Memorial Day

The Buffalo community gathers to honor and acknowledge those who made the ultimate sacrifice for this country.

Forest Lawn is extremely proud to honor and salute the brave men and women of the United States armed forces, particularly those who gave their lives in service to preserve our freedom and all that we hold dear, as we host The Erie County American Legion for its annual Memorial Day ceremony on Monday May 25th.

At 8:00 a.m., flags will be placed on the graves of veterans buried in the Field of Valor® and in the American Legion section of Forest Lawn.

At 9:00 a.m., the ceremony will begin in front of the American Legion Memorial Monument in the Veterans section, near the Main Street Gates.

Buffalo Marathon Weekend

The 19th consecutive Buffalo Marathon Weekend is being held May 24th through May 26th. The 5k, Diaper Dash and Kids Mini Marathon are sold out. The Full Marathon and Half Marathon are almost sold out.

The Marathon which is a 501c3, has grown in stature, prominence, and its ability to help the community. In the last 4 years we have donated back more than $325,000 to the groups that support the race. A list of the groups benefiting from the 2019 weekend can be found at www.buffalo-marathon.com.

Kaleida Health has joined us as our premier sponsor. We have created the Kaleida Heart To Heart Relay to support the ground-breaking procedures being conducted at BGMC and GVI. This work means there is no need for Western New Yorkers to travel to Boston, NYC or Cleveland to receive these sophisticated treatments.

Also new for 2019 is the Diaper Dash presented By John R. Oishei Children's Hospital. This 26.2 foot crawl/walk is especially designed for the 2 and under future athletes. We are excited about this event because it rounds our events. We now have something for everyone in the family.

Buffalo Sabres Fog

Game 1975

With the Buffalo Sabres on an eight year run without participating in the playoffs. It's been decades since shouts of "Thank you Sabres" echoed in the old Aud during April so many years ago.

Sabres Fever used to grip the City of Buffalo and western New York in April and May. In 1975 the Sabres finished the regular season atop the NHL standings with 113 points, tied with the Philadelphia Flyers and Boston Bruins. An epic playoff series victory against the Montreal Canadiens propelled Buffalo into the Stanley Cup finals against the defending champion Flyers. On May 20th one of the most memorable games in league history took place in the venerable arena at the foot of Main Street.

A bat had found its way into the building and had been flying around over the ice surface early in the game. Eventually, the Sabres Jim Lorentz reached up with his stick and knocked the creature out of the air, killing it, earning him the nickname "Batman". The Flyers Rick MacLeish picked the bat up barehanded and carried it off the ice. When asked by a teammate if he was worried about catching rabies he replied, "What's rabies?" That was just the beginning.

It had been a warm day outside and the building was not air conditioned so a fog had begun to form that eventually covered the ice. The fans sitting in their seats could see the play fine but at ice level visibility was severely limited for the players. So during stoppages in play, the Sabres and Flyers players would carry sheets stretched Jim Lorentz takes down the bat.

Rene Roberts shot through the fog eludes Flyers goalie Bernie Parent to win the game in overtime.

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE
Most holy apostle St. Jude Thaddeus faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master in to the hands of the enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of. Pray for me who am so needy; make use, I implore you of that particular privilege accorded to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and succor of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings particularly (here mention your petition) ... and that I may bless God with you and all the elect throughout eternity. I promise you, O blessed Jude to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Help is on the way.

Ever seen a kid whose favorite toys are fire trucks and police cars? Most young boys are attracted to these symbols as they represent the “good guys”. Fireman and police are the people who devote their careers to serving the public. To be the protector. To instantly appear when they are most needed. The person that is looked on as a hero when they arrive at a troubling situation. In some cases, your life may be in danger. It is only natural that as a young boy you have a dream of someday being a public servant. Most grow out of that desire and go on to pursue different careers. However, not all.

Some retain that desire and even continue to go on to a college that specializes in police and investigation procedures. I know of one such young man. His perseverance in wanting to be in law enforcement was something to behold. His choice of college at Plattsburg made it a given that he was going to go into police work. His personality is one of an easy going, always smiling, young man who loves people and seldom if ever gets angry. Certainly not a “tough” guy. Is this the right profession for a person with this complacent demeanor? Yes, it is nice to want to help people but what about the other not so pleasant side. Your battle with bad guys. You must be at some places that are less than desirable. Like a bad automobile accident with children involved. Look at the total picture. Makes no difference this is what he wanted to do.

So, after graduating from college his immediate desire was to join the Buffalo Police Department. This would be his start as he wanted to someday become a detective or into investigation. BPD was not to happen. Even though he scored in the top three, certain ‘quotas’ kept him from being one of Buffalo’s finest. Buffalo’s loss. He then applied all over the country as this was his passion. He finally had an interview in Wilmington, North Carolina and landed the position. He became an outstanding officer and received awards for outstanding service. He was content with this at least for now. He still had bigger dreams. Now that he had his foot in the door and a taste of what he really wanted to do, he set his goal much higher. The FBI. This is not an easy task. First you need to be in law enforcement at the Federal level, which was the advice of a sibling involved in National Security. So, the search began.

The only opening of any kind in Federal enforcement was Border Patrol. Not the most loved or understood job opening, but possibly a first step. He applied and was accepted. What happened next was totally unexpected. He had to go through six months of extensive, exhausting training. Some of which he described as more intense than the Marines. He had to learn how to speak Spanish. He was a medium built young man when he went into training. He has bulked up and after finishing his education and indoctrination, he looks like he is now in excellent shape. Most drop out and do not survive the hardships that must be endured. Not him, he made it through with flying colors.

He has since graduated and is now patrolling the border in Southern California. Knowing his personality, he is probably a very compassionate Border Patrol officer. Within the limits allowed by law. He is an outstanding citizen who is in pursuit of his dream and willing to devote his life to attaining it. I am so proud of him and what he has accomplished. His story is one that I wanted to tell because he is especially close to me, he is my Grandson.

Do you have a birthday greeting you would like to see here? Birthdays, anniversaries, interesting pictures, short stories or even a 500 word column of interest to your neighbors. Send them to me and I will see what I can do. Nothing political or controversial. Send to Jbortze@aol.com.

Ask Rusty - Worker Received Overpayment Notice from Social Security

Dear Rusty: I have a problem with Social Security. They told me if I went over the annual earned income limit they would withhold $1 for every $2 I went over. But they did not tell me about the monthly rule for the first year of retirement and now they want $13,000. I am a part time bus driver with irregular hours and cannot afford this. Can you help?
Signed: Feeling Wronged by SS

Dear Feeling Wronged: The so-called "first year rule" is one which surprises many who claim benefits early and continue to work. That rule says that if your monthly income, in your first year after your benefits start, exceeds a certain limit ($1470 in 2019), you are not entitled to SS benefits for that month. In your specific situation there are two things in play that I suggest you focus on.

First, you should immediately request a repayment plan on the grounds that you cannot afford to repay the entire amount right away and that forfeiting your benefits until the $13,000 is repaid will result in a hardship for you. Although the Overpayment Notice you received asked you to refund the money within 30 days, it also suggested repayment options if you cannot afford to do so. I recommend you contact Social Security immediately to arrange a repayment plan which is affordable for you. You can do this by submitting form SSA-632, which you can find at this link: <https://www.ssa.gov/forms/ssa-632.pdf>. Be aware that if you don't get a favorable initial response from your first contact with Social Security, you have the right to appeal at several levels, including a review of your case by an independent Administrative Law Judge. But please note that it might take up to 60 days for Social Security to complete your repayment plan request. If you do not get action within that timeframe you should contact them again to determine your status.

Next, I suggest that, since Social Security informed you of the annual limit but neglected to inform you of the rule which limits your monthly income in your first year of early retirement, you may also have grounds to request a waiver of the entire overpayment. Social Security's own rules state that if your overpayment was caused by misinformation received from Social Security, you may be found "without fault" for any overpayment in your first year of early retirement. You may even want to download Social Security's own rules on this topic, which you can access at this link: <https://secure.ssa.gov/poms.nsf/lnx/0202250061>. The onus will be on you to prove that the overpayment occurred as a result of misinformation supplied by Social Security, and you will need the name of the person(s) who supplied the incorrect information as well as the date and time. And as with all contact you have with the Social Security Administration, you should keep a complete written record of each transaction. In resolving this issue, you can and should use the appeals process if necessary, and you may even want to consider asking your local Congressional Representative to intercede on your behalf.

The Jimmy Collins Tournament

Buffalo's history with Baseball goes back further than both the Bills and Sabres combined. Here's a brief example of how the City was home to Hall of Fame player Jimmy Collins, who played for Buffalo in 1893 and 1894 before joining the Boston Beaneaters. Born in Buffalo in 1870, Collins helped lead the then Boston Americans to a World Series victory in 1903 over Pittsburgh. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1945 after a 14 year playing career with a lifetime batting average of .294 with 65 homeruns and 983 RBI's as a third baseman for a club that soon changed their name to the Red Sox.

It is with this knowledge that the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League has hosted a local tournament in Shoshone Park, honoring the career of Collins, begun last season on the Memorial Day weekend. Several local leagues will be in North Buffalo Friday, Saturday and Sunday for the Jimmy Collins Tournament. Boys, between the ages eight, ten and 12 will compete in three separate divisions and will represent Shoshone Park against teams from familiar places like Lou Gehrig, Mathewson/McCarthy, Tonawanda Curve, Central Amherst, WNY Muckdogs and Lakeview, just to name a few.

Two eight year old North Buffalo teams will play against teams from three other leagues. A ten year old Blaze team will play against Inferno Baseball, Northtown Nationals and the Muckdogs. The 12 year old team will compete against three teams for the right to win trophies in all three age levels. There will also be a homerun hitting contest held on Saturday for each division. The Jimmy Collins Tournament is the official start of competition for North Buffalo Boys travel each year and based on the success of last years first tournament, great competition is sure to follow.

Several North Buffalo boys and girls shined brightly this past Sunday in Shoshone Park. As the Sun made its presence known above, North Buffalo held its second annual Pitch, Hit and Run Competition of the Nationwide youth event in Parks across America. Here are North Buffalo's winners. Molly Kilonisky won the ten year old Championship for girls all-around. Isabelle Bernecki was the winner in a base-running competition. Tyler Adamczyk won the base-running competition for eight year old boys. Lev Schneidermann was the all-around boys champion for ten year olds while Patrick Doyle was the all-around champion eight year old division and the winner of the North Buffalo Homerun Derby. All winners have an opportunity to travel to Rochester in the first week in June for the Regionals. Congratulations.

Out on the diamonds, action was light due to the incessant rain in WNY. Said league President Don Morris at a meeting held recently: "I think we've been able to play more games than any other organization in this area. My goal is to give our kids the best possible conditions in which to play each day.

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map-known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and halted Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
