Veteran's Day

Veterans Day will be celebrated this year on November 11, 2021.

Veterans Day, observed annually on November 11, is a tribute to military veterans who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces. Not to be confused with Memorial Day, which honors those who died while in service, Veterans Day honors all military veterans, including those still with us. Veterans Day is observed annually on November 11. It's a holiday honoring men and women who have served in the U.S. armed forces, on the anniversary of the end of World War I.

Veterans Day, originally celebrated as Armistice Day, was first issued on November 11, 1919, by President Woodrow Wilson a year after the end of World War I. The purpose of Armistice Day was to honor the fallen soldiers of the Great War for their sacrifice and bravery. Seven years later, in 1926, Congress adopted a resolution requesting that President Calvin Coolidge issue annual proclamations on November 11, making Armistice Day a legal holiday.

Kearns Honors Founder Of Self-Advocacy Group For Individuals With Disabilities

As October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month, Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns and Our Lady of Victory (OLV) Human Services held a dedication ceremony in honor of the late Dan Porter who passed away in 2020. Despite his infirmities, Dan was a powerful advocate for inclusion and accessibility for people with disabilities.

"In recognition of Dan

Porter's passion, dedication and relentless pursuit of inclusion by ensuring that 'doors are open to everyone', it is my great honor to proclaim the automatic entry doors at the Erie County Auto Bureau will be forever known as 'Danny's Doors'," stated Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns. "A plaque hon-oring Dan's legacy will be hung in the entry way of the Erie County Auto Bureaus in Tonawanda and here in West Seneca."

Recently, County Clerk Kearns had automatic entry doors were installed at both the Erie County Auto Bureau locations in Tonawanda and West Seneca with money provided through CARES Act funding. The effort to curb COVID-19made it possible to continue Dan's effort to "open the doors to everyone." Dan first expressed his objective with Kearns Continued on page three.

The Rat Pack Comes To Hertel!

Hertel Walls continues to expand with "The Rat Pack" as the newest completed mural at the corner of Hertel and Lovering. Muralist Chuck Tingley's newest project depicts notorious enter-tainers Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, and Sammy Davis Jr. as an ode to the street's Italian heritage. With the recently opened Centro Culturale Italiano di Buffalo just blocks away from this mural, it proves to be a perfect addition to Hertel Ave!

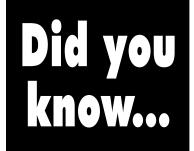

I was lucky enough to stop by while Chuck was painting a few times and got to see the mural process from start to finish! As I was admiring his work many people would stop by on foot, bike or car just to compliment the artwork and attention to detail. There are so many Italian Americans that have lived in North Buffalo for decades and are proud to see the homage to this trio in their neighborhood.

This is Chuck Tingley's third addition to the Hertel Walls as he is also responsible for the essential workers mural off Traymore and Hertel as well as "Weego" at 1503 Hertel. The essential workers mural was completed in the Spring of 2020, as an ode to frontline health, public safety and civic workers, who are the real superheroes of the Covid-19 pandemic! "Weego" celebrates the nostalgia for cartoons, video games, and other imaginative preoccupations of youth. The artwork allows viewers to channel their inner-child using the classic Nintendo, arcade, and puzzle-based games imagery to create a more imaginative and immersive mind-

We are so lucky to have the Hertel Walls right in our backyard which allows us to experience a great variety of artwork up and down the street! I encourage you to enjoy the remaining Fall weather and take a walk down to Lovering and Hertel to see "The Rat Pack" come to life!

Ask Rusty - About Paying SS Tax While Still Working

Dear Rusty: My wife started her Social Security at 62 in March 2017, and I filed a Restricted Application to collect a spousal benefit from her shortly thereafter. Our plan is for me to file for my own Social Security later this year when I turn 70. Then my wife will file for her spousal benefit from me. Our life expectancy is 93 & 96. Is this still the best plan for maximum payments? Signed: Planning Ahead

ning Ahead
Dear Planning: I cannot comment on your friend's assertion that as a sole proprietor business owner, his self-employment SS tax is somehow being "returned to him from time to time." I can, however, tell you that the rules for business owners are the same as for those who do not own a business, except that a business owner pays both the employee and employer portion of Social Security employment taxes.

Essentially, the only way paying into Social Security now (via payroll taxes or self-employment taxes) will increase your SS benefit amount is if your income in any recent year is more than your earnings in any of the 35 highest-earning years over your lifetime used to compute your SS benefit. When your Social Security benefit was originally computed, all years in your lifetime earnings history through age 59 were adjusted for inflation, and the highest-earning 35 years were selected to develop your "average indexed month-ly earnings" (AIME). A formula was applied to your AIME to determine your "Primary Insurance Amount" or "PIA," which is the amount you get if you claim benefits to start in the month you reach your full retirement age (FRA). If you claimed at age 65, your SS benefit was slightly reduced from your PIA because you claimed before your FRA.

Although you have been and are still working parttime, and you're paying into Social Security while doing so, your personal SS benefit will not increase unless your current earnings are more than any of those in the 35 years originally used to determine your benefit when you claimed. The inflation adjustment influences your past years' earnings more than you might expect; for example, $50,000 earned in 1990 would require more than $125,000 in today's earnings to change your benefit. Remember that your contributions to Social Security, while you are working, do not go into a personal account for you. All who work are required to pay into Social Security, and the money paid is used to help pay benefits to those already receiving Social Security. And that doesn't change when you start collecting SS – if you continue to work, you must still pay Social Security tax, and the money you pay goes to help pay benefits for all recipients.

The Way We Were

One thing is certain, things change over time. Aging is part of life and as much as you try to make it not happen, it happens. Take milk for example, it sours in just a few days. Most foods last just so long before they spoil. There are things that do last for hundreds and even thousands of years, but not us. We are given a short life on this planet in comparison to eternity. Rarely people live to be one hundred and even a little older but that is it. Not too many of us expect to be around for a full century. We must live life to its fullest and enjoy every day we have.

Even though we have this limited life span, we manage to do many things in that short space in time. We travel, we stay home, we enjoy our families, the outdoors, we just do the things we like to do. One thing that happens, and most do not want to happen, is we age. Fortunately, we have cameras now that can record what we once looked like compared to how we look now. If we did not have photographs and we had to rely on a mirror to see how we look, we would think we never change. Remember you are seeing yourself every day and the image you see every day, changes very slowly. So even after fifty years, you want to think you still look the same. Unfortunately, that is not true. The mirror lies and makes you think you look younger.

Occasionally you run into someone you have not seen in fifty years. What kills me is when they say, "you look the same as last time I saw you"! I looked this old fifty years ago? Anyway, I usually thank them even though I know they are just being nice. Then there are those who really show their age. Had a person come up to me at Paulter's on Transit. Stopped to have some ice cream and he wanted to say hello. At the time I could not place him, and it took a while, but I did finally recognize who this person was. We were good friends at one time, but the years had changed him. He looked so much different than when I knew him. That happens too often as you get older. People you once knew have changed so much they are physically different people. There are rare occasions when they look better.

The best part of this story is running into my old paper delivery people. Had dozens of young lads and lassies deliver the Buffalo Rocket door to door. Usual route was between four and five hundred papers. Penny a paper does not seem to be much but five dollars back in the seventies was a lot of money for a twelveyear-old. Always able to fill the routes with hard working youngsters. Got to know all of them as they came to collect cash every Thursday. Deliver on Wednesday and get paid on Thursday, no collecting just cash in hand. I see them every week, some for years, and they'd see me. They knew me and I knew them, as a twelveyear-old. They saw me as an adult, fully grown.

So, is it any wonder that when one comes up to me and says "Hi, Mr. Gallagher", I have trouble remembering who they are? Not memory loss, as these were kids, wet behind the ears. Now they are adults with beards, mustaches and balding. The faces are familiar but hard to connect to the boy that delivered Commonwealth or the girl that did Admiral. Still, it is nice that they do recognize me as I do not have a beard or mustache and still have hair, turning gray and just a little pouchy. I appreciate the fact that they remember me and in a good light. Their first job and a start in earning a pay for work performed.

Even had one of my delivery boys take me golfing at his Country Club. One of the Mattar boys, not the lawyer, but his brother. The whole family delivered at one time brothers and sisters. The route around their house in North Buffalo. We met again at a neighborhood picnic, and he said he would like to take his first boss golfing, and he did. Wonderful afternoon and much appreciated by this old man. To me this person will always look the same in my eyes.

This column was not meant to offend anyone just being realistic. We do change daily. As much as we do not want to, we do. It is nature and that's the way it works. Cannot imagine what it would be like to be young and hand-some forever. That could be boring. NOT!

ADOPT A PET

Sponsored By The Buffalo Rocket

This Week's Featured Friend: NETTLE

Nettie has had a rough summer. She was turned in with her litter of newborn kittens and was rightfully stressed. She then raised them in a foster home. She's now moved to PetSmart on Elmwood where she has watched cats and kittens get adopted while she waits. She is not an outgoing, in your face cat, she is reserved. She likes calm, quiet and tons of treats. If you want to rescue a beautiful girl that really needs a home, go meet Nettie at PetSmart in the Tops Plaza in North Buffalo.

Because of the COVID19 situation, the shelter is closed to the general public. If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at https://friendsofcbas.org/adopt

A Heavenly Kick

I remember working hard on the unsuccessful campaign team when Erie County Executive Chris Collins ran for re-election in 2011.

We lost. It was a tough race. I didn't want to get off the couch for a week. The defeat was raw and professionally painful.

I talked to my parish priest back then. I'll never forget his words of wisdom that helped me snap out of it: "sometimes you need a kick into Heaven."

How right he was. Because we lost it put me in position to run for and win the race for Erie County Comptroller. Chris became a Congressman in the same year.

At the time we both most certainly got kicked into Heaven. The success we earned back then never would have happened had we won that night in 2011.

An even better "win" was meeting my now wife Ashley on Election Night when I won that first race for Comptroller. We're happily married, have three kids with one on the way, have a great home, and many blessings.

Fast forward ten years later. I'm proud of the time I've spent as your County Comptroller. It's been a privilege serving as your Taxpayer's Watchdog. I pledged to run two terms and decided to run for Town of Hamburg Supervisor this year.

I lost.

When voting returns came in and I knew my efforts would not be successful, I turned to Ashley and said: "sometimes you need a kick into heaven."

She replied with the popular adage: "if you want to make God laugh, tell him what your plans are."

He is cracking up pretty good right about now.

My focus remains on service: my God, my wife, my kids, my family, and my community.

I'll wait and see which direction I'll be kicked.

SPCA Announces Caitlin M. Daly As New President/Ceo

Continued from page one. Animal Welfare Administrator through the Association for Animal Welfare Advancement, and is Fear Free-certified by Fear Free®, a transformative animal welfare initiative founded in 2016 to provide unparalleled education on animals' emotional well-being, enrichment, and the reduction of fear, anxiety, and stress in pets.

"Cait's credentials, energy, and empathy are outstanding," SPCA Board of Directors Chairperson Julie Desmond Schechter says. "She'll be an incredible leader to our already-amazing team at the SPCA! We're extremely excited to begin this next chapter at our organization."

"It is my honor and a great achievement to join the SPCA Serving Erie County team. I look forward to leading with kindness, compassion, and encouragement," says Daly. "I will jump in with full enthusiasm to ensure the best possible community for animals and the people who love them. We are going to do amazing things together!"

Daly shares her life with Jena, a 14-year-old German Shepherd mix; Poe, a five-year-old Puggle mix; Noah, a five-year-old Chihuahua; and Bella, an eight-year-old Siberian Forest Cat. All have been adopted from various agencies and all are, in Daly's words, "...so spoiled!"

Daly is scheduled to begin her work with the SPCA Serving Erie County in January, 2022.
