

Fun In The Snow

North Buffalo resident Cynthia Weber of Cresent Ave., takes advantage of snow in Delaware Park.

The Snow Angels Program is looking for volunteers. Snow Angels are teams of volunteers who assist neighbors who need help clearing snow from porches, steps, and sidewalks. This is a free service of the Parkside Community Association's Aging in Place Committee.

If you are interested in helping out your neighbors or receiving assistance, please email pcdirector@gmail.com or call 838-1240.

Critical Type O Blood Shortage

The American Red Cross has extended its urgent call for donors of all blood types to give blood or platelets. With influenza escalating across the country and preventing some donors from giving, and winter weather threatening to cancel blood drives, the Red Cross now has a critical shortage of type O blood and urgently needs donors to restock the shelves.

Currently, the Red Cross has less than a three-day supply of type O blood available for patient emergencies and medical treatments. Type O positive blood is the most transfused blood type and can be given to Rh-positive patients of any blood type. While just 7% of the U.S. population has type O negative blood, it can be transfused to patients with any blood type and is what hospital staff reach for during emergencies when there isn't time to determine a patient's blood type.

Every day, the Red Cross must collect nearly 13,000 blood donations and more than 2,600 platelet donations for patients who rely on blood to survive. Shortfalls in donations can cause delays in essential medical care for patients like 12-year-old Dagan Hawkins.

Diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia in November, Dagan has required platelet and blood transfusions during his cancer treatments.

Donors of all blood types – especially types O positive and O negative – are urged to make an appointment to give blood or platelets now using the Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enabling the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device.

All Stars Game

With the Sabres and the NHL on the all star break, here is a look back to the day when Buffalo hosted it's first and only all star game. On January 24th 1978, the 31st NHL all star game was held at the Memorial Auditorium. Two Sabres, Gilbert Perreault and Rick Martin, played for the Wales Conference. Both players delighted their hometown fans by scoring with Martin tying the game with 1:39 remaining in regulation time and Perreault scoring the game winning goal 3:55 into overtime to defeat the Campbell Conference 3-2. Gilbert Perreault's goal was the first ever all star game OT winner.

Scary Drive Home

How many remember what happened 43 years ago in Buffalo? To refresh your memory those who were here recall the most famous blizzard of all. The unforgettable Blizzard of January 27th 1977. It was a day that will live in infamy. One that left us helpless and cold for over a week. We survived as many of us tough Western New Yorkers are used to doing. What's a little snow? Usually not much but this was a bit more than a little. Problem with that day was the snow had been piling up for weeks before, and there was no place to put it anymore. Each time we had an early snowstorm that year, it stayed cold enough for it to not melt, and it just accumulated. Not that it snowed that much the day of the blizzard, there was just no place to push it out of the way anymore. There was so much previous snow that some of the side streets had not yet been plowed before the blizzard hit, so as the conditions got worse they became un-useable. Those that tried to get home that day were unsuccessful and eventually had to abandon their vehicle or freeze. Leaving the street impassable to traffic. This happened all over Western New York.

As most of us that lived through it, we remember it well. We all have our stories to tell. At the time our shop was on Tacoma and we still lived on the West Side. The day started out as any other winter day, cold with snow. My wife worked as a volunteer at the YMCA on Delaware in the day care center. She called me and said the weather was getting so bad they were calling the parents to come and pick up their kids. They were closing the "Y". By the time she was ready to be picked up it was really getting bad. I had a tough time getting from Tacoma to the "Y" on Delaware and conditions were going from bad to worse. Had two kids with us and my older daughter and her boyfriend in our 1975 Chevy station wagon. Big heavy car and we had a load, which was to our advantage. We had to plow through some deep snow to continue on. Many others were unable to do so.

The usual trip home would be Delaware to Forest then down Grant. Got as far on Delaware and Bedford only to find traffic completely stopped. Thought I would cut down Bedford over to Elmwood. Proceeded halfway down only to find it blocked and un-passable. This was a street that is divided down the middle. I saw no cars coming the other way so drove over the median to the other side and made it down the wrong way to Elmwood only to find that also clogged. Maybe Grant Street being less used would be passable.

Blizzard of '77 in Western New York.

Back tracked to Amherst and was able to make it to Grant. We found that slow moving and looked for shelter. We were at the corner of Grant and Amherst so pulled into the now demolished Roc-Mar Bowling alleys to wait it out. Some people did find shelter wherever and did not get home for a week. Had to live and sleep in the same clothes they were stranded in until traffic was able to move seven days later. I just wanted to get home. I stood by the front door and watched the slow traffic pass by. Then I spotted a bus slowly traveling down Grant Street. Figured it must be moving if a bus was able to travel down it. We jumped in the car and followed that bus. It was slow going but it was going.

Our street 15th street had not been plowed and looked like a disaster, but there was no abandoned cars only deep snow. We had to go down one block, so stepped on the gas and slipped, slid and fish tailed our way down that one block knowing if I stopped or slowed down I was done. Made it home and we all applauded. This was a trip home to remember. However, being home was just the beginning. Who knew it was going to last a week. No electric so the furnace was not working. We lit the kitchen stove which was gas for heat. We also had a fireplace that we had never used. We used it now. In fact we all slept in the room with the fireplace to keep warm.

What about food? My son was home from the Navy so there were seven of us in the house. We could walk to a corner grocery store but even they were running out of supplies as nothing was moving. The streets were all filled with abandoned cars and only the main drags were passable. No one was allowed out except emergency vehicles. Walking anywhere was an experience. Naturally the sidewalks were not shoveled as there was nowhere to throw the snow. The piles were so high just the top of the signs were showing. Eventually the electric came back on and slowly the street becomes clear. We were in a state of emergency so the National Guard came with heavy equipment to help remove the snow. They dumped it into the river and the parks. What they found in those parks when the snow melted is another story. I walked to work and was able to put out the Rocket on time that week. We made it through and have nothing but memories of that day in Western New York.

Ask Rusty - We Took Benefits Early; Can We Get More Now?

Dear Rusty: My birth date is 1947. My wife is 1950. We both took our Social Security years ago at age 62 due to health concerns because we questioned if we would live to age 78 to equalize the extra payout if we would have waited to age 66. Taking early at 62 may have been a mistake and I am wondering if there are any options available to maximize my and/or my wife's monthly payment with a restricted application or any other available options? My gross monthly is $946.60, and my wife's is $543.60 before the deduction for Medicare. Together our gross monthly is about equal to the per person individual average monthly payment of $1479. Signed: Regretful we took SS early.

Dear Regretful: I'm afraid the options for either you or your wife increasing your benefit at this point are extremely limited. You cannot file the restricted application you mentioned because that can only be done by someone applying for the first time (and who was born before 1/2/1954), and only by someone who has not yet reached age 70. Neither can you suspend your benefits to earn delayed retirement credits (DRCs) because DRCs are only earned up to age 70. Your wife has a very small window until she reaches 70 in March during which she could suspend her benefits, and by doing so immediately she could perhaps earn, at most, an additional 1% in DRCs (about $5 more per month). That leaves only two other things which could increase your benefits: 1) Annual Cost of Living Adjustments (COLAs) granted each year depending upon inflation, and 2) returning to work and having substantial current earnings which may replace the earnings in a lower-earning year in your lifetime work record (SS uses the highest earning 35 years over your lifetime to compute your benefit amount).

If you have some years in that 35-year history with no or very low earnings, working now could replace one or more of those years. I have no way of determining whether that is a possibility; you would need to get your lifetime earnings record from Social Security and see if that is possible by examining your earnings for each year over your lifetime. But remember, all early years of earnings are adjusted for inflation, so for example, $10,000 earned in 1990 would be equal to about $25,000 in today's dollars, and you'd need to earn more than the higher amount to have any effect on your benefit.

I wish I had better news for you, but the unfortunate reality is that once someone claims their Social Security, the benefit amount is quite fixed.

Although it's possible to withdraw an application within 12 months of initial filing, and it's also possible to suspend benefits once FRA is reached, neither of those is available to you. And your wife only has a very short window to suspend her benefits, which will reach maximum when she reaches 70 in March. So, except for the COLA increases and returning to work options I've discussed above, I'm afraid you have no other opportunity to increase your Social Security benefit amounts.

ADOPT A PET Sponsored By The Buffalo Rocket

This Week's Featured Friend: EVE

This pretty girl is Eve and we do not understand why she hasn't been scooped up yet! Just look at that pretty smile and her cute overall physique. Eve is a happy friendly, playful, sweet gal that would totally love some pretty sweaters in the winter and some pretty collars in the summer. She is smart so she would love to have a human pal to teach her more fun commands and to take her for some fun walks. She knows how to sit for her treats and will give you a little snort in anticipation of receiving it. Eve is sponsored for training classes so what a great way to start off the relationship! She has been friendly with everyone she has met and also, done well with shelter canine pals she has been introduced to. Eve has become a shelter favorite and she can't wait to find a home with a comfy couch to roll around on. Come on down and meet our lovely girl Eve and maybe you can be the one to spoil her as she deserves. ID 43416293

Stream & Lake Map of New York

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map-known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor. Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill. But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's "Stream & Lake Map of New York" is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1 GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2 REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots 47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

BONUS #3 REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

The Grapevine

The North Park Theater on Hertel Ave is hosting the "Cat-VideoFest" again this year. "CatVideoFest" is a compilation reel of the latest and best cat videos pulled from countless hours of unique submissions and sourced animations, music videos, and, of course, classic internet powerhouses. The fest is a joyous communal experience, only available in theaters, and will raise money for the cats in Ten Lives Club Cat Adoption Group's care. This film is a new one from last year and show times are Saturday, February 29 from 2pm to 3:30pm or 4:15pm to 5:45pm and Sunday, March 1 from 2pm to 3:30pm and 4:15pm to 5:45pm.

Talking Leaves, in conjunction with Hallwalls Contemporary Arts Center, is pleased to present poet, editor, and critic John Freeman for a discussion of his new book, Dictionary of the Undoing (MCD x FSG Originals) with a panel of local citizens including Rahwa Ghirmatzion of PUSH Buffalo and Eric Gansworth of Canisius College, to be moderated by Sam Magavern of the Partnership for the Public Good. We'll meet in the Cinema at Hallwalls, 341 Delaware Ave, Buffalo, at 7 pm on Wednesday, February 5, 2020.

The Western New York Book Arts Center (Book Arts) presents an exhibition by WNY artists entitled Kozo Kontinued, on view January 24 - February 29, 2020. An opening reception to celebrate the exhibition will be held Friday, January 24 from 6-9pm at 468 Washington St. in downtown Buffalo. This event is free and open to the public.

Senior Wishes is seeking wish applicants. Founded by the United Church Home Society, Senior Wishes strives to bring special moments to seniors across WNY by granting numerous wishes each year for individuals 65+ with qualifying incomes or who permanently reside in a care facility.

Senior Wishes wants to enrich the lives of deserving seniors by providing an experience to be cherished and remembered. Over 260 wishes have been granted since 2014, including traveling to visit long-missed family, attending a sports or cultural event, or even providing supplies or lessons to continue an abandoned hobby.

Qualifying seniors may submit an application which is reviewed bi-monthly by a volunteer wish granting committee. After approval, a Senior Wishes representative will work together with the senior to plan the details of their wish experience. Community members are encouraged to reach out to deserving seniors, talk to them about their unfulfilled dreams, and help them fill out the paperwork.

Wish recipients must be 65+ and a resident of Western New York with an annual income under $38,000 for a household of one or under $44,000 for a household of two. Permanent residents of care facilities are exempt from the income qualification.

Vacations, medical items, furniture, household repairs, bill payments and travel outside of the continental U.S. are excluded.

Full details can be found at www.Senior-Wishes.org or by calling Wendy at 716-508-2121.
