9/11 Never Forget Mobile Exhibit Comes To The Erie County Fair

The Tunnel to Towers 9/11 Never Forget Mobile Exhibit will be escorted by local law enforcement, fire departments, EMS squads, along with veteran and first responder motorcycle groups from McKinley Mall to the Hamburg Fairgrounds. The exhibit will be located outside of Showplace from August 9th-14th during the Erie County Fair.

We invite the community to line up on the sides of McKinley Parkway (off the roadway) to welcome the exhibit on its procession to the Fairgrounds.

The Tunnel to Towers Foundation is committed to ensuring that Americans never forget what happened on September 11, 2001. Since 2013, the mobile exhibit has traveled the country educating Americans. Tours of the exhibit are conducted by retired New York City Firefighters who responded on September 11, 2001. They share their stories and bring history to life.

The 83-foot-tractor-trailer transforms into a 1,100 square foot exhibit which features World Trade Center Steel, aluminum façade from the buildings, radio transmission recordings, and items found in the rubble after the Twin Towers collapsed.

Tunnels to Towers Foundation recently provided a mortgage-free home to the family of local firefighter Jason Arno. Arno, 37, a three-year member of the Buffalo Fire Department, was killed in the line of duty while battling a 4-alarm fire on March 1, 2023.

The BMS BubbleFEST Returns September 16th

BubbleFEST returns to the Buffalo Museum of Science (BMS) on Saturday, September 16 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Back by popular demand, Buffalo Foam Parties will again join the celebration, creating their signature Foam Zone outside the museum for even more bubble-tastic fun.

New for 2023 will be the reusable water balloon toss which will take place outside the museum in Martin Luther King, Jr. Park. These unique "balloons", courtesy of Soppycid, feature special magnetic technology that allow them to be refilled again and again while still delivering the same wet and wild fun of a traditional water balloon toss.

Early last week, North Buffalo and the Hertel North Park Youth Baseball League received great news from the Common Council Downtown in City Hall when they officially approved the contracts to construct the new Shoshone Park Fieldhouse, slated to have a fall ground-breaking on the project after the HNPYBL season. The decision is the result of years of community meetings, discussions and planning between the architect, contractors with City Officials since 2017. It has been described as a Gamechanger for the Community ever since the idea was proposed by then president Donald Morris of Hertel North Park. This decision prompted the over 1,300 boys and girls playing in the League this season to thank all parties involved in this memorable event to occur within the next two years.

Tickets are $75 and include an all-day festival admission, beer tastings for two hours, $15 in wing tickets, a Wingfest souvenir plate and cup, a bottle of Dan-O’s Spicy Seasoning and a charitable donation to the local charities for each session. Parking is FREE. The event is sponsored by VSP Graphics and Buf-falolocal, a consortium of local craft breweries. The Wingfest will be held Labor Day Weekend, Sept. 2nd and 3rd.

Over the past 21 years, the National Buffalo Wing Festival has raised more than $440,000 for local charities. The festival will again give back to the community with this year’s beneficiaries including FeedMoreWNY and the Alzheimer’s Assoc. of WNY.

The Mafia Babes are an empowering community of women united by their passion for football and desire to help others. Emerging as a social media initiative in February 2016, their community has grown to encompass over 32,000 enthusiastic women. As a 501c3, the Mafia Babes have embraced a profound mission: to channel the passion of Bills fans into a potent force for social good. Each month they support a local WNY organization close to the hearts of Buffalo Bills players and staff. “The Mafia Babes are thrilled to collaborate with the Wingfest which embodies the “City of Good Neighbors,” bringing together great people, great food, and great causes”, says Kristen Kimmick, co-founder.

Hope Rises ignites hope through continuous acts of charitable kindness throughout Western New York. Beginning in 2017, highlighting the good of the world, it quickly transformed into a 501c3 mission with 100% of money raised remaining in the community. In 2022, Hope Rises executed 47 Give Hope campaigns supporting pediatric cancer, veterans, and first responders just to name a few. Founded by Kate Glaser, Hope Rises has a committed volunteer base of 350+ ‘hope heroes’.

The Festival The National Buffalo Wing Festival presented by Empower Federal Credit Union returns to Highmark Stadium on Sept. 2nd and 3rd. Now in its 22nd year, the festival has averaged 45,000+ attendees over the last 10 years that have been tracked from all 50 states and 44 different countries. Twenty-three (23) local, regional, national, and international eateries be serving more than 100 styles of chicken wings. United States Buffalo Wing Eating Championship. Attendees can chow down at restaurant row and enjoy a cold beverage right on the field, where the Buffalo Bills open their season on September 17th.

Ask Rusty – Why Is Social Security Withholding My Monthly Payments?

Dear Rusty: I have been working since I started collecting Social Security when I turned 62. Last year I was apparently overpaid because of my job. I made $37,000 and now the Social Security Administration says I owe them $8,800 dollars because I made too much, and they have withheld my $2000 monthly Social Security payment. I am close to the maximum allowable again already this year. So, I am looking at quitting my job so I don't go over, but they are holding my payments so then I would have no money. Any help would be appreciated. Signed: Frustrated by Social Security

Dear Frustrated: You are being affected by Social Security's "earnings test" which applies to everyone who collects early Social Security and also works before reaching their full retirement age (FRA). If your earned income exceeds the annual limit (which was $19,560 for 2022), Social Security will withhold $1 in benefits for every $2 you are over the limit. If you earned $37,000 in 2022 you were more than $17,000 over the limit and owe half of that back to Social Security. They usually recover what you owe by withholding your future benefit payments, so they won't pay you benefits until they have recovered that $8,800, after which your benefits will resume – but only for a while.

If you are working full time and also collecting early Social Security benefits, the earnings test lasts until you reach your full retirement age, which for you is 66 years and 8 months. The earnings limit goes up a bit each year – for 2023 it is $21,240 – but if you continue to work full time, you'll receive another overpayment notice and have more benefits withheld. A better approach might be to contact Social Security in advance and tell them what your 2023 earnings are expected to be, thus permitting them to suspend your benefits in advance and avoid overpaying you. I'm afraid there is no way around this – collecting early benefits while working full time means the "earnings test" will affect your benefit payments.

The "good news" in all of this is that when you reach your full retirement age, you will get time-credit for all months your benefits were withheld. By that I mean they will, at your FRA, recalculate your benefit entitlement as though you had claimed later (later by the number of months you had benefits withheld), which will result in a higher monthly payment after your FRA. In that way, you may eventually recover some or all of the benefits withheld by receiving a higher monthly amount for the rest of your life, starting at your full retirement age.

I suggest you contact Social Security at 1.800.772.1213 (or at your local office) and tell them you want to provide them with an estimate of your 2023 earnings because you are working and collecting early Social Security benefits. They will work with you to suspend your benefits for an appropriate number of (additional) months to avoid another overpayment situation. Note, you'll likely need to do this each year you continue to work full time, until the year you reach your full retirement age when the earnings limit more than doubles. The earnings limit goes away when you reach your full retirement age.

Kearns Pays Tribute To Purple Heart Recipients

County Clerk celebrated veterans added to the William J. Donovan 2023 Purple Heart Book of Merit and announces Old County Hall will be lit up purple in support of Purple Heart Appreciation Day, held annually on August 7th.

In honor of Purple Heart Appreciation Day, Erie County Clerk Michael P. Kearns recognized Erie County Purple Heart Recipients being added to the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Book of Merit for 2023. No formal record of Purple Heart Recipients in Erie County existed prior to 2018 when Kearns originated Erie County's version of the "Book of Merit."

"An estimated 1.8 million service men and women who fought and lost their lives or received life-altering injury protecting our great country and have earned the Purple Heart," stated Kearns. "These selfless individuals come from all walks of life and backgrounds, and more specifically, from all across Erie County. While the majority of veterans do not seek our thanks and praise, I firmly believe we owe them both."

National Purple Heart Day is observed annually on August 7th and dedicated to remembering and honoring the brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces who were wounded on the battlefield or lost their lives in combat operations.

The Purple Heart is a United States military decoration awarded in the name of the president to those wounded or killed while serving, on or after April 5, 1917, with the U.S. military. Originally called the Badge of Military Merit, the Purple Heart was created by George Washington on August 7, 1782. In addition to receiving a purple heart shaped medal, the honoree's name and regiment were inscribed in the "Book of Merit" which was lost after the Revolutionary War and the award was largely forgotten until over 100 years later. The Purple Heart is the oldest military decoration still awarded to members of the U.S. military.

"It is my esteemed honor to present the 2023 Purple Heart Recipient Names being added to the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Book of Merit," said Kearns. "The lack of records on Purple Heart recipients was always a surprise to me. As the chief document and records holder for the county, I wanted to create a way for the names of Purple Heart Recipients to be acknowledged and remembered."

The 2023 volume of the William J. Donovan Purple Heart Recipients Book of Merit will now hold the names of five hundred forty (540) Purple Heart Recipients from across Erie County, with the additional twenty-two (22) veterans added at today's ceremony.

The book is named after Buffalo native and leading advocate for the Central Intelligence Agency, William J. Donovan. Prior to becoming known as the "Father of American Intelligence", Donovan served in the United States Infantry and was one of the first units deployed to Europe during World War I. Donovan would receive three Purple Hearts during his service in the military, and would go on to head the Central Intelligence Agency, during World War II.

This year's ceremony was held at Old County Hall, home to the Erie County Clerk's Office, in the Ceremonial Court Room, followed by a Purple Heart flag raising observance at the statue of President George Washington. The ceremony began with a welcome from County Clerk Kearns, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance led by World War II Veteran Dr. John Long, with the National Anthem performed by local lyricist George Miller. Kearns presented Certificates of Recognition and commemorative Purple Heart pins to recipients or their family members as the honoree's names, branch of service, and war was read aloud.

The William J. Donovan Purple Heart Recipients Book of Merit is on permanent display at the Erie County Clerk's Office inside Old County Hall at 92 Franklin Street. Along with the book, there are also historical photos of William J. Donovan, a portrait of Donovan, and a World War I era Purple Heart with two oak leaf clusters donated to the Clerk's Office. Submissions for the 2024 Purple Heart Recipients Book of Merit are currently being accepted online at erie.gov/clerk/purpleheart-form or by contacting the County Clerk's office at 716-858-6787.

"I believe it is important we pay tribute to our military heroes who were injured or killed in the line of duty, then bestowed this national honor. They deserve to be recognized for their service and sacrifice and I am happy we are able to keep such record of our local service men and women at the Erie County Clerk's Office," added Kearns.

Additionally, County Clerk Kearns announced Old County Hall will be lit up purple, August 7-13th, in honor of Purple Heart Appreciation Day and in solemn recognition for all service members injured or killed in action.
