What A Wonderful Life!

Dorothy and David Gallagher.

By David Gallagher

This will be the hardest column I will ever have to write. It is with a heavy heart and blurry mind that I try to eulogize the life of my most wonderful wife of 67 years who has left this side of life. If there is a heaven, no doubt she is there now, happy to be with her family and friends who have passed before her. It is comforting to try to believe that, as the grief is overwhelming. If there is anyone who deserves to be happy it is her for the life, she lived on this earth was one everyone admired. She was a spectacular woman loved by all that she met. I was so fortunate and blessed to be able to share all those years of pure delight and love with this woman.

No words can describe the incredible life we spent together. This was a woman with unbinding energy and uncontested love for her family, which included me. Spending a lifetime with such a person was such a blessing to me. To know her was to love her.

We were married young and blessed with eight wonderful children. Although as one would expect, being young with a large family we struggled in those early years. But those years were filled with love, happiness, and wonderful memories. She was a mother who never got angry, swore, drank, or smoked and most of all always forgave. Her kids were her gifts from God as she would put it. She greeted each new arrival as another blessing. Nothing can describe the twinkle in her eyes as she caressed each new infant on their first day of life.

We spent the first thirty years of our marriage raising our family. Every dance recital, sport event or performance the kids were involved in. She did not want to miss anything that the kids were a part of. If it was one of her siblings doing anything, she was there. Laughing, cheering, just enjoying the thought that one of hers was in the spotlight. There were many such times and she loved it.

As the children became adults and moved on it was time for the second phase of our lives. With such a large family it was not possible to travel much. Once we were down to two, we managed to get out and see the world. At least the country to start. Cross country trips to California to see relatives a couple of times and tried to touch each state when we did. Enjoyed this country and its beauty together before we did the Europe thing. Paris and Rome, Venice, and Munich for the Oktoberfest. Life was so good and there is nothing like being with someone who just enjoyed every breath she took. Everything made her happy, no one made her angry, and if they did upset her in any way, she immediately forgave them. Just imagine having a companion like this to spend your life with. Who just enjoyed life and the people in it.

It has been a wonderful life we spent together, and I did not want to see it end. I did not want to see her go, even though she was ready. Her last words were that she had a great life, a good husband and eight loving children. She was happy to go and will see us all in heaven. She thinks we will all make it.

Despite the enormous grief that comes with a loved one's passing, there is some comfort in knowing she is at peace. Sleeping with the angels or becoming one of them. No doubt she was an angel on earth so for sure she is one in heaven. This is so hard to come to grips with, my wife was my life. I now must wait patiently till I can be with her again.

"The Girl Scout Cookie program helps girls 'learn while they earn', said GSWNY CEO Alison Wilcox. "Many families have expressed the need for children and youth to regain connections and social interaction, and in Girl Scouts, girls gain support and friendships that can last a lifetime while they build confidence and skills in a wide range of program opportunities. When you purchase Girl Scout cookies, you not only get a delicious treat, you help fund girls' adventures and help our Girl Scout entrepreneurs build key business skills at the same time."

Every package of Girl Scout Cookies fuels local Girl Scouts' adventures throughout the year: exploring what interests them, discovering their passions, and taking action on issues they care about. Whether they're using their STEM skills to solve a problem, changing a law to help their community, having a courageous outdoor experience, or starting an innovative nonprofit, Girl Scouts build a better future for themselves and the world. And through the Girl Scout Cookie Program, including earning new Cookie Business badges, girls get a taste of being entrepreneurs and learn important business skills that set them up for success in life.

All proceeds stay in Western New York to support Girl Scout troops, GSWNY Program, camp properties and support volunteers, who in turn, help girls become Go-getters, Innovators, Risk-takers, and Leaders.

Ask Rusty - Why Is a Medicare Premium Deducted from my Social Security?

Dear Rusty: If I work and take Social Security before my full retirement age, how can I find out how I will be paid back the money withheld after I pass the earnings limit? Signed: Returning to Work

Dear Returning: What you're referring to is that Social Security limits how much you can earn while collecting early benefits (before your full retirement age, or "FRA"). The earnings limit for 2022 is $19,560, and if your earnings exceed that while collecting early SS benefits, you'll be required to pay back some of your benefits. Except during the year in which you attain your FRA, you'll have to give SS back benefits equal to $1 for every $2 you are over the limit, which can be done either by having your benefits withheld for a time or repaying what is owed in a lump sum. In the year you reach your FRA, the limit goes up by about 2.5 times, and the amount you need to pay back is less, and after you reach your full retirement age, there is no longer a limit to how much you can earn. But if you have benefits withheld because you exceeded the limit while collecting early benefits, you will get some of that withheld money back after you have reached your full retirement age. When you reach your FRA, Social Security will automatically adjust (increase) your benefit to reflect the number of months your benefits were withheld. So, for example, if you originally claimed Social Security at age 63 but were still working and, over time, you had benefits withheld for 12 months because you exceeded the earnings limit, they'll recompute your benefit at your FRA as though you applied 12 months later than you actually did. That will happen automatically and will slightly increase your monthly benefit amount starting at your full retirement age. So, you don't get all withheld money back in a lump sum – rather, they increase your benefit a bit at your FRA so that you may recover what was withheld because you exceeded the limit. eventually, over time, you
