Louisiana Zydeco is a part of the Mardi Gras celebration.

Louisiana Zydeco Master CJ Chenier will perform on Mardi Gras Day as part of The Big Easy in Buffalo

The Big Easy in Buffalo series announced they will celebrate Mardi Gras Day Tuesday February 13th with a Louisiana zydeco master and one of Buffalo's best bands - the legendary CJ Chenier & The Red Hot Louisiana Band, with special guests The Twang Gang. Tickets for the show at Sportsmen's Tavern, 326 Amherst St. in Buffalo are just $12 advance, or $15 at the door. It's the series' 11th Annual Mardi Gras Jam.

Bishop Malone To Distribute Ashes On February 14th

Bishop Richard J. Malone, bishop of Buffalo, will distribute ashes at the 12:05 pm Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral, 50 Franklin St., Buffalo, on Wednesday, February 14th, Ash Wednesday.

Church guidelines for Lent include, for all Catholics who have reached their 14th birthday, abstaining totally from meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent including Good Friday. Catholics who are between their 18th and 59th birthdays are also bound to observe the Law of Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This practice involves limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Light sustenance may be taken on two other occasions in the course of the day.

Also, all Catholics who have made their First Communion are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year. This must be done during the Easter season, between February 18th (first Sunday of Lent) and May 27th (Trinity Sunday), unless, for a good reason, it is fulfilled at another time.

Five Thoughts as the Buffalo Sabres Show Signs of Life

1. The Sabres dropped a 4-3 overtime decision to the Anaheim Ducks Tuesday night at Keybank Center. Old friend Ryan Miller was in goal for Anaheim and blocked 30 of 33 shots for the victory.

Each team had 33 shots as the Sabres dropped their fourth straight game. Buffalo continue to fail to get players to the net to screen the goalie and get to rebounds. Until they do so continuously they will continue to lose games.

2. Another old friend, former Sabre Derek Grant returned as an Anaheim Duck. Grant was known for never scoring a goal in 80 NHL career games including 40 games as a Sabre. He earned a roster spot here because of his proficiency at faceoffs which allowed Buffalo to occasionally rest faceoff wizard Ryan O'Reilly. All of a sudden Grant has become a goalscorer and has eight scores with the Ducks so far this season.

3. The announced attendance was 16,788, but thousands of those allegedly in attendance were dressed like blue seats. My crowd estimate is in the 12-13,000 range with 1/3 of the arena empty especially in the upper 300 level. Of course it's a weeknight game and the opponent is not a big draw but these tickets were all sold and the holders just didn't show up or gave the tickets away. On the ticket resale website Stubhub.

com, those 300 level seats are typically available for six dollars and apparently they are overpriced.

4. Jack Eichel had a goal and an assists giving him 20 goals and 51 points ranking him 20th in the individual scoring race. Sam Reinhart has three goals and 10 points in his last nine games. Kyle Okposo has three goals and twelve points in his last eleven games. Rasmus Ristolainen has three goals and thirteen points in his last 15 games.

5. Connor McDavid fired four goals into the net Monday night and added an assist in a 6-2 rout for the Edmonton Oilers over the Tampa Bay Lightning. Those five points tied him for third in NHL scoring with 61 points just five behind league leader Nikita Kucherov of the Lightning who had a good view of McDavid's big night. At the end of the season count on McDavid winning his second consecutive Art Ross trophy as the leading scorer.

Old friend Ryan Miller looks different in his Ducks jersey.

Valentine's Day Tradition

Almost every family has special holiday traditions that are passed on from generation to generation. What makes them so special is the memories that come along with them. One of our family traditions was the "big man" on Valentine's day. We all associate Valentine's day with a heart and as one way to show our love, with a card, flowers or candy. Naturally as a kid the preference is candy. So back in the day when I was just a little tot, we looked forward to Valentine's day as much as another candy day, Easter.

Seems somehow just like Santa the "big man" would come to our house, knock on the door and leave a candy heart for each member of the family. One at a time! I had seven brothers and sisters in our household, so he would knock eight times and be gone before we got there. Therefore, his identity was never known. Somewhat but we had our suspicions. We just knew him as the "big man" who was sinister enough to sneak around from door to door without being seen. Once I caught a glimpse of him and he was wearing my father's hat. I was amazed that the big man was wearing my father's hat! Did he borrow it 'cause it was cold?

So, the "big man" tradition was passed on to me and my children. I became the "big man" on Valentine's day. It was great fun when my eight children were little. We had three doors, so it was easy to go from one door to the other knock and leave. I became the "Invisible man" By the time they got to the front door I would be knocking on the side door. It was easy, and I was young and able to scoot around in the dark without being seen. I became the "shadow". I would come home after the "big man" was there and they were chomping on their goodies telling me how Super this "Superman" was.

As they got bigger, it became a real challenge to keep the "big man" anonymous. Sure, they suspected that it was me, but they had to prove it. One year I even hooked the doorbell in a way that I could ring it from inside. That kind of blew their minds. I would be standing there, and the doorbell would ring, and a pre-set valentine heart would be sitting there when they opened the door. While they were at the front I would knock on the side door from the inside and a preset heart would be there. With three doors and eight kids I had to become, "Plastic man". That was my greatest challenge. It became so difficult and they were so smart, I had my brother do it. They began to think that maybe there really was a "big man". As the years passed by my older sons took over the running from door to door, but the tradition carried on.

I want to believe that some of my children have become the "big man" over the years. And it would be my hope that the grandchildren do not find it too "not cool".

Just so you know how the story began. Seems way back when if you liked someone you gave them a "secret" message, usually a card with a heart on it. You would hide it in a place where your crush would find it. She would then wonder who her secret lover was. Guess over the years it evolved into the "big man". I liked being the "big man" then I really became too much a big man. But I am eating less and walking to lose weight. I would like to become the "thin man"!

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, by the holy will of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, you are our Mother in Heaven. I am comforted in knowing your heart is ever open to those who ask for your help. Your Immaculate Heart is full of tenderness and compassion for sinners like me. I ask that you intercede for me today for ... (mention your prayer intentions) I trust in your intercession before the throne of God for my needs. Please pray also that if my requests are not in accord with the will of God, that I may be, like you, conformed to His will and not my own. To obtain this precious gift, I honor your loving mercy by praying:

Hail Mary, Full of Grace, The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Hail Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of death. Amen.

The Big Easy In Buffalo

proud to bring some authentic and amazing Louisiana music to town, and to get CJ Chenier – one of the ‘first family’ of zydeco – here on Mardi Gras Day is an incredibly special opportunity,” series founder and creative director Tod A. Kniazuk said. On Sunday February 25th, The Big Easy in Buffalo presents Cajun band Kevin Naquin & The Ossun Playboys for an afternoon show, also at the Sportsmen’s Tavern. “Then we have the chance to bring one of Cajun music’s hottest bands to Buffalo for the first time; don’t sleep on this one as Kevin creates a non-stop dance party!”

The Big Easy in Buffalo is a program of Arts Services Initiative of WNY that brings New Orleans and Louisiana music and culture to the performance and interaction with local musicians, students, and the community since 2007.

Since 2007 The Big Easy in Buffalo has showcased all genres Louisiana music to the area: trad jazz, funk, zydeco, rock, blues, roots, modern jazz, brass band, Cajun, R&B, and more. Legendary names like Preservation Hall, Ellis Marsalis, Aaron Neville and Dr. John; as well as those at the beginning of their national careers like Trombone Shorty (at the time of his first national cd release) and Pine Leaf Boys (on their first national tour). Buffalo stages have been graced by artists as diverse as a Mardi Gras Indian Big Chief and “New Orleans’ premier guitar-washboard-sousaphone trio”. Through The Big Easy in Buffalo thousands of students, dozens of local bands, and countless audience members in Western New York have been exposed to this unique American culture.

The North Buffalo Community Lions Club is seeking new members. The Club meets the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each Month at the North Buffalo Community Center, 203 Sanders Road, Buffalo at 6:30 pm. Some of the activities that the Lions Club are involved in are the collecting and recycling of used eyeglasses, providing eye exams and glasses for the needy as well as supporting other community events. If this is a type of organization that you would be interested in, please come and join us. Our next meeting is Tuesday, February 13th. For more information call Dale at 863-9666 or Margaret at 875-0421.

Girl Scout Summer Camp registration is now open for all girls in grades K-12th. Summer Camp is a great way for girls to explore leadership, build skills, and develop a deep appreciation for nature. Whether for a day, a week, or longer, Girl Scout camp gives girls an opportunity to grow, explore, and have fun in an all-girl environment under the guidance of caring, trained adults. Camps offer girls a variety of activities and programs like robotics, climbing, white water rafting, hiking, archery, horseback riding, and more for individual growth and exploration. It is an ideal place for girls to meet and make new friends, learn more about their abilities and share the joys of summer with others. For busy parents, before and after care is an option and transportation is available for day camp. GSWNY also offers financial aid opportunities. More information on GSWNY summer camp, including a list of all the available camp programs and details regarding the online or paper registration process, are available at gswny.org.

The Museum of disability History will host its 2018 workshop session of Tourette Syndrome and Associated Disorders in the Classroom on Saturday, February 17th, from 8:30 am to 3 pm, at its location, 3826 Main Street, Buffalo. The workshop will be presented by Susan Conners, MEd, president and founder of the Tourette Syndrome Association of Greater New York State. The workshop will focus on ways parents and educators can help accommodate young people with TS and associated disorders, so that they can reach their full potential. The workshop is recommended for parents; educators; school administrators; social workers and health and human service professionals, such as occupational, physical and speech language therapists. Registration with payment is due by February 9th. Registration forms are available online at museumofdisability.org or call 629-3626 with payment information.

Mayor Byron W. Brown announced that the application process for his 2018 Summer Youth Internship Program is now underway. The program will provide six weeks of employment and work-readiness training to youth in the city of Buffalo during the summer months. Youth can download an application to the program by going to www.city-buffalo.com and return the completed application to the Department of Community Services. Incomplete applications and late applications will not be accepted. Mayor Brown's Summer Youth Internship Program runs 20 hours a week for six weeks. The first day of employment is July 9th and it runs through August 16th. To be eligible for this program, youth must be a City of Buffalo resident, between the ages of 14 and 21, and must turn age 14 by April 27, 2018. Each participant will be screened, assessed and receive job readiness, life skills and financial literacy training. The City of Buffalo's Division for Youth will provide youth counselors
