Giving Thanks!

This Thanksgiving, all the boys and girls that signed up to play in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League this year are all grateful for the chance to play the game in Shoshone Park.

This past seasons record setting numbers of over 1,000 players playing in the North Buffalo Park, whether it was first year t-ball to a 21 and under travel team, all couldn't have been happier with the way 2021 played out over the six months from May to September. Because of its history and tradition in North Buffalo, HNPYBL announced late last week the chance for all to sign up now for the 2022 season.

"We are pleased to inform you that registration for the 2022 season of House Baseball and Softball is now open," an email from the Board of Directors begins. You can register your son or daughter by accessing the League's website through www.hnpybl.com and clicking on the registration tab. Registration fees have not increased from last season and you will receive that special Early Bird discount if you do so by Sunday, May 1st of 2022.

If you have any questions, please go to info@hnpybl.com for further information. The Officers of the Hertel North Park League are all looking forward to another great Summer together.

Congratulations to the Bennett Tigers for winning the Section VI Class AA Championship over the Lancaster Legends, 14-10 on Saturday November 13 at the home of the Buffalo Bills, Highmark Stadium. The High School earned the right to advance to the Far West Regionals this past weekend at nearby Williamsville South High School, a neutral location, for their game against McQuaid from the Rochester area. Due to an outbreak of Covid-19 affecting a McQuaid coach, the game was rescheduled for Tuesday, November 23.

For Bennett head coach, Steve McDuffie, this is only the school's second appearance in the postseason in the eleven years he has served as the head of football for the Tigers. The previous time was in 2016 when his Son Isaiah, a standout running back and linebacker for the Tigers, was in his Senior year on the football field of All-High Stadium. The elder McDuffie has an impressive 62-35 record overall during his time at the Main Street School.

The 11th annual Turkey Bowl for Joe Panzarella will be held Thanksgiving morning on the natural turf of Delaware Park behind the Ashkers Refreshment stand in front of several North Buffalo families who have journeyed to the Park every year before their own celebrations. The pick-up football game is played in memory of Joseph B. Panzarella, a graduate of the St. Mark's School and St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute, who passed away suddenly in 2010 of natural causes. The family has established a Foundation in honor of their son. Each year, a student from St. Mark's has received a scholarship from their family. Some of Joe's friends include Byron Brown, brothers Otis and Jarred Barker, Michael O'Connor, Owen Doyle, Ed Jakubowski, Connor Gallagher, Kevin O'Sullivan and Bryant Toney. Vincent and Cheryl Panzarella, Joey's parents, wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving.

STILL TIME TO GET IT DONE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Ask Rusty - Should I Take My Widower Benefit Now?

Dear Rusty: I lost my wife 7 years ago. I was told that I could possibly collect 30 to 35% of her benefit as a widower benefit when I turned 60. I will be 61 soon. Would it make sense to pursue this if it is true? I am still working full-time. Would this affect my ability to collect Social Security on my own account once I retire? Signed: Working Survivor

Dear Working: Survivor benefits for a widower can be paid as early as age 60 if you have not remarried prior to that. But collecting a survivor benefit before you have reached your full retirement age (your "FRA," which is age 67) creates some other considerations you should be aware of:

• Your survivor benefit will be based upon the SS benefit your wife was entitled to at her death. Taken at your FRA, you'd get 100% of the SS amount your wife was entitled to at her death, but if taken any earlier than your FRA, the survivor benefit will be reduced.

• Taken before your FRA, your survivor benefit will be actuarially reduced according to the number of months prior to your FRA it is claimed. The reduction amount is 4.75% less per full year earlier than your FRA, and that is a permanent reduction. If you take your survivor benefit at age 61, you'll get 71.5% of the SS benefit your wife had earned up to her death.

• Since you're not yet receiving your own SS retirement benefit, you can take your survivor benefit first and allow your personal SS retirement benefit to grow. Assuming your personal SS retirement benefit will be more than your survivor benefit, you can switch from your survivor benefit to your SS retirement benefit at any time after you are age-eligible to do so (age 62). You can also, if you wish, choose to continue your survivor benefit up until your personal SS retirement benefit reaches a maximum at age 70. At age 70, your own benefit will be 24% more than your FRA benefit amount.

• If you claim the survivor benefit before your FRA and you are still working, you'll be subject to Social Security's "earnings test," which limits how much you can earn before SS takes away some of your benefits.

We Gather Together!

Thanksgiving Day is November 25th.

How many remember this song at Thanksgiving? My kids and I used to sing it all the time as it was the "thyme" for that day. Like "Silent Night" is to Christmas. In case you forgot the words here they are.

"We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing, He chastens and hastens his will to make known, the wicked oppressing now cease from distressing. Sing praises to his name, he forgets not his own"

Used to be that was what it was all about. Unless you are a true non-believer, we all praise the Lord in our own way. On this day we give thanks for the things we have to whatever we believe in. There are still families that do celebrate it religiously. Too many have drifted away from the true meaning and see it just as a day to have a special meal. The traditional turkey dinner with all the trimmings. The best thing about Thanksgiving that has remained, is that it is a day for family. We gather together even if it is not to ask the Lord's blessing. That is the best thing about this holiday. It is a family day.

The day is filled with family traditions carried down through the years. There was a day when we all went to my mom's house, no question about it. The next generation had the next Mom in line as host every year. That also passes with time and moves on to the children. For years it was one of the kids who hosted the dinner, a son in Rochester. That has moved on to another son closer to home. Still, it is family and all that can be there, are there. The last time my wife and I hosted the dinner there were twenty-seven in attendance. Too many people to seat and feed at one time. That was the last one we hosted.

No matter what we must always remember what the day is all about. To give thanks for what we have. One of our family traditions was that before the meal we went around the table and each one was to express in their way, the thing they are most thankful for. Had to be brief as the food would get cold. When the kids were young the answers were all over the place. Thankful for their teacher, their favorite toy, their favorite blanket, even their pet gerbil. As they grew older it changed to "my wife," my mother, new car, new house, etc. Wish I could recall some of the good ones as it was a blast. Do not remember any "my father." Guess you get what you deserve.

My one son was born on Thanksgiving. It was a day when we were hosting the gathering. My wife's family was coming for dinner. She had worked all week preparing everything for the big day. She went into labor Thanksgiving morning and as much as she did not want to leave, she had to go to the hospital to deliver. I had to go with her and grabbed a turkey leg on the way out. We had no car, so my dad had to drive us. That gave me the luxury of eating and enjoying the leg, which I did. We made it to the hospital and the baby was born within a half hour. She held off that long.

Has to be the most memorable Thanksgiving of all that I have had. And I have had lots of them. Most with the same family, our kids. Last year due to the pandemic we spent it alone for the first time ever. We need to be thankful that the year 2020 ended and we are still here. I guess if we can spend this Thanksgiving together the one thing we now must be thankful for is that we survived. The older you get the more thankful you are for just still being here.

Want to wish all those who take the time to read this column a happy Thanksgiving. Gather together and ask the Lord's blessing. In case you want to hear the whole song, music, and words, it is nicely done on YouTube.
