Lexington Cooperative Market poured the inside foundation of its second store on Wednesday, March 1st. This kicked off the final phase of construction, as the community-owned natural foods market moves towards a mid-summer opening. This expansion project began more than two years ago when some 300+ community investors raised more than $2 million to fund the project in just six months. Ahead of pouring of the foundation, Lexington Co-op asked its shoppers and staff to write “love notes” and well wishes as it sets out on this exciting new adventure. These notes will be placed inside the foundation of the store as it is poured.

This will forever cement the community’s involvement and dedication to bringing a natural foods co-op to North Buffalo. “This is truly a grassroots project,” said Tim Bartlett, the Co-op’s General Manager. “The community funded this new store, and now we’re thrilled to cement their hopes and

Reunion: Chess

John Cage was the world’s most notoriously twentieth century experimental composer. Marcel Duchamp one of the most controversial artists ever who challenged the very notion of ‘what is art?’ On March 5, 1968, a legendary performance took place in which a game of chess determined the form and acoustical ambiance of a musical event at the Ryerson Theatre in Toronto, Canada.

La Festa di San Giuseppe

St. Joseph’s Day is about giving thanks for our blessings and sharing bounty with those in need. The tradition began centuries ago in Sicily after a drought had left the island in famine and the residents prayed to St. Joseph, the patron saint of Sicily, to relieve the drought. The drought ended, a bountiful harvest ensued and landowners invited neighbors to their homes to share in the bounty. St. Joseph is also the patron saint of the Diocese of Buffalo and St. Joseph Cathedral. St. Anthony Padua Church, 160 Court Street, celebrates the Feast of St. Joseph “La Festa Di San Giuseppe” on Sunday, March 19th beginning with mass at 11 am immediately followed by offering a traditional St. Joseph Table in the Parish Center Hall. Parking is free. In observance of Lent, there will be a variety of traditional meatless dishes served. For tickets and more information, please call the parish at 854-2563 between 9 am and 1 pm.

Sabres Season Comes Crashing Down

With three consecutive losses over four days it is now safe to start shoveling dirt onto the 2016-17 season. Coming out of the league mandated bye week, it was expected the team would be sluggish so their 5-3 loss Saturday in Colorado was not unexpected. The high elevation and thin air in Denver makes it challenging for visiting teams but there are ways of dealing with that. Combined with the five days of no practicing it was too much to overcome.

A loss in Phoenix on Sunday and the manner in which the Sabres surrendered a 2-0 lead was especially galling. Rasmus Ristolainen who wears the label “number one defenseman” just handed the puck to Max Domi player in the slot for an easy goal. This started the Desert Dogs on a three goal surge in the last 13 minutes culminating with the winning goal by Radim Verbata with just 18.9 seconds remaining. Verbata’s long slapper was through a screen which Sabres defenders Zach Bogosian and Dmitri Kulikov did little to rectify. Bogosian actually skated into and bowled over his own goaltender shortly before the shot.

Sabres players know the home team will push harder after falling behind by two but did little to match the increasing intensity of their opponent. “We let them come at us a little bit too hard. We were a little too passive in the neutral zone and they came at us with a ton of speed.” said coach Dan Bylsma in writing the seasons obituary.

The mood in the Sabres locker room following the loss was reportedly one of resignation with the players largely silent, knowing that they had failed to generate even a single point in the standings against the leagues two worst teams. They returned to Buffalo and lost another 2-0 lead falling to Nashville 5-4 on Tuesday at the Keybank Center. In overtime with a 4 on 3 power play, they misfired on six consecutive shots including three Jack Eichel attempts which were all blocked before the winning goal from Filip Forsberg.

The Preds commitment on that penalty kill illustrates a season long problem for Buffalo, the players are not willing to pay the price in bruises to keep opponents from getting shots on goal. The next game you watch, keep notes on every Buffalo forward who blocks a shot. You won’t need much ink. And when you do find one, it will probably be someone like Justin Bailey, a young player trying to establish himself, not one of the veterans. The Sabres have given up far too many shots against this season, a total of 2,151 for 34.1 per game both ranking 30th and dead last in the league. It’s just not good enough.

Justin Bailey: A Sabres forward who will block shots

GOVERNOR

This handsome 3 year old shepherd mix is Governor. Governor was adopted from us not too long ago and recently surrendered due to no fault of his own. This sweet guy is a bit confused as to why he is at the shelter. Governor has a mild temperament and is on the shy side. He needs a home who will give him plenty of patience, structure and love to develop his confidence and independence. We do recommend a home without young kids for Governor as he can be timid and overwhelmed by too much activity and also tends to guard his food. Governor's perfect forever home would be one that is quiet and calm where he can relax and where his wonderful personality can bloom. If you think you can provide that loving home for him, come meet him at the shelter.

dreams into the foundation." The new store at 1678 Hertel Avenue will be 10,000 square feet and feature a large parking lot, six registers, and an indoor café. The aisles will be fully stocked with the staples of fresh produce, sustainable meats, natural foods, local products, and an expansive line of house made soups, sandwiches and baked goods that Lexington Co-op shoppers have come to love.

Lexington Co-op's flagship store will remain at 807 Elmwood Avenue. Over the past year this location sold more than $14 million out of its 4,500 square foot storefront and returned 56 cents of every dollar spent there to the local economy.

Between both the Elmwood and Hertel locations, Lexington Co-op is currently hiring, hoping to fill 40 more than positions over the next few months.

Reunion

Principal chess players were Cage; Duchamp and his wife, Alexina (Teeny). A chessboard was designed by composer/media artist Lowell Cross; in which every move on the chessboard signaled a change in sound distributed to eight speakers and created by composers David Behrman, Gordon Mumma, David Tudor and Lowell Cross.

The Burchfield Penney Art Center at SUNY Buffalo State in collaboration with the Institute for Electronic Arts and National Casting Centre at NYSCC, Alfred University will co-present a homage to this spontaneous musical event. Reunion: Chess will open Friday, March 10th in The Center's Project Space and be on view through Sunday, June 25th.

Gallery visitors will be encouraged to play on one of four unique chess sets designed and made by sculptors Karen Donnellan and Coral Penelope Lambert. The exhibition will include archival video footage of Cage and Duchamp altered: colorized, wobblized, inverted, distorted et al by Buffalo-based multimedia and electronic artist Bill Sack whose contributions will also include technical design and musical composition.

In the spirit of Cage, new music was commissioned to include works by Jacob Carpenter Morris; excerpts from Train Tracks and Harpsichord Remix (2013) by Marc Thorman; and Please, Wait (2013) by Lynn Wright for Sack's version of Reunion: Chess (2013); Cage's composition Chess Pieces (1943) originally created for The Imagery of Chess exhibition organized by Duchamp, Max Ernst, and Julien Levy at the Julien Levy Gallery in New York (1944/45) unites the new version with the old.

About the Burchfield Penney Art Center Established in 1966 on the campus of SUNY Buffalo State, the Burchfield Penney Art Center is dedicated to the art and vision of renowned American watercolorist Charles E. Burchfield (1893–1967) and the distinguished artists of Western New York State.

HELP FOR HOMEOWERS IN FORECLOSURE New York State requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself. SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE. The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid, there are government agencies, and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with our lender during this process. To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline maintained by New York State Banking Department at 1-877-Bank-NYS or visit the Department's website at www.banking.state.ny.us FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS

Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.

Section 1303 NOTICE YOU ARE IN DANGER OF LOSING YOUR HOME If you do not respond to this summons and complaint by serving the copy of the answer on the attorney for the mortgage company who filed this foreclosure proceeding against you and filing the answer with the court, a default judgment may be entered and you may lose your home. Speak to an attorney or go to the court where your case is pending for further information on how to answer the summons and protect your property. Sending a payment to your mortgage company will not stop this foreclosure action. YOU MUST RESPOND BY SERVING A COPY OF THE ANSWER ON THE ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF MORTGAGE COMPANY AND FILING AN ANSWER WITH THE COURT.
