Sports Memorial Day Tournament

North Buffalo Baseball team.

Memorial Day is getting to be one of the best holidays of the year for North Buffalo Baseball. It's the time when the Hertel North Park League holds its Annual Jimmy Collins Memorial Baseball Classic Tournament. This year's competition almost couldn't happen because of a soaking rainfall on its first day. But the three day event May 28th-30th, was a huge success for 26 area youth baseball teams, all coming into Shoshone Park, for some great games.

Teams from as far away as Jamestown, Hamburg, Lancaster and West Seneca and several more from nearby Lou Gehrig, Central Amherst, Cheektowaga, Mathewson/McCarthy and the WNY Muckdogs were just a part of some talented rosters meeting face to face Saturday and Sunday across the Park's six diamonds and by the time the winners were announced, boys between the ages of eight to 13, couldn't wait until next season.

"Everyone had a blast," said Eric Gunnarson, a North Buffalo father to Connor of the League's 8u team. "It was a well run weekend and the parents appreciate all the hard work the League does."

Gunnarson was just a part of the total six teams from North Buffalo that played in four different age brackets. Besides an 8u North Buffalo team, there were teams nine and under, ten and under, 12 and under and 13 and under. Some of the best talent playing in Shoshone Park swung their bats against some real competition, teams they hadn't seen in over a year because of the dreaded COVID-19 Pandemic.

Other players on the 8u team from North Buffalo included Bennett Armstrong, Maddox Beale, Christian Cipolla, Brody Huard, Jack Kleeh, Patrick Lea-Kelly, Colin Poppenberg, George Rhoney, Brady Roberts, Dominic Sabia, Cole Shatzel, Lucas Turkovich and Brayden Westfield. Said coach Jim Daley afterward: "To hold the Lancaster Bisons under 15 runs all season...that's due to outstanding defense by North Buffalo."

"I think this was great," said League President Don Morris. "I loved it. Everyone just came together and worked hard, especially after the rain Friday and just made it happen anyway. Most of my board was here early Saturday, getting the diamonds ready and we just worked hard to reschedule the games cancelled for the next day. This Tournament is growing, thanks to Jim Daley and his work reflects my goal of making sure children can play the game."

Ben Willis hit a two run homerun and teammates Tully McDermid, Leo Schult and John Salerno combined on the mound to lead the North Buffalo Blaze to a 16-5 win over the green North Buffalo team. Other players on the team included Jeremiah Cash, Justin Daniels, Rocco Diina, Patrick Doyle, Jensen Leon, Pavel Schneidermann, Ayano Silverman and Nathan Smith.

The North Buffalo 8u Blaze finished in second place, losing to the Lancaster Bisons, 11-6 in the Championship. Cayuga Heat shut out the Jamestown Knights, 10-0 in the 10u Division. Lou Gehrig defeated the WNY Muckdogs, 12-6 in the 12u Division and Hamburg defeated Mathewson/McCarthy in the 13u Division.

In House Baseball action from last week, Molly Kilianski celebrated her 12th Birthday in style last Thursday night. She had two big hits at the plate and made two putouts at third base defensively for the Astros while teammate Karrington Mann blasted a bases loaded home run to the opposite field for a 17-6 win over the Rockies.

In Rookie Boys, Gabriel Timms scored the winning run on an RBI single by teammate Felix Thompson to give the Blue Jays their first win of the year, a 1-0 victory over the Mariners.

This Week's Featured Friend: HANK

Hank is one of our shelter stud mufins. He's an absolutely stunning bully breed mix who came to the shelter as a stray and was never claimed. He comes out of his kennel on the wild side but with a bit of time to get his business done (he shows signs he's very housetrained) and gets over his initial excitement about being outside he calms down and is very responsive and sweet to you. We think he is between 1 and 2 years old, and is a muscular and solidly built boy in the 80 to 90 pound range.

Because of the COVID19 situation, the shelter is closed to the general public. If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcas.org/adopt>

Will My Retirement Benefits Be Cut Because of My State Pension? – Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I took early retirement at 20 years from the Louisiana public school system in 1996. Since then, I have continued to work in private schools (except for 2 years in public). I now have over 20 years in the Social Security system. Are they going to take money out of my tiny early LA retirement check or lower my Social Security check? Is it true I can continue working and draw Social Security? I have reached full retirement age – I am 68. Signed: State Retiree

Dear State Retiree:
 There are 27 US states (including Louisiana) which, to varying degrees, do not require state employees to contribute to the Federal Social Security program. Retirees in those states with a pension earned while not contributing to Social Security, and who still earn enough Social Security credits (from other work) to be eligible for Social Security benefits, are affected by a regulation known as the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP), which reduces the amount of your Social Security payment. So, the answer to your question is yes, your Social Security benefit will be reduced as a result of your LA state pension and WEP (your LA retirement benefit won't be affected).

The amount of the reduction to your Social Security benefit will depend upon the number of years of “significant” earnings you have contributing to the Social Security (SS) program. With 20 or fewer years of SS-covered earnings, you would incur the maximum WEP reduction, which is either a) 50% of your LA State pension amount, or b) the maximum WEP reduction for your “eligibility year” (the year you turned 62, which I believe was 2015). In the case of b), the maximum WEP reduction to your Social Security benefit would be $413/month.

Since you say you have “over 20 years” contributing to Social Security, be aware that the size of the WEP reduction to your SS will be smaller for each year over 20 that you have significant SS-covered earnings. For example, with 21 years of SS earnings your WEP reduction would be $371/month; with 25 years of SS contributions your WEP reduction would be $206/month; and with 30 years of SS contributions, WEP would no longer apply. As you can see, the WEP reduction to your SS benefit decreases proportionally with each year over 20 that you have significant earnings and contribute to Social Security, and WEP disappears with 30 years of significant SS earnings.

Be aware that WEP will not affect you until you are collecting both your LA state pension and your Social Security benefit, and that for each full year you continue to work and contribute to Social Security the WEP reduction will diminish. And since you've passed your full retirement age you can collect Social Security and work without your SS benefits being affected. But, in any case, you shouldn't delay claiming your Social Security benefit past age 70 because that is when your SS benefit will reach maximum.

Half Irish, Half Italian

What is it like to be Italian with an Irish last name? I can answer that easily. My mother was 100% Sicilian, and my dad was mixed Irish and English, so I was born with an Irish last name. Back when my dad and mom were married it was considered a mixed marriage. My dad's best friend would not be his best man as he was marrying an "Italian". His love for her was enough to overcome any opposition and they wedded and produced eight handsome children. We all grew up with people not knowing we had more Italian blood in us than Irish. When our Italian friends found out, suddenly we were looked upon with different eyes. We were goombahs!

Our family grew up on the West Side of Buffalo and as we all know was predominantly Italian American. Most of my friends, not all, had Italian parents. School 18 at the time was better than 60% Italian. I went on to Grover Cleveland High School which must have been more than that. I recall playing football and the News would print the starting lineups. Being as I was an End in football my name was on the top. The lone Irish name followed by ten Italian names. Oddo, Berrafato, Saiia, Maiola, Sciandra, Gangi, Nigro, Ganci, Cordaro and Geraci. It looked like I was the only non-Italian on the team, yet that was not true. We even had an Italian coach, Paul Missana. He used to call me a "blank". That is not in place of a bad word, to him I was a "blank". "You blank, why did you miss that tackle". To him, I was a "blank". Never heard that term before or after. I remain the only "blank" in existence.

Being that my roots, relatives, and friends are Italian, I will use that term instead of Italian American. When my heritage was discovered, I instantly became one of them. It was amazing to see the transition to some people who had known me for years, when they found out I was half Italian. I took on a different look, even though I had been the same all along. Still to this day when I meet an older Italian and I will say something in my limited Italian, (my mother spoke fluent Italian) I see the change in their faces and a big smile erupts. "I knew there was something about you I liked" I heard so many times. You would have to see it as I did, and probably few others with the same mixed background, to believe it. One fellow in Florida used to call me "half Italian" instead of my name.

There are advantages to being a half breed as I was sometimes called. If you are with the Irish, you are home free and accepted as my name is really a common Irish last name. Especially on St Patrick's day, you are Irish with all the wearing of the green and celebrating in an Irish bar. Then two days later, on St. Joseph's Day we would have a feast to honor that patron saint. That was my favorite, as a kid we would go from house to house and visit relatives who were hosting St Joseph day tables. It was an enormous tradition back then. I do not recall if it was the same families that sponsored the tables or if it was moved around among the relatives. I do know we did go to one at the same house every year. The Longo's. This was Italian, this was it, this is what it was all about. Lots of food, lots of wine, most of all, lots of Italian desserts, lots of tradition. Those were the days my friend, I thought they would never end.

There are still celebrations for both days, St Patrick's and St Josephs but not like it used to be. Each year I am in Florida for both days. They do celebrate St Patrick's day as usual, but no mention of St Joseph's Day. I was not happy with that and wanted to do something, for the Italian in me. For some reason, St. Joseph's Day is unheard of with Florida native Italians. Only the ones that come down from the north have celebrated the day in the past and know of it. I tried to change that. Our clubhouse has a big St Patrick's day party and is always sold out. I lobbied for a similar St Joseph's Day gathering at the same place. It almost caught on but being as it is two days later, it was just not possible. I said just make it a big spaghetti dinner, that would be easy. Fell on deaf ears and it has been years since we have been able to enjoy the feast of St. Joseph. Makes my Italian blood boil.

Now that the Italian Festival is cancelled again when I am back up north, what is a half breed supposed to do? How do we gather for pasta, fazol, tripe and cannoli? Where do we go to say Buon Giorno? Guess we have to settle for Frank's Sunny Italy this year. That is Italian and right from my grandparent's town in Sicily.

Center Pauses All Programs

Continued from page one. Age Discrimination Act: "The Age Act of 1975 prohibits discrimination on the basis of age in HHS-funded programs and activities. Under the Age Act, recipients may not exclude, deny or limit services to, or otherwise discriminate against, persons on the basis of age" (HHS.gov). And, under federal anti-discrimination laws, businesses can refuse service to any person for any reason, unless the business is discriminating against a protected class. The protected classes are race and color, national origin, religion and creed, sex, age, disability, veteran status. For example, the famous Anchor Bar cannot ban seniors from entering its business and neither can the N.B.C.D.C. Legal counsel, representing the N.B.C.D.C. has contacted the Office of Contract Administration and the City's legal department, but as of the date of this letter, the N.B.C.D.C.'s legal counsel has not been contacted by the City and no answer has been forthcoming.

City's Flawed Grant Monitoring System. The City of Buffalo Office of Contract Administration recently did a site visit. At that time, the Office of Contract Administration cited the N.B.C.D.C. with a, "Finding," (wrong-doing) saying that the N.B.C.D.C. did not serve enough people below a certain economic threshold and/or from the correct zip codes and, thus, the contractual ratio was not met. Said differently, the City claims the people the N.B.C.D.C. served made too much money (or self-reported as making too much money) to qualify as the 51% of people served in the moderate to low-income bracket and there were people who lived outside of the approved zip codes per City funding requirements. The Office of Contract Administration is intimating that the N.B.C.D.C. is in breach of contract. What the Office of Contract Administration failed to acknowledge is the impact of the City of Buffalo's mandate to close the Center for 14 months (longer now due to the age discrimination issue) on the populations served. Thus, the City cited the N.B.C.D.C. with a, "Finding" that the City itself caused and continues to cause. This is not opinion – this is 100% fact.

Given the (1) deplorable condition of the Center, (2) the Office of Contract Administration's unreasonable and flawed "Finding" and (3) the City's illegal age restriction mandate, the N.B.C.D.C. must pause all of its programming (including its summer camp) until these matters can be addressed. Legal counsel has been procured by the N.B.C.D.C. regarding the age discrimination and "Finding" matters.

With the unanimous approval of the Board of Directors of the North Buffalo Community Development Corporation, I submit this letter.

Ronald Deschenes
President, Board of Directors.
