

Honoring Mom on Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a celebration honoring the mother of the family, as well as motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society.

Mothers make sacrifices for their family without expecting anything in return. They are just happy to see you happy. A little show of appreciation goes a long way, and while you can certainly turn Mother's Day into a big event, simply hearing from you will make mom smile.

The modern holiday of Mother's Day was first celebrated in 1907, when Anna Jarvis held a memorial for her mother at St Andrew's Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia. Her campaign to make Mother's Day a recognized holiday in the United States began in 1905, the year her mother died. Ann Jarvis had been a peace activist who cared for wounded soldiers on both sides of the American Civil War, and created Mother's Day Work Clubs to address public health issues. She and another peace activist and suffragette Julia Ward Howe had been urging for the creation of a Mother's Day dedicated to peace. 40 years before it became an official holiday,

In the Roman Catholic Church, the holiday is strongly associated with revering the Virgin Mary. In some Catholic homes, families have a special shrine devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Positive words can be paired with a beautiful bouquet of fresh flowers to communicate how grateful you are for everything your mom has done, and how lucky you feel to have her in your life.

Spend this day to honor and reflect the things your mother has done for you.

Happy Mother's Day!

Carnegie Art Center To Host Makers Market

The Carnegie Art Center Lawn.

The Carnegie Art Center presents a monthly Makers Market that will take place outside on their lawn every second Saturday of the month starting in May and going into September 2021. This monthly event will feature up to 35 vendors selling handcrafted goods, vintage items and/or refreshments.

The Carnegie Art Center is usually the main organizer of the Arts & Crafts show that takes place during the final weekend of Canal Fest. The craft show is also a fundraiser for the non-profit art organization as vendors pay a fee to participate. The newly created monthly Makers Market will serve as an alternative to the Crafts show since Canal Fest is cancelled this year due to COVID restrictions. The Makers Market will highlight local artists, crafters and other creative vendors and encourage the community to visit the Carnegie Art Center located in the Sweeney Estate Historic District in North Tonawanda. The Makers Markets will be the perfect place to purchase handcrafted items including paintings, jewelry, unique crafts and more.

Junior League of Buffalo Opens Grace Millard Knox House

The Junior League of Buffalo with The Buffalo News announced today that the 2021 Decorators' Show House Sneak Peek will be held over the course of two weekends, May 8-9 and May 15-16. This year, due to COVID-19, the public will have an extended opportunity to take part in Sneak Peek to see the undecorated house, ensuring spaced out showings, allowing all visitors to socially distance.

The 2021 Decorators' Show House will be held at The Grace Millard Knox House located on "Millionaires' Row" at 800 Delaware Ave. Buffalo, N.Y. The 28,000 square foot French Renaissance style home was built by NYC Architect Charles Pierrepont H. Gilbert between 1915-1918 for the widow of Seymour Knox. The building was recently sold to Ross Cellino for the new corporate headquarters of his law firm, Cellino Law.

Sneak Peek Weekend offers the community an exclusive look into this historic property before over 40 interior designers, landscapers, and others decorate and transform 36 spaces in the house starting mid-May.

Tickets for Sneak Peek are on sale now online at buffalo.jl.org/showhouse. Tickets cost $10 + fees and are only available to purchase online. No ticket sales will be offered at the door. This year's Sneak Peek and Show House tickets will be timed to ensure the safety of all guests. The hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The timed tickets will give guests access to the Show House on a specific date and time. Guests are welcome to check in at any point during the purchased timed ticket slot and are

Get Ready To Play Ball!

For all the boys and girls in North Buffalo, the baseball and softball season is here.

Opening Day for the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League is this Saturday, May 8 at Shoshone Park. Over 1,000 boys and girls, the most ever for the League in its 65 year history, have signed up to play the game, once considered America's favorite past-time. Since 1957, Shoshone Park has been the home for thousands of area children, growing up and learning the game, not far from their own backyard.

This weekend is the first time teams will be competing against one another after a year's absence due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 and the season was cancelled. While last year was a disappointment for everyone, HNPYBL worked hard during that time to make sure things would be different this year. North Buffalo Baseball and Softball welcomes back all returning players, as well as the first year child, looking for a chance to be outdoors with friends in a tiny Park off of Hertel near Main Street.

Unlike in years past, there will be no Opening Day ceremonies held this season due to the effects of the pandemic. Under sometimes a bright sun and chilly temperatures, the League has gathered first at the corner of Hertel and Saranac Avenue in front of the Cornelius Building and marched up Hertel to the Park for the throwing of the First Pitch, the National Anthem and then the words: "Play Ball!" This season, games start at 10:00 o'clock am and will continue until after 4:00 pm. Games are also scheduled at noon and at 2:00 o'clock.

As many as 24 games can be played on six of the nine diamonds on Opening Day. This season, Hertel North Park has scheduled some games at nearby McCarthy Park for the first time in its history. The continued growth of the League as being the only place to play organized baseball or softball inside the City in the Summertime is the reason for the use of the nearby Park. Boys Divisions are Majors, Triple A, Double A and Rookie. Girls Divisions are Majors, Minors and Rookie. There's also a boys and girls t-ball division.

The League asks for everyone to follow new rules for parking your vehicle. Games on diamonds 3 and 4 use Parkside Court and Tacoma Avenue. For games on diamonds 7 or 8, please use the NFTA Park and Ride lot off of Main Street. For games on diamonds 1, 2 or 6, please use the lot at the Beard Avenue entrance. Hertel North Park is adhering to all health and safety regulations due to the Pandemic. Teams are asked to exit the Park quickly after their game as areas will be cleaned and sanitized prior to a new game played on Saturdays. All players will be wearing new team jerseys and baseball caps provided by the League. They must wear gray baseball pants and bring their own NOSCOE official batting helmet and baseball glove to games or practices. As always, several local businesses have sponsored teams and have supported this League for many years. Welcome back to Shoshone Park.

My Social Security Card Is Incorrect - What Should I Do? - Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: My sister and I have the same first and last names but are distinguished by our "middle" names. Our last name consists of two family names, which gives us both four, with only our middle names unique. We received two Social Security cards with the same name (middle name excluded), each with a unique number, but with our last name misspelled. So, my questions are:

Which card is mine, and which is my sisters?

Is it okay that our last name is misspelled?

I called Social Security and was told to make an appointment online, which I tried but could not because it wouldn't accept my last name. I don't know what to do now and hope you can advise me.

Signed: Confused Sister

Dear Confused Sister: You haven't shared your age, but unless you're ready to apply for Social Security, you and your sister have time to correct your last name in your Social Security records. In any case, your Social Security Number is what is used to record your earnings for the purpose of future SS benefits, so you aren't losing anything where your earnings credits are concerned. You should, however, get your correct last name reflected in your Social Security records to be sure that your future benefits will be properly paid.

For Social Security purposes, only first names and last names (surnames) are considered your legal name. You can include a middle name if it will help distinguish you from another, but your legal name for Social Security purposes will be your first and last name only. Thus, you should correct your Social Security profile to reflect your correct first and last name and include your unique middle name for personal purposes to distinguish you from your sister. For additional awareness, SS last names are limited to 13 characters. Also, it's not uncommon for many people to share the same first and last name (e.g., John Smith) in Social Security's records – it's the SS number associated with that name that counts.

Other factors might apply too, such as whether the SS cards and numbers you and your sister now have are new, or if either or both of you have been using those SS numbers for past employment purposes. In any case, those numbers have been assigned to you, so getting your profile to reflect your correct last name is important. It's also important that each of you separately use only one SS card/number (you use one; your sister the other).

To correct your name with Social Security, you should fill out and submit form SSA-5, which you can download/print at this link: <https://www.ssa.gov/forms/ss-5.z> Note that the form is used to apply for a new card, get a replacement card, or to change information for an existing SS number. The form includes complete instructions on how to fill it out, and you can submit it via the US Post Office to your local Social Security office, the mailing address for which you can find at www.ssa.gov/locator. Take note of the form's instructions for including additional documentation for identification purposes. I suggest that you and your sister both do this separately, each of you taking ownership of one of the SS numbers. When Social Security processes your name change, they will schedule an appointment to discuss any remaining questions they may have. They will notify you via U.S. mail of the date/time of the appointment and the next steps to be taken.

Since all Social Security offices are temporarily closed to public access due to the pandemic, you can do this transaction entirely over the phone if you wish, but you will need to first call for an appointment. If you choose the phone method over submitting form SSA-5, you should call 1.800.772.1213 and request an appointment to correct your name on Social Security's records. They will send you an appointment notice, at which you will be able to initiate the name change process (you'll still need to provide them with identification documents via the US mail).

When I Was A Kid Part Nine: Mama Mia

Homemade pressed ravioli.

I grew up without a grandmother. My dad was an orphan and my mother's mother passed when I was very young. The only relationship I had with any close adult woman was my Mama Mia, Italian for mother of mine. She was a full blooded Sicilian female who happened to marry an Irishman. So we had an Irish father and Italian mother. No wonder all eight of us are so good looking. My mom was like any other Italian woman, devoted to her man and her joy in life was being able to feed people. How she loved to cook and of course, eat.

She was one of eight, four sisters and three brothers. Not sure the culinary skills of my aunts but I do know about my Mom. She made her own bread and I do not recall ever going to buy a loaf, anytime. Wish I had the recipe for her dough as she did everything with it. With her dough she made bread, pizza, rolls for breakfast and dessert with cinnamon and frosting. I have not in my lifetime had anything as good since, as I have had with my mother's bread. I would come home from school and get a whiff of hot bread just out of the oven. She would put a little olive oil and chives and it was out of this world. She seemed to always be baking something.

Raising eight kids she was a stay at home mom. Most were back then. Actually she never did go to work until she was in her late 40's. Kobacker's Department store was her only employment but that was long after I had grown up. So she was home all the time when I was a kid. Making dinner, doing what housewives do, the laundry, cleaning, and a lot of ironing. There was no wash and wear so everything had to be ironed. She never took down the ironing board. I was assigned the handkerchiefs. Nothing too hard about making sure they were smooth. At night she would knit and crochet. My mom even taught me how to knit. Another chore I had was to take the yarn and convert it into a ball to make it easier to use. With eight children and living on a modest income. My mom did a lot of sewing and patching and knitting in an effort to make us look decent.

Still her big thing was to cook. We still to this day use what she taught us to make red sauce. Being half Italian we ate a lot of spaghetti for dinner. My dad, being Irish, was not too fond of Italian food so my mom had to make a special dish for him when we had sauce. She did not mind doing it and it was never an issue to her. Maybe sometimes it was to us kids as he was eating steak and potatoes while we had pasta. Do not recall if she made her own pasta but I know she made her own ravioli. I know this for a fact as I had to press the edges with a fork. Another of my many chores, but I loved it. Just working next to my mom was a joy as most that have done it, know. There is nothing like it.

Later in life, when we were all married and had our own kids, Sunday was always Mother's day. We would all squeeze into her flat for pasta and meatballs. Sometimes as many as 27 of us attended, but we were always there. She would have these huge kettles cooking on the stove. One loaded with her sauce and the other with boiling water, ready for whatever pasta we had that day. This made her happy and we were always greeted with her big smile. That alone was worth the trip there. Like every one of us, we love to see our mom happy. We did that every Sunday. Not once in a while but every Sunday. Looking back, those were such good times.

My mom passed away in her middle sixties. Maybe old back then but young nowadays. Almost to the day, exactly one year after my dad had passed. Guess she just missed him and wanted to be in the same place as he was. No sickness just went suddenly at a picnic. So I have spent my adult life without a Mom, or Dad. Still I have those memories of those "good old days". Fond memories of being with her and next to her, knitting, ironing, cooking or just there, by her side. I loved my mom as most do.

Even writing about her now brings tears to my eyes, 58 years later. Please if your mom is still with you treat her with the respect she deserves. There is nothing like a mother to have and to love. Happy Mother's day mom wherever you are and Happy Mother's day to every mother on this earth. God bless every one of you.

It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor.

Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill.

But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key.

Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map.

Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1 GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2 REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots 47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

BONUS #3 REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report—you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission
