Ride For Roswell Starts this Weekend!

Joe Curatolo, team captain of Kids Just Want To Have Fun, and Nick Bozicevic prepare for this year's summer event.

The Ride For Roswell starts this weekend, August 1st and continues through August 21st. Riders can either do their bike treks on their own or at the smaller weekend rides with Roswell.

Here are some cycling tips for you from our friends at bicycling.com.

Pedal Smart

If you want to last long on a ride, you can't go all out right from the start. That includes pedaling in an efficient gear—one that isn't too hard and won't fry your legs. Opt for a slightly easier gear with a higher cadence versus one that's lower because the pedals are harder to turn over.

Eat and Drink Lots

When you're out on a long bike ride, nutrition and hydration are key for sustaining your effort.

Aim to drink about one bottle per hour, depending on heat and exertion level.

Use the Rule of Thirds

If a long ride still seems overwhelming, divide it into three more or less equal distances and have a plan for each of those segments: The first segment should feel easy, just spinning along. During the second, you should start to

Buffalo Dream Center Giving Away Groceries

Rev. Eric Johns, pastor of the Buffalo Dream Center, known for staying one week every year on the streets with Buffalo's homeless, has been leading an effort with his wife, family, and church to feed people during the pandemic. Their mobile food pantry has attracted more than 2,000 volunteers from across Western New York.

In the past nineteen weeks, the mobile food pantry has pulled up in more than 100 neighborhoods to distribute groceries to families in need. On Saturday, a milestone will be met as the Buffalo Dream Center gives groceries to family number 10,000.

Pastor Eric Johns says, "During the past five months we have had the privilege of serving the families of our community. It has truly been an honor to help families with food who have been struggling during the pandemic."

Those desiring to help support The Buffalo Dream Center's efforts or those in need can call 716-854-1001. Information can also be found at www.buffalodreamcenter.org.

Memories

Broderick Park back in the 80's. Nice cool place by the river at the foot of Ferry Street. Leads out to the Bird Island pier pictured inside. Would you believe that fence was not there in the 60's and people still brought their children. Boy in front is proud of his worm.

Catholic Charities WIC Healthy Baby Festival to Go Virtual

Catholic Charities Women, Infants and Children (WIC) nutrition program Healthy Baby Festival is going virtual this year! Expectant and young families are invited to attend the festival virtually through an event on Catholic Charities of Buffalo's Facebook page on Wednesday, Aug. 5.

Throughout the day on Aug. 5, a series of fun and informational material will be posted, covering everything from breastfeeding tips to nutrition and cooking videos, to virtual exercise classes. Videos and other material will be provided by staff from Catholic Charities WIC, as well as from several local organizations including: Buffalo Prenatal-Perinatal Network, Catholic Health and Snap-Ed New York. There will also be prize giveaways thanks to festival sponsor, BlueCross BlueShield.

"Families are invited to check in throughout the day and pick and choose which activities they'd like to engage in," said Judette Dahleiden, director of Catholic Charities WIC. "We really have a great variety of material, so there should be something of value for everyone. Although so much has changed this

NHL Playoff Schedule

The NHL playoffs begin Saturday August first. Before the playoffs officially start, there will be a "qualifying round" in each conference. The top four seeds in each conference will receive a bye from this round., seeds five through twelve in each conference will play a best of five series with play-off OT rules. These series begin on Saturday August first featuring five games; Calgary vs. Winnipeg, Chicago vs. Edmonton, Florida vs. the Islanders, the Rangers vs. Carolina and Montreal vs. Pittsburgh. The winners will move on to face the top four seeds in the next round. Other series will feature Toronto vs. Columbus, Arizona vs. Nashville and Minnesota vs. Vancouver..

While these teams battle, the top four teams in each conference will play a round robin tournament to determine their seeding for the first round of the playoffs. feel your muscles working. If you have any jam left, show it in the last third. Nothing screams "rookie" like jumping away on the first climb only to bonk and need to be babysat to the finish.

Watch the Wind
The wind can be your friend, or it can be your enemy. If you start with a tailwind, roll easy—you'll have a headwind on the way home. In a group, stick together during headwind stretches so you can take turns at the front working to shelter the others.

Plan for Trouble
With longer rides come greater odds that something will go wrong. It's likely your ride will be smooth sailing, but you should be prepared regardless. At minimum, carry gear to fix at least two flats, a mini tool, your cell phone, your ID, and cash.

We're glad you're part of Team Kids Just Want To Have Fun and our affiliated teams. Let's stay safe and raise a lot of money for kids undergoing treatment at Roswell Park.

In the good old summertime.

We are about half way through one of the best summers we have had in a long time, weather-wise. Perhaps a little too warm for some but for those who enjoy the heat, it has been heavenly. More sunshine than we have seen in many years, less rain than we need, but I guess enough to keep the crops and the grass growing. Longer days mean more daylight to do all the activities that the season brings. Summer usually means great outdoor living. I say usually. We used to rent a cottage for a week years back. Look forward to that all winter only to have a cold and rainy week... Ever happen to you?

It has been a different year for those who love being in or near the water. Unless you have your own backyard pool, swimming has been limited by the pandemic. All the public pools have remained closed this year and never opened. These are pools that have always been filled with happy kids who would spend most of the day splashing, swimming, jumping, and diving into the cool clear chlorinated water. From the day the pool opened until the day it closed. Not this year, a pool with no water is just a big silent hole.

The alternative would be going to the beach, one would think. Nope, they closed them also. First you are not allowed to go into Canada, site of many of the areas favorite sandy beaches. I assume they are also closed to the public. That leaves the beaches along the southern shores of Lake Erie on the American side. Not so sandy and pretty rock covered if you have ever been there. Here again even these public beaches are closed. Sunday, took a ride down old Lake Shore Road along the lake to Bennett beach, Wendt beach, and Erie beach in Angola. All with big signs, "Beach closed no swimming". All these beaches had swimmers in the water. Not one person on any of the beaches was wearing a mask. Dozens of people in the water enjoying the waves and I imagine warm water with all the hot weather.

When I was a kid the only pool around was the Centennial pool located down in Front Park on Porter Avenue. Much too far to walk and was even a good bike ride. So we would swim in the Niagara River, much too dangerous and too many did drown. Either that or walk over the Peace Bridge to the little beach just on the other side, the "Baby Hole". We always found a way to be in the water.

Growing up my kids had the luxury of the Massachusetts pool right around the corner. They would spend many hot summer days there. The only time they left the pool was to come home for lunch. When we moved off the West Side we eventually had our own in ground pool. Problem solved no need to go to any public pools or beaches any more. That is until we moved to a home without a pool.

That meant again having to find comfortable public pools or beaches but now suitable for older people. That has not been too much of a problem till this year and the pandemic. It had to come on a summer year that has a "pool day" almost every day. Not until this year have we had the desire to have our own pool... The answer for anyone who has a strong desire to float around on a noodle in a pool on a hot day, get your own pool. They tell me if you did want a pool installed, you have to wait until next year, the demand is so high. Luck would have it that if you do install a pool next year, you may end up having a cold and rainy summer.

Ask Rusty - Can I Get a Widow's Benefit if I'm on Disability?

Dear Rusty: I was recently approved for my Social Security disability benefits. Will I still be able to get my widow's benefits when I turn 60, which is right around the corner? Or do I lose those because I am disabled? Signed: An Uncertain Widow

Dear Uncertain Widow: You will not lose your survivor (widow's) benefits because you are now collecting Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits. You can get the survivor benefit if it is more than your SSDI benefit and provided that you did not remarry before age 60 (and remain married). If you are entitled to and claim a survivor benefit while on SSDI, it will come as a separate supplemental payment which, along with your SSDI benefit, equals the amount you are due as a widow.

If you are now on SSDI you can actually take your survivor benefit before age 60 because survivor benefits can be taken as early as age 50 if you are disabled. But claimed at age 60 or earlier, the survivor benefit will be reduced by 28.5% from what it would be if you wait until your full retirement age (FRA) of 67 to claim it. If you are collecting both SSDI and the survivor supplement when you reach your full retirement age, it will automatically convert to one payment equal to what you're entitled to as a survivor (SSDI benefits stop at full retirement age).

It would be prudent for you to evaluate whether you should continue with your SSDI benefits only for a while and allow your survivor benefit to grow to a higher amount. At age 67, your survivor benefit as a widow will be 100% of the amount your deceased husband was receiving, or entitled to receive, at his death. But claiming it before your full retirement age will mean it will be cut by 4.75% for each year earlier than your FRA that you claim it. You can find out your full survivor benefit amount by contacting Social Security.

Your survivor benefit will reach maximum at your full retirement age, and it does not expire so you can delay up to age 67 to claim if you wish (to get the maximum amount as a widow). But if your financial situation is such that you need the reduced survivor benefit earlier, and your benefit as a widow is more than your SSDI benefit, you can claim it at any time. Survivor benefits must be applied for directly with the Social Security Administration, which you can reach by phone at 1.800.772.1213, or at your local office (find the phone number for your local office at www.ssa.gov/locator). Note that all Social Security offices are temporarily closed to in-person visits by the public, so telephone is your only current option to apply for your survivor benefit, until after the pandemic closure is lifted.

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map--known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map."

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map
Professor Higbee's "Stream & Lake Map of New York" is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1 GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2 REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots
47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

BONUS #3 REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish
The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

Catholic Charities WIC Healthy Baby Festival to Go Virtual

year, Catholic Charities WIC is excited to still offer this fun, educational event for our WIC families and the community at large."

Catholic Charities WIC hosts the events in celebration of World Breastfeeding Week (Aug. 1-7) to raise awareness about the significance and benefits that breastfeeding provides. Typically, the festivals are held at parks in Erie, Niagara and Chautauqua counties, where Catholic Charities is the WIC administrator.

More than 23,000 women and children up to the age of five were served by WIC in 19 locations across the three counties in 2019. Since the pandemic outbreak locally in mid-March, Catholic Charities WIC has been predominantly providing services remotely over the phone to new and existing clients, but still offering limited office hours for special circumstances.

Nutrition education and counseling, breastfeeding support, prenatal and postpartum support, referrals and supplemental food vouchers are all offered by WIC. Services are available through application to married or single parents, foster parents or other legal guardians of a child under five. All services offered are free of charge.
