New York State Senator Chris Jacobs presented 103 year-old Army veteran Sydney Cole, longtime resident of Blaytyre Road in North Buffalo, with the 2018 New York State Senate Veterans Hall of Fame honor.

Capt. Sydney Cole was discharged from the U.S. Army on December 27, 1945. During his military career, he was awarded the Bronze Star medal, Purple Heart, Air Medal, POW Medal, American Defense Service Medal, American Campaign Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal with two bronze star service stars, World War II Victory Medal and, with the assistance of the Canadian Consulate, a Canadian War Medal for his service in the RCAF.

The New York State

Senate Veterans' Hall of Fame was created to honor and recognize outstanding veterans from the Empire State who have distinguished themselves both in military and civilian life. Their meritorious service to our nation deserves the special recognition that only a Hall of Fame can provide, as a fitting expression of our gratitude and admiration.

Peak Months for Grilling Fires

Grilling season is upon us and grill gurus everywhere are preparing for many family parties and barbecues. The National Fire Protection Association encourages grillers to pay attention to safety during the spring and summer months when home fires involving grilling incidents occur most often.

In 2011 – 2015, fire departments responded to an average of 9,600 home fires involving grills, hibachis or barbecues each year.

July is the peak month for grilling fires followed by May, June and August. According to the Hearth, Patio & Barbecue Association, 73 percent of consumers grill on the Fourth of July, 60 percent do so on Memorial Day, 58 percent grill on Labor Day, and 45 percent grill on Father's Day.

Remember that all types of grills pose a risk for fires and burn injuries. Place the grill well away from siding and deck railings and out from under eaves and overhanging branches, per manufacturer's instructions.

Failing to properly clean the grill or having the grill too close to something that could burn are the leading causes of fires. Good practice dictates that home chefs check for damage be-

Amazing Grace On Bidwell Parkway

This will be the thirteenth year that St. John's-Grace Episcopal Church will host an interdenominational service for Memorial Day. The service, scheduled for the Monday holiday, May 28th, at 10:00 am, has been a great success in bringing real religious solemnity to a day of remembrance too often reduced to shopping and picnics.

The service is loaded with tremendously moving language, music and ritual. All is designed to honor those who have died for those idealistic American values of freedom, equality, justice and community. At the same time the readings, prayers and music point to our obligation to those who have died, which is to embrace these values in our own lives.

The service is enhanced by the beautiful gothic revival sanctuary of St. John's-Grace on Colonial Circle at the intersection of Lafayette, Richmond and Bidwell in Buffalo's ElmwoodVillage neighborhood. It concludes at the War Memorial across the street, with an a cappella chorus of over eighty people singing Amazing Grace in the middle of Bidwell Parkway. All members of the extended community, their families and friends are invited to attend.

Sabres Winning Offseason Championship of NHL

It was high comedy on June 15th 2016 when former Bill's coach Rex Ryan declared that his team had "Won the off-season." Well it looks like the Sabres have accomplished enough since their season ended that it is safe to declare that they have an insurmountable lead in the race for the off-season championship. And this is no joke, the team has made significant strides toward improving. Most significantly winning the draft lottery for the number one pick in next month's entry draft where they will select Swedish defenseman Rasmus Dahlin.

The latest success involves departed forward Evander Kane. Multiple media outlets are reporting that Kane will sign a new seven year $39 million contract with the San Jose Sharks. The Sabres will now receive a first round pick from the Sharks in the 2019 NHL Entry Draft. The pick is lottery protected however, meaning that if it falls within the draft lottery it becomes a 2020 first rounder.

When GM Jason Botterill swapped Kane to San Jose 2019 on February 26th for a conditional 1st round pick in 2019 plus minor leaguer Daniel O'Regan and a 2020 4th round pick, he was criticized because the conditional pick was actually a second rounder which become a first rounder only if the Sharks won the 2018 Stanley Cup or signed Kane to a new contract. Now Botterill can smile broadly as he has extracted a good return on that exchange.

Rasmus Dahlin is expected to become a franchise caliber defenseman NHL and will be the first player selected in the NHL draft when the Sabres take the stage on June 22nd in Dallas. Dahlin will join fellow Swede Lawrence Pilut who was the top defenseman in the Swedish league in 2017-18. These are both offensively gifted players who will add some scoring to the Sabres attack and fit in with coach Phil Housley who likes an attacking style from his defensemen.

They will join fellow Swede Victor Olofsson in Buffalo. Olofsson led the Swedish Hockey League with 27 goals in 50 games last season and the Sabres wisely signed the 22 year old to a two year contract. He had been drafted in the seventh round in 2014. Olofsson is on the small side at 5'11" and 173 pounds but is described as an elite goal scorer and power play specialist. He may require some seasoning in Rochester but sounds like an ideal fit in Buffalo, which was the lowest scoring team in the league last season.

New Sabre Victor Olofsson led the Swedish League with 27 goals last season

Also remember that propane and charcoal BBQ grills should only be used outdoors. Remember to keep the grilling area clear. Children and pets should be at least three feet away from the grill area. Keep your grill clean by removing grease and fat buildup from the grates and trays below on a regular basis. Most importantly, never

Sharing child safety tips for National Missing Children's Day

Every year in the U.S., 465,000 children are reported missing. National Missing Children's Day, which is May 25th, was created to encourage parents, guardians, caregivers, and others concerned with the well-being of children to make child safety a priority. To commemorate this day, we wanted to share the following safety tips with you: -Teach children their contact information. Make sure your child knows his or her full name, home address and telephone number. Include this contact information in their backpack, coat, etc. Teach your child not to share this information with anyone he or she does not know without your permission. -Practice safe social media. Talk to your children about the risks of sharing too much information on social media. Explain how "checking in" on social networks and sharing location information or routines can have negative consequences. -Listen and ask questions. Listen if your child says someone makes him or her feel uncomfortable. Ask questions to better understand why. It is important for children to learn to trust their instincts.

PEE WEE

Say hello to Pee Wee. This handsome brown eye/blue eye boy was surrendered to the shelter due to a hardship. He is trying to figure out his new life at the shelter and is happy to get out of his kennel for some love and attention. Pee Wee loves to go on walks, does well on a leash and appears to be housebroken. We always tell adopters that even if we feel a dog is housebroken, it is essential to give them time to adjust to a new routine in a home setting. Pee Wee is a happy friendly guy that would love to be part of a forever home with a cozy bed and time to soak up some sun. Pee Wee does have some energy and regular walks and outdoor time would make him very happy. It was stated by his previous owner that he might have an allergy to chicken /beef but there are plenty of options for him to keep him healthy. It was also stated he isn't the biggest fan of kitties. This boy is really a great dog and we would hate to see him at the shelter for too long. Please consider adding this gorgeous guy to your life and giving him a second chance at a new life. # SPORTS

By Bill Snyder

Bryce Parker hit a three run homerun and had four RBI's and pitcher Mariano Nati had five strikeouts in two innings to lead the First Minor Mariners to a 15-5 win over the Yankees last Wednesday in Shoshone Park. The win helped keep the "expansion" Seattle team undefeated in this young season of the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League. While the rainy weather since opening day has been a factor, it hasn't diminished the fine play of nine and ten year old boys and girls in the North Buffalo League.

Olivia Foglia-Leffler hit a RBI double into center-field and pitcher Elizabeth Kooshoian tossed two innings in relief for the Astros in a Major Girls victory over the Rockies on neighboring diamond that same night. Both the Mariners and Astros have gotten off to great starts, but some teams struggle to even get to play.

That's the story so far for many of the 50 house teams, trying to play nightly and on the weekends. This past Saturday's slate of 22 games were wiped out completely by Mother Nature. Every team has at least one rain out game to be rescheduled and while Hertel North Park coaches struggle to get the Park ready to play, there's nothing they can do in their battle with the baseball Gods.

With the Memorial Day holiday approaching, the league has not scheduled any games for Monday next week. They are hosting a Memorial Day Tournament scheduled for Saturday and Sunday involving many area teams. One board member summed it all up recently in a phone conversation about the season so far.

"I don't like it but I'm also not wringing my hands over it. It's just the way it goes, we're not gonna win against Mother Nature."

It's still early in the Hertel North Park season for winning smiles.

VA Western New York Healthcare System invites the public to participate in Memorial Day ceremonies to be held at 2 pm on Wednesday, May 30th, at the Buffalo VA Medical Center. We owe all of our Veterans, past and present, a debt of gratitude for the sacrifices they have made in the defense of our Constitution and the liberties we cherish as citizens. Memorial Day honors the heroes who laid down their lives to preserve our freedom. The early intent of this special day was to commemorate a day when flowers were in full bloom to decorate the graves of fallen soldiers. Let us honor together these fallen men and women who have faithfully served our Country.

Hertel Happening 1981

Hertel Happening was just that, something that happened on Hertel back in the early eighties. Sponsored by an energetic North Buffalo Jaycees and North Buffalo Business Association the event was a success in bringing the community and the Hertel business owners together. No blocked streets, residents and merchants loved it, No objections by anyone. Nothing after dark.

Taking advantage of the wide sidewalks between North Park and Parkside on Hertel, It became a sidewalk sale, art and craft show, music festival, prizes all in one fun filled weekend. No interference or stoppage of traffic. Not designed to be fund raiser it was more of a neighborhood social event. Live band in the parking lot, cook out, face painting, turned out to be fun for all. It eventually gave way to the Italian Festival.

Memorial Day 2018

Memorial definition is - serving to preserve remembrance. That is what Memorial Day is supposed to be about. A day set aside to preserve the memories of those who have passed. That is all that is left of the spirit that once was part of this wonderful life on earth, their memories. Seems more and more that people treat as just another holiday, a day off, the beginning of summer. That is all well and good as long as some time in this special day you take time to honor those who have touched our lives. Maybe not even directly but in what they did.

A few years back I had the privilege, through the generosity of one of my daughters, to visit the beaches and cemetery in Normandy, France. Such a moving experience to walk among those thousands of crosses knowing that in that grave lies a young man who gave his life so we can live in a free society. Many of them in most cases do not have family that remember them. So the cross is the only thing that preserves their memory.

Wandering up and down the many rows you see where they are from and the age. So many young men, too soon to die. When you come across one from New York, you just pause and feel like, he was one of us. He stands out as a neighbor and a friend. Pennsylvania, another neighbor, Massachusetts, New Jersey. Actually brought a little joy to a somber visit. We met some new friends. We thanked them for what they did for us and moved on. If you have been there you are awed by the so many perfect rows of crosses. Covering the landscape going over the hills and into the valleys.

Memorial Day is not meant to just honor our fallen heroes but also the memories of our loved ones who have also left this life. My mother and Dad died over 50 years ago but still there is not a day that goes by that a memory of them pops into my head. My Dad would have loved this, my mom would have enjoyed this food, and I still use some of my late brother's jokes. They live on and on in our memories. They will until we join them in whatever comes next. All we can hope for is that we leave enough good memories to have made our existence worthwhile.

Amercian Cemetery at Normandy

If you have the time on Memorial Day, remember a fallen soldier, say Thank You to a Vet, visit the cemetery and grave of a loved one. Honor their memory. Remember the good times together. Most of all remember the loved ones who are still with you. Make some more good memories together.

Ask Rusty – SSA Mis-information leads to Lost benefits

Dear Rusty: I am 64, a widow and I'm hopping mad! I lost my husband a while ago and went to Social Security to apply for widow's benefits. That all went okay and I'm getting my benefit, but I just found out that I could have avoided a cut to my widow's benefit and maybe applied only for my own retirement benefit and let the widow's benefit grow until I reached 66 when it wouldn't be cut. To make matters worse, they never explained that I'd be applying for both my own Social Security and my widow's benefit, so my Social Security payment now is made up of both and they're both reduced because I took them early. If I had waited until I was 70 to take my own benefit, it would have been more than my widow's benefit. I feel that because they never told me my options, especially when I was grieving the loss of my husband, that it's their fault that I'm losing money. What can I do? Signed: Hopping Mad

Dear Hopping Mad: It looks as though you were caught in the same miscommunication web that Social Security's Office of the Inspector General (OIG) recently investigated and found that Social Security Administration (SSA) staff had often misinformed or failed to explain all available options to those applying for survivor's benefits. In your case, you could have simply waited to apply for your widow's benefit until it reached maximum at your full retirement age (FRA); or, if you needed the money, applied for your own reduced retirement benefit first and allowed your survivor's benefit to grow to its maximum at your FRA and get that for the rest of your life; or you could have taken the reduced survivor's benefit only and allowed your own retirement benefit to grow until it reached its maximum at age 70. In other words, you could have restricted your application to either one of those benefits and allowed the other to grow to its maximum amount (Social Security's "deemed filing" rule doesn't apply to survivor's).

I believe you have a strong case to challenge the SSA on your application choice due to them not informing you of the alternatives available to you. You can initiate this challenge by writing them a letter explaining that you would have made a different choice had you been told the alternatives available to you and request a hearing to resolve this issue.

For more on how to file a claim in writing due to the SSA's failure to advise you of your options, go to: https://www.ssa.gov/OP\_Home/cfr20/416/416-0351.htm and review Section (f) Claim for benefits based on mis-information.

Lyrics

Everyone knows these famous lyrics of classic songs, but do you know the next line?
Not as easy as you may think, but give it a try.

- 1) And now the end is near, and so I face the final curtain...
- 2) I was waltzing with my darling...
- 3) Dashing through the snow...
- 4) Oh my love, my darling, I've hungered for your touch...
- 5) Oh the shark babe, has such teeth, dear...
- 6) Oh, how we danced on the night we were wed...
- 7) I see trees of green red roses too...
- 8) I got sunshine on a cloudy day...
- 9) Love is a burning thing and it makes a fiery ring...
- 10) When you're down and out, when you're on the street...
- 11) Hello darkness my old friend I've come to talk to you again...
- 12) Some say love, it is a river that drowns the tender reed...
- 13) Oh yeah, I'll tell you something I think you'll understand...
- 14) Wise men say only fools rush in...
- 15) Well its one for the money, two for the show...
