

Buffalo Fish Frys

Fish fry's during Lent are taken very seriously here in the Western New York region. Listed below are some of the best places for fish frys in Buffalo.

Lent begins this week and that means it will soon be fish fry season in Buffalo and Western New York. As a long and well-known tradition, fish fry's take the place of meat for celebrators of Lent. The fish fry is popular in a lot of places but it's taken very seriously here in the Western New York region. Every Friday during Lent most restaurants who serve a fish fry make sure to stock up and cook it up to perfection, served with all the appropriate sides (bread, mac & cheese, potato salad, coleslaw, tartar sauce and lemon). There are plenty of awesome places for a good fish fry in Western New York, but voted the best by Buffalo's own Artvoice is The Wellington Pub. Come down to their Hertel Avenue location next to Bob & John's La Hacienda for the best fish fry in the city. For more fish fry spots in and around Buffalo, please visit <https://stepoutbuffalo.com/iconic-fish-frys-spots-around-wny/>.

Ask Rusty – About Survivor Benefits For Minor Children

Dear Rusty: I just turned 64 and now get stuff about Medicare and Medigap and so on. I really don't know how to retire when it's time. What should I do? What am I looking for? Am I eligible for anything as of now? I'm so confused about all this that I don't even know if I can retire when it's time. Maybe I should just continue working so I don't have to try to figure this out. Signed: Confused

Dear Confused: Deciding when to retire from work is usually a difficult decision for everyone, so don't feel alone as you struggle with deciding what's best for you personally. I'll try to provide some insight into what you should be looking at now, at age 64:
The reason you're now getting all that unsolicited information about Medicare and "Medigap" is because you're approaching the magic age of 65, when you first become eligible for those senior health-care services. But if you are still working and now have "creditable" health-care coverage from your employer, you don't need to enroll in any Medicare plan until your employer coverage ends (If your employer healthcare coverage is a group plan with at least 20 participants, that coverage is "creditable"). So, if you plan to continue working and have creditable health-care coverage, you can simply ignore all those health-care solicitations. You don't need to worry about enrolling in Medicare until your creditable employer coverage ends, at which point you will be able to enroll in a Medicare program without incurring a late enrollment penalty.

You also do not need to apply for Social Security now (or at age 65) – you can wait until you retire from working full time to apply for Social Security. In fact, you probably should wait until you fully retire from working to claim Social Security because, at age 64 (or 65), you will be subject to Social Security's "earnings test" if you claim SS benefits.

Buffalo Residents To Apply For The 2022 Firefighter Entry Exam

Mayor Byron W. Brown was joined by Fire Commissioner William Renaldo, City Human Resources Commissioner Gladys Herndon-Hill and Members of the Firefighter Recruitment Team, on February 28, 2022 to announce a new outreach recruitment campaign aimed at encouraging minorities, women, and veterans to join the ranks of the Buffalo Fire Department. The next Firefighter Civil Service Exam will be administered on Saturday, June 4, 2022. Potential candidates must fill out an initial application by Friday, April 29, 2022. For more information or to download an application, go to www.buffalony.gov/firefighter.

The theme of the City's fire exam recruitment campaign is "Home of the Brave" and features active Buffalo Firefighters in print ads and videos that will be posted and shared on all traditional and digital communication platforms.

"As we continue to invest in the Fire Department, we are committed to filling its ranks with qualified men and women who represent our city's diverse communities," Mayor Brown said. "The BFD offers challenging and fulfilling career opportunities, and we encourage all eligible Buffalo residents to apply to take the test and become one of the brave in the Buffalo Fire Department."

"This recruitment campaign is critical to ensuring that the Fire Department's ranks reflect the communities they serve," said Commissioner Renaldo. "We are confident that this outreach campaign will spur great interest and encourage the many diverse groups that make up our City to apply for the upcoming firefighter exam."

As part of the new recruitment strategy, the BFD will conduct an outreach campaign, placing ads in local publications that target ethnically diverse areas. A special emphasis will be placed on connecting with church pastors, youth groups, community service organizations and area colleges. Buffalo Fire Department Recruiters will also host several Open Houses, where potential candidates can learn more about the process of becoming a firefighter. They will also distribute flyers and posters, and attend a variety of community block club meetings and outdoor events in an effort to strike up interest in the upcoming fire exam.

To be eligible, the right candidate:

- Must be 19 years old at the time of the examination and 20 years old at the time of appointment
- Must be a full-time resident of the City of Buffalo as of January 29, 2022 and maintain city residence
- Willing and able to perform physically demanding work

- Manages stress and adverse outcomes well

The firefighter exam in Buffalo will be administered on Saturday, June 4th. Potential applicants can go to www.buffalony.gov/firefighter to download a copy of the application or they can stop by Buffalo City Hall, Room 1001 to pick up an application. Today's announcement continues the Brown Administration's significant investment in the Fire Department since 2006 and demonstrates its continued commitment to filling the Department's ranks with qualified men and women who represent our city's diverse communities.

Sponsored By The Buffalo Rocket

This Week's Featured Friend: BEAUTY

Beauty came in with her puppies and a few other dogs when their family was unable to care for them anymore. All her pups have been adopted leaving Beauty patiently waiting for her chance at a new home. She is working on getting herself back into shape post puppies and loves to playfully run in the yard, fetch a tennis ball and hop around like a young gal. She really is beauty with a lovely brindle coat that will shine with a spa day, yummy food and a comfy dog bed to call her own. Since puppies will no longer be in her future, she is ready to tackle life on her own with a new human family member.

Because of the COVID19 situation, the shelter is closed to the general public. If you would like to meet any of the adoptable dogs, please fill out an application online (if you are not already pre-approved), call the shelter, and leave a message with your name and phone number and the dog you're interested in. Have patience, and they will call you back when they can. From there, a time will be scheduled for you to come and meet the dog. Please be patient, and remember they are very short staffed at the moment. Applications can be found at <https://friendsofcas.org/adopt>

Neighborhood Happenings!

The Darwin D. Martin House Complex, Buffalo, NY.

I think we all can finally take a well-deserved sigh of relief that winter is coming to an end and breathe in the fresh spring air. March always gets me excited for what’s to come. After a long (and quiet) winter, we are excited to announce a few fun things happening in the district.

One thing that is a must for this month is taking a visit to the Darwin Martin House. This Frank Lloyd Wright gem, in the heart of the Parkside neighborhood, has added several additions since the last time you likely paid a visit. New York State helped fund the “Tree of Life” project, which is seven newly fashioned windows in the reception room added to the two others that were previously installed for a total of nine fully transformed windows. These windows make Wrights space come alive by using light shining through the windows as a medium to display the natural beauty of his work. This display of glass art is truly magnificent and enhances the already impressive work.

On March 8th, the Hertel Business Association (HBA) will be hosting their first ever Spaghetti Dinner at the Garage Café (1127 Hertel). This fundraiser will go towards the beautification of Hertel Avenue. There will be two options for people who want to support HBA, you may order take out or dine in. Dine-In customers will have to reserve a spot prior for either 5pm or 6:30pm sit down service. All dinners will include pasta, a meatball, salad, bread, and a homemade dessert. Thinking about it makes me hungry! As the month continues, there will be more events happening. Be sure to check out the latest news here and subscribe to our district newsletter by emailing mbender@city-buffalo.com.
