Wildcats Are Winners!

Championship Teams 16u And 12u together at home plate.

All the girls playing in the North Buffalo Wildcat Softball Tournament held this past weekend in Shoshone Park will remember this one for sure. Not only did they compete against teams from various Leagues throughout the area, they also needed to battle against the forces of Mother Nature. In a three day competition held every year, Saturday's torrential rainfall interrupted the girl's hopes of victory in their home Park, in front of family and friends. And these girls have lots of friends.

Two Wildcat teams won

Championships in both the 16 and under and the 12 and under divisions and a 10 and under team finished in second place for a victorious weekend that almost didn't happen. The 16u Wildcats defeated the Orchard Park Stars 9-7 late Sunday afternoon, the culmination of Softball being played at all on diamonds considered wet, like a pool just 24 hours earlier.

The same can be said for the 12u team, which defeated Cayuga, 11-3 just a few hours earlier and showed this area just how strong a City youth league like North Buffalo can compete against anyone. Ally Foglia hit a two run homerun and pitched four innings, striking out ten and teammate Molly Savage came in relief, striking out five to lead the way. Other players on the team included Margaret Donoghue, Penelope Mucitelli, Brooklyn Hornung, Brielle Mellerson, Abigail Ware, Molly Kuwik, Kylah Sanders, Julianna Marino, Josephine MacDonald and Elizabeth Lester.

Meena Rose and Isabel Nieves pitched well for the 16u Wildcats in the win over Orchard Park. Elly Perez and Kira Kilonisky hit back to back triples to lead the offense. Other girls on the team were Emy Perez, Emma Mahoney, Elizabeth Koochoian, Genieve Mucitelli, George-Ann Reinhardt, Maria Costanzo, Molly Sheehan and Aubri Alvira. The 16u team included Peyton Gallivan, Izzy Kilonisky, Julia French, Katie Kooshoian, Jania Harris-Officer, Chloe Claeys, Clara Rickus, Lidia Foglia, Cecelia Jones and Skyler Ball.

"We all arrived at the Park early Sunday morning and worked across all the diamonds simultaneously to get them ready," said one board member, who wished to remain anonymous. His other friends are Don Morris, Tony Messina, Scott Gallivan, Paul Fuzak, John Hornung, Bob Mucitelli, Khris Foglia, Kevin Pritchard, Eric Schmarder, Tim Robertson and Matt Wolf.

Should I Claim Social Security at 62, or Wait Longer? -Ask Rusty

Dear Rusty: I was born in 1956 and my wife in 1961. I've got 45 years of SSA earnings, and I will have income in 2021. We have four minor children, the youngest born in 2012. When is the best time for us to apply for benefits? Are we eligible for family benefits? My statement infers that we are. Signed: Older Dad

Dear Older Dad: Born in 1956, your full retirement age (FRA) for Social Security purposes is 66 years and four months. If you claim your SS benefit at any time before your FRA, it will be permanently reduced. If, for example, you claimed your SS benefits now, the amount would be permanently cut by about 14%. Your wife's FRA is 67, and, similarly, she will receive a reduced SS retirement or SS spousal benefit if taken any time before her FRA.

Your wife isn't normally eligible for benefits until she is 62 years old, but if she is providing full-time childcare to your minor children, she is eligible for spouse benefits sooner.

Child-in-care spouse benefits are available at any age for your wife if she is providing care for at least one of your minor children under the age of 16. You must be collecting your wife to be eligible for this.

Once you start collecting your Social Security, your minor children will become eligible for benefits also. Minor child benefits are available to any child under the age of 18, or 19 if still in high school. All your children who qualify under that definition would be eligible for benefits based upon your Social Security earnings record. But, because of Social Security's Family Maximum, the amount each child receives would be less than half of your FRA benefit amount.

The Family Maximum amount is different for everyone because it is computed using each person's Primary Insurance Amount, or "PIA," which is the amount you are entitled to at your FRA. The Family Maximum normally computes to somewhere between 150% and 180% of the primary beneficiary's PIA, and that amount is shared by all those collecting. So in your family's case, your PIA amount is first deducted from your Family Maximum amount, and the remaining 50% to 80% is equally apportioned among all those collecting benefits on your record (including your wife if she receives child-in-care benefits). If all 4 of your children are minors, and your wife is collecting child-in-care benefits, those five individuals would each receive an equal portion of the remaining family maximum amount after your PIA is deducted.

It's probable that your family would get the entire family maximum amount for as long as your wife and minor children are eligible for benefits. But remember that claiming your own benefit before your full retirement age results in a permanent reduction to the benefit you will receive for the rest of your life. So, you should evaluate which option is financially better considering your life expectancy — claiming now and getting the full Family Maximum amount in these earlier years, or waiting longer (even up to age 70) to receive a higher personal benefit for the rest of your life. You should also consider that if you die first, your wife's survivor benefit will be based upon the amount you are receiving at your death, so the age at which you claim also affects your wife's benefit as your widow.

Finally, if you claim before you have reached your full retirement age, Social Security's earnings limit will apply until you reach your FRA. If you work and exceed the limit ($18,960 for 2021), Social Security may withhold your benefits for several months, and your dependents won't receive their benefits while yours are withheld. Note too that your earnings limit will go up by about 2.5 times during the year you attain FRA.

The Power Of Public Art

"Hertel Postcard" by Vincent Alejandro.

Each time I walk down Hertel Avenue, I am continually amazed by the success and vibrancy of the district. I am always in awe when I see the residents and businesses working together in making this area a true gem in the City of Buffalo and an attraction for visitors from all over Western New York. Over the past four years, Hertel Avenue has been put on the map as a public art destination. Murals have popped up on several buildings along the strip, and art lovers from all over have made it a must-see spot in the city.

Working with the Albright-Knox Art Gallery on the "Hertel Walls" project has been one of the most rewarding things I have achieved since being on the council. The purpose behind the "Hertel Walls" project is to increase foot traffic, attract new businesses, beautify a neighborhood, and tell an artist's story. Since 2017 we have helped with the implementation of 9 murals spanning from Delaware to Starin Avenue. We were also able to successfully host a "Street Art Festival" with the help of muralist Vinny Alejandro, along the Hertel Alley. This festival showcased more than 20 artists and their works. The event was incredibly unique as people were able to see the artist at work from start to finish.

The power of public art is immeasurable. Neighborhoods with a public art scene tend to be more unified and have a stronger sense of community. The "Hertel Walls" project is planned to continue through the years with new artists and more murals for all to appreciate. Whether you are a North Buffalo resident, an art enthusiast, or just visiting the area, make sure to take the time to check out the "Hertel Walls" in person. Keep your eyes peeled for future murals that are planned to appear on Hertel!

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission
