Stamp Out Hunger This Saturday

Saturday, May 9th marks the 23rd anniversary of America's largest-single day of giving - the National Association of Letter Carriers Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive in Partnership with the U.S. Postal Service, Feeding America, United Way and other partners.

Currently, 49 million Americans - 1 in 6 - are unsure where their next meal is coming from. Sixteen million are children who feel hunger's impact on their overall health and ability to perform in school. And nearly 5 million seniors over age 60 are food insecure, with many who live on fixed incomes often too embarrassed to ask for help.

In 2014, over 72 million pounds of food was collected by Postal carriers nationally, feeding an estimated 30 million people.

Over the course of the 22 year history, the Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive has collected well over one billion pounds of food.

The food drive's timing is crucial. Food banks and pantries often receive the majority of their donations during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday seasons. By springtime, many pantries are depleted, entering the summer low on supplies at a time when many school breakfast and lunch programs are not available to children in need.

Just leave a non-perishable food donation in a bag by the mailbox on Saturday, May 9th, and the Postal carrier will do the rest. It's that simple and millions of Americans will be helped.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

'The Odd Couple'

Hard to believe it's been a half-century since playwright Neil Simon sized up the lifestyle of his slovenly brother Danny and committed it to a comedy called "The Odd Couple."

There'd been diametrically daffy duos before - Abbott & Costello, Laurel & Hardy - but never so specifically focused on hygiene. "Couple" conceived a litter of literature -- movies, TV shows, a women's version and even other scripts, notably "Sunshine Boys" and various "Grumpy Old Men." The current reprise attempts a "Friends" ambience, distinctly its own worst enemy.

This month, Jewish Repertory Theater restores the original testament. Director Saul Elkin has cast the finest Oscar and Felix imaginable. Of Tom Laughlin's Oscar it can truly be said that the better he dresses, the sloppier he looks. Tim Newell is the dean of dread, investing neat-freak Felix with a horde of tics, twitches and honks remindful of local comedy king Brian Mysliwy.

When he comes in bemoaning the fate of his over-cooked roast, it's as if he were bearing the ashes of a just-deceased pet. Well done, well done.

There's a Greek chorus of card players - Ray Boucher as the crouching, crabby and capped Speed, Mike Randall as the authoritative, pocket-protected accountant Roy, Doug Weyand as the pinch-penny, poker-proficient Vinny and Don Gervasi as a remarkably well-grounded Murray the Cop. He looks great but seems smarter than Simon intended. He should be fumbling the cards, not fondling them.

Lisa Ludwig, surrendering her persona to a dark wig, and peppy Michelle Marie Roberts flit flawlessly as the birds from upstairs, Pigeon sisters Cecily and Gwendolen, their names appropriated from Oscar Wilde.

They are raunchily enthusiastic, just what the doctor ordered for their mismatched fellow cave-dwellers. All-round applause to Kari Drozd's costume choices.

While the war of the messies vs. the fussies got "Odd Couple" started, in endures on its subtler theme, the tribute to loyalty and friendship, sometimes misinterpreted. A local director with whom Rocket Man once worked misread this and cleansed the script of "all references to homosexuality," including the last line. Honest. Told of this by Rocket Man, Simon said "putz!"

The sprawling set evokes the times -- the clunky phone, the barometer and the Life magazine among the clutter in the days of long-distance rates and $240 rents. Set designer Nathan Elsener has even strewn mostly black-and-white newspapers about (color was rare in those times) but probably should ditch the Buffalo Trace bourbon, seldom seen in '65 and too fey for Oscar anyway.

The apartment's a mess, but tolerable. It needs less linen and more litter.

Withal, it's sure as Simon that "Odd Couple," like Felix, will clean up at 2640 North Forest Rd., Getzville, through May 17. EIGHT ROCKETS (out of 10.)

Doug Smith has been reviewing theater on the Niagara Frontier since 1968.

ADOPT A PET

This week's featured friend:

TOBY

This handsome approximately 8 year old gentleman was found wandering the streets alone and sadly, no one has come to claim him. He isn't singing the blues, but gets a bit sad when he has to go back into his kennel. We assume he had a home at one time and now, he is patiently waiting for someone else to make him a part of their life. Toby appears to be housebroken but we always recommend giving a shelter dog time to adjust into a new routine in a home setting. It can be confusing for our shelter dogs being bounced around and they require some patience and understanding as they transition. Toby knows basic commands and he would just love to find a spot on a couch and a lap to rest his head in. Come check out our senior guy Toby. Maybe you are the one to give him a place to spend his senior years with.
