

Happy Valentine's Day

Every February 14th, across the United States and in other places around the world, candy, flowers and gifts are exchanged between loved ones, all in the name of St. Valentine and North Buffalo is no exception. Local vendors and restaurants get ready for this day moments after the ball drops on New Year's. Whether it's a box a candy, a romantic dinner or a bouquet of flowers, shopping in North Buffalo is where you want to be. Here is a sample of what is being offered for Valentine's day. Johnny's Meats, on Hertel Avenue, is offering a surf and turf special with 9 oz. lobster

Take the Chill Off with Chili

Nothing says winter like a warm and hearty bowl of chili! If you have a chili recipe to rival all other chili, then enter The Parkside Association's Annual Chili Cook-Off, taking place on February 20th, from 6:00 to 8:00 pm at Jewett Hall, Church of the Good Shepherd. Awards like "Most Creative" and "People's Choice" are handed out so there are a number of ways you can showcase your culinary skill. Not to mention, you could also win major bragging rights for the next 12 months! Get the kids involved too! New this year, children can participate in the fun by hosting their own lemonade or cookie stands! This new addition to the Chili Cook-Off is sure to be a hit with the younger crowd of Parksiders! To enter the contest or register a lemonade or cookie stand for your child, visit Parksidebuffalo.org.

Music is Art Unveils New Program

Music is Art is excited to announce its newest program...the Music Industry Academy Workshop Series. Open to everyone, this workshop series will educate participants on all aspects of the music industry. Topics will include things such as artistic identity, online presence, marketing/promotion, contract, copyrights, studio basics, recording and releasing music. Sessions will be $5 for students and $10 for adults. Tickets must be purchased in advance and will be available at www.musicisart.org/store. The first session will feature Music is Art Founder and President, Robby Takac. Robby will discuss an introduction into music business success. The workshop is set for Wednesday, February 24th at 6 pm and will be held at the Buffalo Center for Arts and Technology, 1221 Main Street, Buffalo. The Buffalo Center for Arts and Technology is a place of hope and opportunity, offering after-school arts programs and adult vocational training. Above all, we believe that environment shapes people's lives, people are assets, and creativity fuels enterprise. For more information go to www.musicisart.org.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

'Bad Jews'

Theatrically, "Bad Jews" is good news in Getzville. But moments before an open house at headquarters last week, Rocket Man turned his kitchen calendar to the wall. How could he explain to mostly total strangers those two words in letters four inches high, reminding him of opening night?

Like, did you hear the one about "Polish Joke," the title that got North Buffalo's Kaleidoscope troupe tossed out of Canisius College? Ah, but at the Maxine & Robert Seller Theater, 2640 North Forest Rd., a good jewel blessed by the Jewish Community Center, the welcome mat was out, especially at the noshful and nourishing Meyer's Tel Aviv Café across the lobby.

The play convenes four mourners – three Jewish, one not – to assault each other with everything from curses to couches after the death of a revered patriarch. The Larry of these four ideological stooges is Daphna, self-righteous, mouth as foul as the water in Flint. She is portrayed by Arin Lee Dandes, a breakout role for a vibrant actress with a boxful of credits including Theater of Youth. (Had Becky Thatcher chosen these words, she'd have gotten her mouth cleansed with whitewash.) In her hand, even a comb morphs into an obscene gesture.

When Daphna talks, people in a five-mile radius listen, as if they had a choice. As cunning as she is crass, she'll gravitationally declare "Let's just drop it," even though she lifted it in the first place. All that might stand between her and awards is that the rest of the cast is so competent as to deserve honor as an ensemble.

Others: Nick Stevens as the less strident cousin Jonah, Adam Rath as the self-serving Liam and fetching Jamie Nablo as his squeeze Melody, thrust into this awkward goy-meets-bull conclave. Melody has "studied" opera, but when she tries to make peace by singing "Summertime," her phrasing makes you yearn for winter. Not even Mary Kate O'Connell's Flo Jo from "Glorious" could have sung it worse, and that's a compliment.

They've gathered 'cause Poppy has passed, Holocaust survivor who has left behind both reverent memories and a necklace, a "chai," much coveted in the worst sort of way. How he got this past the Nazis in concentration camp is a bit hard to swallow, but the oversized prop is probably a necessity for visibility. Whatever. Fierce accusations, recriminations and judgments fill the fairly posh apartment, most concerning who is true to the faith and who not.

Stage-combat maven Steve Vaughan was born to direct this high-energy brawl. Playwright Joshua Harmon excels at bitter ripostes, world-class kvetching with ever-changing allegiances, often too true to be funny, but the little hall rocked with laughter, Rocket Man often the loudest.

There is a commonality here. It wouldn't take many alterations to reset "Bad Jews" at any wake of any faith. Who's afraid of Virginia Woolffstein? NINE ROCKETS (out of 10) through Feb. 28.

Canisius Chorale to Perform

The Canisius College Chorale, under the direction of Frank Scinta, will continue its 2015-2016 Sacred Spaces concert series with a program on Sunday, February 28th at 7:00 pm in St. Louis Church, Main and Edward Streets in Buffalo. The concert will feature works by Hogan, Mendelssohn, Buxtehude, Dawson, Ticheli and others. Admission is free.

Sacred Spaces stems from an idea the choir proposed nine years ago to feature its music in some of Western New York's most beautiful and acoustically resonant environments - namely, the sanctuaries of our area's churches. As a result, the choir has visited nearly forty houses of worship with its repertoire of sacred and secular music spanning five centuries.

The 100-member Canisius College Chorale is one of the area's most active collegiate musical ensembles.

Now in its nineteenth season, The Canisius College Chorale remains one of Western New York's most active collegiate music ensembles. Composed of 100 undergraduate and graduate members, the Chorale regularly presents concert programs to school, church, and community audiences throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario.

In recent years, the Chorale has performed with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, Ars Nova Chamber Musicians, Amherst Symphony Orchestra, Camerata di Sant'Antonio, Buffalo Philharmonic Chorus and the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

Preservation Meeting Planned

The Elmwood Village Association and Preservation Buffalo Niagara announced today that they will jointly host a public meeting to discuss community values relating to the preservation of historic buildings in the Elmwood Village.

The meeting is intended to inform residents and property owners about existing preservation designations and protections on Elmwood Avenue, and provide a forum for discussion about issues relating to this topic.

In particular, both groups wish to foster a conversation about retaining community character while continuing to grow and evolve. The meeting will take place on Wednesday, February 24th from 6:30 to 8:00 pm at the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, 875

Elmwood Avenue, Buffalo.

"We want to foster a real discussion", said Carly Battin, Executive Director of the Elmwood Village Association. "As the pace of change quickens here on Elmwood, it's important that we as a community have defined our values and are proactive about protecting what's important."

The meeting is free and open to the public.

IN MEMORIAM

MARY ELIZABETH (SNYDER) MAZZEO It's been a year now since you left us Mary Beth, a sister, daughter, niece and aunt. You are still around us everyday and we can hear you sing: I will always love you. To the Moon and Back again, a candle is lit until the day we all meet again in a better place. You are sadly missed by so many. We love you everyday.
