Take Your Child To The Library Day

On Saturday, February 3rd, Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries will join hundreds of libraries throughout the country in celebrating Take Your Child to the Library Day with dozens of free events and activities for children and families.

Special programs are planned to delight families including: scavenger hunts, movies, tinkering and makerspace activities, string art crafts, pajama parties, button making, storytelling, kid-friendly DIY projects, music performances, parades, library tours and much more.

Take Your Child to the Library Day was developed to spotlight libraries as vital community resources that enrich, enlighten and entertain – and to encourage adults and families to introduce children of all ages to their warm and friendly local public libraries, where everyone is always welcome to discover, learn and grow. Take Your Child to the Library Day is also a good day to get youngsters (and others) free library cards.

Parent/guardian proof of Erie County residency is required.

The Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System has more than 3 million materials available for borrowing including books, eBooks, DVDs, music and more. Free library card applications can be downloaded and taken to any of the 38 - local public libraries for processing. A valid form of identification and proof of address is necessary. For more information call 858-8900 or visit www.BuffaloLib.org.

2018 Grammy Winner to Perform at the Albright-Knox

The 2017–2018 Art of Jazz Series will present the first area headlining concert by pianist Billy Childs, fresh off his win for Best Jazz Instrumental Album at the 2018 Grammy Awards, with his quartet at the Albright-Knox Art Gallery on Sunday, March 18th, at 3 pm. Series associate producer Tony Zambito will host a pre-concert discussion, “Art of the Arranger,” at 2 pm.

His recent Grammy-winning release Rebirth (Mack Avenue), also nominated in the Best Improvised Jazz Solo category, marks his long-anticipated return to scintillating hard-bop: “ultra-sophisticated, gracefully crafted jazz, but full of dynamism” (The Guardian). Appearing with Childs will be rising saxophone star Dayna Stephens, bassist Hans Glawischnig, and drummer Ari Hoenig.

Tickets can be purchased at the Albright-Knox Admissions Desk or online at <http://www.albrightknox.org/artofjazz>.

Early ticket purchases are highly recommended as Art of Jazz concerts frequently sell out well in advance of the concert date.

Safety Note

Buffalo Police would like to remind motorists to not leave their cars running while unattended. There have been reports of people having their vehicles stolen while leaving the vehicle running at gas stations and other such locations.

Please always turn your engine off and lock your doors when exiting your vehicle.

Chiefs Meeting Planned

This month Chief Barba of D District will conduct his monthly meeting on Wednesday, February 7th at 11 am. The meeting is open to the community and everyone is welcome. Block clubs and members of neighborhood associations are especially encouraged to attend. Keeping the lines of communication open between law enforcement and community residents is an important tool in fighting crime. Do your part and come to a meeting at D District station, 669 Hertel Avenue.

Five Thoughts as the Buffalo Sabres Show Signs of Life

1. The Sabres west coast trip was the highlight of their season so far, beginning with a 3-1 win at Calgary on Monday January 22nd followed by back to back shutouts in Edmonton 5-0 Tuesday the 23rd and 4-0 against Vancouver on Thursday the 25th. Buffalo showed an ability to play strong defense surrendering only one goal and did not surrender an even strength goal on the road trip. While the streak was encouraging it is noteworthy that every team in the league had already had a three game winning streak this season, except Buffalo.

2. Jack Eichel led the way with two goals and five points against Calgary and Edmonton with 12 shots on goal before going scoreless in Vancouver with two shots. His five points led the league for the week as Eichel settled into 19th place in individual scoring after dropping to 63rd just a few weeks ago. Robin Lehner picked up both shutouts on the road trip. Eichel then dazzled in the 3 on 3 all star competition in Tampa on Saturday January 27th with three points for the Atlantic Division against the Metropolitan Division. For their outstanding play, Eichel was named the NHL's second star of the week and Lehner was named the 3rd star.

3. Unfortunately the Sabres couldn't keep up that momentum when their season resumed following the all star break. The New Jersey Devils took a 3-1 decision on Tuesday January 30th. The speedy Devils controlled the game by sending the puck deep into the Sabres zone forcing Buffalo to skate 200 feet to generate an attack. With numerous takeaways in the neutral zone the Devils counter attacks proved too much for the Sabres to handle.

4. Much attention has been focused on the celebration following a Jack Eichel goal in Vancouver where Ryan O'Reilly passed up his opportunity to exchange a high five with him. Talk has ensued of an apparent rift between the two teammates. O'Reilly was brought here and made captain to become a centerpiece of the Sabres rebuild. He became the highest paid player in franchise history. He frequently laments that his play is substandard. His captaincy is tainted by the underachieving team he represents.

Eichel is maturing (remember that he's only 21 years old) and his recent strong play has established him as the team leader. Some are speculating that this transition of leadership to Eichel is not going well for O'Reilly. While he has been a good player for Buffalo, O'Reilly has fallen short of expectations and he is certainly overpaid at $7.5 million. His salary makes it virtually impossible to trade him unless the Sabres are willing to pay a portion of his salary for a new team. Locker room unity is an overrated quality in professional sports. These players are professionals and many championship teams have had star players who did get along with each other.

5. Kyle Okposo has found his game. Since being placed on a line with Jack Eichel, Okposo has scored ten points in his last seven games and has 18 points in his last 21 games. Okposo said that Eichel is "turning into the player that he is and I know how bad he wants to be a dynamic player and to be a superstar in this league and he's worked extremely hard at the defensive aspects of his game, but he demands a lot and I think at a young age, that's a pretty special trait."

Any afternoon or evening or morning is best spent rolled up on my couch by the fireplace. I enjoy binging on Netflix; currently I am watching Riverdale, and my favorite movie is Trolls. I have been medically trained and was given the honorary title of Dr. Earl when I nursed my foster mom back to health after a week of a bad cold.
