

Debut at the Zoo

The names of the three African lion cubs born on May 12th will be announced when they make their public debut at the Zoo this Saturday.

The Buffalo Zoo is thrilled to announce that this Saturday, August 6th, its three newest lion cubs will be joining big brother Tobias to make their official public debut when Zoo gates open at 10 am. The cubs, one male and two females, were born to first-time mother Lusaka and second-time father Tiberius on May 12th of this year. Along with the public debut this weekend, the Zoo will be announcing the names of each of the cubs. In considering a methodology for their naming, Zoo Director of Marketing Todd Geise stated that "it's a bit of a unique situation to have three cubs to name all at once and we wanted participation from many sources." As a result, the Bikes are available throughout the city including several locations in North Buffalo, like this one on Hertel Avenue near North Park Avenue.

Independent Health and Shared Mobility Inc. launched the new Reddy bikeshare program in the City of Buffalo. Independent Health President and CEO Michael W. Cropp, M.D., Shared Mobility CEO Michael Galligano, Buffalo Mayor Byron W. Brown, and the Reddy bikeshare team led an inaugural group ride around Delaware Park. The 200-bike fleet of the "smart" bikes, all equipped with GPS capabilities, are available in more than 30 stations around the city. "We are proud to support yet another initiative that encourages exercise and recreation in our region, while also providing an alternative means of green transportation, boosting the local economy and further advancing the revitalization of Buffalo," said Dr. Cropp.

Youth Basketball Leagues Forming

Healthy Buffalo is bringing Boys & Girls Youth League play to the North Buffalo Community Center this September. This will be an exciting opportunity for boys and girls ages 8 and under in the community. With the combined support of sponsors, the North Buffalo Community Center and some special guest coaches, Healthy Buffalo will offer a youth basketball experience like no other for a family friendly price of just $20 per child ($25 after August 31st).

The program will run for eight weeks, with 45 minute practices on Wednesday nights from 5:30 pm to 7:45 pm and 50 minute games on Saturday afternoons from 1 pm to 3:30 pm. All players will receive a custom made Healthy Buffalo jersey and expert instruction from former Timon and Holy Angels Academy coach Fran Snyder, Sr. Special guest coaches and basketball trainers will be brought in throughout the season. The league will have online stats, standings, photography, highlight videos, team pictures, a season ending banquet, awards, and much more. This is a great way for your children to have a fun, memorable experience and provide them the foundation to develop into healthy, active kids and great basketball players.

PHOEBE

Sponsored By The Buffalo Rocket

Hey Hey Hey!!!! Phoebe here! I am a happy, peppy, pretty, tomboy-ish kind of girl. I love to run in the yard. I love to run after toys. I love to smile and run around. I love to go for walks and check things. I love to go for a jog. I love the outdoors. I am actually on the more petite side, and won't get much bigger. I know how to sit, and will patiently sit waiting for someone to throw me a toy. The shelter kennel isn't a good place for me because my energy gets pent up too quickly. I am all about exploring the world and happily being around my human friends. I would excel at training classes and would really appreciate the structure that it would give me. I hope to find my forever home real soon so that I can become the dog I really want to be. Thanks for checking me out. Hope to meet you soon!!! Pet ID: 31142699

Lion Cubs Make Debut at Zoo

corporate sponsor will be naming the male cub as a courtesy of it and Mr. Rich's generosity; the keeper staff will name one of the female cubs; and, the general public will be able to weigh-in on three name choices for the remaining female through an online survey found on the Zoo's social media pages. "Our visitors are important to us and we are committed to engaging them whenever possible. Like the gorilla baby naming earlier this year, this is yet another opportunity to involve the public," Geise added. All three names will be revealed at 11 am on Saturday at the lion exhibit. African lions are classified as vulnerable in the wild by the International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN). The U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service classifies the African lion as threatened. Loss of habitat and poaching are among the key causes of this classification. Every cub born and successfully reared will make a difference. The Buffalo Zoo is proud to have four contributions to this effort this year.

Bikeshare Program Launched

Galligano said Reddy rack locations were chosen based on public feedback gathered from the "Get Reddy Buffalo" campaign conducted this past spring as well as criteria such as available space, pedestrian traffic, population density, and each site's vicinity to bike infrastructure and transit options.

"More than 800 votes were logged both online and in person with considerable public appeal for specific locations including Delaware Park, Broadway Market, Buffalo Museum of Science, the downtown Buffalo & Erie County Public Library, and RiverWorks as well as Canalside and the Allentown and Elmwood Village neighborhoods," said Galligano. "Riders will be able to pick up Reddy bikes at all these locations and plenty more." Mayor Brown said, "The launch of Buffalo's new Reddy bikeshare program is yet another step in making our city more bike-friendly for both our residents and visitors. With over 30 new bike stations being placed throughout the city, this program will give people additional healthy options to get around our city. I recently had a wonderful bike ride at Rails to Trails, and I'm pleased I was able to participate in the group ride around Delaware Park. I hope those riding the new "smart" bikes will enjoy the many trails, parks and bike lanes that the City is continuing to invest in to improve the quality of life for all." Reddy bikes allow riders the flexibility to park at any public bike rack within city limits with three different parking options. Free parking zones - located on Elmwood Avenue, Allen Street, downtown on Main Street as well as at the Broadway Market and the Buffalo Museum of Science. In these zones, riders can park at any Reddy rack or public bike rack for free. Preferred parking zones - available for the rider's convenience to drop off a bike closer to their destination. Reddy racks outside of the free parking zones will cost a rider $.25 to park. Public bike racks - riders will also have the freedom to park at any other public rack within the city limits for a small fee of $2.00. All membership passes are now available for purchase through the SoBi mobile app or online at www.reddybikeshare.com.

WAS YOUR CHILD LEAD POISONED?

If your child has been diagnosed with an elevated blood lead level, he or she may have a claim for damages.

Children living in older homes owned by landlords who fail to remove chipping, peeling, or deteriorated paint are at high risk for lead poisoning. Since 1995, the attorneys at Lipsitz & Ponterio, LLC, have represented lead-poisoned children exposed to lead paint in single and two family homes, apartment complexes, and public housing throughout Western New York. We have sued many negligent landlords and collected millions of dollars for our clients seriously injured by swallowing lead paint chips and dust. Fun to a "T"

It was a night of fun for close to 200 boys and girls who played in the T-Ball divisions of the Hertel North Park Youth

Baseball League this season. There were three big bounce houses set up in the outfield of a big league diamond in Shoshone Park last month for all four and five year olds to play in while they waited for a hot-dog and drink. It sure was a welcome change from almost two months of learning to hit a baseball off an upright rubber tube.

Bounce houses in the outfield kept kids entertained while they waited for their hot dogs and drinks at the T-ball party in Shoshone Park.

But that's exactly what happened. Smiles were all around afterward as North Buffalo parents took their children home from a two hour party, for the many who have joined this North Buffalo League for the first time.

Each boy and girl met their coach again and posed for pictures or got some helpful advice. Next year, they'll be back, ready to show off what they've learned. There were Dodgers and Yankees, Pirates and Athletics, Reds and Orioles, Blue Jays and Tigers. There were even Grasshoppers, Little Bisons and Hornets in the Continued on next page crowd, all having a good time with their parents and their teammates.

“My kids all had a good time,” said Rob, a Twins coach. “They all improved over the season and got better. My son Easton learned a lot. We’ll be back.”

Andrew Correa brought his five year old son, Elliott to the party. The boy wore his Yankee jersey again as proof of his play but all he wanted to do was use the Park’s monkey bars and slide to have a good time.

“This was his first year to play,” said Correa. “I was impressed by his coach, who took the time to teach him how to hit. I’m very happy.”

After getting a hotdog and drink for free at the stand, coaches handed each boy and girl their first trophy for having participated in the T-Ball division. A Cardinals team was very happy for a chance to thank their coach. A proud father spoke highly of Hertel North Park. “Where else does someone go in order for their son or daughter to play baseball?” he asked. “My son Henry enjoyed himself. I couldn’t always make it to a game because of my schedule, but he learned a lot and coach Juan was great.”

“This is our future,” said one board member afterward. “This was our 60th season and we’re obviously doing something right. There’s no reason why we can’t keep this going for another 60 years. It’s been a great season.”
