in your neighborhood. Have them for just coffee and a cookie. Better yet, if you have family, relax and just roll with the holiday punches. There is absolutely nothing else to do on Christmas. Your local convenient store or truck stop might be open but that's it. Enjoy and love the people you might be around - it's only once a year that you are truly stuck all day with them. You can survive it.

Do not fuss about anything. Be nice to everybody. Let the stupid things that people say to you roll off your back. Smile and act like you are having a wonderful time even if some relative is driving you crazy.

Just laugh and have fun.

Keep it simple. Don't overspend your bank account. Don't rack up a big credit card debt. Let other people help you with any cooking, kitchen details and clean up. Share the joy with other people. Most people are happy to chip in and it makes them and you feel better.

Allow yourself plenty of time. My wife starts cooking Christmas dinner two weeks early. She makes something and then puts it in the freezer. If she makes one thing every day we normally end up with enough food for the neighborhood. There was a time when she tried to do it all on one day. This drove her and all of us crazy. Last minute cooking, shopping and leaving home late to travel a long trip is all nerve racking and takes some of the fun out of the holiday.

Help one or two people along the way. No one person can save the world but you never know when your assistance might be a miracle for someone. Years ago a man had tied up all of his money into a house when suddenly he lost his job and had no way to keep the house. The bank secured everything he owned and there were zero dollars available to do anything. He didn't know what he was going to do including buy groceries or even find another place to rent. A financially secure man in the town heard about the plight of the other guy and called him into his office one week before Christmas to announce to him he was going to buy his house from him. The man was overwhelmed with joy and was able to eventually secure another place to live, another job and move forward with his life. However for sometime he lived each day feeling and knowing that his life and family were in severe peril. He told me once that what happened was truly a life saving miracle.

You probably aren't in the position to just buy somebody's house in order to financially save him or her. However, maybe a good word, a small financial gift, or even trying to help somebody find a job might be miracle life saving acts that you might give to someone.

Christmas only comes once a year if we are blessed to see and enjoy the day.

Be thankful. Give thanks to God Almighty for His blessings. Don't give ugly gestures to people on the highway. Be nice to Republicans and Democrats and Independents and all other parties - at least on Christmas.

We need more joy, smiles and happiness in America. Do your part. You are one person. If every person contributes we can truly all have a more Merry Christmas.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.
