

Italian Heritage Festival

The Galbani Italian Heritage Festival returns this year to historic Hertel Avenue and will be held for three days in July from Friday, July 15th - Sunday, July 17th.

One of Buffalo's great-est summertime traditions, The Galbani® Italian Heri-tage Festival will be held on Friday, July 15th, Saturday, July 16th, and Sunday, July 17, 2022, 11:00 am - 8:00 pm.

This year the Festival will be back on Hertel Ave!

"This is the year to bring back the sights, the sounds, the food, the entertain-ment, and the heritage," said Judy Porto-Fiorella, the festival's board presi-dent, during a news confer-ence.

The Galbani Italian Heritage Festival of Buf-falo is a highlight of Sum-mer events in Western New York. Sponsored by the Her-tel North Buffalo Business Association, the West Side Business and Taxpayers Association and the Fed-eration of Italian-Ameri-can Societies of WNY, this annual event features the very best of Italian food, Entertainment and Heri-tage that our area has to offer. The proceeds of the festival are divided among the three organizations and are used to benefit the com-munity.

In the mid 1970's the festival was moved to Con-necticut Street in a neigh-borhood known as the "Ital-ian Village" sponsored by the Amici Lodge. In the mid 1980's the festival moved to Hertel Ave. where it was enjoyed for many decades. It has also taken place on the Buffalo Waterfront and most recently in Niagara Square.

Julianna Verni

Purdue commit, Julianna Verni throws a pitch while competing in Atlanta, Georgia.

"I've just tried to be the best teammate I could possibly be whenever I've played to get a win wherever I've played."

Those were the words of Nardin Academy pitcher Julianna Verni Monday afternoon when asked how she felt about being named again to the All-Western New York Girls High School Softball Team. The eighteen year old Senior was selected to the All-State first team in Class A for the second year in a row after leading the Gators from the mound of Catholic School play. This fall, she will attend Division I School Purdue University in Indiana to continue her stellar pitching career with the Boilermakers in the Big-Ten Division.

"It's an honorable feeling," she continued, "having my story be recognized by this Community in North Buffalo. The Sport has really grown these last couple of years. It's up and coming and I'm just grateful to everyone who has helped me reach this level."

A North Buffalo resident, she became a standout player on the diamonds of Shoshone Park, playing in the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball and Softball League. She learned the game in the same Park that her father, Dominic did when he was a young boy, growing up in the early 1980's. She had some fine volunteer coaches along the way which led her to the Girls Wildcat Travel Program. Her father has been with her all the way.

"I can't say enough about some of the coaches that I had in Shoshone Park besides my father," she recalled. "A few of them were instrumental in my development as a player. Kelly and her husband Sean Kilonsky stand out right away. Trey Gardner was very caring and listened. Tim Robertson and even Joan Cavanaugh, who herself was a star player and was helping her daughter, Erin in the process."

But it wasn't as easy for Julianna as one would think. In June of 2018, she walked across the stage as a graduate of St. Mark's School on Woodward Avenue. In the fall, she attended Nardin Academy and was already thinking softball in the Spring. But in February of 2019, while playing indoors, she felt a pop in her lower torso while delivering a pitch and became uncomfortable afterward. After meeting with several doctors and orthopedic surgeons, it was soon discovered that she had suffered a stress fracture in her lower back and would need physical therapy to help strengthen her vertebrae.

After a grueling six months, Verni felt better enough to play but then COVID-19 hit and 2020 was a year to forget. By 2021, Verni was the Monsignor Martin High School Athletic Association's Pitcher of the Year and had 89 strikeouts and limited opposing hitters to a .135 batting average in 44 innings. A three year starter, she drove in 25 runs, belted four home runs and had a .475 on-base percentage as she helped the Gators reach the Monsignor Martin Championship game.

Presently as she prepares to leave for Indiana next month, she meets with up several young girls here and across the U.S. for individual pitching clinics, giving back to the sport she has grown to love.

Kearns Calls On Purple Heart Recipients To Be Honored

Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns will again honor veterans that have been bestowed the Purple Heart by adding their name to the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Recipients Book of Merit. Kearns is asking veterans who were awarded the Purple Heart or their surviving family members to submit their request to his office by July 29th in order to be added to the 2022 edition and be part of this year's ceremony.

Purple Heart veterans or their families must complete a short application that can be obtained online at erie.gov/clerk/PurpleHeartForm or by email at salutes@erie.gov as well as provide proof of the award was issued. Those with additional questions can call the Erie County Clerk's office at 716-858-6787.

"I think it is important to honor the brave men and women who have served and sacrificed for our Country. They deserve to be recognized and I am pleased we are able to maintain a record of our local heroes at the Erie County Clerk's Office", stated Kearns.

The 2021 volume of the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Book of Merit is on display at the Erie County Clerk's Office in Old County Hall located at 92 Franklin Street, Buffalo. It presently holds five hundred three (503) names of those honored with the Purple Heart from Erie County.

Kearns established the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Recipients Book of Merit in 2018 and has committed to add to the book each year with new recipients. The book is named after Buffalo native and leading advocate for the Central Intelligence Agency, William J. Donovan. Donovan would receive three Purple Hearts during his service in the military, and would go on to heard the predecessor of the CIA, during World War II.

The Purple Heart is the oldest military decoration awarded to members of the United States military who were wounded or killed while serving, on or after April 5, 1917. Kearns will also honor Purple Heart veterans during a ceremony on Friday, August 5th and more details will be available closer to the event date.

Ask Rusty – I’m Getting Spouse Benefits – What Happens to My Own?

Dear Rusty: I was born in late 1951. When I retired 5 years ago, I was made aware that my own Social Security benefit was less than half of my husband’s SS Benefit. So, I chose to take half of his. What happens to my undispensed SS dollars? On the off chance the balance increases beyond the amount I am now collecting, can I eventually switch to my own full SS amount? Signed: Curious Senior

Dear Curious Senior: Much depends on exactly how you claimed your SS benefits five years ago and your age when you claimed. Because you were born in 1951, if you had reached your full retirement age (FRA) of 66 when you claimed SS five years ago and your husband was already collecting his benefits, you had the option to file a “restricted application for spousal benefits only” which would have enabled you to collect only your spouse benefit while letting your own benefit continue to grow. But if you were not yet 66 when you claimed, the “restricted application” wasn’t available to you, so you are now receiving your own benefit plus an additional amount to bring your payment to your spousal amount.

I expect that the latter is the case (that you didn’t file a “restricted application”), which would mean that your current payment amount consists of two parts – your personal benefit (from your own lifetime work record) plus a “spousal boost” to bring your payment to your spousal entitlement. Except for the restricted application, Social Security always pays your own benefit amount first and then supplements your own benefit with an additional amount to give you what you’re entitled to as a spouse. Thus, your personal benefits aren’t “undispensed” – you’re already getting them, plus a spousal supplement.

Just to complete the picture, if you did file a “restricted application” at age 66, then your own benefit continued to grow until you were 70 (at which point it reached maximum). The growth amount would have been 8% per year additional benefit, so at age 70 your own benefit would have been 32% more than your FRA amount. If you know what your own FRA benefit amount was, then increase that by 32% to see if your own amount is now higher and, if so, contact Social Security to apply for your own higher benefit.

If you don’t know what your personal FRA amount was and/or are uncertain if you filed a restricted application, you’ll need to contact Social Security directly to see if you’re entitled to any additional amount based on your own lifetime work record. You can contact Social Security at either the national center (1.800.772.1213) or at your local office (find the number at www.ssa.gov/locator). If you are currently getting spouse benefits only under a restricted application and your personal benefit is now higher, since you’ll soon be 71 you should request six months of retroactive benefits when you switch from the restricted application to your own benefit.

BSRA Athletes To Compete In U23 Italian World Championship

The Buffalo Scholastic Rowing Association (BSRA), a nonprofit athletic organization located at 405 Ohio St. in Buffalo, is turning to the local community for help sending two of their athletes and their coach to the U23 World Rowing Championships in Venice, Italy, July 25-30.

Rowers Nathaniel Sass and Collin Hay have made Team USA as the Men’s Lightweight Pair. Sass, a Clarence native and graduate of Canisius High School, rowed at Boston University and is heading to UPenn in the fall. Hay, a native of Massachusetts now training at BSRA, is a graduate of the University of Delaware. Rowing together for one year, they are coached by R.J. Rubino of Buffalo, head coach of BSRA’s Under 23 program and Canisius High School Rowing.

Qualifying for Team USA and the World Rowing Championships was only half the battle. Now, the trio must raise approximately $12,000 to fund the trip as USRowing and World Rowing do not provide financial support for athletes and coaches.

“After coaching Sass to multiple national championship wins while he attended Canisius High School, it became clear he had the makings of an elite oarsmen,” added Rubino. “His synergy with Hay is explosive. It is our objective to win a World Championship for the City of Buffalo!”

“I rate these two young men as exceptional competitors who have one goal — gold at the 2022 World Rowing Championships. They choose to row for Buffalo (BSRA) because we are dedicated to teaching and performing. They deserve a world stage and Buffalo deserves the Gold Medal,” said Joe Krakowiak, coach of the 1986 U19 World Championship and current VP of Rowing at BSRA.

To assist in the fundraising efforts, BSRA will host a community fundraiser at their Ohio Street facility at 7 p.m. Friday, July 1. The event will feature music by The Taverners, beverages and a 50/50 raffle. Please contact BSRA for more information.

Individuals and businesses interested in donating are asked to contact BSRA at info@rowbuffalo.com or (716) 855-4618.

Yes, the neighborhood has changed. It is different than it was 50 years ago, but you can say that about any locality. Time changes everything. People change, things change, businesses come and go. And the bad part is all those good people I worked and ate with are now gone. One of the downsides of growing old. You lose those who have become close to you. You attend more wakes than weddings. Just be thankful if you still have the memories. Precious memories, there is nothing better than reliving a happy moment of the past.
