

Hertel Spring Clean-Up

The annual Spring Hertel Avenue Clean Up is back in full swing on Saturday April 30th, starting at 9am.

The Spring Hertel Avenue Clean Up starts on Saturday April 30th at 9am to noon, starting at the check-in at the Garage Bar and Restaurant, 1127 Hertel Ave. We need volunteers from residents, business owners, community groups and North Buffalo enthusiasts! Pizza will be provided at the Hertel Business Association office after the cleanup around 12:00 for any volunteers who signed up. 1599 Hertel Ave. Many thanks to the Hertel Business Association Board Members, The North Buffalo Organization, Cousins' Landscaping and Keith Adornetto's Landscaping services for donating your time, resources and supplies to make this event happen. If you need community service hours for your school or organization, we will provide a letter to show completion. We hear you in the community pages and at meetings that some aren't happy with the garbage and weeds up and down Hertel. Help us help the community and join us for the Spring Clean Up Event. If you are unable to attend and want to join in to keep Hertel beautiful, this event doesn't have to be the last time you pick up trash as you walk past it on the street. We ask the Businesses and Residents to help maintain the beautification of our street all year long! This community will stay gorgeous if we join in together. Sign up for this year's Hertel Clean Up by visiting hertelave.com.

Celebrating The Release Of "The Best Of Doug Smith"

The Best of Doug Smith: Base Paths, Rocket Man, the Cheap Gourmet and Other Adventures in 68 Years of Buffalo-Area Journalism is now available for purchase, published April 13 of this year. From the Cheap Gourmet to the Niagara Power to Cary Grant and Johnny Cash, Doug Smith covered it all. Smith's 68-year journalistic career included five decades in Western New York, working for the Courier-Express, the Buffalo News, the Niagara Gazette, the Rocket and WIVB-TV, among many other media outlets. Producing thousands of articles and two well-received books, Doug covered film, travel, dining, theater, concerts, humor and human interest, including interviews with such notables as Rock Hudson, Bob Hope, George Burns, Burt Reynolds, Peter Sellers and Jack Nicholson. The finest of these writings are now collected in The Best of Doug Smith, edited by Doug's son and currently available at Amazon. Subtitled Base Paths, Rocket Man, the Cheap Gourmet and Other Adventures in 68 Years of Buffalo-Area Journalism, the handsome new paperback offers more than 150 selections from Doug's storied career, starting with early pieces from the 1960s and running right up to the writer's retirement in 2016. When Smith passed away in 2017, his son, Joseph W. Smith III -- a 1978 graduate of Grand Island High School -- took possession of nine massive scrapbooks loaded with newspaper clippings, mostly from his father's 16 years at the much-missed daily Courier-Express. These included reviews of such now-classic films as The Exorcist, Fantasia and Annie Hall; write-ups of Buffalo concerts by

Here's The Score

You wouldn't know it by just looking at this picture. But for the many family and friends who come to Shoshone Park to watch a Hertel North Park Youth Baseball or Softball game this Summer, it's an answer to some prayers.

No, we're not talking about a miraculous play made by your son or daughter on Diamond #1 or #2. We're speaking of the better enjoyment you'll have, watching games every night all because you'll know the score.

The Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League (HNPYBL) presents two new scoreboards to Shoshone Park this season placed in the exact same spots of the two previous scoreboards that had become a disappointment to the League several years ago. A long-time problem for the League for many years now, the two new scoreboards, one for boys and the other for girls, will be easy to read, light up at night and be an answer for anyone visiting Shoshone Park for a game on these diamonds.

And best of all, they'll be a big help to a Sports Columnist, covering the League. This is just one of the many new and improved ways the HNPYBL is carrying out its mission to give every child, boy or girl, regardless of their age, a chance to play the game in a City of Buffalo Park not far from their homes. The various officers and coaches in the League will tell you, it hasn't been easy. But since the dreaded Pandemic of 2020, when no one thought we'd experience such a thing, such a simple thing as Little League Baseball in North Buffalo's Shoshone Park has made a tremendous comeback in just two short years.

As the boys and girls, numbering close to 1,000 get ready to open their 2022 season on Saturday May 7th, their excitement to be with their friends after school and on Saturdays in Shoshone Park has been a wish for many who love the sport, even in a football and hockey town. Practices have started for all the house teams that will play in Shoshone, numbering close to 70, the most this League has ever tried to manage in a given season.

One of the great things that this League has had these many years is the many friends they've made who work in Downtown Buffalo. They come to North Buffalo and Shoshone Park almost every year if the weather offers a chance for HNP to open their season with its annual Parade up Hertel Avenue to Shoshone Park. on the Saturday just before Mother's Day. They come out in full-force too and include the very honorable Mayor of Buffalo, Byron W. Brown, who has been the League's biggest supporter. He passes out bubble gum to all the players he meets and walks alongside the boys and girls at the head of the Parade.

Other friends include Delaware District Councilmember Joel Feroletto, Erie County Legislator in the 3rd District Lisa Chimera, Former Head City Court Justice Tom Amodeo, Family Court Justice Sharon LoVallo as well as representatives from other District City, County or State Offices. These men and women love your children and want the best for them. At 11:30 am, on Opening Day, the Fire Truck from Engine 38 will pull away from the corner of Hertel and Saranac Avenue and make the slow, push through the Hertel Business District, past St. Margaret's Church, the North Park Theater and several steps later, a Pizzeria named Bob & John's.

At Shoshone Park, teams will gather on Diamond #1 and after everyone arrives, a ceremony will begin to throw the first pitch, honor America and then yell "Play Ball!" Games will begin at 1:00 pm and will continue past 5:00. It's Opening Day in North Buffalo, the best Day of the Year.

Ask Rusty – I'm Working; Why Hasn't My Social Security Benefit Increased?

Dear Rusty: I will be 72 in July. I started taking my Social Security at age 64 after a job loss and other items that came up. So, my plan to wait past 68 evaporated, but I have continued to work since that time at a considerably smaller amount. I have contacted Social Security about increasing my "entitlement" since my earnings of late are considerably more than my first few years of earnings. Using the formula of the highest earnings over the last 35 years divided by 420 my monthly increase would be about $500. I've contacted Social Security several times about this. Their standard reply is that they evaluate all accounts every October and if any adjustments are to be made, they will be made in March of the following year. Nothing has changed with regards to this as I've continued to work. Does the fact that I claimed my benefit at age 64 take me out of the equation? Signed: Working Still at 72

Dear Working: The Social Security representatives you spoke with told you correctly – they examine your recent earnings every year and will automatically adjust your benefit if it is appropriate to do so. But the dollar values they look at to see if you should get a benefit increase may not be what you think.

When you claimed your SS benefits at age 64, they computed your benefit using the highest-earning 35 years you had at that time, but they "indexed" those earnings (adjusted them for inflation) for the year you turned 60 and earlier. That means that to arrive at your age 64 benefit, they increased your historical earnings by an inflation percentage for each year, to pay your benefit in current dollars. For example, if your 1985 earnings were $25,000, that would be about $62,000 in today's dollars and that is the amount they used to compute your benefit. But that is also the amount you would need to exceed today to have your current earnings increase your monthly benefit amount.

So, unless your most recent earnings exceed the inflated dollar amounts used to compute your benefit at age 64, your monthly benefit won't change. Keep in mind too that Social Security uses only the 35 years over your lifetime in which you earned the most, so years with lower earnings (for example, when you first started working) probably aren't included in the computation.

Celebrating The Release Of "The Best Of Doug Smith"

Continued from page one. Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr.; restaurant reviews under Doug's popular "Cheap Gourmet" moniker; and travelogues near and far, including local favorites like Letchworth, Chautauqua and Niagara-on-the-Lake, along with more distant destinations such as Wales, Yugoslavia and Prince Edward Island.

Having sorted through these many clippings, Joe later accessed over 3300 computer files comprising Doug's more recent coverage of area sports -- including the Bisons, the Power and numerous scholastic squads -- along with such popular columns as "Rocket Man" and "Letters from the Island."

The younger Smith also combined and transcribed two unpublished manuscripts detailing the 13-day adventures of Doug and his wife, Polly, over the entire 2300 miles of U.S. Route 62, from Niagara Falls to El Paso in 1999.

Himself a journalist since age 16, Joe holds degrees from Syracuse and NYU and has written six other books, including studies of Hitchcock, the Bible, church life and under-the-radar movies.

Northwest Buffalo Beat

By Dave Gallagher AKA Joe Bortz

Letters

I usually do not get many responses to my columns. Sometimes I wonder if anyone reads them. Finding something to write about every week is a challenge. My wife (who was always the first to read them) used to ask me, "How do you manage to come up with things to write about every week?"

This may sound weird but many times it comes to me in the middle of the night. I am not a professional writer and I started the column on a whim so many years ago. I had something I wanted to say and as long as I owned the paper, I just thought I would write about it. Did not want it to be an editorial so I made up the name Joe Bortz. Never in a million years at that time did I intend it to be a weekly column.

I am not an overly religious person, yet I do believe I have guidance. I am not a super smart person and I even wonder where the ideas come from. I amaze myself when the words just seem to come to me as I type (My knowing how to type will be in a future column).

The other thing I keep asking is, "Why am I still here?" What purpose do I have now? Kids are all grown, they run the business, my wife is gone, no one really needs me, yet I am still here. Why? Is there something I am supposed to accomplish? I was going to give up writing but the emails below help.

At a time like this with the passing of my wife so many people suggest religion helps with the grieving. Just not there yet. I know there is a God or some form of superior power as we have so many unknowns in this life.

Seems everyone must experience the loss of a loved one. Mother, father, sister, brother, or even one's child. The first question you ask is, "Why?" Why do people have to die? That is just the way it is, and we must accept it, as hard as it may be.

On a brighter note I did get these great emails so there are people who do read my column. I thank them for taking the time to write to me. I will write the column if I can and if we can keep the Rocket alive.

Hi Mr. Gallagher,

I read your column of April 14th, as I have most of them, for over 50 years!

First let me offer my condolences on the death of your wife. After 67 years it must have been truly devastating!

In the past, when I would get the Rocket, the first thing I'd do was the crossword puzzle and then I'd go on to your column. I still remember how touching I found the column about your daughter who had to wear a back brace (Spina Bifida?) especially the part of you singing to her!

When my grandson (who is now 13 years old) was younger he liked to find the differences between two almost identical cartoons.

Of course, I also read the ads and the police reports.

I'm so glad your son (or sons) are still printing it.

Marion Reslow

Dear Mr. Gallagher,

Thank you for sharing your insights, questions, and humanity in your column Speed of Light on April 14, 2022, about the recent passing of your beloved wife. Struggling with what you discussed in this column is a very common human experience, yet many people struggle with this alone. Thank you for deciding to start writing again and thank you for your courage in sharing your experience. I think it will help your readers to know they are not alone. The loving family life you built is a moving tribute to you and your wife. As I expect you already know that love can never die or be diminished.

Wishing you health and blessings as you continue to "live your questions."

Regards,
Caroline Rath

SUPPLEMENTAL SUMMONS–SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, COUNTY OF ERIE – NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE LLC D/B/A CHAMPION MORTGAGE COMPANY

Plaintiff, against David Nowicki as Heir to the Estate of Rita F. Nowicki a/k/a Rita Nowicki; UNKNOWN HEIRS TO THE ESTATE OF RITA F. NOWICKI A/K/A RITA NOWICKI, any and all persons unknown to plaintiff, claiming, or who may claim to have an interest in, or general or specific lien upon the real property described in this action; such unknown persons being herein generally described and intended to be included in the following designation, namely: the wife, widow, husband, widower, heirs at law, next of kin, descendants, executors, administrators, devisees, legatees, creditors, trustees, committees, lienors, and assignees of such deceased, any and all persons deriving interest in or lien upon, or title to said real property by, through or under them, or either of them, and their respective wives, widows, husbands, widowers, heirs at law, next of kin, descendants, executors, administrators, devisees, legatees, creditors, trustees, committees, lienors and assigns, all of whom and whose names, except as stated, are unknown to plaintiff;Secretary of Housing and Urban Development; The Erie County Department of Social Services; United States of America Department of Treasury; New York State Department of Taxation and Finance - Tax Compliance Division-C.O.-ATC, and JOHN DOE AND JANE DOE #1 through #7, the last seven (7) names being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff, the persons or parties intended being the tenants, occupants, persons or parties, if any, having or claiming an interest in or lien upon the mortgaged premises described in the Complaint, Defendants-Index No. 802974/2020. Plaintiff Designates Erie County as the Place of Trial.

The Basis of Venue is that the subject action is situated in Erie County.

To the above named Defendants:

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED TO ANSWER THE COMPLAINT IN THIS ACTION AND TO SERVE A COPY OF YOUR ANSWER, OR, IF THE COMPLAINT IS NOT SERVED WITH THIS SUMMONS, TO SERVE A NOTICE OF APPEARANCE, ON THE PLAINTIFF’S ATTORNEY(S) WITHIN 20 DAYS AFTER THE SERVICE OF THIS SUMMONS, EXCLUSIVE OF THE DAY OF SERVICE (OR WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE SERVICE IS COMPLETE IF THIS SUMMONS IS NOT PERSONALLY DELIVERED TO YOU WITHIN THE STATE OF NEW YORK); THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA MAY APPEAR OR ANSWER WITHIN 60 DAYS OF SERVICE HEREOF; AND IN CASE OF YOUR FAILURE TO APPEAR OR ANSWER, JUDGMENT WILL BE TAKEN AGAINST YOU BY DEFAULT FOR THE RELIEF DEMANDED IN THE COMPLAINT. THAT THIS SUPPLEMENTAL SUMMONS IS BEING FILED PURSUANT TO AN ORDER OF THE COURT DATED FEBRUARY 23, 2022.

NOTICE-YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME – If you do not respond to this summons and complaint by serving a copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you can lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to the mortgage company will not stop the foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF (MORTGAGE COMPANY) AND FILING THE ANSWER WITH THE COURT.

HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN FORECLOSURE; New York State law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the Summons and Complaint in this Foreclosure Action, you may lose your home. Please read the Summons and Complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney of your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid office, there are government agencies and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by the New York State Department of Financial Services’ at 1-800-269-0990 or visit the Department’s website at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov>. FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS Be careful of people who approach you with offers to “save” your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner’s distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services. We are attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for that purpose. The foregoing summons is served upon you by publication pursuant to an order of the Honorable Dennis E. Ward dated February 23, 2022. The object of this action is to foreclose a mortgage and covering the premises known as 111 Woodell Avenue, Cheektowaga, NY 14211 located at Section 102.45 Block 2 and Lot 30.
