The Forgetter NHL All Star Game, Buffalo NY 1959

In hockey history, February 17th 1959 an NHL All-Star Game was played to benefit Bill Dobbyn, a highly-regarded 23-year-old NHL Rangers prospect defenseman who was getting experience with the Rangers farm team, the AHL Buffalo Bisons. Dobbyn had lost an eye after he was accidentally clipped by a stick during an American Hockey League game. 9,368 fans packed a sold-out Memorial Auditorium to see the NHL's finest play their hometown Herd.

Future NHL Hall-of-Famers; Johnny Bower, Glen Hall, Pierre Pilote, Bill Gadsby, Ted Lindsay, Johnny Bucyk, Bobby Hull, Donnie Marshall, Brian Cullen, Forbes Kennedy and Ian Cushman were just some of the bright stars on the NHL squad that night.

They were coached by the unlikely duo of New York Rangers head coach Phil Watson and Black Hawks bench boss Rudy Pilous. Sworn enemies since their junior amateur coaching days, they managed to put aside their differences for this charity event. The Bisons were managed by Fred Hunt and Frank Eddolls.

Master of Ceremonies Ralph Hubbell started the night off with an emotional introduction of Bill Dobbyn. The roof was almost blown off the top of the Aud when the crowd rocked the building with a two-minute standing ovation. "It was a thrill to meet all those players," Dobbyn said. "I remember them all shaking hands with me, telling me I had a bright future." Dobbyn received various cash awards and gifts from a host of different charities. The event raised more than $25,000 for Dobbyn to start his life over with, though he would eventually lace up his skates again a few years later and played with several teams in various minor leagues. He finally retired after playing with the Waterloo Black Hawks of the United States Hockey League in 1968.

As for the game, "Terrible Ted" Lindsay scored twice to lead the All-Stars to a 6-2 win. Bill Dineen bagged the two Bisons goals during the third period to make the score a little more respectable. Dobbyn said afterward "I shall be grateful to them. Words simply cannot express my gratitude or that of my parents."

Letter Received

Boy did your column hit home with me. Let me explain. In November 2017, I sent 2 cards to my grandson, Joe, who is in the Navy, stationed in Norfolk, Va. Mailed separately, one was to congratulate him on his promotion to Second Class Petty Officer and the other mailed a few days later was to wish well in his new apartment. Now that, remember was November 2017. January 2018 they both came back to me "no such address, return to sender". I called him to verify the address and it was in his words, 100%, correct. So, I mailed them back. Finally, he receives them. Christmas 2017, I send him a card, with money in it no less. It comes back to me, AGAIN, no such address at the end January 2018. I take it to the Post Office and tell the teller that this address is correct. He blacks out the printed stuff on the envelope, puts another stamp on it (no I did not pay for the new stamp) and mails

it. When I asked what was wrong, the mailman had no idea. Joe gets his Christmas card finally. Now wait this is not the end...I mail a card to a friend on Hertel Avenue and 2 weeks later it comes back to ME. No reason just comes back with the rest of my mail. So, I mail it again...finally she gets it. So, when I inquired about all this, I was told that they were probably computer errors...Oh, well...looks like we must live with this kind of @$$*&^%.

Joyce Gugino

Joyce, Did a little research with the Post Office and if you think there is something wrong, you are right. No one would admit to deliberately holding the mail but not treating it with the respect it deserves.

There are two things. One, congress passed some law that says mail does not have to be delivered in a timely manner. Whatever it was, and I did not go into it with the carrier, they do not have to step it up to make sure it is done properly and they sure are abiding. It surprises me that there is not more said about it in the news. Probably because most people don't mail letters anymore. We all use email whenever possible. The carrier's response was "if you do not like it contact your congressman".

Second, I received a birthday card two weeks after it was sent out. In Joyce Gugino's and my case, cards are addressed by hand. Another problem with the Post Office. Most mail now is sorted automatically except hand written addresses. They are sorted by the Post people. Whenever they chose to do it, and if they so choose. In Ms Gugino's case they just sent them back. This is not right and if you pay for a service you should receive it. Thank the Lord for email. Have these people ever heard of job security? Used to be the only way to send a package was Parcel Post. That was until they passed legislation that allowed private companies to deliver packages. Hence UPS. Maybe it is time to investigate privatizing mail delivery. What do you think?

Do you have a birthday greeting you would like to see here? Birthdays, anniversaries, interesting pictures, short stories or even a 500 word column of interest to your neighbors. Send them to me and I will see what I can do. Nothing political or controversial. Send to Jbortze@aol.com.

Torties have 'tude' as well as being absolutely beautiful and Buttercup is no exception. This gorgeous young lady is about a year and a half and definitely has a mind of her own. She is reserved and not particularly fond of other cats. Buttercup would be happiest in a home where she does not have to share her human's love. You can meet Buttercup in the window condo at Elmwood Pet Supplies, a locally owned pet store, on Elmwood Avenue just north of West Ferry Street.

Ice Skating Party

party has increased in popularity, drawing as many as 70 people. The Parkinson's community is welcomed to attend for free along with family and friends.

Parkinson's disease is a movement disorder that makes some of the most common and essential physical activities difficult. Winter's cold temperatures along with the obstacles of snow and ice make it a very difficult time for Parkinsonians to get out and to socialize. The disease also steals the opportunity to partake in some long-enjoyed pastimes, like ice skating. Buffalo's ice bikes give this population and their families a safe means for accessing the rink and for relishing in one of the joys of winter at one of Buffalo's most popular locations.

The Parkinson's Foundation, WNY's executive director, Chris Jamele, says there is a great deal of excitement surrounding the evening. "People are not only anxious to get out on the ice, but they are thrilled to get a chance to try the ice bikes. It becomes an emotional experience for some families as they get the whole family together for a skate again." Bicycling is an activity that has proven to be very beneficial for battling Parkinson's symptoms, so the combined effect of exercise and socialization is wonderful for anyone who has received a diagnosis. As the ice bikes do not tip over, they are the perfect vehicle for many in this audience. "The ice bikes may not be for everyone, but we have had people arrive in wheelchairs who get on a bike and take off across the ice. It's amazing," Jamele added.

Refreshments will be served in the warming hut on site. Access to the ice, skate rentals and the ice bikes will all be free for the Parkinson's community, all of whom are welcome to come out and enjoy this very special evening. Reservations are not required.

Fundraiser

the proceeds from the sale of this specialty beer will be donated to Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League. The 4 day event will coincide with the 75th anniversary of Jimmy Collins' death at the age of 73, at his North Buffalo home in 1943. Collins began his professional career with the Buffalo Bisons of the Eastern League in 1893, a forerunner of the current International League franchise.

In 1922, Collins was elected President of the Buffalo Municipal Baseball Association, serving 22 consecutive terms. Collins help grow the Buffalo "Mun League" into the largest city-run amateur baseball league in the country.

KO Bar & Grill owner Kevin Osinski said, "I was a Muny Leaguer during my youth. Thousands of Buffalo area young men got to play amateur baseball over the years because of the visionary leadership of Jimmy Collins."

The Irish Classical Theatre Company's rollicking annual fundraiser will be held Friday, February 23rd from 6 - 10 pm at The Atrium@ Rich's. Shenanigans will abound! While we are all devastated by the passing of our fictitious mate, Hugh R. Boxworthy, legendary bon vivant, partygoer and party planner and long-time resident of none other than Buffalo's cherished First Ward, we are planning to celebrate his life in fine form at this year's Wake. High-spirited dancing and carrying-on will not only be allowed but actively encouraged.

For a mere $65, your ticket to The Wake gets you all the complimentary Guinness, Harp and Smithwicks Red Ale, Magners Cider and white or red wine you'd like all night long, not to mention plenty of fabulous food including Corned Beef Sliders, Fish & Chips and lots of delicious vegetarian options. There will be continuous entertainment of the Celtic persuasion with The Emerald Isle Band, featuring the Panfil Brothers, and Celtic Rock favorites Poor Ould Goat. The McCarthy School of Irish Dance will be kicking up their heels in fine Irish fashion. Plenty of convenient free parking at Rich's. Find out more about The Wake, or purchase tickets www.irish-classicaltheatre.com, or call 853-ICTC.

Join St. Margaret's fifth annual Lenten Fish Fry on Friday, March 9th from 4 pm to 7:30 pm. You can enjoy your meal in the rectory or take out. The Fish Fry is being catered by Krock's BBQ.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.
