5K Run Commemorates 100th Anniversary

Canisius College will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) with a 5k run on Saturday, April 23rd. The run is scheduled for 10:00 am at LaSalle Park. The nearly 200 participants will include ROTC cadets from Canisius College and Niagara University, as well as cadets from the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) at Hutch Tech, South Park and McKinley high schools.

The Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps, as it exists today, began with President Woodrow Wilson signing the National Defense Act of 1916. Although military training had been taking place in civilian colleges and universities as early as 1819, the signing of the National Defense Act brought this training under a single, federally-controlled entity: The Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Army ROTC is the largest officer-producing organization with the American military, having commissioned more than half-a-million second lieutenants since its inception. Army ROTC has provided the nation with the right leaders at the right time, yielding visionary leaders such as Sam Walton, founder of Walmart; former Secretary of State Colin Powell, and Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito.

For more information about the Canisius College ROTC program or the 5k run, contact MAJ Stephen Ang at 888-3249.

The Adventures of...

Rocket Man

by Doug Smith

Final Touchdown

In the autumn of 1984, the Man Who Would Be Rocket returned from to Manhattan, where he had seen the movie “Man with the Red Shoe,” interviewed star Gene Wilder for Channel 4 and then, on a whim, accepted a print-media-only chat with co-star Kelly LeBrock. It might reactivate the writing chops which had served him so well in a 37-year newspaper career, terminated when the Courier-Express closed.

The Buffalo News’ theater editor green-lighted the project, but when Rocket Man showed up at the door, the signal changed. They would get every bit as good a piece from the wire services, and for nothing, a different editor told him rather coolly.

Crushed and betrayed, he stopped by the Delaware Avenue offices of the North Buffalo Rocket. Editor Paul Likoudis, had a better idea: How would he like to write a regular weekly column on almost any topic of his choosing.

Deal. He joined an awesome aggregation of media giants including TV’s Jim Baker, radio legend Ralph Hubbell and governmental reporter Brian Meyer.

To this day, he has not missed a column, come rain, sleet, temper or vacation. It took many forms – there was “That’s Entertainment,” a media commentary called “Between the Lines,” a diamond-sports observation “Base Paths.” For a while, all three ran simultaneously. Then, about 10 years ago, he shot off an apology to Elton John and gathered the three-ring circus under the coverall “Rocket Man.”

With today’s edition, the circus leaves town. Rocket Man is not only cooling his jets, he’s shutting them down. As this paper rolls off the press, he and his First Mate roll toward Cortland, NY, to take up residence nine miles and 15 minutes from their notorious Costly Daughter and her family. There is sadness, but no regret. It’s time.

He can not possibly overstate the privilege of working with the Gallagher clan. There have been a few very sharp disagreements -- Big Dave once reproached him as unfair to the Buffalo News -- but never, ever, did anyone suggest or reject a topic. Rocket Man, on the other hand, maintained a personal ethic of “Do not discriminate against your advertisers,” particularly in a year-end verse encompassing all of their names.

The April Fool columns were fun, too, although this year’s, suggesting that the Bills and Sabres improve their chances by disowning “Buffalo,” wasn’t one of his best. He will always cherish the “revelation” that the state was imposing mandatory sunscreen at area beaches. Two years ago a suggestion that a noted daredevil would walk a wire the length of Hertel Avenue inspired a “Wal-lenda Watch” at a senior apartment along the route.

Rocket Man picked up his first newspaper paycheck at the age of 13 – actually, it was so small, he probably got it in cash. That Jamestown, NY, Sun is long gone, as are at least half of his one-time employers. He remembers almost all of them with fondness, but none more than the Rocket and its readers. Thanks. An anthology is in the dreamworks, at least. Otherwise, over and out.

E-mail Rocket Man via pollyndoug@hotmail.com, or address him at 1109 Starr Rd., Cortland, NY 13045.

A Trip Through the Past

While Hertel North Park gets ready to celebrate 60 years, The Buffalo Rocket looks back on some old press clippings submitted by this correspondent.

Robert O'Sullivan of North Buffalo was quoted here in the Rocket back in 1983. "Baseball is as much a mental as a physical game." He was right. A first year volunteer manager for a White Sox team in Hertel North Park, O'Sullivan felt that confidence can sway from time to time like in any other game. His team had yet to win their first game but he was patient "for their sway to the top."

These were thoughts and notes collected over a thirty year period when there were once two little league baseball programs in North Buffalo. Hertel North Park was in its 34th season, according to records, and a neighboring Delaware Hertel League played baseball just down the street on Tacoma near Delaware Avenue. Between the two leagues, over 1,000 boys and some girls played every night and on the weekends not far from their homes.

In 1982, Hertel North Park began two Pony

Tail Softball Divisions for girls, ages 7 to 10 and 11 to 14. After years of playing together with the boys, teams like Tigers or Brewers were helping the League expand its opportunities for Girls. From June in 1983 we read: "The Tigers are defending last year's championship. They have a four and one record and this week they shut out the Pirates, 8-0 behind the two hit pitching of Jackie Moranto, who went 3 for 4 at the plate. Centerfielder Anita Anzalone caught a pop fly and threw to second base for an inning ending double play."

The Brewers were 7-0 and consisted of players Michelle Neff, Dawn Mason, Monica Barnett, Maureen Littlefield, Gina Smaldone, Jennifer Yager and Melissa Lyons. Each of the seven wins were keyed by a different girl. All but four of them are playing Softball for the first time.

So many memories played on the diamonds of Shoshone Park. There was still a concrete wall where diamond #3 now sits, and diamonds #7 and the t-ball area were not even placed just within the past ten years. Shoshone Park was also home to various Youth Football Leagues in the area at the time. Summers ended quickly back then with the play of Shoshone football Chiefs, Redskins, Savages and Warriors.

For boys, the Reds and Sam Chianta were always a part of teams qualifying for playoffs. "The Reds scored eight runs in the first inning on RBI singles that shut down the Phillies early and gave pitcher Mark Kolepp his second win of the season. On defense, the Reds came up with a double play. In the fourth, with the bases loaded and one out, Jason Newton caught a pop fly and immediately threw to shortstop Doug Klaif. Klaif then threw home to catcher Andy Moynihan at the plate, tagging a Phillie runner."

We're not certain when the Delaware Hertel League was formed. They played on land adjacent to Public School 81 until 1986. There was just one diamond and a small concession stand. The League consisted of a dozen teams both in Major and Minor divisions. Smaller to the Hertel North Park League, but well run by a contingent of working families who cared enough to keep their children safe at night and on Saturdays for League games.

Next week we'll share more names of players and mention League coaches who were instrumental in helping Hertel North become what it is today.

This Week's Featured Friend:

EDGAR

Meet Edgar!! This handsome boy was found wandering the streets on St. Patrick's Day. Although it does appear that Edgar had a home at one time, no one came to claim him. Edgar appears to know some basic commands such as sit, and come but we bet he would love to learn more! Edgar does still have some young dog energy, as he is probably between the 1-2 yr age. He recently has started running with a few volunteers and he does do good on his walks. He has become more curious about his surroundings at the shelter and not so happy about being in his kennel. He would much rather be outdoors or hanging in the yard with his human pals. Edgar appears more receptive to the lady canine members so we would prefer he go to a home with a female dog vs a male. Be sure to take a minute to meet Edgar when you are at the shelter. He just might be your next running buddy, training partner and best friend.....Pet ID 31125062.

Guest Column

Erie County Clerk

Chris Jacobs

April is Donate Life Month

April is National “Donate Life” Month and a good time to consider helping the growing list of people living on hope. As you read this, as many as 10,000 New Yorkers are waiting for a life-saving transplant, including close to 800 people here in Western New York. Thousands more are waiting for life-enhancing tissue and eye donations.

Every 10 minutes someone is added to the national waiting list. The good news is that each day approximately 79 individuals will get a new lease on life by receiving an organ transplant. One organ and tissue donor has the ability to save and enhance the lives of up to 50 people through needed organs, corneas, skin, bone, and heart valves.

Disappointingly, New York State has the third highest need for donors in the country and has the second lowest percentage of registered donors nationwide with only 26% of individuals 18 and older who have joined the New York State Donate Life Organ and Tissue Donation Registry. Out of the 10,000 New Yorkers on the waiting list, over 1,700 have been waiting for life saving and improving transplants for more than 5 years. Each year, approximately 500 men, women and children in the state die because of the shortage of donors.

I am pleased to report over the last two years, Erie County Auto Bureaus have signed-up nearly 45,000 individuals to the New York State Donor Registry, significantly increasing the number of registrants by 62% in comparison to a couple of years ago. According to Unyts, 80% of people that become organ donors register through the DMV. In total, over 3.5 million have registered as organ donors through DMV’s statewide, with 264,996 Erie County residents having enrolled through our local Auto Bureau offices.

I encourage all motorists that come into any of the Erie County Auto Bureaus to enroll in the Donate Life Registry by checking the box “yes” and signing the New York State Organ and Tissue Donation consent on any driver license or non-driver identification application or renewal form. When you enroll through this method, a symbol of a heart and the words “Organ Donor” will be printed on the front of your driver license or non-driver identification card at no extra cost.

Unyts volunteers and our own Donate Life Ambassadors will be available at our Auto Bureau offices throughout the month of April to answer any questions regarding the organ and tissue donation process. If you have further questions on how to enroll in the New York State Donate Life Registry, contact the Erie County Auto Bureau’s Call Center at (716) 858-7450. For additional information on organ, tissue and eye donations visit www.nydrives4life.com or www.unyts.org.

I am proud to join in the effort to alert our customers of the donor crisis and encourage everyone to enroll in the Donate Life Registry. Through organ, tissue and eye donation, you can. This April, celebrate “Donate Life” Month by educating yourself and making an informed decision. Help us to ensure that every person waiting for a transplant receives one. Your decision can be a precious gift – the gift of life.

Elderwood Health Plan to Begin Serving Residents

Elderwood Health Plan, a locally-based managed long-term care plan, was granted approval by the New York State Department of Health to begin enrolling members.

Elderwood Health Plan provides services to people 21 years and older who are Medicaid-eligible, chronically ill or have disabilities and have been assessed as needing community based long term care services for more than 120 days. Services are provided in Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming and Monroe counties. Dr. Anthony Bilitier is the Medical Director for the program.

Elderwood Health Plan coordinates primary, specialty and community-based services for its members, and is the payor for a wide range of services, such as long-term home health care, dental, vision, transportation and audiology. Members continue to use their own primary care and specialty physicians through their Medicaid, with the advantage of having an Elderwood Health Plan care manager help coordinate their community based and home care services.

“Our goal at Elderwood Health Plan is to provide the care and access to services necessary for individuals to remain independent and in the community,” said Alicia Kenyon, director of business development. “Our care managers provide support to both members and their families to help coordinate services such as podiatry, physical therapy, in-home care, durable medical equipment, and transportation to medical appointments and day centers.” “We will also help families with the paperwork required to apply for Medicaid.”

Elderwood Health Plan is backed by the experience of Elderwood, a respected area health care provider for more than 30 years, and by parent company Post Acute Partners, operating more than 20 health care communities in New York, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island.

For more information, call Elderwood Health Plan toll-free at 1-866-843-7526 or visit the website at www.elderwoodhealthplan.com.

HELP FOR HOMEOWNERS IN FORECLOSURE New York State requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully. SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the Summons and Complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the Summons and Complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York state Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department’s website at www.banking.state.ny.us

FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS Be careful of people who approach you with offers to “save” your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner’s distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services. Section 1303

NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this Summons and Complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the Summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF (MORTGAGE COMPANY) AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.
