Taste of Buffalo, presented by Tops Returns to Niagara Square Saturday, July 9 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, July 10 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The nation’s largest two-day food festival, Taste of Buffalo presented by Tops returns to downtown Buffalo on Saturday, July 9 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, July 10 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Enjoy culinary delights from 40 restaurants and food trucks, five New York State wineries, live music and more along Delaware Avenue starting at Chipewa Street and continuing into Niagara Square.

“Celebrating its 39th year, the Taste of Buffalo has always been about bringing our community together to share food and good times, while celebrating the city we love,” said Luke Baecker, 2022 Taste of Buffalo chair. “This year’s Taste is an opportunity for all of us to join with our neighbors from across the city, the suburbs, and beyond to celebrate why we are known as the City of Good Neighbors and show our support for our community and our local restaurants.”

Eleven new restaurants and food trucks are participating in this year’s event including Alchemy Wine and Beer, Big Ditch Brewing Co., Brodies, Caribbean Flava, Fat Lady’s Cakes & Pies, Hofbräuhaus Buffalo, KT Caribbean Cuisine, Mi IsLa, Mother Cluckers, Steakers, and Unbridled Café.

In partnership with the Independent Health Foundation, each participating restaurant will again offer a “Healthy Option” menu item that is lower in fat and sodium. To provide flexibility in menu planning and portioning, restaurants will also provide a smaller “taste portion” of one or more of their menu items.

Home Plate: Where A Party Begins!

It was Picture Day for Hertel North Park Youth Baseball this past weekend. Smiling for the camera are the Junior Twins, one of the many teams playing on Diamond #8.

Baseball and Softball continues on the Diamonds of Shoshone Park for the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League. There are 69 teams playing now in nine house divisions all playing on seven diamonds every night during the week and on Saturdays. While the League has experienced some rain out dates thus far, most games have been played as scheduled. Excitement on the field after a team victory matches the joy of the governing board members as they watch the season progress. Let's take you to Shoshone Park.

In a battle between two undefeated teams, the Athletics defeated the Indians 12-1 in Minor Girls Division play last Tuesday, June 14. Alejandra Slingerland of the A's had three hits, including two doubles to lead the team at the plate. The victory gave the team nine wins in a row for girls ten and under against a tough Indians team with seven straight wins. The Orioles defeated the Cubs and the Giants whallopped the Yankees.

In Major Girls, the Astros defeated the Mets, 11-8 and the Dodgers and Rockies battled to an 8-8 tie. The Cardinals defeated the Dodgers, 14-10 and the Rockies topped the Astros 15-14 in a very tight Division.

Senior Girls Division games got underway on Friday, June 10 when the defending Champ Blue Jays defeated the Athletics 16-8. Both teams will also battle the Pirates and Yankees in a four team Division the rest of the Summer.

In Major Boys, the struggling Mets won just their second game of the season, a 7-5 victory over the Dodgers under the lights. Michael Hogan went three for three with four RBI's and pitched three innings, striking out eight. Jack Porterfield had the game winning hit, scoring Rick Panowicz for a 3-2 Cubs victory over the Giants. The Reds defeated the Cardinals, 4-3. Jack McCool of the Nationals hit a walk off single that scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth to rally the team to a 10-9 victory over the Dodgers.

In Rookie Girls, the Shamrocks are having a great season with six wins and just one loss. Last Monday, Giana Graves scored the winning run in a come from behind 3-2 victory over the Diamonds. Then Saturday, she knocked in teammate Aria Taylor for a 3-2 victory over the Devils. The Ravens picked up their first win of the season with a 1-0 win and the Angels won again, their fourth in a row.

In Triple AAA, White Sox pitchers Cole Shatzel, Jayden Horan, Carter Horan and Carson Wright combined to toss a one hitter in a 3-2 victory over the Yankees. The only hit allowed was a Paul Rubino two run homer in the second inning. Liam Barnum, Brady Roberts and Jace Petti led the Mariners over the Royals, 9-7 and the Angels topped the Blue Jays, 13-11.

Ben Burke, Owen Weaver and Will Potenza led the Marlins to a 7-3 victory over the Cardinals in Double AA action from Saturday.

In Senior Boys, the Dodgers defeated the Mets, 13-7. The Tigers over the DBacks 5-1 and the Athletics topped the Mariners 11-6.

Ask Rusty – Will Claiming Early Affect My Wife’s Survivor Benefit?

Dear Rusty: My wife will be turning 62 and eligible to collect Social Security this year. We realize it will be a reduced amount. I am 52 and have been the sole income earner for most of the last 20 years. We also have an adopted son who will be turning 14 this year. We realize he will receive a dependent benefit until he turns 18 and this may make the case for filing early. I am confused about widow benefits – will my wife’s early filing affect her widow’s benefit amount? Signed: Confused Husband

Dear Confused Husband: When your wife claims her own SS retirement benefit (e.g., at 62) will have no effect on the benefit available to her as your widow. The only thing that would affect her survivor benefit as your widow is her age when she claims it. Claimed before her FRA, her survivor benefit would be reduced, but claimed at or after her FRA, your wife’s survivor benefit as your widow will be 100% of the amount you were receiving (or, if you are not yet collecting, the amount you were entitled to receive) at your death. Your wife would get that amount, instead of her smaller personal amount.

However, for your awareness, your wife’s spousal benefit while you are both living (which she can claim when you start your own SS benefit) will be less than half of your FRA benefit amount because she claimed her own SS retirement benefit at age 62. The reason is that your wife’s benefit as your spouse when you claim will consist of her own reduced SS retirement benefit, plus a spousal boost to bring her payment up to her spousal entitlement. Since her spousal boost will be added to her own reduced early benefit, her total payment as your spouse will be less than 50% of your FRA benefit amount.

If your wife claims her own SS retirement benefit at age 62, she can also apply for your adopted minor son’s benefits based on her personal lifetime work record. Although your wife’s personal early benefit will be cut (by 30%) for claiming at age 62, your son’s benefit as your wife’s minor child will be based on your wife’s full retirement age (FRA) benefit amount. Your son’s benefit from your wife will be 50% of your wife’s FRA amount (not her age 62 amount). As you know, your son will get that amount until he is 18 (or 19 if he is still in high school).

Muhammad School Of Music 23rd Anniversary

For many months, the handwritten note from Katherine “Kat” Massey sat unopened on the desk of Muhammad School of Music founder Henri Muhammad. It was a short and sweet note.

The front of the card read “Peace” within a sky of blue and a bottom border of gold. The note was nine words long: “Brother Muhammad, Just a donation. Best wishes, Kat Massey.”

A semblance of peace is what Henri was looking for following the horrific shooting at Tops in Buffalo, New York that claimed the lives of ten innocent souls and wounded three others.

Massey was one of the victims of the massacre. She was a long-time supporter of the Buffalo-based music school that prominently focuses on the violin.

“I just had a strange feeling that I would know one of the victims. It was surreal, finding out, then seeing her card. Kat was one of our earliest and strongest supporters. Always came to our concerts. She couldn’t make one of our major recitals in February at the History Museum. If Kat couldn’t attend a concert, she always sent a beautiful note with a donation. Supporting African American musicians was important to her,” said Muhammad, who opened the doors of his music school in June of 1999. June is also African-American Music Appreciation Month.

Twenty-three years later, the Buffalo Academy for Visual and Performing Arts graduate and now Buffalo Public Schools music teacher continues his mission of providing musical education and opportunities for children in and around Buffalo.

Between his role at Muhammad School and Music and as a Buffalo Public Schools music teacher, Henri estimates his former students number in the thousands. They have performed the violin and other classical instruments around the world.

“We need love, hope, and peace for the African American community of Buffalo. Music soothes the soul. We are all hurting right now, especially for the loss of our beloved Kat Massey. We continue to teach, especially in her

The Archive group is now up to 800 with new people joining every day. There is no monetary value to what I am doing, just the joy of knowing I can possibly make someone happy. I am really the only one that can do this. It does bother me when I get criticized. I sometimes guess wrong and make a mistake in a caption. But the good makes up for the bad. I will continue to do it as long as I can. Just wish I could do more as there are so many good shots that I know people would like to see. I know I enjoy looking at them. Problem is, there is so little time to do so much before the door closes. Just do me one favor if you would. If you are in the archive group, hit Like to as many as you can as you browse through the shots. That makes me smile, knowing someone is looking.
